PREFACE TO SECOND EDITION.

MUCH progress has been made in bankruptcy administration since 1910; the law has become better understood and appreciated by the community at large and its machinery brought to work more smoothly; the Supreme Court has, in a number of notable decisions, cleared up many mooted questions and pointed the way to a broad interpretation of the statute as opposed to such narrow construction of a remedial statute as would deny redress for failure to observe and distinguish with minute discernment and precision whether the remedy by review would lie in a particular instance under sections 24-a, 24-b or 25 of the Act. So also the Circuit Courts of Appeal have shown a leaning toward the same broad policy in widening as far as possible the time limit for proof of debt and in allowing amendments of informal proofs after expiration of time limit.

On the other hand the practice which has lately grown up in large commercial centers of allowing an assignee in the State Court, presumably of the debtor's own selection, to administer an estate after the filing of the petition in bankruptcy against the debtor has, in the opinion of the writer, proven in actual practice, in a majority of cases, detrimental to the interests of creditors, and it is sincerely to be hoped that the Courts in this respect will return to the original conception of the purpose and intent of the Bankruptcy Act.

The sudden death from accident of Mr. Thomas Alexander, the co-author of this work, removed from the Federal Court of New York City a man of comprehensive knowledge of Federal law and of practice and procedure under the Bankruptcy Act and his loss is much regretted.

The present edition has followed in the main the lines and arrangement of the former edition with such corrections and changes as have been deemed expedient or made necessary to accord with present practice. The first edition was published just at the time the amendments of 1910 became effective and before the practice thereunder had become settled. Many additional forms have been added and the notes greatly extended to comprise the large number of decisions reported in the last six years. Editorial notes have been added, also the rules in bankruptcy of many other districts. A convenient time table of Procedure showing the time allowed for the performance of various acts required in bankruptcy practice with the appropriate reference to the Statute, Rules or General Orders has been added as a new feature, and it is believed will prove useful.

The author desires to express his grateful acknowledgment to Mr. Alexander Gilchrist, Jr., and Mr. William Tallman, Clerk and Deputy Clerk of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York for their valuable advice in the compilation of the present volume and to those members of the profession who have so kindly contributed new forms or made suggestions for the improvement of the book.

NEW YORK, September, 1916.

PREFACE TO FIRST EDITION.

THE object of this work is primarily to furnish bankruptcy practitioners, referees, receivers and trustees with a working collection of forms and precedents useful in ordinary practice under the Act. Owing to the great diversity of construction, usage and practice in bankruptcy in various parts of the United States, it is not possible, nor would we attempt to furnish a set of forms or precedents which would be acceptable in all jurisdictions, nor to meet the exigencies of every case. The official forms prescribed by the Supreme Court of the United States have been found inadequate to the needs and methods of modern practice, and several have been held by the courts insufficient and demurrable. However, we have retained and included all of the official forms which are still used and found suitable for their purpose in a district where there is a large and complicated bankruptcy business, as e. g. in the Southern District of New York. These forms are designated by the word "Official" under their respective numbers to distinguish them from the other forms which are merely offered as suggestions or precedents derived from long experience in various phases of bankruptcy practice. We have endeavored to obtain, so far as possible, forms which have been passed upon by the courts and stood the test of judicial approval. Many forms have been obtained from other members of the Bar, to whom we acknowledge our great indebtedness. As regards arrangement, it has seemed wise to collect the forms under a system of titles in somewhat logical sequence; a feature which has not, so far as we know, heretofore been attempted in any bankruptcy treatise. The amendments of 1910 have made some radical changes in the law necessitating certain changes also in the forms, and these changes are indicated or suggested to the pleader.

A secondary object we have hoped to obtain is to furnish a concise compendium of decisions and authorities to date in the form of notes appended to the forms, wherever applicable. The Bankruptcy Act in complete form as this year amended is also included, with that portion covered by the amendment indicated by italics. Another section is devoted to the General Orders of the Supreme Court in Bankruptcy, with annotations thereon.

Finally we have collated and included the local, "Rules in Bankruptcy" of many of the important centers throughout the country, and this feature should prove a great convenience to practitioners.

NEW YORK, September, 1910.

THOMAS ALEXANDER.

General Orders IV, V, VI, XI.

See Local District Rules.

Petition and schedules in voluntary proceedings should be drawn and verified in triplicate and filed always with the clerk.

In re Sykes, 6 Am. B. R. 264; 106 Fed. 669.

In re Wolf, 2 Am. B. R. 322; 94 Fed. 110.

Must be accompanied by fees or affidavit in forma pauperis.

Filing of a voluntary petition not an act of bankruptcy, merely institutes a proceeding in which the Court acquires jurisdiction to adjudicate, if the facts warrant.

In re Ceballos & Co., 20 Am. B. R. 459; 161 Fed. 445.

Jurisdiction attaches at once upon the filing of the petition. A caveat to all the world. In re Billing, 17 Am. B. R. 80; 145 Fed. 395.

Adjudication will be granted where voluntary petition sets forth the jurisdictional requirements. In re Carbone, 13 Am. B. R. 55.

A voluntary petition which schedules no dischargeable debt may be dismissed.

In re Colaluca, 13 Am. B. R. 292; 133 Fed. 255.

An adjudication in voluntary bankruptcy takes effect as of date the petition is filed so that the title of the trustee to property relates back to that date.

Crowe v. Baumann, (D. C. N. Y.), 27 Am. B. R. 100; 190 Fed. 399.

Who may file voluntary petition. Since Amendment of 1910, any person except a municipal, railroad, insurance or banking corporation.

Debtor owing but one provable debt, and with no assets may file.

FORM No. 5.

VOLUNTARY PETITION OF PARTNERSHIP, ALL PARTNERS NOT JOINING.

To the Honorable

Judge of the District Court of the United States,

for the District of

The petition of, and, of the of, in the County of, in said district, by occupation respectively and, respectfully shows:

That your petitioners and are and have been partners under the style of, which partnership has had its principal place of business at the of, in the County of, in said district, for the greater portion of the six months next immediately preceding the filing of this petition; and that said partnership is insolvent and owes debts in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

That your petitioners as individuals each owes debts which he is unable to pay in full.

That such partnership and your petitioners are willing to surrender its Power to adjudicate.—Residence and domicile distinguished: “A domicile once acquired is presumed to continue until it is shown to have been changed. Where a change of domicile is alleged the burden of proving it rests upon the person making the allegation. To constitute the new domicile two things are indispensable: First, residence in the new locality; and, Second, the intention to remain there. The change cannot be made except facto et animo. Both are alike necessary. Either without the other is insufficient. Mere absence from a fixed home, however long continued, cannot work the change. There must be the animus to change the prior domicile for another. Until the new one is acquired the old one remains.”

clerk in the office of attorney for petitioning creditors herein.

That on the day of, 19...., the above named bankrupt was duly adjudicated by an order entered in the office of the clerk of this Court.

That thereafter on the day of, 19...., deponent personally served the said bankrupt with a certified copy of said order of adjudication at No. street, in the City of

That deponent knew that said person so served by him was the bankrupt herein.

That deponent is informed and verily believes that numerous demands have been made upon the said to file his schedules in bankruptcy in order that the administration of this proceeding may not be delayed, but that these demands have not been complied with and the said bankrupt continues to neglect to file his schedules, and should be adjudged in contempt of the orders of this Court.

That the reason an order to show cause is asked for herein is because the time is too short for notice of motion for the next motion day, and the administration of this estate ought not to be longer delayed.

Sworn to before me this day of,

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE THEREON.

[Title.]

Upon reading the annexed affidavit of verified the day of, 191..., and sufficient reason appearing therefor, it is Ordered that the above named bankrupt show cause at a term of this Court appointed to be held in the Court House in the City of...

..... on at o'clock in the noon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court for failure to file schedules and why such other and further relief should not be had as may be just and proper.

Service of a copy of this order and affidavit shall be sufficient by service upon said bankrupt on or before the day of,

PETITION TO VACATE ADJUDICATION AND DISMISS VOLUNTARY PETITION FOR WANT OF JURISDICTION.

United States District Court,

..... District of

IN THE MATTER	}	No.
OF
..... Bankrupt.

To the District Court of the United States,

for the District of

The petition of respectfully shows and alleges:

1. That he is a creditor of the above named having a provable claim for in the sum of $.....

2. That on the day of, 19 ..., the said filed his voluntary petition in bankruptcy in this Court and on said day was adjudicated a bankrupt and the proceeding referred to Esq. one of the referees in bankruptcy in this district.

3. That such order of adjudication and reference was erroneous and should not have been made as this Court is entirely without jurisdiction to adjudicate the said a bankrupt for the reason that the said does not now reside nor has he resided for the greater portion of the six months next preceding the filing of his said petition, within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court nor has he had his domicile or principal place of business therein; but resides and has resided at in the District of and the statements of in his said petition as to his residence by which this Court assumed jurisdiction to adjudicate him a bankrupt, are entirely false and untrue.

4. That the facts as alleged herein by petitioner were ascertained as follows :

5. That the adjudication herein was made as a matter of course upon the filing of the petition and without any opportunity to creditors to be heard in opposition thereto.

Wherefore petitioner prays that the order or adjudication of as a bankrupt dated be vacated and his petition in bankruptcy be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction and for such other relief as may be just and proper.

PETITION TO VACATE ADJUDICATION IN INVOLUNTARY PROCEEDING.

United States District Court,

for the District of

In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER

OF

No.

.....
Bankrupt.

To the District Court of the United States,

for the District of

The petition of respectfully shows and alleges :

First. That he resides in the City of, State of Second. That your petitioner is a creditor of said bankrupt and his claim is based upon the following facts:

.....

Third. That heretofore and on or about the day of ....., 19..., your petitioner instituted an action in the Court of County against the above named alleged bankrupt, as defendant. That said action was brought to recover the sum $....., and on the day of ....., 19..., adjudg-ment was rendered in said action in favor of petitioner.

Fourth. That an execution upon the said judgment was duly issued to the Sheriff of County, the said judgment having been duly docketed in the office of the Clerk of County. That said execution was duly levied upon the real property of the said defendant.

Fifth. That on ....., 19..., a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed in this court against the above named and a receiver appointed. That thereafter an alleged adjudication was made therein in which the said was declared a bankrupt. The said receiver has made a demand upon the Sheriff to deliver over to him all the property of heretofore levied upon under the execution obtained by petitioner upon his said judgment.

Sixth. That your petitioner is informed and verily believes that the aforesaid petition in bankruptcy filed herein did not set forth the jurisdictional facts required under the Bankruptcy Act, and is defective and void, and insufficient to confer jurisdiction upon the court to proceed therein. That the said petition and subpoena required to be served upon the bankrupt by law, were never in fact properly served upon the said bankrupt, as required by law to obtain jurisdiction over the said bankrupt, and that the purported service of the same upon the said was illegal and void, in that said petition and subpoena were alleged to have been served outside of this district, and not upon the bankrupt personally nor by publication. That the bankrupt had absconded and left the jurisdiction. That this court never in fact, acquired any jurisdiction whatever in the said bankruptcy proceeding, and the alleged adjudication was for that reason without jurisdiction and void.

Seventh. That no previous application for this order has been made.

Your petitioner therefore prays that an order be granted herein, vacating and setting aside the alleged adjudication in bankruptcy herein, vacating the appointment of the receiver herein and all proceedings heretofore had, and dismissing the petition heretofore filed herein.

REPORT OF RECEIVER.

United States District Court,
for the District of :
In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER	}	No.
OF
. Bankrupt.

To the United States District Court,
for the District of :

I,, do hereby make and file my report and account as temporary receiver of the estate of the above named bankrupt:

1. I was appointed receiver herein on the day of 19 . . ., and required to file a bond in the penalty of ($.). Having been notified of my appointment, I obtained a certified copy of the order thereof, and filed my bond in the penalty required, and in company with the attorney for the petitioning creditors, I visited the premises of the bankrupt, No. Street, I there met and interviewed, the secretary of the company, and others. Subsequently other officers of the alleged bankrupt arrived at the premises, and after consultation with attorney, turned over the premises to me. I placed a custodian in charge of the premises and took possession of the books, etc., I found that the bankrupt was a corporation, engaged in the manufacture and sale of I had a long consultation with the officers of the company and with various large creditors, in regard to the advisability of continuing the business, inasmuch as the company had on hand orders to be executed, amounting to about $., and a large supply of material. I also learned that the company had been accustomed to obtain advances upon all its invoices and that almost all of the accounts due the company had been assigned for these advances. That upwards of $. of book accounts had been so assigned and no estimate could be then formed as to what, if any, equity the alleged bankrupt might have in said accounts.

I finally decided that it would be of advantage to the estate to apply for an order authorizing me as receiver to continue the business for a period of twenty days, with leave to apply for a further extension, if desirable. I directed the custodian to take an inventory of all the property and sent all of the outstanding insurance policies to the various companies for transfer of interest.

2. On, 19 . . ., I obtained an order allowing me to continue the business for a period of days. I called an informal meeting of the creditors to meet at the bankrupt's premises, attended at the said meeting and remained in consultation with the attorneys and creditors for a considerable period. Also had consultations with the attorneys for the bankrupt company and, attorneys for creditors. I made a careful examination of the stock on hand and of the books, employed an expert accountant and obtained a general idea of the condition of the business. Revised and reduced the payroll as much as possible. I made arrangements with a number of supply houses to sell goods on credit and had various interviews with credit men.

On, 19 . . ., I obtained the consents of creditors representing a majority in amount of claims, for an order extending my time to run the business for an additional twenty days, inasmuch as there were a large number of unfilled orders yet on hand and an order was signed to that effect. Subsequently I verified a petition for the appointment of appraisers and for a sale. On, 19 . . ., an informal meeting of creditors was held on the bankrupt's premises, for which I prepared a detailed statement of the general condition of the business.

That in carrying on the business of the bankrupt company it was necessary for me to devote a large amount of time to the details of the said business and to visit the premises of the bankrupt frequently. That I employed about persons, including the factory, office and sales departments and the weekly payroll averaged $. to $. That at the time I commenced to carry on the business, there were about $. in orders on hand and I subsequently obtained about $. additional orders. That as receiver I purchased merchandise and supplies, amounting to about $., as shown in Schedule B, hereto annexed.

I, manufactured, filled and shipped all of the orders above mentioned, which were deemed profitable to fill. Annexed hereto is my verified account as receiver, showing receipts and disbursements in the conduct of the business. The merchandise and plant were sold at public auction pursuant to order of this court.

I have received no compensation for my services as receiver and in conducting the business of the bankrupt under the order of this court and I hereby state my statutory compensation at the sum of $.

Wherefore, I respectfully pray that my said account be passed as filed, that suitable allowances be made to, my attorneys and to the duly appointed appraisers and compensation by way of commission to myself as receiver, and for carrying on the business of said bankrupt, and that I be discharged as receiver herein.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated, 19...

IN THE MATTER OF ..... Bankrupt.	}	In Bankruptcy No.....
--	---	------------------------------

To the Honorable,.....

Judge of the above named Court:

I,, one of the Referees in Bankruptcy, to whom, as Special Master, have been referred the report and account of, as receiver herein, together with the application of the said receiver for an allowance in payment of his services and disbursements as such; and also the application of, for an allowance in payment of his services and disbursements as attorney for the said receiver; and also the application of,, and for an allowance for their services as appraisers appointed by the court to appraise the estate of the bankrupt in the hands of the said receiver, due notice having been given to the creditors herein as required by the rule of this court, having been duly attended by the parties and creditors and having heard and considered the allegations and proofs, do hereby respectfully report as follows:

I was duly attended, upon the hearings herein, by, the said receiver and by, his attorney, by, the duly appointed trustee in bankruptcy herein and certain creditors. No objections were made or filed to the account of the said receiver.

I have carefully examined the said report and account, together with the vouchers submitted in support thereof, and find the same in all respects correct and true, and recommend that same be passed and allowed as filed.

The petition was filed herein on the day of, 19... The bankrupt was adjudicated on the day of, 19... The said temporary receiver was duly appointed, 19..., and immediately qualified and took possession of the bankrupt's property and effects. was appointed trustee, 19...

The bankrupt was engaged in business as a and had places of business, one at, and another at both in the City of The receiver, pursuant to order of the court, sold all the property of the bankrupt found in the stores mentioned at public auction. The gross amount realized from this sale was $..... From this the auctioneer deducted, for his services and disbursements, the sum of $....., leaving as the net result of the sale, $..... This is all that the estate has as yet recovered, although it appears that the receiver and his attorneys believe that further sums may be recoverable.

A summary account of the receiver's cash is as follows: He has received in all the sum of $..... and he has disbursed in all the sum of $....., leaving a balance in his hands of $.....

I think that the receiver discharged all the duties required of him as such in a satisfactory manner. His attorney also acted with diligence in the discharge of the duties required of him. Much of the services shown by the receiver's attorney consists of examination of the bankrupt and others, for the purpose of discovering assets and obtaining evidence upon which to base proceedings for the recovery of property believed to have been wrongfully taken from the estate. These services seem to have been rendered with diligence.

I, therefore respectfully recommend that the said receiver make the following disposition of the funds in his hands:

1. That he shall retain in full compensation by way of commission for his services as receiver as aforesaid, the sum of $....., and in addition thereto, the sum of $..... for disbursements, in all the sum of $.....

2. That he shall pay to, for his services as attorney for the said receiver, the sum of $....., and in addition thereto the sum of $..... for his disbursements, making in all the sum of $.....

3. That he pay to each of the appraisers herein, the sum of $..... in full compensation for services as such, making in all$.....

4. That he shall pay to the undersigned, Special Master, in full compensation for his services and disbursements in this proceeding, the sum of.....$....., and that having made the aforesaid payments, he shall pay over the amount then remaining in his hands to, as trustee in bankruptcy herein, and that upon making such payments, the said be discharged as such receiver, and his bond cancelled.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Company, as trustee under the mortgage dated, 19..., made by, bankrupt, to said company, appearing herein specially for the purpose only of opposing the application of, as receiver of the above named bankrupt, for leave to issue receiver's certificates to the amount of $....., and making same a first lien on the property and plant of the said alleged bankrupt, answers the petition of said receiver, as follows:

I. It denies that it has any knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to any of the allegations contained in the paragraphs of said petition numbered

II. Further answering said petition and as further and separate defense thereto, the Company, as trustee, shows and alleges:

1. That it is a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of, duly authorized to take and hold in trust the property conveyed to it by the mortgage hereinafter referred to.

2. That by an indenture dated, 19..., of which a copy is herewith submitted to the court, to which reference is hereby made as if the same were herein set forth at length,, the bankrupt, conveyed to Company, as trustee, the property and franchises therein described, in trust for the equal pro rata benefit and security of all and every the holders of the bonds and interest coupons issued and to be issued under the said mortgage or deed of trust, and to enforce the payment thereof when payable in accordance with the true intent and meaning of the stipulations of the said indenture and of the said bonds and coupons, and without preference of the said bonds over any others thereof by reason of priority in the time of issue or negotiation thereof, or otherwise howsoever.

3. That said indenture of mortgage constitutes a lien upon all of the property and franchises which said then owned and upon all the personal property which it thereafter acquired, to secure the issue of bonds therein described, and as such lien it was given and accepted in good faith and not in contemplation of or in fraud upon the bankruptcy laws of the United States, and for a present consideration and said mortgage or deed of trust was duly recorded according to law.

4. That said Company is not a party to the above entitled proceeding and respectfully urges that this court is without power to displace the lien of the said mortgage for the security of the bonds issued and outstanding thereunder by authorizing the receiver above named to issue receiver's certificates which shall be a lien upon all the property and assets of the company prior to the lien of the mortgage above referred to.

Wherefore, Company, as trustee under the said mortgage dated, 19..., respectfully prays that the petition of the said receiver be denied.

PETITION BY BANKRUPT FOR REVIEW OF REFEREE'S ORDER ON EXEMPTIONS.

In the District Court of the United States for the District
of

In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER	}	No.....
OF
..... Bankrupt.

To, Esq., Referee in Bankruptcy:

Your petitioner respectfully shows:

That he was adjudged a bankrupt herein on the day of, 19..., and that a trustee of his estate was in such proceeding subsequently appointed.

That such trustee, on the day of, 19..., filed a report of exempted property herein, and that, on the day of, 19..., an order was entered determining your petitioner's claim to exempt property, as stated in such report

That such order was erroneous, for the following reasons:

Wherefore, your petitioner, feeling aggrieved because of said order, prays that said trustee's report and the said order be reviewed, as provided in the Bankruptcy Law of 1898 and General Order XXVII.

Dated, 19...

.....,
Bankrupt.

PETITION FOR MEETING OF CREDITORS TO INDEMNIFY TRUSTEE.

United States District Court,

for the District of

In Bankruptcy.

.....
Bankrupt.

To, Esq., Referee in Bankruptcy.

The petition of respectfully shows to the court:

1. That your petitioner is the trustee in bankruptcy in the above entitled proceeding, having been duly appointed such trustee on the day of, 19..., and having thereafter duly qualified by filing the required bond, and is now acting as such trustee.

2. That your petitioner, through his attorney, conducted an examination of the bankrupt and his wife, and based upon the testimony adduced at such examination, brought an action in the court, County, for the purpose of setting aside certain preferential transfers. That your petitioner was also substituted as party-plaintiff in an action pending in the Supreme Court, County against: said action being for an accounting with reference to the partnership heretofore existing between the said and the bankrupt herein. That your petitioner has been ordered by the court in this proceeding to file security for costs, and cannot proceed with said action until same has been filed.

3. Your petitioner has no cash nor assets, other than said claim, in his hands, and feels that he should be indemnified both as to such security already demanded and for his costs and expenses in carrying on this litigation, and your petitioner believes and has been advised by counsel that the sum of $....., which should be furnished before requiring petitioner to proceed further with the litigation, would be a just and equitable indemnity.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that a meeting of creditors be called herein and that said creditors be cited to show cause why they should not furnish proper indemnity to the trustee, or why your petitioner should not be permitted to discontinue the aforesaid actions in the event of the creditors failing to indemnify him in the amount above set forth.

FORM No. 170.

PETITION THAT ALL CLAIMS TO SECURITIES, ETC., BE FILED AND REFERRED.

United States District Court,

for the District of

In Bankruptcy.

.....
Bankrupt.

To the Honorable Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District of

The petition of respectfully shows to this Court and alleges:

1. That heretofore and on, 19.., a petition praying that the above named be adjudged an involuntary bankrupt was filed in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of

2. That thereupon, your petitioner was duly appointed temporary receiver of the goods, assets and effects of said bankrupt, and duly qualified as such by filing a bond, as required by this court, which was duly approved, and he thereupon entered upon the performance of his duties and has continued to perform the same.

3. That thereafter, such proceedings were duly had that an order of adjudication was made and entered herein on, 19.., and the proceedings herein were duly referred to, Esq., one of the referees in bankruptcy.

4. [That thereafter, such further proceedings were duly had before said, Esq., that your petitioner herein was duly appointed trustee in bankruptcy herein, and duly qualified as such by filing his bond with said referee, which was thereupon duly approved, and he thereupon entered upon the performance of his duties as such Trustee, and has continued to perform the same.]

5. That subsequent to, 19.., to-wit; on or about, 19.., your petitioner received certain stocks, bonds, securities and other assets from the firm of and that since, 19.., your petitioner has likewise received from other sources various stocks, bonds, securities and other assets, against which claims are made.

6. That your petitioner believes that it will be inadvisable and improper to sell and distribute such stocks, bonds, securities and other assets so received by him since, 19.., until all rights in and to the same shall have been ascertained and determined.

7. Your petitioner therefore asks that the annexed order to show cause may be granted.

8. No previous application for the annexed order to show cause has been made to any Court or Judge, and the reason the same is now asked for is, that it is desired to have the Court determine this matter at the earliest possible date, and that this Court should determine the method of service hereof, and your petitioner suggests that service may be made by publication of the annexed order to show cause, for the following reasons:

(a) The bankrupt herein has creditors, as appears by his schedules herein, in excess of in number.

(b) The said creditors are located in many other states of the United States, and service other than by publication is impracticable.

(c) Your petitioner also suggests that as a preliminary measure, this petition and the order to show cause be served on all known creditors.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays for an order to show cause:

1. Directing creditors of the above named bankrupt and all persons, firms and corporations, interested herein, to show cause before this Court why an order should be made herein directing said persons, firms and corporations to file their claims against said stocks, bonds, securities and other assets, or the proceeds thereof, received by the petitioner herein from the firm of, or from any source, subsequent to, 19.., if any such claim they have, on or before a day to be fixed by this Court.

2. Directing that the said claims so made, if any, be referred to Esq., the referee herein, for hearing, testimony and report.

3. Directing that any and all creditors, persons, firms and corporations, claiming such stocks, bonds, securities and other assets, or the proceeds thereof, who shall not file claims as aforesaid, be forever barred from making or claiming any such title or ownership to the said stocks, bonds, securities and other assets, or the proceeds thereof, and why the petitioner herein should not have such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and proper.

CERTIFICATE OF REFEREE FOR ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION TO ATTORNEY FOR TRUSTEE (SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK).

United States District Court,
..... District of:
In Bankruptcy.

.....
Bankrupt.

To the Honorable Judges of the United States District Court, for the Southern District of New York:

I,, referee in bankruptcy, in charge of this case do hereby certify as follows:

That the bankrupt herein was a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of, and having its principal place of business at No. street, in the Borough of, city of, where it was engaged in the manufacture and sale of..... That said company was duly adjudicated a bankrupt on the day of, 19.., and on the day of, 19.., at the first meeting of creditors held before me,, was elected trustee and duly qualified. That on the day of, 19.., the said trustee filed his final account with the vouchers in support thereof and on said day,, attorney for said trustee filed with me an application for allowance for his services as such attorney and praying for additional compensation. Due notice was given to all of the creditors herein of a meeting to consider such application and pass on the trustee's account. That such meeting was duly held at my office on

....., 19.., and no objections were made or filed to such account.

The trustee in his final account charges himself with having received a total of $. and credits himself with having disbursed the sum of $., leaving in his hands a balance of $.

That the commissions of the trustee herein amount to the sum of $.

That it appears by the petition of, the attorney for the trustee, that he has acted continuously as such attorney, from, 19.., to date, a period of more than years, and has brought a suit against and others, to recover assets in large amount alleged to have been diverted from said corporation prior to the adjudication, and concealed. That such suit was instituted in the Court of and resulted in a substantial recovery for the estate. That the amount of time employed by counsel in the conduct of this suit may be summarized as follows:

That this involved the preparation of the bill in equity, taking out of commissions to take testimony in various states, preliminary motions and the actual trial of the case on the day of, resulting in a decree in favor of the trustee upon which the estate realized the sum of $.

That it also appears by the petition of said attorney for the trustee that he conducted a lengthy examination of the officers of the bankrupt and other witnesses at the first meeting of creditors and adjournments thereof before the referee and also special examinations under orders obtained upon application under section 21-a, involving days of attendance before the referee.

It also appears that the said attorney collected the outstanding accounts entailing correspondence with debtors in various parts of the country; that he investigated a pending suit of the bankrupt against in, and advised the trustee with reference to same.

He also brought proceedings on behalf of the trustee to re-examine different claims filed in the referee's office, each of which was an independent proceeding, and are set forth in detail in the attorney's petition with the ultimate disposition of each proceeding. These re-examinations involved an unusual amount of time and work for the trustee's attorney and were of substantial benefit in reducing the amount of claims presented against the estate.

He also prepared petition and order for sale of bankrupt's effects and bill of sale thereon, and the various reports and final account of the trustee. He also rendered the general and ordinary services of the attorney for the trustee. That in view of the facts presented and the amount of services rendered, I am of the opinion, that the sum of $. which is the maximum amount that may be allowed by the referee is inadequate compensation for the services rendered and that the attorney for the trustee herein,, is entitled to receive for his services as such attorney a sum in excess thereof and is granted permission to apply to the Court for such additional compensation as to the Court may seem proper.

That this certificate is made in pursuance of Rule 8 of instructions to referees in bankruptcy.

PETITION BY RECEIVER FOR EXAMINATION UNDER SEC. 21-a BEFORE SPECIAL COMMISSIONER.

United States District Court,
 District of:
 In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER OF Bankrupt.	}	No.
--	---	----------

To the District Court of the United States,
 for the District of:

The petition of respectfully shows and alleges:

1. That on or about the day of, 19.., a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed by certain creditors against the above named bankrupt and on said day your petitioner was duly appointed temporary receiver in bankruptcy and has duly qualified and is now acting as such receiver. (That an order of adjudication was entered herein on the day of, 19..)

2. That the assets belonging to the estate consist of the following:

 and your petitioner has had considerable difficulty in collecting and obtaining possession of same; and although he has endeavored to ascertain the exact condition of this property and other matters pertaining to the bankruptcy proceedings from the bankrupt, he has been unable either to get possession of the books, or to acquire sufficient information to enable him to proceed with the collection of the accounts and other matters pertaining to the administration of the estate.

3. That of and of were employees of (or had business relations with) the bankrupt and your petitioner believes have certain information of value to the administration of this estate.

4. That without an early examination of the designated persons, concerning the acts, conduct and property of the bankrupt whose estate is in process of administration, your petitioner fears he will have great difficulty in collecting the outstanding accounts, recovering property and otherwise properly administering the estate.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays for an order, under Section 21-a of the United States Bankruptcy Act, requiring and to appear before a special commissioner of this court and be examined concerning the acts, conduct and property of the bankrupt whose estate is in process of administration.

PETITION FOR APPRAISAL AND SALE BY RECEIVER AFTER ADJUDICATION UPON SEALED BIDS.

United States District Court,
for the District of :
In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER OF ..... Bankrupt.	No.....
--	----------------

To the Honorable Judge of the District Court of the United States:

for the District of ;

The petition of, respectfully alleges and shows:

1. That on, 19..., he was duly appointed receiver in bankruptcy of the estate of the above named bankrupt and required to file a bond in the penalty of $.; that thereafter he filed his bond in the penalty required, and has continued to act and is still acting as such receiver.

2. That, the bankrupt above named, was engaged in business in the City of; that upon qualifying as receiver, your petitioner took charge of the above named premises and all the assets therein contained; that by the order appointing your petitioner receiver herein, he was authorized to continue the business for a period of days from the date thereof; that in pursuance of the authority so vested in your petitioner, he continued to carry on the business of the bankrupt upon the above premises. That the assets of the bankrupt, so far as your petitioner has been able to discover, consist of the following property contained in the premises, City of,

3. That the said was duly adjudicated a bankrupt on the day of, 19...; that some time must necessarily elapse before there can be a first meeting of creditors, election of a trustee and a sale by such trustee: That the business at present is being conducted at a loss and in the opinion of your petitioner is not profitable; that it would be a mistake to allow the assets, belonging to the estate herein, to remain unsold until same could be sold by a trustee, and that such delay would involve great loss and expense to this estate, inasmuch as the value of the estate depends upon keeping the business as a going concern and the property is rapidly deteriorating in value.

4. That your petitioner verily believes that it would be for the best interests of the estate in his charge, that the assets belonging to the estate herein be sold at this time, as the court may direct; that your petitioner verily believes the best method of sale of the assets in his charge, would be to advertise for sealed bids for the entire business, equipment, good-will and unexpired term of the lease; that the said bids be opened on a day and time certain; that if the bids received are less than the appraised value, or if equal to the appraised value, but not satisfactory to your petitioner, that your petitioner sell said stock and fixtures at public auction within a few days thereafter, such period to be designated by the court; and that the creditors of the above named bankrupt, as they may appear on the schedule of creditors now on file herein, may receive such notice as the court may direct, and that such other notice may be given, as your petitioner may deem necessary and proper.

Wherefore, your petitioner would respectfully pray that he be authorized to sell the assets of the said bankrupt, now situated at, together with the good-will of the business and the unexpired term of the lease of the said premises, at private sale upon sealed competitive bids or at public auction, under such terms and conditions as this court may direct.

House, City of, on the ..... day of, 19...

Present:

Hon.,
District Judge.

IN THE MATTER OF Bankrupt.	}	No.
--	---	----------

Upon the petition, adjudication and all the proceedings herein, and upon the annexed petition of, receiver of the estate of the above named bankrupt, verified the day of, 19...., and upon motion of, attorney for the said receiver, it is Ordered, that, and, three disinterested persons, be, and they are hereby appointed appraisers, to appraise the property, assets and effects in possession of the receiver herein; that they forthwith enter upon their duties as such appraisers, and after taking the oath required, file such appraisal in the office of the clerk of this court, And it is further ordered, that all the property, assets and effects of the bankrupt above named, now in the possession of the receiver herein, situated at, (together with the good-will of the business of the said bankrupt, and the unexpired term of the lease of the said premises,) be sold to the highest bidder at private sale, on written competitive sealed bids, for a sum not less than the appraised value thereof, if in the opinion of the said receiver the said bid is the best that can be obtained therefor; or if the property be not so sold, then that the property be sold at public auction for a sum not less than seventy-five per centum of the appraised value, and according to the rules of this court. And

It is further ordered, that the said receiver mail notices of said sale to all the creditors of the said bankrupt, known to said receiver or as they may appear on the schedule of the said creditors, now in possession of the said receiver, and to all such dealers as he may think advantageous, offering a reasonable opportunity to inspect said property and for written bids to be sent to him therefor; and the said notices shall also state that the said bids will be opened by the said receiver on a day and at an hour and place to be fixed by him, and that creditors may then attend and consider the bids, which notices shall be mailed at least five (5) days prior to that time; and that such notices shall further notify the creditors or other parties that if the receiver shall reject all bids submitted to him, the said property shall then be sold at public auction, according to the rules of this court, at a time and place fixed by the receiver, and such notices of sale shall be published in the five days before the sale and on the morning of the sale, and in such other paper or papers as to the receiver may seem desirable and proper.

PETITION FOR SALE FREE AND CLEAR OF LIENS.

United States District Court,
 District of:
 In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER OF ..... Bankrupt.	No.
---	-----------------

 for the District of:

The petition of respectfully shows and alleges:

First: That your petitioner was heretofore and on the day of, 19.., duly appointed the trustee in bankruptcy of all of the property of the above bankrupt and has duly qualified as such by filing his bond in this court in the sum of $..... conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, and is now acting as such trustee.

Second: That your petitioner has taken possession of all the property of the said bankrupt which includes the following described real and personal estate located at the Town of, County,
 State of

All that certain tract or parcel of land, with the buildings thereon erected and all machinery connected with or attached to said building and property, situate in the Town of, County of and State of, bounded as follows:

Together with all and singular, the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging to the said property; and the reversion, remainders, tolls, income, rents, issue and profits thereof including all chattels, fixtures, furnishings, machinery, tools and every other estate, right, title and interest, property and appurtenances of the said

Third: That heretofore and on the day of, 19.., an involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed herein against the above named bankrupt, and theretofore and within four months prior to the date of the filing of the said petition, to wit, on the day of 19..., the said bankrupt for and in consideration of the alleged sum of $....., made, executed and delivered a certain bond and mortgage covering all of the above described property, to, [a corporation organized under and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of]

Fourth: That the said alleged bond and mortgage were, as your petitioner is informed and does verily believe, executed and delivered under the following circumstances:

That on the said day of, 19.., and for a considerable period prior thereto, the said bankrupt above named was insolvent and that his property at a fair valuation was insufficient to pay all of his debts in full, which said debts, as your petitioner is informed and does verily believe, did on said day of, 19.., and prior thereto, aggregate the sum of about $.....; and that all of his assets of whatsoever kind, character, nature or description, did not exceed in value the sum of about $.....

Fifth: That on said day of, 19.., the said bankrupt was indebted to in the sum of $....., which said indebtedness consisted of two promissory notes in writing, made, executed and delivered by to, each for the sum of $.....

Sixth: That on said day of, 19.., the said notes of $....., due on that day, were not paid by the said bankrupt, and were thereupon duly protested for non-payment by the said, on which said day, as your petitioner is informed and verily believes, the said knew and had reasonable cause to believe that the said, was insolvent and unable to pay his debts; and that thereafter and on the day of, 19.., well knowing that the said, was insolvent and having good and reasonable cause to so believe, and without any present fair consideration, and as security for an antecedent indebtedness, he did accept and take the said bond and mortgage for the said sum of $..... on said real and personal property hereinbefore mentioned and described.

Seventh: That heretofore and by order of this court, all of the said property hereinbefore mentioned and described, was duly appraised at the sum of $....., and as your petitioner is informed and does verily believe, the said property if sold by your petitioner subject to the said mortgage of $., above mentioned, will not realize any equity whatsoever by reason of the fact that the said property is not worth the amount of the said mortgage and that no one interested in property of this character would purchase said property subject to it.

Eighth: That your petitioner proposes to institute legal proceedings in this Court to declare void and of no effect, the said mortgage and to have the same annulled and cancelled as of record, upon the ground that under and by virtue of the terms and conditions of the Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy, the giving of the said mortgage was preferential as security for an antecedent indebtedness and for no present fair consideration passing at the time of the execution and delivery thereof; and upon the further ground that the said mortgage constituted a preference by reason of the fact that at the time that the said bond and mortgage were executed and delivered, the said receiving the same, knew and had reasonable cause to know and believe that the said bankrupt was insolvent.

Ninth: That your petitioner has examined and caused to be examined,, and other witnesses, to all of which testimony your petitioner upon the hearing of the application herein made begs leave to refer and from which said examination the facts as hereinbefore alleged do more particularly and at length appear.

Tenth: That your petitioner in the performance of his duties as said trustee, is desirous of immediately disposing of all of the property of the bankrupt herein, and in order so to do most advantageously to the interest of the creditors of the said bankrupt, does verily believe that the said property should be sold free of and from the lien of the said mortgage of $., which said mortgage in detail covers the said property as hereinbefore described, and which was made, executed and delivered on said day of, 19.., by the said, bankrupt herein, for the said sum of $., and which was thereafter and on the day of, 19.., duly recorded in Liber of Mortgages at page in the office of the clerk of the County of, State of

Wherefore, your petitioner does respectfully pray this Honorable Court that an order be made herein, requiring, mortgagee to show cause before this court at a time and place to be stated, why an order should not be made and entered herein, directing that all of the property mentioned and described in the petition herein and covered by the said mortgage herein referred to, be sold by your petitioner as trustee of the said bankrupt, at public auction and in the manner prescribed by the Acts of Congress relating to Bankruptcy, and the General Orders of the Supreme Court of the United States, free of and from the lien of the said mortgage and why the proceeds arising of and from the sale of the said property should not be held by your petitioner subject to the lien of the said mortgage, to all intents and purposes as though the said property had not been sold, subject to the final order, judgment and decree of this court, or the final order, judgment and decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, as to the validity of the said mortgage and why your petitioner should not have such other and further relief as to this Honorable Court may seem just and proper.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Bankrupt.

To the Hon....., District Judge.

The petition of, respectfully shows:

That your petitioner is the receiver herein, duly qualified and acting.

That on, 19.., by order of this court, the property and effects of the said bankrupt at St., City of ....., consisting of, were offered for sale at public auction.

That the same was offered in bulk at the beginning of such sale and a bid of $..... was made for the same, and that the goods were then offered for sale in separate lots according to catalogue, and realized the sum of $. or more than the bid in bulk.

That the said sum of $. realized, is below 75% of the appraised value of the property, which is $. and in order to deliver said property to the purchasers, it is necessary for your petitioner to procure an order confirming said sale.

Your petitioner is of the opinion and verily believes that a larger sum than as above stated cannot be obtained, as the sale was largely attended and fairly conducted, and advises that the said goods be delivered to the respective bidders, for the reason that said merchandise will rapidly deteriorate in value, and the expense attendant upon storing the goods for a longer time, or of a resale, would be considerable, and unlikely to produce better results, and petitioner verily believes that the sale should be confirmed.

Wherefore, your petitioner respectfully prays that an order be made confirming the said sale, and authorizing him to deliver the said merchandise as sold in lots to the respective highest bidders therefor and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and proper.

....., being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is the Secretary of Company. That said Company has made a motion for the modification of an injunction order herein, so as to render available its remedies under a chattel mortgage held by it against the bankrupt's estate. That the papers on said motion other than those on file herein are hereto annexed. The deponent makes said papers part of this application in the same manner as if here set out in full. That on, 19..., deponent received a notice of sale of the estate of the above named bankrupt including the property covered by the said mortgage, which sale is to take place on the day of, 19.... That the Company has a subsisting right to enter into the possession of the chattels covered by the said mortgage and foreclose the said mortgage. That the order of which the Company desires a modification prevents any interference with the estate of the bankrupt, and has therefore prevented the Company from enforcing its remedy as against the said mortgaged chattels; that the motion to permit the Company to enforce its claim is returnable on the day of, 19..., which date is after the time for which the sale of the bankrupt's estate by the trustee is noticed to take place; that if the trustee of the said bankrupt is permitted to offer the chattels covered by the mortgage of the Company for sale, the said chattels may be removed from the place in which they are now located and the remedy of Company, by foreclosure or otherwise, greatly impaired, if not entirely lost; that the said chattel mortgage held by Company contains a license to the mortgagee to enter into the premises and take possession of the said mortgaged property after breach of the condition of the mortgage; that if the said property is sold by the trustee on the date fixed, the Company may be unable to assert its remedy of entering into possession. That the notice of the proposed sale by the trustee mentions no liens or encumbrances upon any of the chattels to be sold and does not purport to give notice of a sale of the equity of redemption merely, or of the chattels subject to the lien of the mortgage or the title of Company. That the condition of the mortgage held by said Company having been broken, the title to the mortgaged chattels became and is now absolute in Company subject only to a possible equity of redemption belonging to the bankrupt or his trustee. That no notice of application by the trustee for leave to make the sale has ever been given to the mortgagee, its successors or assigns, and that the proposed sale, so far as it affects chattels covered by said mortgage, is unauthorized by law and in violation of the rights and title of Company. That Company has not consented and does not consent to a sale by the trustee free of its title and lien, or subject thereto. That if a sale were effectually made by the trustee in one lot or in separate pieces free of said Company's claim and title, there would probably arise a large deficit and the rights of the Company would be greatly impaired. That if a sale were effectually made subject to the interest of Company, the value of the mortgaged chattels would be greatly depreciated, and in deponent's judgment the chattels would be rendered unsalable, and if removed from the premises by separate purchasers the remedy of Company would be greatly impaired if not wholly destroyed.

Deponent therefore applies for an order of this court restraining and enjoining Esq., trustee herein of the said bankrupt, his attorneys, agents or servants, from selling any of the property of the said bankrupt mentioned in the said mortgage held by Company and on the premises of the said bankrupt.

PETITION TO MODIFY INJUNCTION.

United States District Court,
for the District of
In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER OF ..... Bankrupt.	}	No.....
---	---	---------

To the Honorable Judge of the District Court of the United States for the ..... District of

The petition of respectfully shows:

1. That on or about the day of, 19.., your petitioner ....., being then the owner in fee of certain parcels of land in the City of, with the buildings thereon, known as No.
....., Street, duly leased the said premises by an instrument in writing to, the bankrupt herein, for a term of years, at the yearly rent of dollars ($....) to be paid in equal monthly payments in advance on the first day of each month in the said term, which the said lessee,, in and by said lease agreed to pay, and the said in and by said lease also agreed, as additional rent for the said premises, to bear, pay and discharge all taxes and assessments of every nature and kind which might during said demised term be assessed, levied, confirmed or imposed upon said premises, or any part thereof, and also all such taxes, rents or charges as should during such demised term be charged, levied or imposed upon said premises, or any part thereof, whether such rents or charges constitute liens upon the real estate or not, and that the payment of each and every tax and assessment assessed, confirmed, levied or imposed upon said demised premises should be made to the proper officer constituted by law to receive the same within thirty days after the date when such payment would be received by such officer, and that if any such taxes or assessments should not have been paid within the time so provided, that the said lessor might himself pay the same, together with any interest or penalty that might have accrued thereon, and that the amount so paid by said lessor should become due and be payable by the said lessee with the next monthly, or any other subsequent instalment of said rent which should become due after such default on the part of the said lessor.

2. That the said duly entered into the occupation of the said demised premises under the said lease and still remains in the occupation thereof, except as hereinafter stated.

3. That on the first day of, 19.., there was due to your petitioner under and by virtue of said lease, the sum of dollars ($....), being the monthly instalment of the said annual rent of dollars ($....) which fell due on the said first day of, 19.., for the month of, 19.., and the further sum of dollars, additional rent, being the regular annual tax imposed or levied upon the said premises for the year 19.., which the said, failed to pay as provided in and by the said lease, and which your petitioner himself paid, as provided in said lease, as hereinabove stated and which sum by the terms of the said lease accordingly fell due to your petitioner from the said on the day of, 19....

4. That payment of the said sums so due and payable has been duly demanded since the same became due; that no part thereof has been paid and your petitioner, being still the owner in fee of the said premises, desires to institute proceedings under the laws of the State of to dispossess the said and all his under-tenants and each and every person in possession of the said premises or claiming possession thereof by or through the said, or his under-tenants, assigns, legal representatives or otherwise, which proceedings it is proposed to institute in the Court of the City of, where the said premises are situated.

5. That your petitioner is informed and believes that on or about the day of, 19..,, Esq., was appointed herein receiver of the entire assets, estate, property and business of the said bankrupt,, and that in and by the order appointing the said such receiver, said receiver was directed to take immediate possession of such assets, and all persons were thereby restrained from interfering with the control and possession of the said estate by the said receiver in any manner whatsoever; that, as your petitioner is informed and believes, the said receiver, assuming to act under the said order, is now in possession as such receiver of the said premises covered by the lease hereinabove described, and your petitioner is advised by counsel that the said receiver, and any trustee in bankruptcy of the said, who may hereafter be elected or appointed herein during the pendency of said dispossess proceedings, are necessary parties to said dispossess proceedings, and that before instituting such dispossess proceedings, it is necessary for your petitioner to obtain an order from this Honorable Court granting leave to him to make such receiver and trustee parties to such dispossess proceedings and modifying the injunction contained in said order of, 19.., for the purpose of enabling dispossession proceedings to be brought and executed.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that an order be entered herein authorizing and permitting him to institute and prosecute such dispossession proceedings, with leave to make the said receiver and any trustee in bankruptcy of the said, who may hereafter be appointed or elected herein during the pendency of such dispossession proceedings, parties thereto, and modifying the injunction contained in the order of,, 19.., herein, by permitting the institution and prosecution of such dispossession proceedings.

And petitioner prays for such other and further relief as may be necessary in the premises.

REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER ON SPECIFICATIONS.

United States District Court,
for the District of:
In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER	}	No.
..... Bankrupt.

To the Honorable, Judge of the District Court of the United States in said District:

I, the undersigned, referee in bankruptcy, to whom as special master the issues upon the specifications herein were duly referred, to ascertain and report the facts, respectfully report as follows:

That the said issues were brought on for hearing, and I was attended upon said hearing by the counsel for the opposing creditor and the counsel for the bankrupt, and that testimony was adduced thereon, the stenographic minutes of which are herewith filed. That the specifications were filed on behalf of, a creditor, and are substantially as follows:

1. That the said bankrupt knowingly and fraudulently concealed from his trustee, etc., property belonging to his estate in bankruptcy, to an amount of about $....., alleged to have been realized by him from the sale of stock bequeathed him.

2. That he knowingly and fraudulently concealed, etc., other property belonging to his said estate in bankruptcy, consisting of his salary of $..... per year, paid to his wife and alleged to have been held by her for said bankrupt.

3. That he knowingly and fraudulently made false oath in these proceedings in omitting from his schedules, the above mentioned property.

4. With intent to conceal his true financial condition and in contemplation of bankruptcy, he destroyed certain records, etc.

5. That with like intent and in like contemplation, he failed to keep books of account, etc.

6. Knowingly and fraudulently made false oath in omitting from his schedules $. alleged to have been in his possession or under his control.

The testimony shows, in substance, that in or about the year, the bankrupt received by bequest the following:

that he disposed of said property from time to time and received therefor about $. The bankrupt testified as follows:

The bankrupt's wife testified as follows:

Findings of Fact.

The only witnesses produced were the bankrupt and his wife, and their testimony is uncontradicted. There is therefore, no direct evidence that any other disposition was made of the property than to which the bankrupt testified, and the claim that that amount or any considerable part of it, is still in the bankrupt's possession seems to rest chiefly upon the improbability of their testimony. No attempt was made to contradict the statement of losses in stock speculation by calling the broker through whom said speculations were had, or other witnesses. The bankrupt's account in the Bank tends to corroborate his testimony, showing, as it does, that he expended over $. between, 19.. and, 19.., during which period he had no source of income excepting this bequest, and his stock speculations.

I recall nothing in the testimony before me which would justify a finding of fact that any part of the proceeds of this property is in the hands of the bankrupt and concealed from his trustee, and the same remark applies to the sum of $. or less which the bankrupt received as the proceeds of real estate devised to him by his father.

I am confirmed in this opinion by the statement in the schedules in which of the total liabilities, over $. appears to have been for money borrowed by the bankrupt, and with the exception of $. borrowed by the bankrupt during the year 19. . . .

In regard to the payment of the bankrupt's salary to his wife, the testimony of both the bankrupt and his wife is as follows:

The bankrupt did not, it appears, keep books of account, but inasmuch as the testimony shows that prior to his present employment, he was in no business, and that in his present employment on a salary there seems to be no occasion for keeping a set of books, I do not think his failure to keep such books can be considered as militating against his discharge.

So also as to the alleged destruction of the books referred to in the fourth and fifth specifications; while the bankrupt admits that he destroyed some memoranda of stock transactions, I see no evidence from that fact, or elsewhere in the testimony before me, of any intent on his part to conceal his true financial condition by so doing.

Conclusions of Law.

For the foregoing reasons, I am of the opinion that the specifications have not been sustained, and that the bankrupt is entitled to his discharge.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

..... (Alleged) Bankrupt.

....., of, a creditor and person interested in the estate of, the above-named (alleged) bankrupt, does hereby oppose and object to the confirmation of the composition offered by said (alleged) bankrupt, and, for grounds of such opposition and objection, does file the following specifications:

I. That said composition is not for the best interests of the creditors herein, on the ground that the assets belonging to this estate properly handled and administered will pay a considerably larger dividend to creditors and for that reason the proposed composition should not be confirmed.

II. That the (alleged) bankrupt has been guilty of acts which would be a bar to his discharge, in that he has, etc.

[Here set forth specifically such acts.]

III. That the offer and its acceptance are not in good faith, because of the fact that:

[Here set forth acts or conduct complained of.]

NOTES.

Specifications of objection.

Only grounds available are those set forth in Sec. 12 (d).

In re Rudwick, 2 Am. B. R. 114; 93 Fed. 787.

Must be definite and certain and in the language of the Act.

Should be framed with great precision, with averment of facts, not conclusions.

FORM No. 307.REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER ON SPECIFICATIONS OF OBJECTION TO COMPOSITION.

United States District Court,
for the District of:
In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER	}	No.:....
OF
..... Bankrupt.

To the Honorable Judge of the District Court of the United States, for the District of:

I,, to whom as Special Master, the issues raised by the specifications filed by, creditors, objecting to the composition offered by the bankrupt herein, and accepted by a majority in number and amount of his creditors, were referred by this court, for examination, testimony and report, do respectfully report as follows:

The matter came on to be heard before me upon notice of hearing served upon the attorney for the objecting creditors with admission of due and timely service.

Appearances:

....., Attorney for objecting creditors.
....., Attorney for bankrupt.

The objections contained in the specifications filed in opposition to the composition are in number:

1. That the offer is inadequate in amount and not for the best interests of creditors.

2. That there is no cash payment.

3. That the bankrupt's property is about to be put into the hands of trustees or directors, who are not required to give any bond.

4. Because the said bankrupt has committed an offense against the Bankruptcy Act in that he did, etc. [Specify nature of offense.]

[Here follows substance of report, each specification considered and separately passed upon.]

I have, therefore, come to the conclusion and report that in my opinion the objecting creditors have failed to sustain any of their objections and they should each of them be overruled, and I recommend that the composition be confirmed [or rejected upon opposite findings.]

Dated,, 19...

Respectfully submitted,

.....,

Special Master.

PETITION TO SET ASIDE A COMPOSITION.

In the District Court of the United States
 for the District of
 In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER OF Bankrupt.

To the District Court of the United States,
 for the District of:

The petition of respectfully shows to this court and alleges:

1. That he is a creditor and party in interest herein, whose claim has been duly filed and allowed in this proceeding.

2. That on the day of, 19.., the bankrupt herein, after he had been examined before the referee, duly offered a composition in said proceeding to his creditors upon the following terms and conditions:

That said offer was thereafter duly accepted by petitioner and other creditors of said bankrupt, upon the terms and conditions as offered and on the day of, 19.., the said composition was duly confirmed by the District Judge in the manner and form as offered and accepted.

3. That said composition was offered and accepted and confirmed upon statements that all the creditors should share equally in said composition and receive the same pro rata amounts upon their said several claims.

4. That since the entry of the order confirming said composition and within a period of six months thereafter your petitioner has discovered that statements upon which the said composition was procured were false and untrue and that fraud was practised by the said bankrupt in procuring the said composition in the following particulars: [here allege specifically the fraudulent acts of bankrupt by which it is claimed the composition is vitiated.]

5. That all of the above facts and circumstances were not known to petitioner prior to the confirmation of the composition herein.

6. That your petitioner relied upon the representations of the bankrupt and would not have accepted said composition had he known the exact situation and the fraudulent acts of the bankrupt, as above stated.

7. No previous application for the order asked for herein has been made.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that the said composition be vacated and set aside, the proceeding reinstated and the property returned to the trustee for distribution, according to the Bankruptcy Act.

PETITION TO RECLAIM BECAUSE OF FALSE REPRESENTATIONS.

In the District Court of the United States,

for the District of

In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER

No.....

.....

Bankrupt.

To the District Court of the United States,

for the District of

The petition of respectfully shows and alleges:

First: (That your petitioner is a corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of, and having an office for the transaction of its business in the city of).

Second: That at all the times hereinafter mentioned, the said bankrupt was engaged in business in the City of as;

Third: That your petitioner is the owner and entitled to the immediate possession of the property set forth in schedule "A" hereto annexed, and made a part hereof, and that the value of said property is ($.....) dollars.

Fourth: That your petitioner further alleges upon information and belief, that heretofore and on or about the day of, 19..., an involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the office of the clerk of this Court, by three creditors of above bankrupt, praying that the said be adjudged an involuntary bankrupt, and that thereafter, Esq., was duly appointed as receiver in bankruptcy of the said, and that pursuant to the order of his appointment, he did take possession of and continues to hold the property mentioned and described in the schedule herto annexed and made a part hereof, marked "A," and that the said property is in the original piece in which it was delivered by your petitioner to the said (That on the day of, 19..., the said, was duly adjudicated a bankrupt).

Fifth: That heretofore and before the commencement of this proceeding, due demand was made by your petitioner upon the said, Esq., Receiver, that he deliver possession of the said goods, wares and merchandise in said schedule "A" mentioned to your petitioner, but that said demand has been refused.

Sixth: That heretofore and at various times between the day of and the day of both dates inclusive, said, upon false and fraudulent representations, induced your petitioner to sell and deliver to him the said goods, wares and merchandise mentioned and described in said schedule "A" hereto annexed, and the said wrongfully, fraudulently and with intent to defraud your petitioner and knowing that your petitioner relied upon the truth of the representations so made, procured the said property to be delivered to his custody.

Seventh: That at the time that the said goods were so delivered to the said by your petitioner as aforesaid, and at the time that the said false and fraudulent representations were made as aforesaid, the said was insolvent and unable to pay his debts in full to his knowledge, and made false and fraudulent representations with intent to cheat and defraud your petitioner, and so knowing his insolvency as aforesaid, induced your petitioner to sell and deliver the said merchandise as aforesaid with the intent and design not to pay therefor when the term of credit upon which the same had been sold should have expired.

Eighth: Your petitioner further alleges that the false and fraudulent representations, the truth of which he relied upon, and which induced him to sell and deliver the said merchandise as aforesaid, are as follows, to wit:

That heretofore and on or about the day of, 19..., the said, did make, sign and deliver a written statement of his financial condition to in the City of, wherein he did state that he had merchandise on-hand on the day of

..... to the value of $.....; outstanding accounts of $.....; fixtures of the value of $.....; and cash on hand and in bank of $....., or a total of assets of $..... and did further state that his liabilities amounted to the sum of $..... and that he was worth over and above all his debts and liabilities the sum of $.....

Ninth: That your petitioner obtained the said statement previous to the sale and delivery of the said merchandise in said schedule "A" mentioned; and as your petitioner is informed and does verily believe, the said did deliver the said signed statement as aforesaid to petitioner for the purpose of obtaining credit, and that your petitioner relied upon the truth of the representations therein contained.

Tenth: Upon information and belief, that the aforesaid representations were false and untrue, in that the said did not have on theday of, the assets as heretofore alleged and stated by him in said statement, of the total value of $....., and owed in liabilities a sum in excess of the liabilities as hereinabove alleged and by him in said statement specified of $....., and that the said did not have a surplus over and above all of his debts and liabilities of the sum of $.....

Eleventh: That the said goods had not been taken by virtue of a warrant against your petitioner for the collection of any tax, assessment or fine, issued in pursuance of a statute of the United States, and that they have not been seized by virtue of an execution or warrant of attachment from or through whom your petitioner has derived title to the said chattels.

Wherefore, your petitioner does respectfully pray that the said Esq., as said temporary receiver herein, be directed to deliver to your petitioner the said property in said schedule "A" mentioned and described, upon your petitioner filing in the office of the clerk of this Court a bond in double the value of said property to be returned to him conditioned that in the event your petitioner fails to establish his right, title and interest in and to the said property, that then, and in that event, your petitioner will repay to the said receiver, or trustee hereinafter to be elected, the value of the said property so to be delivered to him and all costs and expenses, and your petitioner have such other and further relief, as to this Honorable Court may seem just and proper.

 State of (a certificate having been filed for the transaction of its business with the Secretary of State), as Surety, are held and firmly bound unto, as Temporary Receiver for bankrupt, and to the Trustee in Bankruptcy of the said bankrupt when elected, or their or either of their successors or assigns, in the sum of dollars [amount double value of property], lawful money of the United States of America, for which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our successors and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our seals and dated this day of in the year one thousand nine hundred and

Whereas, in the above entitled proceeding a petition was duly presented on behalf of the above bound principal praying that as such receiver aforesaid deliver to the said petitioner certain property described in the said petition; and

Whereas, an order was duly entered on the day of directing the said Receiver as aforesaid, to deliver to the said principal, or his order, certain property described in the said petition, or so much thereof as shall have come into the possession of the said receiver, upon condition that the said principal execute, acknowledge and deliver to the said as receiver, a good and sufficient bond conditioned as provided for in said order.

Now, therefore, the condition of this obligation is such, that if in case it shall be finally determined that the said principal is not entitled to the said goods above referred to, as by the final judgment or order may appear, the said principal shall well and truly pay to the said receiver as aforesaid, his successor or successors, or to the trustee who shall hereafter qualify in the above entitled proceeding, the value of the goods as agreed, namely dollars, which value is hereby agreed upon as the value of the said goods at the time of delivery, together with interest and costs, and if the said petitioner shall diligently prosecute the aforesaid petition, and the performance of any and all judgments or final orders which may be finally recovered against the said property in this court, or any appellate court, in case of appeal or review, and the said principal and surety stipulate to abide by all orders of the court, interlocutory and final, and to pay the amount awarded by the final judgment or decree rendered by the Bankruptcy Court or the Appellate Court, if an appeal or petition to review intervene, with interest.

And that a decree or judgment may be entered summarily against it as provided by Rule and upon said decree or judgment being entered, summary process of execution shall be issued against the principal and the surety by the Court in which such claim is presented to enforce the final order or decree as rendered or upon appeal by the Appellate Court, then this obligation is to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

PETITION TO DISSOLVE LIEN OF GARNISHEE ORDER AND EXECUTION UPON BANKRUPT'S EARNINGS AND DIRECTING SHERIFF TO PAY.

United States District Court,
..... District of:
In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER	} No.
OF
..... Bankrupt.

To the District Court of the United States,
for the District of:

The petition of respectfully shows and alleges:

First. That he is the trustee in bankruptcy herein.

Second. That on the day of, 19..., the above named upon his voluntary petition, was duly adjudicated a bankrupt in this Court, and on the day of, 19..., your petitioner was duly appointed trustee in bankruptcy of said bankrupt duly qualified and is still acting as such trustee.

Third. That on or about the day of, 19..., as petitioner is informed and verily believes, an execution was duly issued, pursuant to Section 1391 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of out of the Supreme Court, at the instance of one, judgment creditor, against the said salary as earned and coming due from his employer, and that same was lodged with the sheriff of the County of on said date; that under and pursuant to said garnishee order, the said sheriff has collected and still retains from his said salary, the sum of $. per week for weeks, making a total of $., since the adjudication in bankruptcy herein.

Fourth. That on or about the day of, 19..., said bankrupt obtained a stay from this Court restraining the sheriff from taking any further action in reference to said garnishee order and from paying out the amount already collected thereon and same was duly served upon the sheriff of the County of Fifth. That petitioner is informed and verily believes that the said judgment of hereinbefore referred to against said bankrupt and under which the garnishee order was obtained was based (upon a promissory note made by the said bankrupt) and is such a debt as that a discharge in bankruptcy would be a release thereto and your petitioner is informed and verily believes that the said, the bankrupt herein, has made an application for his discharge in bankruptcy and that same has been granted on the day of, 19...

Sixth. That by virtue of his appointment and qualification as trustee in bankruptcy herein and under Section 67 (f) of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898 and the amendments thereto, petitioner alleges that said money retained by the sheriff of the County of by virtue of the garnishee order aforesaid from the bankrupt's salary to the date of the adjudication herein is the property of the bankrupt's estate, said lien thereon of the garnisheeing creditor having been obtained within four months of the adjudication, and that petitioner is entitled thereto.

(Seventh. Your petitioner is informed and verily believes that said garnisheeing creditor on the day of, 19.., filed in the office of the referee herein a proof of claim based upon the same judgment under which the garnishee order was obtained.)

Eighth. Due demand for said monies has been made in writing by your petitioner upon the sheriff of the County of Ninth. No previous application has been made for the order hereinafter asked for.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays for an order dissolving the lien of the said execution of the day of 19.., and directing the sheriff of the County of to pay over to petitioner, as trustee in bankruptcy of the above named bankrupt, the sum of $....., or such amount as the said sheriff may have collected from the salary of the bankrupt herein to, 19.., the date of the adjudication, and interest thereon, less his lawful fees and expenses, as belonging to this estate in bankruptcy and modifying to that extent stay contained in the order of this Court, dated, 19.., and for such other and further relief as to this Court may seem just and proper.

Now comes and in obedience to the rule [or order to show cause] issued by this court, says that an attachment for contempt ought not to issue against him for disobedience of the order of, referee, for the following reasons:

1. He says that he cannot comply with the order of this court, because he has not the property ordered turned over or sum of money ordered by said referee to be paid to the trustee herein.
2. That the said order of said referee is not a lawful order within the contemplation of the Bankruptcy Act, or such an order, the disobedience of which would be punishable by attachment for contempt.
3. Said order is in effect a judgment directing the payment of money, and is not enforceable by proceedings in contempt.
4. Section 29-d of the Bankruptcy Act provides that such offenses as those charged by the referee in his finding, shall be punishable only in the manner prescribed therein, to wit, by information or indictment.

Wherefore said prays the court that said rule [or order to show cause] may be dismissed, and that he may be discharged.

BILL IN EQUITY TO RECOVER A PREFERENCE.

District Court of the United States,
 District of

....., as Trustee in Bankruptcy of....., Bankrupt,	} In Equity.
Plaintiff, against
..... . Defendant.

To the Honorable Judge of the District Court,
 for the District of:
, a resident of, in the State of in the district of and a citizen of the State of , brings this his bill of complaint against a resident of in the district of and a citizen of the State of and thereupon complains and says:

I. That this is a suit in equity brought by the plaintiff as trustee in bankruptcy of under and by virtue of the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898 and amendments thereof to recover a preference under Section 60-b of said act.

II. That heretofore and in the District Court of the United States for the District of, a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed by three creditors against the above named praying that he be adjudged a bankrupt and thereafter on the day of, 19.., he was duly adjudicated a bankrupt in such Court.

III. That thereafter at the first meeting of the creditors of such bankrupt duly called and held before the referee in bankruptcy in charge of such proceeding the plaintiff herein was duly appointed trustee in bankruptcy of the estate of such bankrupt duly qualified and is now acting as such trustee.

IV. That within four months prior to the date of the filing of said involuntary petition in bankruptcy against the said and while insolvent and indebted to the defendant and divers other creditors of the same class upon unsecured indebtedness provable in bankruptcy and well knowing such insolvency, the said did, within such four months' period aforesaid, make a transfer of portions of his property to the said defendant by making payments to him as follows, to wit:

[Set forth specifically.]

That said payments aggregate the sum of $.

V. Plaintiff avers that the effect of such payments by to the defendant was to enable the said defendant to obtain a greater percentage of his debt than any other creditor of said bankrupt of the same class as the said defendant and that said payments did thus operate as a preference under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898 and amendments thereto.

VI. That the said defendant received said payments and each of them knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that he was receiving a preference under the provisions of the bankruptcy act.

VII. That plaintiff has insufficient assets in his hands to pay in full the debts of bankrupt.

VIII. That on the day of, the plaintiff duly demanded of the defendant the restoration and return to the estate in bankruptcy of said preferential payments but such repayment has been refused.

In consideration whereof and for as much as the plaintiff is without adequate remedy at law,

Wherefore, plaintiff prays:

1. That the said several payments alleged herein to have been made by the bankrupt to the defendant and aggregating the sum of $. be decreed by this Court to be preferential and in violation of the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898 and amendments thereof and that the same be set aside and declared to be wholly void as against this plaintiff.

2. That the said defendant be ordered to account and to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $. the aggregate of said several payments made to him on the dates aforesaid with interest thereon from the date of such payments.

3. That the plaintiff have such other and further relief in the premises as may be just.

4. And may it please this Honorable Court to issue its subpoena directed to the said defendant commanding him on a day certain to appear and answer this bill of complaint and to abide by the orders and decrees of the Court thereon.

[Verification, if desired or if special preliminary relief is prayed.]

[For persons before whom bill may be verified see Equity Rule XXXVI.]

[Ed. Note.] Although there is abundant authority to support Bill in Equity to recover preferential payments, as above, yet it would seem proper where money judgment alone is sought and no instrument to be set aside, to frame the complaint as in an action at law.

FORM No. 343.

BILL IN EQUITY TO SET ASIDE MORTGAGE UNDER SEC. 67-e WITHIN FOUR MONTHS' PERIOD, AND WHERE PROPERTY HAS BEEN SOLD FREE AND CLEAR OF LIENS.

In the District Court of the United States,
for the District of

....., as Trustee in Bankruptcy of the Estate of Bankrupt, Plaintiff,	} In Equity. against and.....
Defendants.

To the Honorable Judge of the District Court of the United States,
for the District of

And now comes, as trustee of the estate in bankruptcy of, a citizen of the State of, and residing in the City of, and for his cause of complaint against the above named defendants, does respectfully show to this Honorable Court and alleges:

I. That at all the times hereinafter mentioned, the,
was a corporation organized under and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of, and having its principal place of business in the City of, District aforesaid.

II. That the above named defendants at all the times hereinafter mentioned were, and now are, corporations organized under the laws of the State of
....., and engaged in the business of banking, severally having their principal places of business in the City of and at,
State of

III. This is a suit in equity under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898 and amendments thereof to set aside a fraudulent conveyance under Section 67-e of said act.

IV. Plaintiff further shows that heretofore and on or about the day of, 19.., was duly adjudicated a bankrupt in accordance with the Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy in the District Court of the United States for the District of
....., on a petition praying that it be so adjudicated, filed in said Court on the day of, 19..; and that thereafter the said plaintiff at a first meeting of creditors of the said, duly called and held on the day of, 19.., at the office of ..... Esq., referee in bankruptcy, to whom the matter in said bankruptcy had been referred, was duly appointed trustee of the estate in bankruptcy of, and thereafter and on or about the day of, 19.., duly qualified as such trustee by accepting said trust and filing a bond in the sum of ($) dollars, as required by the order of his appointment, which said bond was duly approved by the referee in bankruptcy and that the said plaintiff has since acted as and now is such trustee.

V. That the plaintiff did heretofore acquire title to the property herein-after more particularly described by virtue of his appointment and qualification as such trustee and the filing of a certified copy of the order of his appointment and the certificate of approval of his bond in the office of the clerk of the County of, State of, on the day of, 19.., in which said County the said property is located and which is as follows, to wit:

[Here describe property fully.]

VI. And plaintiff further shows that by virtue of the provisions of the said Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy and amendments thereto, the plaintiff as trustee of the estate in bankruptcy of the said, became vested with all of the property of the said, of whatever kind, character, nature and description whatsoever as of the date that the said was adjudged a bankrupt, and also to all rights of action which the said creditors of the said had at the time of the said adjudication, to avoid all transfers by it made and to recover property so transferred, or its value, and to recover property transferred by it in fraud of its creditors and to recover all property or its value transferred by the said within four months prior to the date of the filing of the petition against it, or after the filing of the petition and before adjudication, if the effect of such transfer was to enable such transferee to obtain a greater percentage of his debt than any other creditor of the same class, and that the person or persons so receiving it, or to be benefited thereby, or his or their agent or agents acting therein shall have had reasonable cause to believe that the said transfer was intended to give a preference under said bankruptcy act.

VII. Upon information and belief, that on or about the day of, 19.., the said, was indebted to the defendant the, herein in the sum of ($) dollars, the, about ($) dollars, upon promissory notes made or endorsed by the, and which had been discounted by the said defendants at the special instance and request of the said

VIII. Plaintiff further shows, upon information and belief, that on said day of, 19.., and for a long time prior thereto, the said was insolvent and that while so insolvent, the said made, executed and delivered to the said defendant, the

....., a mortgage in consideration of the alleged sum of ($.....) dollars, covering all of the property hereinbefore more particularly mentioned and described, a copy of which said mortgage is hereto annexed, marked "Exhibit A" and made a part hereof, and which was thereafter and on the day of, 19..., duly recorded in Liber of mortgages, page, in the office of the clerk of the county of, State of

IX. Upon information and belief that the defendant, the claimed to have taken and received the said mortgage hereinbefore mentioned and described not only in its own interest but as trustee of and for the said defendant, the, and that the said defendant, the has or claims to have, some interest in said mortgage.

X. Upon information and belief, plaintiff does further show and allege that in truth and in fact no present consideration whatsoever was paid by the said defendants to the said, for and in consideration of the execution of the said mortgage as aforesaid, but that the said, made, executed and delivered the said mortgage to the said defendants, as aforesaid, as alleged security for said prior antecedent and pre-existing indebtedness.

XI. Upon information and belief, that on said day of, 19..., the said was insolvent and that the said defendants knew, or had reasonable cause to know and believe that the said was so insolvent and that the said defendants or their agent or agents acting for them knew and had reasonable cause to know and believe that the making, execution and delivery of the said mortgage as aforesaid was made to them by the said, in order to enable them to receive a greater percentage of their debts than any other creditors of, of the same class.

XII. And the plaintiff does further show that heretofore and prior to the commencement of this action, your orator did duly file with the referee in said bankruptcy proceedings, a petition duly verified by him on the day of, 19..., for the entry of an order directing that plaintiff as trustee be authorized and permitted to sell and dispose of all the property, hereinbefore more particularly mentioned and described, at public auction and in the manner prescribed by the Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy and the general orders of the Supreme Court of the United States, free of and from the lien of the said mortgage, and that thereafter and on the day of, 19..., an order was duly made and entered in said bankruptcy proceedings by said referee, wherein and whereby among other things plaintiff was authorized, directed and permitted to sell and dispose of said property at public auction free of and from the lien of the said mortgage.

XIII. And plaintiff does further show that thereafter and in pursuance of the provisions of the said order and by virtue of the power and authority in him vested by the Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy he did sell at public auction all of said property hereinbefore more particularly mentioned and described on the day of, 19..., at o'clock M. of that day, for the sum of dollars, and that plaintiff under and by virtue of the terms of the order so directing said property to be sold free of and from the lien of the said mortgage, holds and continues to hold the said sum of dollars, subject to the final decree of this court in this action.

XIV. And plaintiff does further show and allege, upon information and belief, that the said defendants did not pay to the said, and the said did not receive from the said defendants, any consideration whatsoever for the making, execution and delivery of the said mortgage hereto annexed, marked "Exhibit A" and made a part hereof, and that the said mortgage is fraudulent and void as against the creditors of the said, and this plaintiff, and was made, executed and delivered by, and received by the said defendants in consummation of a fraudulent scheme between the said defendants and the said, to hinder, delay and defraud the creditors of the said and the plaintiff.

XV. And the plaintiff does further show that the assets of this estate are insufficient to pay creditors in full.

In tender consideration whereof, and for as much as the plaintiff is remediless in the premises by the strict rules of the Common Law and cannot have adequate relief save in a Court of Equity where matters of this and a similar nature are properly cognizable and relieviable.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays:

1. That the said mortgage made, executed and delivered by the said, to the said defendants, dated the day of, 19..., and recorded in the office of the register of the County of, State of, on the day of, 19..., in Liber of mortgages, page, be annulled, vacated, set aside and declared void.

2. And that the proceeds realized upon the sale of the said property as aforesaid, to wit, the said sum of dollars, be declared the property of the estate of the said, and subject to the order of the District Court of the United States sitting in bankruptcy, free of and from the lien of the said mortgage, or any right, title and interest therein by the said defendants.

3. And that plaintiff may have such further and other relief and decree in the premises as to the Court may seem proper and required by the principles of equity and good conscience.

May it please your Honor to grant unto the plaintiff a writ of subpoena of the United States of America, directed to the said defendants the, and, and to such others as shall in the discretion of your Honor appear necessary to the hearing and determination of this case, commanding them on a day certain to appear and answer unto this bill of complaint and to abide and perform such order and decree in the premises as to the Court shall seem proper.

COMPLAINT IN STATE COURT TO DECLARE SECRET TRUST.

..... Court of,
County of

....., as Trustee	}
in Bankruptcy of.....,
Plaintiff,
.....
and	}
.....
Defendants.

The plaintiff for his complaint herein by, his attorney, respectfully shows to this honorable Court and alleges:

1. That heretofore and in the District Court of the United States for the district of, a petition in bankruptcy was duly filed by the above named, in which district, the said for more than six months prior to the filing of said petition resided, to be adjudged a voluntary bankrupt and proceedings were thereupon duly had on such petition, that on the day of, 19..., an order of adjudication was duly made and entered adjudicating the above named defendant, a bankrupt within the purview of the Acts of Congress, relating to bankruptcy.

2. That thereafter such proceedings were duly had in the said District Court of the United States for the district of that at a meeting of creditors of the said bankrupt, this plaintiff was duly appointed the trustee in bankruptcy of the estate, assets and effects of the said

3. That thereafter this plaintiff duly gave and filed a bond as required by law and in other respects duly qualified as such trustee in bankruptcy of the said, and is still acting as such trustee.

4. Upon information and belief that the above named defendant, is the owner of record of certain real estate, described as follows:

[Here describe property.]

5. Upon information and belief that the said real estate was purchased with the money of the said defendant,, and pursuant to an understanding and agreement then had between the said defendants, and his wife,, that the said property was to be purchased in the name of the defendant and to be held by her in trust for the use and benefit of the defendant,

6. Upon information and belief that prior to and on, 19..., when the said property was purchased in the name of the defendant,, the said was insolvent and unable to pay his debts and obligations in full.

7. Upon information and belief that the said property hereinbefore described was purchased in the name of the said defendant,, solely with the intent and purpose of cheating and defrauding the creditors of the said

8. Upon information and belief that the said defendant, is in reality and as a matter of fact, the owner of the said property, but that the said defendant,, is holding the same in trust for him under the secret understanding and agreement hereinbefore set forth, with the intent and purpose of cheating and defrauding the creditors of the said, and that the same is part of the bankrupt's estate which he has not surrendered to the plaintiff as his trustee as required by law.

9. That the assets of this estate in hands of plaintiff are insufficient to pay the debts of said bankrupt in full.

Wherefore, plaintiff demands judgment as follows:

I. That the said defendant,, be decreed and adjudged to be the true and lawful owner of the property mentioned in said complaint, and that the said defendant,, be decreed to hold the said property in trust for the said defendant,

II. That the said defendant, be directed to execute a deed of the said premises herein mentioned to the plaintiff as trustee in bankruptcy of the defendant,

III. That the said property herein mentioned be directed to be sold according to law, for the benefit of the creditors of the said, the bankrupt herein.

IV. That this plaintiff have such other and further relief in the premises as to this court may seem just and equitable, besides the costs and disbursements of this action.

property mentioned in paragraph . . of this complaint, the said owed debts to various creditors now represented by the plaintiff, as trustee aforesaid, amounting to $. or thereabouts; that some of said debts had been reduced to judgment prior to the execution and delivery of the said alleged bills of sale and said agreement; that other of said debts were reduced to judgment prior to the adjudication of said, in bankruptcy; that all of said debts remain wholly unpaid and have been proved and filed in the bankruptcy proceedings of said, and allowed by the referee in charge thereof; that plaintiff has no money or other property in his possession to pay said debts or any part thereof, and the sole asset of the estate, is the property which the plaintiff seeks to recover in this action.

V. That on or about the day of, 19.., said, bankrupt, was the owner and in possession of certain property as follows, to wit: situated at street, in the City of and State of, all of which were of an estimated value of $., or thereabouts.

VI. That thereafter and on or about the day of, 19.., the said, made an alleged bill of sale of the said goods and chattels above mentioned, to the defendant,, which alleged bill of sale was intended to and did operate as a mortgage on the goods and chattels covered thereby, a copy of said alleged bill of sale is hereto annexed marked "Exhibit A," and made a part of this complaint.

VII. That on or about the said day of, 19.., the said, bankrupt, made an agreement with the said, defendant relative to the making and delivery to the said of certain promissory notes, a copy of which agreement is hereto annexed marked "Exhibit B," and made a part of this complaint.

VIII. That on or about the day of, 19.., the said, bankrupt, made an alleged bill of sale to the defendant, a copy of which is hereto annexed marked "Exhibit C," and made a part of this complaint, purporting to be confirmatory of the alleged bill of sale and agreement hereinbefore mentioned in paragraphs VI and VII respectively of this complaint.

IX. That there was no consideration given or received for the said alleged bill of sale and said agreement of 19..; that the only consideration for the alleged confirmatory bill of sale of, 19.., was an alleged antecedent indebtedness due by said to defendant; that there was no delivery of the said goods and chattels to the defendant under said alleged bills of sale and said agreement until on or about, 19..; that the said, bankrupt, remained in full and continuous custody, control and possession of said goods and chattels up to or about, 19..; that said alleged bill of sale of, 19.., and the said agreement of, 19.., were not filed pursuant to the laws of the State of, in office of of the County of until after, 19.., and that possession of said goods and chattels was not taken by the defendant until on or about, 19..

X. That at the time of the execution and delivery to the defendant of said alleged bill of sale and agreement and at the time of the filing of the alleged bill of sale on, 19...., and at the time the defendant took possession of the property mentioned in paragraph of this complaint, the said was insolvent and owed debts largely in excess of the value of his assets, and that such alleged bill of sale and agreement aforesaid, was made, executed and delivered to, defendant, for the purpose and with intent on the part of the said of hindering, delaying and defrauding his said creditors, and of placing his property beyond the reach of his said creditors, and each of them, and the defendant so received said alleged bill of sale, and knowingly participated in said fraudulent scheme.

XI. That the assets of this estate are insufficient to pay creditors in full.

XII. That heretofore and prior to the commencement of this action, plaintiff demanded in writing of the defendant, all the property covered by said alleged bills of sale and defendant has failed, neglected and refused to deliver the said property to plaintiff.

XIII. That plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

Wherefore, this plaintiff demands judgment:

1. That the said alleged bill of sale and said agreement of the day of, 19.., and the said alleged bill of sale purporting to be confirmatory thereof, made on the day of, 19.., be each and the said transfer of property in pursuance of same, set aside, and declared null and void as made to hinder, delay and defraud the creditors of and this plaintiff.

2. That the defendant be directed to account for, transfer and deliver to the plaintiff, all of the property, heretofore received by the said, defendant by virtue of said alleged bill of sale, agreement and confirmatory bill of sale.

3. That in case the said defendant shall have disposed of said property or any part thereof, so that the same cannot be reached, controlled and delivered by the said defendant, and transferred and turned over to this plaintiff, this plaintiff have judgment for the value thereof.

4. That in case the said defendant shall have permitted said property, or any part thereof, to be injured or damaged by use or wear thereof, or otherwise, so that said property shall have in consequence depreciated in value, this plaintiff do further have and recover judgment for the amount of said damage or injury to said property as well as damages for the use and detention thereof.

5. That the defendant, be adjudged to make disclosure and discovery as to any and all of said property received by it from, bankrupt, which it now has or which it has disposed of, the whereabouts of which is concealed from and unknown to this plaintiff, in order that such property, where not in possession of said defendant, may be reached and transferred to this plaintiff.

6. That the plaintiff have such other or further order, judgment or relief as to the court may seem just and proper together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

7. That the said at the times referred to in the last paragraph, well knew that he was thus insolvent.

8. That during the said months of, and, 19.., and within four months of the filing of the said petition against the said, and while the said was insolvent as aforesaid, well knowing the same, the said communicated his financial condition to the respondent and informed the said that he, the said, owed large sums of money which he was unable to pay and would be unable to pay, and that his assets were not sufficient to meet his liabilities, and that he was in an insolvent and failing condition, and thereupon the said, well knowing the facts thus communicated, conspired with the said, and pursuant to said conspiracy, it was agreed by and between the said and the said on his own part and on the part of the said firm of, that the said should go out into the market among the merchants of the City of and elsewhere, and should buy largely upon credit from the said merchants, such merchandise as he could procure from them and to the end and purpose that the said might be enabled to purchase large quantities of merchandise from the said merchants upon credit, it was further agreed that in making the purchases the said should represent himself as a merchant of sound financial standing and of sufficient means and ability to pay therefor and should refer the said merchants from whom the said merchandise was to be thus obtained to the said for the purpose of verifying the said assertions of the said, and it was thereupon agreed that the said would, upon inquiry by said merchants or on their behalf, state and represent to the said merchants that the said was a man of sound financial standing and of sufficient means and ability to pay for said merchandise; and pursuant to said conspiracy likewise it was agreed that such merchandise as the said should thus obtain from the said merchants should not be paid for, but that the same should be immediately transferred and delivered to the said firm of, and sold by them in their business as for such prices as they might obtain and that the proceeds should be kept and secreted from the creditors of the said and from the merchants who were thus defrauded, and applied to the benefit of the said and the said and and the said firm of, all of which conspiracy and agreement, your orator avers was made and entered into with the intent on the part of the respondents to hinder, delay, cheat and defraud the creditors of the said

9. That in the months of, and and within four months of the filing of the said petition against the said and while the said was insolvent as aforesaid, well knowing the same and with the knowledge on the part of the said of the said insolvency and of the extent thereof and pursuant to the terms and stipulations of the corrupt and dishonest agreement set forth in the last paragraph, and pursuant to the said conspiracy to hinder, delay, cheat and defraud the creditors of the said and with the intent on the part of the respondents to hinder, delay, cheat and defraud said creditors of the said, the said did go out into the market among the merchants of the City and elsewhere, and did represent himself to be a man of sound financial standing and of sufficient means and ability to pay for the goods hereinafter referred to, and did represent and state to the said merchants that the respondent was one to whom he could refer as to his financial standing and means and ability to pay, and the said merchants largely did inquire of the said as to the standing and financial responsibility of the said and the said did falsely and fraudulently and corruptly state and represent to the said merchants that the said was worthy of credit, whereby and by reason whereof, the said established a large credit and procured large quantities of merchandise with the intent on his part not to pay for the same and with the knowledge of the said that he had thus procured the same with the said intent.

10. That likewise pursuant to the said conspiracy and corrupt agreement hereinbefore referred to, upon obtaining said merchandise in manner and form as above set forth, the said did, during the months of, and, 19..., and within four months of the filing of the said petition against the said and while insolvent as aforesaid, well knowing the same, transfer, assign and set over to the said firm of, and with the intent and purpose of hindering, delaying, cheating and defrauding his creditors, assets consisting largely of the said merchandise thus procured, to the extent and of the fair and reasonable value of the sum of dollars; and the said firm of received the said property of the value aforesaid with the full knowledge on the part of the said of the insolvency of the said and of the intent of the said to hinder, delay, cheat and defraud his creditors and pursuant to the conspiracy hereinbefore set forth.

11. That the said transfers were made by the said to the said to hinder, delay, cheat and defraud his creditors and wise, and the said firm of did not receive the same in good faith and did not then and there pay therefor a present, fair consideration or any consideration whatever, and the same are null and void under the National Bankruptcy Act, and amendments thereto, and null and void as against the creditors of the said by the Laws of the State of And the plaintiff avers that such property thus transferred passes, pursuant to said Bankruptcy Act, to the plaintiff and brings this his bill to reclaim and recover the same for the benefit of the creditors of the said

12. And plaintiff avers that the assets of the said in his possession as trustee are not sufficient to pay the creditors of the said the amounts due them and that the said creditors and the plaintiff are without adequate remedy at law without the equitable intervention of this court, unless this court shall in furtherance of a decree which plaintiff seeks, declare the said transfers to the respondents to have been null and void. To that end therefore the plaintiff prays:

I. That the said respondents and, be made respondents to this bill and compelled to answer each and every allegation therein contained but not under oath which is waived, as fully as if directly interrogated as to each.

II. That it may be decreed and adjudged that the transfers of the said property made by the said to the said respondents and, are null and void as against the plaintiff as trustee in bankruptcy of the said

III. That it may be decreed and adjudged that the respondents account to the plaintiff for the value of the said property which has come into their possession as set forth in plaintiff's bill of complaint.

IV. That plaintiff may have judgment against the respondents in the sum of dollars.

May it please your Honor to grant unto the plaintiff a subpoena of the United States of America, directed to the said, and commanding them and each of them on a day certain to appear and answer unto this bill of complaint and to abide by and perform such order and decree in the premises as the court shall deem proper and required by the practice in equity and good conscience.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.

United States District Court,
for the District of:
In Bankruptcy.

IN THE MATTER OF Bankrupt.	}	No.
--	---	----------

To the District Court of the United States,
for the District of:
The petition of respectfully shows and alleges:
First. That he is the Trustee in Bankruptcy herein, duly qualified and acting.
Second. That the said is a corporation, duly organized and existing under the Laws of the State of, and had its principal place of business in the, City of and was engaged in the manufacture and sale of That on the day of, 19.., a petition of creditors of said company was duly filed in this court, praying that the said company be adjudicated an involuntary bankrupt and such proceedings were thereafter had that on the day of, 19.., the said was duly adjudicated a bankrupt; that thereafter at the first meeting of creditors herein, held before Esq., as Referee in Bankruptcy, on the day of, 19.. your petitioner was appointed trustee in bankruptcy of the estate of the said bankrupt, thereafter duly qualified and filed his bond in the penalty required.
Third. That your petitioner thereafter immediately entered upon his duties and has sold at public auction all of the property and assets of the said bankrupt which came into his hands as trustee and has collected and reduced to cash all of the assets of the said bankrupt which your petitioner has been able to discover.
Fourth. That there have been filed in the office of the referee in charge of this proceeding proofs of debt aggregating the sum of $....., which said claims have been proved and allowed, and that no further claims under the Bankruptcy Act can now be filed against this estate, as the year allowed by such Act in which creditors may file claims has now expired.

Fifth. That your petitioner out of the moneys in his hands belonging to this estate has paid the taxes due from said company to the City of, a portion of the expenses of administration under orders of this Court and a dividend of upon the claims of creditors duly filed and allowed herein and now has in his hands as trustee on deposit in the Bank, a designated depository of this court, a balance of $., which your petitioner believes will be insufficient to pay the further expenses of administration as may hereafter be allowed by this court, and that no part of same will therefore become applicable to the payment of any further dividend to creditors herein.

Sixth. That the said was organized in, 19.., with a capital stock of $. consisting of shares of the par value of $. each. That at the time of the adjudication herein, of this number, shares were actually issued and the balance, consisting of shares, remained in the treasury of the company. That the original subscribers to the stock of said company and the amount subscribed for by each are as follows:

. shares
. shares
. shares
. shares
. shares
. shares

That on the day of, 19.., said certificates of stock in the number of shares as above set forth, were allotted, issued and delivered to the said several subscribers. That as appears by the books of said company, and as your petitioner is informed and verily believes, the said shares of stock issued to,,,, and as full paid stock were not in fact full paid stock but were issued by the said to the said subscribers upon payment by them and each of them of per cent. of the par value of said stock and that the balance due from said subscribers upon said stock has always remained and still is unpaid. That the amounts remaining unpaid upon such stock are as follows:

Name	Residence	Amt. Sub.	Amt. Pd.	Amt. Due.

Seventh. That immediately after its incorporation the said commenced business in the City of and incurred a large amount of indebtedness, the claims for which have been filed and allowed in this proceeding.

Eighth. That as above stated the assets of said bankrupt company which have come into the hands of your petitioner or were discoverable, were insufficient to pay the debts of the said company and that a deficiency exists of at least per cent. of the amount of such claims as filed and allowed. That unpaid stock subscriptions constitute a trust fund for the payment of the debts of creditors and an assessment should be made upon the stockholders of the upon their unpaid subscriptions to an amount sufficient to discharge the debts of said company and that such assessment should be levied and ordered paid by this court. That so far as your petitioner has been able to learn from the books of said company and the testimony of the officers thereof, the above named persons are the only subscribers to said capital stock who have not paid their said several stock subscriptions.

Ninth. That in the opinion of your petitioner an assessment of at least per cent. upon the unpaid subscriptions to the capital stock of this company would be sufficient to pay the balance of the indebtedness of said bankrupt and the costs and expenses of this proceeding.

Tenth. No previous application has been made for the order asked for herein.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays for an order authorizing and empowering him as trustee in bankruptcy herein of the to issue a call for the unpaid subscriptions to the capital stock of the said company for the purpose of paying the debts of said company and for an order directing that an assessment of per cent. be levied upon the above named subscribers to the capital stock of the said upon the amount remaining unpaid upon their said several stock subscriptions and that same be paid by said subscribers to your petitioner as trustee on or before the day of, 19..., and that said subscriptions when paid or collected be accounted for and distributed under the orders of this court, and in default of such payment, your petitioner as trustee of the estate of the said bankrupt, be authorized and directed to institute such proceedings either at law or in equity against said stockholders as may be necessary to recover the amount assessed upon said stock.

COMPLAINT TO RECOVER UNPAID STOCK SUBSCRIPTIONS.

..... Court of,
County of

....., as Trustee in Bankruptcy of....., Plaintiff, against,and..... Defendants.	} Complaint.
--	--------------

..... as trustee in bankruptcy of for his complaint against the above named defendants respectfully shows and alleges to this Court:

First. That the Company, hereinafter mentioned, is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of, and having heretofore had at the time of its adjudication in bankruptcy, its principal place of business at the City of State of Second. Plaintiff further shows and alleges, that on the day of, 19.., a petition of creditors of said Company was duly filed in the United States District Court for the district of, praying that the said company be adjudicated a bankrupt, and such proceedings were thereafter had that on the day of, 19.., the said Company was duly adjudicated a bankrupt, and the proceeding was referred to, Esq., one of the referees in bankruptcy of the United States District Court for district of That, thereafter at the first meeting of creditors duly held before the said referee on the day of, 19.., the plaintiff was appointed trustee in bankruptcy of the said bankrupt and duly qualified, filed his bond in the penalty required and is still acting as such trustee.

Third. Plaintiff further shows and alleges, that as such trustee he has collected and reduced to cash, all of the property, assets and effects of the said bankrupt, other than the unpaid stock subscriptions, and that said moneys which have come into his hands as trustee and belong to the estate in bankruptcy, are insufficient to pay the expenses of administration and that no part of same are applicable for the payment of the debts of said bankrupt, or any dividend to creditors of said bankrupt, and that no dividend has heretofore been paid.

Fourth. The plaintiff further shows and alleges, that there have been filed in the office of the referee in bankruptcy herein, during the year provided and allowed by the Bankruptcy Act, for the filing of claims, claims aggregating $., which said claims have been proved and allowed, and that the time in which to file claims in said bankruptcy proceeding has now expired.

Fifth. On information and belief, plaintiff further shows and alleges, that prior to the organization of the Company, the bankrupt above named, there was a corporation organized and existing by and under the laws of the State of, known as the " Company," of which corporation all of the defendants herein, with other persons, were directors and stockholders. A re-organization of said Company having been deemed necessary, the defendants with other stockholders of said company, consented to a plan of re-organization, which provided for the payment of the debts of the said company and that all interested financially be given stock in a new corporation all on the same basis, and in order to prevent losses which would result through a liquidation of said Company, and to save the costs and expenses incident thereto, that the directors thereof resign and agree to accept stock in the new company to be formed. That all of the defendants herein signed and executed in writing such re-organization agreement and thereafter resigned as directors of the Company as provided by said plan. That pursuant to such re-organization, on or about the day of, 19.., the defendants and each of them, executed and delivered to one., the promoter thereof, a written agreement, a copy of which is hereto annexed, marked Exhibit "A" and made a part of this complaint.

Sixth. That on information and belief, thereafter and on or about the day of, 19.., pursuant to said agreement, Exhibit "A," the said Company, mentioned in said exhibit was duly organized and incorporated under the laws of the State of, with an authorized capital stock of dollars ($.) consisting of dollars ($.) per cent., (. . %) cumulative preferred stock, and dollars ($.) common stock; that thereafter and prior to, 19.., said stock subscription agreement (Exhibit "A") was duly delivered to and accepted by said Company and the stock allotted to the said several subscribers as provided by the terms of said agreement Exhibit "A," and the defendants were so notified.

Seventh. On information and belief, the plaintiff further alleges that in reliance upon said subscription agreement and the capital thereby provided and assured, the Company, the bankrupt herein, began active operations in the business of the manufacture and sale of and incurred debts and liabilities, which are still unpaid.

Eighth. That, as plaintiff is informed and verily believes, the defendants, though frequently requested so to do, have failed and refused to pay to said corporation the amounts of their several stock subscriptions, except, as plaintiff is informed and verily believes, the defendant has paid thereon the sum of $....., the defendant the sum of $....., and have received stock therefor. That the time provided in said stock subscription agreement since notice of allotment and call has long since expired. That the amounts remaining unpaid upon subscriptions to the stock of the Company, bankrupt, are as follows:

.....,	"	$.....
.....,	"	$.....
Total		<hr/> $.....

Ninth. That, upon information and belief, the said Company was at all the times aforesaid, ready, willing and able to deliver to each of the defendants upon payment therefor, the balance of said stock subscribed for, and so notified each of said defendants.

Tenth. The plaintiff further alleges and shows, that upon the petition of plaintiff, duly verified, the United States District Court for the District of, made an order, dated the day of, 19.., ordering and directing that an assessment be levied upon the subscribers to the capital stock of said bankrupt company for the purpose of paying the debts of said bankrupt, as proved and allowed in said bankruptcy proceeding to an amount equal to the unpaid amounts upon the several stock subscriptions and directing the trustee to make a call for same and requiring payment thereof on or before, 19.., a copy of which order is hereto annexed, marked Exhibit "B." That pursuant to said order, the plaintiff made and issued such call to each subscriber to the capital stock of said bankrupt upon whose subscription there remained a balance unpaid, annexing therewith a copy of said order of, 19.., above mentioned. That said call was duly so made upon each of the defendants herein. That all and each of said defendants have neglected and refused to obey said order and have paid no part of the assessment ordered and directed by said bankruptcy court, and the time to comply with said order has now expired.

Eleventh. That the plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays:

First. That it be ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendants, and each of them, pay to the plaintiff such several amounts upon their unpaid subscriptions to the capital stock of the Company, bankrupt, as may be sufficient in the aggregate to pay the debts of said company, amounting to $. and the costs and expenses of this action.

Second. That the plaintiff have judgment against the defendants, and each of them, for such unpaid stock subscriptions or for such part thereof as may be sufficient to pay the said debts of the Company, bankrupt, and the costs and expenses of this action.

Third. That the plaintiff have such other and further relief in the premises as to this court may seem just and proper.

.....,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

Appeals as in equity cases. Sec. 25 (a).

General Order XXXVI, (1).

- (1) from a judgment adjudging or refusing to adjudge the defendant a bankrupt.
- (2) from a judgment granting or denying a discharge.
- (3) from a judgment allowing or rejecting a debt or claim of five hundred dollars or over.

Jurisdiction.

As to these three classes of judgments, jurisdiction by appeal exclusive.

Cook Inlet Coal Fields Co. v. Caldwell (C. C. A. 4th Cir.), 17 Am. B. R. 135; 147 Fed. 475; 78 C. C. A. 17.

Davidson & Co. v. Friedman (C. C. A. 6th Cir.), 15 Am. B. R. 489; 140 Fed. 853; 72 C. C. A. 553.

Compare In re Neasmith (C. C. A. 6th Cir.), 17 Am. B. R. 128; 147 Fed. 160; 77 C. C. A. 402.

An order refusing to vacate and set aside an adjudication in bankruptcy is not appealable under Sec. 25-a.

B-R Electric etc. Co. v. Aetna Life Ins. Co. (C. C. A. 8th Cir.), 30 Am. B. R. 424; 206 Fed. 885; 124 C. C. A. 545.

An order dismissing an involuntary petition is a decree refusing to adjudicate a bankrupt and is appealable.

O'Brien v. Ely (C. C. A. 5th Cir.), 28 Am. B. R. 247; 195 Fed. 64; 115 C. C. A. 80.

Stevens v. Nave-McCord Mercantile Co. (C. C. A. 8th Cir.), 17 Am. B. R. 609; 150 Fed. 71; 80 C. C. A. 25.

(2) Judgment granting or denying a discharge.

An order of the District Court confirming the conclusions of and adopting "as the opinion, conclusions and judgment of the Court," the report of the special master, recommending that specifications of objection to discharge be overruled and dismissed, is not an order granting or refusing a discharge, and an appeal therefrom will not lie to Circuit Court of Appeals.

Ragan, Malone & Co. v. Cotton & Preston (C. C. A. 5th Cir.), 28 Am. B. R. 246; 195 Fed. 69; 115 C. C. A. 576.

Walter Scott & Co. v. Wilson (C. C. A. 7th Cir.), 8 Am. B. R. 349; 115 Fed. 284; 53 C. C. A. 76.

A judgment confirming or rejecting a composition is a judgment granting or refusing a discharge and is therefore reviewable by appeal.

In re Friend (C. C. A. 7th Cir.), 13 Am. B. R. 595; 134 Fed. 778; 67 C. C. A. 500.

Now comes, bankrupt and complainant, and files the following assignment of errors on appeal from order of this Court dated.....:

First. That the United States District Court for the District of erred in finding that the bankrupt failed to apply timely for a discharge in the earlier involuntary proceeding instituted against him.

Second. That the Court erred in finding that such alleged failure to apply for a discharge in the earlier proceeding rendered the question of the right of the bankrupt to a discharge herein from his debts then scheduled, res adjudicata.

Third. That the Court erred in denying a discharge herein to the said bankrupt.

Fourth. That the Court erred in failing to find that the bankrupt should be granted a discharge from his debts unless and except he has committed an offense or performed one of the acts specified and set forth in Section 14 of the United States Bankruptcy Act, and the amendments thereto, and that the Court is not authorized to extend the provisions of that section and refuse a discharge upon any other grounds than those therein set forth.

Wherefore, he prays that said order may be reversed and his discharge granted.

PETITION TO REVIEW UNDER SEC. 24-b.

United States Circuit Court of Appeals, for the Circuit of

IN THE MATTER OF Bankrupt.	} Petition to review in Bankruptcy.
--	-------------------------------------

To the Honorable Judges of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, for the Circuit.

1. Your petitioner,, appearing by his attorney respectfully represents that he is a citizen of the United States and resides (or has his principal place of business) in the City of, State of, and claims to be entitled to certain chattels now in the possession of the trustee of the above named bankrupt.

2. That on the day of, 19..., the said was duly adjudged a bankrupt by the District Court of the United States for the District of, and thereafter was duly appointed trustee in bankruptcy and duly qualified, and is still acting as such trustee.

3. That heretofore your petitioner duly demanded of the said trustee the return to him of the aforesaid chattels, consisting of certain of the value of about $....., as delivered to said bankrupt under a conditional bill of sale and that the title to said property has always been and still is in your petitioner, and that thereafter an application was made before Esq., one of the referees in bankruptcy in the District Court of the United States, for the District of to compel the return of the said chattels to your petitioner, which application was denied by an order entered the day of, 19..., and dismissing said reclamation proceedings together with $..... costs. A certificate of review was thereafter duly granted to the said District Court for the district of, by the said referee, upon the denial of the said application, and that on or about the day of, 19..., an order was duly entered by the said District Court, in all respects affirming and approving the order of the said, referee. A copy of said order of the District Court is hereto annexed.

That said order was and is erroneous as a matter of law in that:

1. Your petitioner was entitled to the return of the said chattels.
2. That the Statutes of the State of, upon which the trustee relied to defeat the claim of your petitioner, had no application to the facts upon which your petitioner based his claim.
3. That the trustee of the bankrupt had no greater rights as against your petitioner than the bankrupt himself.

Wherefore your petitioner feeling aggrieved because of said order, prays that the same may be revised in matter of law, by this Honorable Court, as provided in Section 24-b of the Bankruptcy Act and the rules of practice in such case provided, and that same be reversed, and for such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

Dated, 19...

.....,
Petitioner.

FORM No. 390.CERTIFICATE OF QUESTION OF LAW IN A BANKRUPTCY PROCEED-ING BY A CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS TO THE SUPREME COURT.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, for the Circuit:

..... Appellants, vs. Appellees.	}
--	---

The Circuit Court of Appeals for the Circuit hereby certifies to the Supreme Court of the United States that:

This is an appeal from the District Court of the District of, sitting as a court of bankruptcy, disallowing a claim filed by the appellants against the bankruptcy estate exceeding five hundred dollars in amount. From the transcript of the record it appears:

First. That the Company is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of, and was engaged in business at the City of Second. While insolvent, the said Company, on the day of, 19. ., made a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, under the general assignment law of the State of, by which it conveyed to as assignee, all of its property of every kind, for the equal benefit of all of its creditors. The assignee accepted the trust and duly qualified by executing a bond and taking the oath prescribed by the State Statute, and entered into possession of all the assigned estate. The deed of assignment provided that the assignee should pay "reasonable counsel and attorney's fees for preparing such general assignment and for advice and services to be furnished and rendered him in the course of the administration of the trust hereby created." Within four months after this deed of assignment the Company, upon a petition by three of its creditors, was adjudicated a bankrupt in the District Court of the United States for the district of and the assignment set aside as in contravention of the Bankruptcy Act. A trustee was thereafter duly appointed, who has duly qualified and taken possession of the estate of said bankrupt.

Third. The appellants filed a claim against the bankrupt estate for professional services rendered the bankrupt in preparing the said general assignment for the benefit of creditors, and the assignee thereunder in advising and acting for him in respect to his duties and in defending a suit brought to wind up the corporation in a State Court, and for services rendered the assignee in opposing the adjudication of bankruptcy.

The items of this claim were as follows:

The appellants asserted and claimed that each of said items constituted a prior charge upon the assets and asked to have same paid by the trustee in preference to the unsecured creditors. The trustee and certain creditors excepted to each item of this account.

The referee upon the evidence, found and certified that the services had been rendered as claimed and were reasonably worth the amount claimed, but that the same did not constitute expenses allowable as a priority payment and were not otherwise a lien. He allowed the item of $. as an unsecured claim against the estate, but disallowed the other items as not being debts of the bankrupt. His order was duly excepted to and the questions certified to the court in due form. The District Judge sustained the referee so far as he held the claims to be not entitled to priority and adjudged that none of the items constituted a debt, provable for any purpose against the bankrupt estate. From this judgment the appellants have appealed and assigned error.

Upon this state of facts this court desires the instruction of the Supreme Court, that it may properly decide the questions of law thus arising:

First. Is a claim for professional services rendered to a bankrupt corporation in the preparation of a general assignment, valid under the law of the State of, entitled to be paid as a claim entitled to priority out of the estate of the corporation in the hands of a trustee in bankruptcy, when the corporation was adjudicated an involuntary bankrupt within four months after making the assignment, and the assignment set aside as in contravention of the bankrupt law?

Second. Is a claim for professional advice and legal services rendered such an assignee, prior to an adjudication of bankruptcy against the assignor, the assignment providing that the costs and expenses of administering the trust should be first paid, entitled to be proven as a priority claim against the bankrupt estate?

Third. Is a claim against such an assignee for legal services rendered at his employment in resisting an adjudication of involuntary bankruptcy against the assignor, allowable as a priority claim when the necessary effect of the adjudication would be to set aside the assignment under which the assignee was acting?

Fourth. If not entitled to be allowed as priority claims, may either of the items described in the foregoing questions be proven as unsecured debts of the bankrupt corporation?

It is, therefore, ordered that a copy of this certificate, under the seal of the court, be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court at Washington.

CHAPTER II.

CREATION OF COURTS OF BANKRUPTCY AND THEIR JURISDICTION.

§ 2. That the courts of bankruptcy as hereinbefore defined, viz., the district courts of the United States in the several States, the supreme court of the District of Columbia, the district courts of the several Territories, and the United States courts in the Indian Territory and the District of Alaska, are hereby made courts of bankruptcy, and are hereby invested, within their respective territorial limits as now established, or as they may be hereafter changed, with such jurisdiction at law and in equity as will enable them to exercise original jurisdiction in bankruptcy proceedings, in vacation in chambers and during their respective terms, as they are now or may be hereafter held, to (1) adjudge persons bankrupt who have had their principal place of business, resided, or had their domicile within their respective territorial jurisdictions for the preceding six months, or the greater portion thereof, or who do not have their principal place of business, reside, or have their domicile within the United States, but have property within their jurisdictions, or who have been adjudged bankrupts by courts of competent jurisdiction without the United States and have property within their jurisdiction; (2) allow claims, disallow claims, reconsider allowed or disallowed claims, and allow or disallow them against bankrupt estates; (3) appoint receivers or the marshals, upon application of parties in interest, in case the courts shall find it absolutely necessary, for the preservation of estates, to take charge of the property of bankrupts after the filing of the petition and until it is dismissed or the trustee is qualified; (4) arraign, try, and punish bankrupts, officers, and other persons, and the agents, officers, members of the board of directors or trustees, or other similar controlling bodies of corporations for violations of this act, in accordance with the laws of procedure of the United States now in force, or such as may be hereafter enacted, regulating trials for the alleged violation of laws of the United States; (5) authorize the business of bankrupts to be conducted for limited periods by receivers, the marshals, or trustees, if necessary in the best interests of the estates, and allow such officers additional compensation for such services as provided in section forty-eight of this act; (6) bring in and substitute additional persons or parties in proceedings in bankruptcy when necessary for the complete determination of a matter in controversy; (7) cause the estates of bankrupts to be collected, reduced to money and distributed, and determine controversies in relation thereto, except as herein otherwise provided; (8) close estates, whenever it appears that they have been fully administered, by approving the final accounts and discharging the trustees, and reopen them, whenever it appears they were closed before being fully administered; (9) confirm or reject compositions between debtors and their creditors, and set aside compositions and reinstate the cases; (10) consider and confirm, modify or overrule, or return, with instructions for further proceedings, records and findings certified to them by referees; (11) determine all claims of bankrupts to their exemptions; (12) discharge or refuse to discharge bankrupts and set aside discharges and reinstate the cases; (13) enforce obedience by bankrupts, officers, and other persons to all lawful orders, by fine or imprisonment or fine and imprisonment; (14) extradite bankrupts from their respective districts to other districts; (15) make such orders, issue such process, and enter such judgments in addition to those specifically provided for as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this act; (16) punish persons for contempts committed before referees; (17) pursuant to the recommendation of creditors, or when they neglect to recommend the appointment of trustees, appoint trustees, and upon complaints of creditors, remove trustees for cause upon hearings and after notices to them; (18) tax costs, whenever they are allowed by law, and render judgments therefor against the unsuccessful party, or the successful party for cause, or in part against each of the parties, and against estates, in proceedings in bankruptcy; (19) transfer cases to other courts of bankruptcy; and (20) exercise ancillary jurisdiction over persons or property within their respective territorial limits in aid of a receiver or trustee appointed in any bankruptcy proceedings pending in any other court of bankruptcy.

Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to deprive a court of bankruptcy of any power it would possess were certain specific powers not herein enumerated.

BANKRUPTS.

§ 3. Acts of Bankruptcy.

a Acts of bankruptcy by a person shall consist of his having (1) conveyed, transferred, concealed, or removed, or permitted to be concealed or removed, any part of his property with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors, or any of them; or (2) transferred, while insolvent, any portion of his property to one or more of his creditors with intent to prefer such creditors over his other creditors; or (3) suffered or permitted, while insolvent, any creditor to obtain a preference through legal proceedings, and not having at least five days before a sale or final disposition of any property affected by such preference vacated or discharged such preference; or (4) made a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors, or, being insolvent, applied for a receiver or trustee for his property or because of insolvency a receiver or trustee has been put in charge of his property under the laws of a State, of a Territory, or of the United States; or (5) admitted in writing his inability to pay his debts and his willingness to be adjudged a bankrupt on that ground.

b A petition may be filed against a person who is insolvent and who has committed an act of bankruptcy within four months after the commission of such act. Such time shall not expire until four months after (1) the date of the recording or registering of the transfer or assignment when the act consists in having made a transfer of any of his property with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors or for the purpose of giving a preference as hereinbefore provided, or a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors, if by law such recording or registering is required or permitted, or, if it is not, from the date when the beneficiary takes notorious, exclusive, or continuous possession of the property unless the petitioning creditors have received actual notice of such transfer or assignment.

c It shall be a complete defense to any proceedings in bankruptcy instituted under the first subdivision of this section to allege and prove that the party proceeded against was not insolvent as defined in this act at the time of the filing the petition against him, and if solvency at such date is proved by the alleged bankrupt the proceedings shall be dismissed, and under said subdivision one the burden of proving solvency shall be on the alleged bankrupt.

d Whenever a person against whom a petition has been filed as hereinbefore provided under the second and third subdivisions of this section takes issue with and denies the allegation of his insolvency, it shall be his duty to appear in court on the hearing, with his books, papers, and accounts, and submit to an examination, and give testimony as to all matters tending to establish solvency or insolvency, and in case of his failure to so attend and submit to examination the burden of proving his solvency shall rest upon him.

e Whenever a petition is filed by any person for the purpose of having another adjudged a bankrupt, and an application is made to take charge of and hold the property of the alleged bankrupt, or any part of the same, prior to the adjudication and pending a hearing on the petition, the petitioner or applicant shall file in the same court a bond with at least two good and sufficient sureties who shall reside within the jurisdiction of said court, to be approved by the court or a judge thereof, in such sum as the court shall direct, conditioned for the payment, in case such petition is dismissed, to the respondent, his or her personal representatives, all costs, expenses, and damages occasioned by such seizure, taking, and detention of the property of the alleged bankrupt.

If such petition be dismissed by the court or withdrawn by the petitioner, the respondent or respondents shall be allowed all costs, counsel fees, expenses, and damages occasioned by such seizure, taking, or detention of such property. Counsel fees, costs, expenses, and damages shall be fixed and allowed by the court, and paid by the obligors in such bond.

§ 4. Who may become bankrupts.

a Any person, except a municipal, railroad, insurance, or banking corporation, shall be entitled to the benefits of this Act as a voluntary bankrupt.

b Any natural person, except a wage-earner or a person engaged chiefly in farming or the tillage of the soil, any unincorporated company, and any moneyed, business, or commercial corporation, except a municipal, railroad, insurance, or banking corporation, owing debts to the amount of one thousand dollars or over, may be adjudged an involuntary bankrupt upon default or an impartial trial, and shall be subject to the provisions and entitled to the benefits of this Act.

The bankruptcy of a corporation shall not release its officers, directors, or stockholders, as such, from any liability under the laws of a State or Territory or of the United States.

§ 5. Partners.

a A partnership, during the continuation of the partnership business, or after its dissolution and before the final settlement thereof, may be adjudged a bankrupt.

b The creditors of the partnership shall appoint the trustee; in other respects so far as possible the estate shall be administered as herein provided for other estates.

c The court of bankruptcy which has jurisdiction of one of the partners may have jurisdiction of all the partners and of the administration of the partnership and individual property.

d The trustee shall keep separate accounts of the partnership property and of the property belonging to the individual partners.

e The expenses shall be paid from the partnership property and the individual property in such proportions as the court shall determine.

f The net proceeds of the partnership property shall be appropriated to the payment of the partnership debts, and the net proceeds of the individual estate of each partner to the payment of his individual debts. Should any surplus remain of the property of any partner after paying his individual debts, such surplus shall be added to the partnership assets and be applied to the payment of the partnership debts. Should any surplus of the partnership property remain after paying the partnership debts, such surplus shall be added to the assets of the individual partners in the proportion of their respective interests in the partnership.

g The court may permit the proof of the claim of the partnership estate against the individual estates, and vice versa, and may marshal the assets of the partnership estate and individual estates so as to prevent preferences and secure the equitable distribution of the property of the several estates.

h In the event of one or more but not all of the members of a partnership being adjudged bankrupt, the partnership property shall not be administered in bankruptcy, unless by consent of the partner or partners not adjudged bankrupt; but such partner or partners not adjudged bankrupt shall settle the partnership business as expeditiously as its nature will permit, and account for the interest of the partner or partners adjudged bankrupt.

§ 6. Exemptions of Bankrupts.

a This act shall not affect the allowance to bankrupts of the exemptions which are prescribed by the State laws in force at the time of the filing of the petition in the State wherein they have had their domicile for the six months or the greater portion thereof immediately preceding the filing of the petition.

§ 7. Duties of Bankrupts.

a The bankrupt shall (1) attend the first meeting of his creditors, if directed by the court or a judge thereof to do so, and the hearing upon his application for a discharge, if filed; (2) comply with all lawful orders of the court; (3) examine the correctness of all proofs of claims filed against his estate; (4) execute and deliver such papers as shall be ordered by the court; (5) execute to his trustee transfers of all his property in foreign countries; (6) immediately inform his trustee of any attempt, by his creditors or other persons, to evade the provisions of this act, coming to his knowledge; (7) in case of any persons having to his knowledge proved a false claim against his estate, disclose that fact immediately to his trustee; (8) prepare, make oath to, and file in court within ten days, unless further time is granted, after the adjudication, if an involuntary bankrupt, and with the petition if a voluntary bankrupt, a schedule of his property, showing the amount and kind of property, the location thereof, its money value in detail, and a list of his creditors, showing their residences, if known, if unknown, that fact to be stated, the amounts due each of them, the consideration thereof, the security held by them, if any, and a claim for such exemptions as he may be entitled to, all in triplicate, one copy of each for the clerk, one for the referee, and one for the trustee; and (9) when present at the first meeting of his creditors, and at such other times as the court shall order, submit to an examination concerning the conducting of his business, the cause of his bankruptcy, his dealings with his creditors and other persons, the amount, kind, and whereabouts of his property, and, in addition, all matters which may affect the administration and settlement of his estate; but no testimony given by him shall be offered in evidence against him in any criminal proceeding.

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That he shall not be required to attend a meeting of his creditors, or at or for an examination at a place more than one hundred and fifty miles distant from his home or principal place of business, or to examine claims except when presented to him, unless ordered by the court, or a judge thereof, for cause shown, and the bankrupt shall be paid his actual expenses from the estate when examined or required to attend at any place other than the city, town, or village of his residence.

§ 8. Death or Insanity of Bankrupts.

a The death or insanity of a bankrupt shall not abate the proceedings, but the same shall be conducted and conclude in the same manner, so far as possible, as though he had not died or become insane: PROVIDED, That in case of death the widow and children shall be entitled to all rights of dower and allowance fixed by the laws of the State of the bankrupt's residence.

§ 9. Protection and Detention of Bankrupts.

a A bankrupt shall be exempt from arrest upon civil process except in the following cases: (1) When issued from a court of bankruptcy for contempt or disobedience of its lawful orders; (2) when issued from a State court having jurisdiction, and served within such State, upon a debt or claim from which his discharge in bankruptcy would not be a release, and in such case he shall be exempt from such arrest when in attendance upon a court of bankruptcy or engaged in the performance of a duty imposed by this act.

b The judge may, at any time after the filing of a petition by or against a person, and before the expiration of one month after the qualification of the trustee, upon satisfactory proof by the affidavits of at least two persons that such bankrupt is about to leave the district in which he resides or has his principal place of business to avoid examination, and that his departure will defeat the proceedings in bankruptcy, issue a warrant to the marshal, directing him to bring such bankrupt forthwith before the court for examination. If upon hearing the evidence of the parties it shall appear to the court or a judge thereof that the allegations are true and that it is necessary, he shall order such marshal to keep such bankrupt in custody not exceeding ten days, but not imprison him, until he shall be examined and released or give bail conditioned for his appearance for examination, from time to time, not exceeding in all ten days, as required by the court, and for his obedience to all lawful orders made in reference thereto.

§ 10. Extradition of Bankrupts.

a Whenever a warrant for the apprehension of a bankrupt shall have been issued, and he shall have been found within the jurisdiction of a court other than the one issuing the warrant, he may be extradited in the same manner in which persons under indictment are now extradited from one district within which a district court has jurisdiction to another.

§ 11. Suits by and against Bankrupts.

a A suit which is founded upon a claim from which a discharge would be a release, and which is pending against a person at the time of the filing of a petition against him, shall be stayed until after an adjudication or the dismissal of the petition; if such person is adjudged a bankrupt, such action may be further stayed until twelve months after the date of such adjudication, or, if within that time such person applies for a discharge, then until the question of such discharge is determined.

b The court may order the trustee to enter his appearance and defend any pending suit against the bankrupt.

c A trustee may, with the approval of the court, be permitted to prosecute as trustee any suit commenced by the bankrupt prior to the adjudication, with like force and effect as though it had been commenced by him.

d Suits shall not be brought by or against a trustee of a bankrupt estate subsequent to two years after the estate has been closed.

§ 12. Compositions, when Confirmed.

a A bankrupt may offer, either before or after adjudication, terms of composition to his creditors after, but not before, he has been examined in open court or at a meeting of his creditors, and has filed in court the schedule of his property and the list of his creditors required to be filed by bankrupts. In compositions before adjudication the bankrupt shall file the required schedules, and thereupon the court shall call a meeting of creditors for the allowance of claims, examination of the bankrupt, and preservation or conduct of estates, at which meeting the judge or referee shall preside; and action upon the petition for adjudication, shall be delayed until it shall be determined whether such composition shall be confirmed.

b An application for the confirmation of a composition may be filed in the court of bankruptcy after, but not before, it has been accepted in writing by a majority in number of all creditors whose claims have been allowed, which number must represent a majority in amount of such claims, and the consideration to be paid by the bankrupt to his creditors, and the money necessary to pay all debts which have priority and the cost of the proceedings, have been deposited in such place as shall be designated by and subject to the order of the judge.

c A date and place, with reference to the convenience of the parties in interest, shall be fixed for the hearing upon each application for the confirmation of a composition, and such objections as may be made to its confirmation.

d The judge shall confirm a composition if satisfied that (1) it is for the best interests of the creditors; (2) the bankrupt has not been guilty of any of the acts or failed to perform any of the duties which would be a bar to his discharge; and (3) the offer and its acceptance are in good faith and have not been made or procured except as herein provided, or by any means, promises, or acts herein forbidden.

e Upon the confirmation of a composition, the consideration shall be distributed as the judge shall direct, and the case dismissed. Whenever a composition is not confirmed, the estate shall be administered in bankruptcy as herein provided.

§ 13. Compositions, when Set Aside.

a The judge may, upon the application of parties in interest filed at any time within six months after a composition has been confirmed, set the same aside and reinstate the case if it shall be made to appear upon a trial that fraud was practiced in the procuring of such composition, and that the knowledge thereof has come to the petitioners since the confirmation of such composition.

§ 14. Discharges, when Granted.

a Any person may, after the expiration of one month and within the next twelve months subsequent to being adjudged a bankrupt, file an application for a discharge in the court of bankruptcy in which the proceedings are pending; if it shall be made to appear to the judge that the bankrupt was unavoidably prevented from filing it within such time, it may be filed within but not after the expiration of the next six months.

b The judge shall hear the application for a discharge and such proofs and pleas as may be made in opposition thereto by the trustee or other parties in interest, at such time as will give the trustee or parties in interest a reasonable opportunity to be fully heard, and investigate the merits of the application and discharge the applicant unless he has (1) committed an offense punishable by imprisonment as herein provided; or (2) with intent to conceal his financial condition, destroyed, concealed, or failed to keep books of account or records from which such condition might be ascertained; or (3) obtained money or property on credit upon a materially false statement in writing, made by him to any person or his representative for the purpose of obtaining credit from such person; or (4) at any time subsequent to the first day of the four months immediately preceding the filing of the petition transferred, removed, destroyed, or concealed, or permitted to be removed, destroyed, or concealed, any of his property, with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors; or (5) in voluntary proceedings been granted a discharge in bankruptcy within six years; or (6) in the course of the proceedings in bankruptcy refused to obey any lawful order of, or to answer any material question approved by the court:

Provided; That a trustee shall not interpose objections to a bankrupt's discharge until he shall be authorized so to do at a meeting of creditors called for that purpose.

c The confirmation of a composition shall discharge the bankrupt from his debts, other than those agreed to be paid by the terms of the composition and those not affected by a discharge.

§ 15. Discharges, when Revoked.

a The judge may, upon the application of parties in interest who have not been guilty of undue laches, filed at any time within one year after a discharge shall have been granted, revoke it upon a trial if it shall be made to appear that it was obtained through the fraud of the bankrupt, and that the knowledge of the fraud has come to the petitioners since the granting of the discharge, and that the actual facts did not warrant the discharge.

§ 16. Co-Debtors of Bankrupts.

a The liability of a person who is a co-debtor with, or guarantor or in any manner a surety for, a bankrupt shall not be altered by the discharge of such bankrupt.

§ 17. Debts not Affected by a Discharge.

a A discharge in bankruptcy shall release a bankrupt from all of his provable debts, except such as (1) are due as a tax levied by the United States, the State, county, district, or municipality in which he resides; (2) are liabilities for obtaining property by false pretenses or false representations, or for wilful and malicious injuries to the person or property of another, or for alimony due or to become due, or for maintenance or support of wife or child, or for seduction of an unmarried female, or for criminal conversation; (3) have not been duly scheduled in time for proof and allowance, with the name of the creditor if known to the bankrupt, unless such creditor had notice or actual knowledge of the proceedings in bankruptcy; or (4) were created by his fraud, embezzlement, misappropriation, or defalcation while acting as an officer or in any fiduciary capacity.

CHAPTER IV.

COURTS AND PROCEDURE THEREIN.

§ 18. Process, Pleadings, and Adjudications.

a Upon the filing of a petition for involuntary bankruptcy, service thereof, with a writ of subpœna, shall be made upon the person therein named as defendant in the same manner that service of such process is now had upon the commencement of a suit in equity in the courts of the United States, except that it shall be returnable within fifteen days, unless the judge shall for cause fix a longer time; but in case personal service cannot be made, then notice shall be given by publication in the same manner and for the same time as provided by law for notice by publication in suits to enforce a legal or equitable lien in courts of the United States, except that, unless the judge shall otherwise direct, the order shall be published not more than once a week for two consecutive weeks, and the return day shall be ten days after the last publication unless the judge shall for cause fix a longer time.

b The bankrupt, or any creditor, may appear and plead to the petition within five days after the return day, or within such further time as the court may allow.

c All pleadings setting up matters of fact shall be verified under oath.

d If the bankrupt, or any of his creditors, shall appear, within the time limited, and controvert the facts alleged in the petition, the judge shall determine, as soon as may be, the issues presented by the pleadings, without the intervention of a jury, except in cases where a jury trial is given by this act, and make the adjudication or dismiss the petition.

e If on the last day within which pleadings may be filed none are filed by the bankrupt or any of his creditors, the judge shall on the next day, if present, or as soon thereafter as practicable, make the adjudication or dismiss the petition.

f If the judge is absent from the district, or the division of the district in which the petition is pending, on the next day after the last day on which pleadings may be filed, and none have been filed by the bankrupt or any of his creditors, the clerk shall forthwith refer the case to the referee.

g Upon the filing of a voluntary petition the judge shall hear the petition and make the adjudication or dismiss the petition. If the judge is absent from the district, or the division of the district in which the petition is filed at the time of the filing, the clerk shall forthwith refer the case to the referee.

§ 19. Jury Trials.

a A person against whom an involuntary petition has been filed shall be entitled to have a trial by jury, in respect to the question of his insolvency, except as herein otherwise provided, and any act of bankruptcy alleged in such petition to have been committed, upon filing a written application therefor at or before the time within which an answer may be filed. If such application is not filed within such time, a trial by jury shall be deemed to have been waived.

b If a jury is not in attendance upon the court, one may be specially summoned for the trial, or the case may be postponed, or, if the case is pending in one of the district courts within the jurisdiction of a circuit court of the United States, it may be certified for trial to the circuit court sitting at the same place, or by consent of parties when sitting at any other place in the same district, if such circuit court has or is to have a jury first in attendance.

c The right to submit matters in controversy, or an alleged offense under this act, to a jury shall be determined and enjoyed, except as provided by this act, according to the United States laws now in force or such as may be hereafter enacted in relation to trials by jury.

§ 20. Oaths, Affirmations.

a Oaths required by this act, except upon hearings in court, may be administered by (1) referees; (2) officers authorized to administer oaths in proceedings before the courts of the United States, or under the laws of the State where the same are to be taken; and (3) diplomatic or consular officers of the United States in any foreign country.

b Any person conscientiously opposed to taking an oath may, in lieu thereof, affirm. Any person who shall affirm falsely shall be punished as for the making of a false oath.

§ 21. Evidence.

a A court of bankruptcy may, upon application of any officer, bankrupt, or creditor, by order require any designated person, including the bankrupt and his wife, to appear in court or before a referee or the judge of any State court, to be examined concerning the acts, conduct, or property of a bankrupt whose estate is in process of administration under this act: Provided, That the wife may be examined only touching business transacted by her or to which she is a party, and to determine the fact whether she has transacted or been a party to any business of the bankrupt.

b The right to take depositions in proceedings under this act shall be determined and enjoyed according to the United States laws now in force, or such as may be hereafter enacted relating to the taking of depositions, except as herein provided.

c Notice of the taking of depositions shall be filed with the referee in every case. When depositions are to be taken in opposition to the allowance of a claim notice shall also be served upon the claimant, and when in opposition to a discharge notice shall also be served upon the bankrupt.

d Certified copies of proceedings before a referee, or of papers, when issued by the clerk or referee, shall be admitted as evidence with like force and effect as certified copies of the records of district courts of the United States are now or may hereafter be admitted as evidence.

e A certified copy of the order approving the bond of a trustee shall constitute conclusive evidence of the vesting in him of the title to the property of the bankrupt, and if recorded shall impart the same notice that a deed from the bankrupt to the trustee if recorded would have imparted had not bankruptcy proceedings intervened.

f A certified copy of an order confirming or setting aside a composition, or granting or setting aside a discharge, not revoked, shall be evidence of the jurisdiction of the court, the regularity of the proceedings, and of the fact that the order was made.

g A certified copy of an order confirming a composition shall constitute evidence of the revesting of the title of his property in the bankrupt, and if recorded shall impart the same notice that a deed from the trustee to the bankrupt if recorded would impart.

§ 22. Reference of Cases after Adjudication.

a After a person has been adjudged a bankrupt the judge may cause the trustee to proceed with the administration of the estate, or refer it (1) generally to the referee or specially with only limited authority to act in the premises or to consider and report upon specified issues; or (2) to any referee within the territorial jurisdiction of the court, if the convenience of parties in interest will be served thereby, or for cause, or if the bankrupt does not do business, reside, or have his domicile in the district.

b The judge may, at any time, for the convenience of parties or for cause, transfer a case from one referee to another.

§ 23. Jurisdiction of United States and State Courts.

a The United States circuit courts shall have jurisdiction of all controversies at law and in equity, as distinguished from proceedings in bankruptcy, between trustees as such and adverse claimants concerning the property acquired or claimed by the trustees, in the same manner and to the same extent only as though bankruptcy proceedings had not been instituted and such controversies had been between the bankrupts and such adverse claimants.

b Suits by the trustee shall only be brought or prosecuted in the courts where the bankrupt, whose estate is being administered by such trustee, might have brought or prosecuted them if proceedings in bankruptcy had not been instituted, unless by consent of the proposed defendant, except suits for the recovery of property under section sixty, subdivision b; section sixty-seven, subdivision e; and section seventy; subdivision e.

c The United States circuit courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the courts of bankruptcy, within their respective territorial limits, of the offenses enumerated in this act.

§ 24. Jurisdiction of Appellate Courts.

a The Supreme Court of the United States, the circuit courts of appeals of the United States, and the supreme courts of the Territories, in vacation in chambers and during their respective terms, as now or as they may be hereafter held, are hereby invested with appellate jurisdiction of controversies arising in bankruptcy proceedings from the courts of bankruptcy from which they have appellate jurisdiction in other cases. The Supreme Court of the United States shall exercise a like jurisdiction from courts of bankruptcy not within any organized circuit of the United States and from the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

b The several circuit courts of appeal shall have jurisdiction in equity, either interlocutory or final, to superintend and revise in matter of law the proceedings of the several inferior courts of bankruptcy within their jurisdiction. Such power shall be exercised on due notice and petition by any party aggrieved.

§ 25. Appeals and Writs of Error.

a That appeals, as in equity cases may be taken in bankruptcy proceedings from the courts of bankruptcy to the circuit court of appeals of the United States and to the supreme court of the Territories, in the following cases, to wit, (1) from a judgment adjudging or refusing to adjudge the defendant a bankrupt; (2) from a judgment granting or denying a discharge; and (3) from a judgment allowing or rejecting a debt or claim of five hundred dollars or over. Such appeal shall be taken within ten days after the judgment appealed from has been rendered, and may be heard and determined by the appellate court in term or vacation, as the case may be.

b From any final decision of a court of appeals, allowing or rejecting a claim under this act, an appeal may be had under such rules and within such time as may be prescribed by the Supreme Court of the United States, in the following cases and no other:

1. Where the amount in controversy exceeds the sum of two thousand dollars, and the question involved is one which might have been taken on appeal or writ of error from the highest court of a State to the Supreme Court of the United States; or

2. Where some Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States shall certify that in his opinion the determination of the question or questions involved in the allowance or rejection of such claim is essential to a uniform construction of this act throughout the United States.

c Trustees shall not be required to give bond when they take appeals or sue out writs of error.

d Controversies may be certified to the Supreme Court of the United States from other courts of the United States, and the former court may exercise jurisdiction thereof and issue writs of certiorari pursuant to the provisions of the United States laws now in force or such as may be hereafter enacted.

§ 26. Arbitration of Controversies.

a The trustee may, pursuant to the direction of the court, submit to arbitration any controversy arising in the settlement of the estate.

b Three arbitrators shall be chosen by mutual consent, or one by the trustee, one by the other party to the controversy, and the third by the two so chosen, or if they fail to agree in five days after their appointment the court shall appoint the third arbitrator.

c The written finding of the arbitrators, or a majority of them, as to the issues presented, may be filed in court and shall have like force and effect as the verdict of a jury.

§ 27. Compromises.

a The trustee may, with the approval of the court, compromise any controversy arising in the administration of the estate upon such terms as he may deem for the best interests of the estate.

§ 28. Designation of Newspapers.

a Courts of bankruptcy shall by order designate a newspaper published within their respective territorial districts, and in the county in which the bankrupt resides or the major part of his property is situated, in which notices required to be published by this act and orders which the court may direct to be published shall be inserted. Any court may in a particular case, for the convenience of parties in interest, designate some additional newspaper in which notices and orders in such case shall be published.

§ 29. Offenses.

a A person shall be punished, by imprisonment for a period not to exceed five years, upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly and fraudulently appropriated to his own use, embezzled, spent, or unlawfully transferred any property or secreted or destroyed any document belonging to a bankrupt estate which came into his charge as trustee.

b A person shall be punished, by imprisonment for a period not to exceed two years, upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly and fraudulently (1) concealed while a bankrupt, or after his discharge, from his trustee any of the property belonging to his estate in bankruptcy; or (2) made a false oath or account in, or in relation to, any proceeding in bankruptcy; (3) presented under oath any false claim for proof against the estate of a bankrupt, or used any such claim in composition personally or by agent, proxy, or attorney, or as agent, proxy, or attorney; or (4) received any material amount of property from a bankrupt after the filing of the petition, with intent to defeat this act; or (5) extorted or attempted to extort any money or property from any person as a consideration for acting or forbearing to act in bankruptcy proceedings.

c A person shall be punished by fine, not to exceed five hundred dollars, and forfeit his office, and the same shall thereupon become vacant, upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly (1) acted as a referee in a case in which he is directly or indirectly interested; or (2) purchased, while a referee, directly or indirectly, any property of the estate in bankruptcy of which he is referee; or (3) refused, while a referee or trustee, to permit a reasonable opportunity for the inspection of the accounts relating to the affairs of, and the papers and records of, estates in his charge by parties in interest when directed by the court so to do.

d A person shall not be prosecuted for any offense arising under this act unless the indictment is found or the information is filed in court within one year after the commission of the offense.

§ 30. Rules, Forms, and Orders.

a All necessary rules, forms, and orders as to procedure and for carrying this act into force and effect shall be prescribed, and may be amended from time to time, by the Supreme Court of the United States.

§ 31. Computation of Time.

a Whenever time is enumerated by days in this act, or in any proceeding in bankruptcy, the number of days shall be computed by excluding the first and including the last, unless the last fall on a Sunday or holiday, in which event the day last included shall be the next day thereafter which is not a Sunday or a legal holiday.

§ 32. Transfer of Cases.

a In the event petitions are filed against the same person, or against different members of a partnership, in different courts of bankruptcy each of which has jurisdiction, the cases shall be transferred, by order of the courts relinquishing jurisdiction, to and be consolidated by the one of such courts which can proceed with the same for the greatest convenience of parties in interest.

CHAPTER.V.

OFFICERS, THEIR DUTIES AND COMPENSATIONS.

§ 33. Creation of Two Officers.

a The offices of referee and trustee are hereby created.

§ 34. Appointment, Removal, and Districts of Referees.

a Courts of bankruptcy shall, within the territorial limits of which they respectively have jurisdiction, (1) appoint referees, each for a term of two years, and may, in their discretion, remove them because their services are not needed or for other cause; and (2) designate, and from time to time change, the limits of the districts of referees, so that each county, where the services of a referee are needed, may constitute at least one district.

§ 35. Qualifications of Referees.

a Individuals shall not be eligible to appointment as referees unless they are respectively (1) competent to perform the duties of that office; (2) not holding any office of profit or emolument under the laws of the United States or of any State other than commissioners of deeds, justices of the peace, masters in chancery, or notaries public; (3) not related by consanguinity or affinity, within the third degree as determined by the common law, to any of the judges of the courts of bankruptcy or circuit courts of the United States, or of the justices or judges of the appellate courts of the districts wherein they may be appointed; and (4) residents of, or have their offices in, the territorial districts for which they are to be appointed.

§ 36. Oaths of Office of Referees.

a Referees shall take the same oath of office as that prescribed for judges of United States courts.

§ 37. Number of Referees.

a Such number of referees shall be appointed as may be necessary to assist in expeditiously transacting the bankruptcy business pending in the various courts of bankruptcy.

§ 38. Jurisdiction of Referees.

a Referees respectively are hereby invested, subject always to a review by the judge, within the limits of their districts as established from time to time, with jurisdiction to (1) consider all petitions referred to them by the clerks and make the adjudications or dismiss the petitions; (2) exercise the powers vested in courts of bankruptcy for the administering of oaths to and the examination of persons as witnesses and for requiring the production of documents in proceedings before them, except the power of commitment; (3) exercise the powers of the judge for the taking possession and releasing of the property of the bankrupt in the event of the issuance by the clerk of a certificate showing the absence of a judge from the judicial district, or the division of the district, or his sickness, or inability to act; (4) perform such part of the duties, except as to questions arising out of the applications of bankrupts for compositions or discharges, as are by this act conferred on courts of bankruptcy and as shall be prescribed by rules or orders of the courts of bankruptcy of their respective districts, except as herein otherwise provided; and (5) upon the application of the trustee during the examination of the bankrupts, or other proceedings, authorize the employment of stenographers at the expense of the estates at a compensation not to exceed ten cents per folio for reporting and transcribing the proceedings.

§ 39. Duties of Referees.

a Referees shall (1) declare dividends and prepare and deliver to trustees dividend sheets showing the dividends declared and to whom payable; (2) examine all schedules of property and lists of creditors filed by bankrupts and cause such as are incomplete or defective to be amended; (3) furnish such information concerning the estates in process of administration before them as may be requested by the parties in interest; (4) give notices to creditors as herein provided; (5) make up records embodying the evidence, or the substance thereof, as agreed upon by the parties in all contested matters arising before them, whenever requested to do so by either of the parties thereto, together with their findings therein, and transmit them to the judges; (6) prepare and file the schedules of property and lists of creditors required to be filed by the bankrupts, or cause the same to be done, when the bankrupts fail, refuse, or neglect to do so; (7) safely keep, perfect, and transmit to the clerks the records, herein required to be kept by them, when the cases are concluded; (8) transmit to the clerks such papers as may be on file before them whenever the same are needed in any proceedings in courts, and in like manner secure the return of such papers after they have been used, or, if it be impracticable to transmit the original papers, transmit certified copies thereof by mail; (9) upon application of any party in interest, preserve the evidence taken or the substance thereof as agreed upon by the parties before them when a stenographer is not in attendance; and (10) whenever their respective offices are in the same cities or towns where the courts of bankruptcy convene, call upon and receive from the clerks all papers filed in courts of bankruptcy which have been referred to them.

b Referees shall not (1) act in cases in which they are directly or indirectly interested; (2) practice as attorneys and counselors at law in any bankruptcy proceedings; or (3) purchase, directly or indirectly, any property of an estate in bankruptcy.

§ 40. Compensation of Referees.

a Referees shall receive as full compensation for their services, payable after they are rendered, a fee of fifteen dollars deposited with the clerk at the time the petition is filed in each case, except when a fee is not required from a voluntary bankrupt, and twenty-five cents for every proof of claim filed for allowance, to be paid from the estate, if any, as a part of the cost of administration, and from estates which have been administered before them one per centum commissions on all moneys disbursed to creditors by the trustee, or one-half of one per centum on the amount to be paid to creditors upon the confirmation of a composition.

b Whenever a case is transferred from one referee to another the judge shall determine the proportion in which the fee and commissions therefor shall be divided between the referees.

c In the event of the reference of a case being revoked before it is concluded, and when the case is specially referred, the judge shall determine what part of the fee and commissions shall be paid to the referee.

§ 41. Contempts before Referees.

a A person shall not, in proceedings before a referee, (1) disobey or resist any lawful order, process or writ; (2) misbehave during a hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same; (3) neglect to produce, after having been ordered to do so, any pertinent document; or (4) refuse to appear after having been subpoenaed, or, upon appearing, refuse to take the oath as a witness, or, after having taken the oath, refuse to be examined according to law: Provided, That no person shall be required to attend as a witness before a referee at a place outside of the State of his residence, and more than one hundred miles from such place of residence, and only in case his lawful mileage and fee for one day's attendance shall be first paid or tendered to him.

b The referee shall certify the facts to the judge, if any person shall do any of the things forbidden in this section. The judge shall thereupon, in a summary manner, hear the evidence as to the acts complained of, and, if it is such as to warrant him in so doing, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court of bankruptcy, or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the process of, or in the presence of, the court.

§ 42. Records of Referees.

a The records of all proceedings in each case before a referee shall be kept as nearly as may be in the same manner as records are now kept in equity cases in circuit courts of the United States.

b A record of the proceedings in each case shall be kept in a separate book or books, and shall, together with the papers on file, constitute the records of the case.

c The book or books containing a record of the proceedings shall, when the case is concluded before the referee, be certified to by him, and, together with such papers as are on file before him, be transmitted to the court of bankruptcy and shall there remain as a part of the records of the court.

§ 43. Referee's Absence or Disability.

a Whenever the office of a referee is vacant, or its occupant is absent or disqualified to act, the judge may act, or may appoint another referee, or another referee holding an appointment under the same court may, by order of the judge, temporarily fill the vacancy.

§ 44. Appointment of Trustees.

a The creditors of a bankrupt estate shall, at their first meeting after the adjudication or after a vacancy has occurred in the office of trustee, or after an estate has been reopened, or after a composition has been set aside or a discharge revoked, or if there is a vacancy in the office of trustee, appoint one trustee or three trustees of such estate. If the creditors do not appoint a trustee or trustees as herein provided, the court shall do so.

§ 45. Qualifications of Trustees.

a Trustees may be (1) individuals who are respectively competent to perform the duties of that office, and reside or have an office in the judicial district within which they are appointed, or (2) corporations authorized by their charters or by law to act in such capacity and having an office in the judicial district within which they are appointed.

§ 46. Death or Removal of Trustees.

a The death or removal of a trustee shall not abate any suit or proceeding which he is prosecuting or defending at the time of his death or removal, but the same may be proceeded with or defended by his joint trustee or successor in the same manner as though the same had been commenced or was being defended by such joint trustee alone or by such successor.

§ 47. Duties of Trustees.

a Trustees shall respectively (1) account for and pay over to the estates under their control all interest received by them upon property of such estate; (2) Collect and reduce to money the property of the estates for which they are trustees, under the direction of the court, and close up the estate as expeditiously as is compatible with the best interests of the parties in interest; and such trustees, as to all property in the custody or coming into the custody of the bankruptcy court, shall be deemed vested with all the rights, remedies, and powers of a creditor holding a lien by legal or equitable proceedings thereon; and also, as to all property not in the custody of the bankruptcy court, shall be deemed vested with all the rights, remedies, and powers of a judgment creditor holding an execution duly returned unsatisfied. (3) Deposit all money received by them in one of the designated depositories; (4) disburse money only by check or draft on the depositories in which it has been deposited; (5) furnish such information concerning the estates of which they are trustees and their administration as may be requested by parties in interest; (6) keep regular accounts showing all amounts received and from what sources and all amounts expended and on what accounts; (7) lay before the final meeting of the creditors detailed statements of the administration of the estates; (8) make final reports and file final accounts with the courts fifteen days before the days fixed for the final meetings of the creditors; (9) pay dividends within ten days after they are declared by the referees; (10) report to the courts, in writing, the condition of the estates and the amounts of money on hand, and such other details as may be required by the courts, within the first month after their appointment and every two months thereafter, unless otherwise ordered by the courts; and (11) set apart the bankrupt's exemptions and report the items and estimated value thereof to the court as soon as practicable after their appointment.

b Whenever three trustees have been appointed for an estate, the concurrence of at least two of them shall be necessary to the validity of their every act concerning the administration of the estate.

c The trustee shall, within thirty days after the adjudication, file a certified copy of the decree of adjudication in the office where conveyances of real estate are recorded in every county where the bankrupt owns real estate not exempt from execution, and pay the fee for such filing, and he shall receive a compensation of fifty cents for each copy so filed, which, together with the filing fee, shall be paid out of the estate of the bankrupt as a part of the cost and disbursements of the proceedings.

§ 48. Compensation of Trustees, Receivers and Marshals.

a Trustees shall receive for their services, payable after they are rendered, a fee of five dollars deposited with the clerk at the time the petition is filed in each case, except when a fee is not required from a voluntary bankrupt, and such commissions on all moneys disbursed or turned over to any person, including lien holders, by them, as may be allowed by the courts, not to exceed six per centum on the first five hundred dollars or less, four per centum on moneys in excess of five hundred dollars and less than fifteen hundred dollars, two per centum on moneys in excess of fifteen hundred dollars and less than ten thousand dollars, and one per centum on moneys in excess of ten thousand dollars. And in case of the confirmation of a composition after the trustee has qualified the court may allow him, as compensation, not to exceed one-half of one per centum of the amount to be paid the creditors on such composition.

b In the event of an estate being administered by three trustees instead of one trustee or by successive trustees, the court shall apportion the fees and commissions between them according to the services actually rendered, so that there shall not be paid to trustees for the administering of any estate a greater amount than one trustee would be entitled to.

c The court may, in its discretion, withhold all compensation from any trustee who has been removed for cause.

d Receivers or marshals appointed pursuant to section two, subdivision three, of this Act shall receive for their services, payable after they are rendered, compensation by way of commissions upon the moneys disbursed or turned over to any person, including lien holders, by them, and also upon the moneys turned over by them or afterwards realized by the trustees from property turned over in kind by them to the trustees, as the court may allow, not to exceed six per centum on the first five hundred dollars or less, four per centum on moneys in excess of five hundred dollars and less than one thousand five hundred dollars, two per centum on moneys in excess of one thousand five hundred dollars and less than ten thousand dollars, and one per centum on moneys in excess of ten thousand dollars: Provided, That in case of the confirmation of a composition such commissions shall not exceed one-half of one per centum of the amount to be paid creditors on such compositions: Provided further, That when the receiver or marshal acts as a mere custodian and does not carry on the business of the bankrupt as provided in clause five of section two of this Act, he shall not receive nor be allowed in any form or guise more than two per centum on the first thousand dollars or less, and one-half of one per centum on all above one thousand dollars on moneys disbursed by him or turned over by him to the trustee and on moneys subsequently realized from property turned over by him in kind to the trustee: Provided further, That before the allowance of compensation notice of application therefor, specifying the amount asked, shall be given to creditors in the manner indicated in section fifty-eight of this Act.

e Where the business is conducted by trustees, marshals, or receivers, as provided in clause five of section two of this Act, the court may allow such officers additional compensation for such services by way of commissions upon the moneys disbursed or turned over to any person, including lien holders, by them, and, in cases of receivers or marshals, also upon the moneys turned over by them or afterwards realized by the trustees from property turned over in kind by them to the trustees; such commissions not to exceed six per centum on the first five hundred dollars or less, four per centum on moneys in excess of five hundred dollars and less than one thousand five hundred dollars, two per centum on moneys in excess of one thousand five hundred dollars and less than ten thousand dollars, and one per centum on moneys in excess of ten thousand dollars: Provided, That in case of the confirmation of a composition such commissions shall not exceed one-half of one per centum of the amount to be paid creditors on such composition: Provided further, That before the allowance of compensation notice of application therefor, specifying the amount asked, shall be given to creditors in the manner indicated in section fifty-eight of this Act.

§ 49. Accounts and Papers of Trustees.

a The accounts and papers of trustees shall be open to the inspection of officers and all parties in interest.

§ 50. Bonds of Referees and Trustees.

α Referees, before assuming the duties of their offices, and within such time as the district courts of the United States having jurisdiction shall prescribe, shall respectively qualify by entering into bond to the United States in such sum as shall be fixed by such courts, not to exceed five thousand dollars, with such sureties as shall be approved by such courts, conditioned for the faithful performance of their official duties.

β Trustees, before entering upon the performance of their official duties, and within ten days after their appointment, or within such further time, not to exceed five days, as the court may permit, shall respectively qualify by entering into bond to the United States, with such sureties as shall be approved by the courts, conditioned for the faithful performance of their official duties.

γ The creditors of a bankrupt estate, at their first meeting after the adjudication, or after a vacancy has occurred in the office of trustee, or after an estate has been reopened, or after a composition has been set aside or a discharge revoked, if there is a vacancy in the office of trustee, shall fix the amount of the bond of the trustee; they may at any time increase the amount of the bond. If the creditors do not fix the amount of the bond of the trustee as herein provided the court shall do so.

δ The court shall require evidence as to the actual value of the property of sureties.

ε There shall be at least two sureties upon each bond.

φ The actual value of the property of the sureties, over and above their liabilities and exemptions, on each bond shall equal at least the amount of such bond.

χ Corporations organized for the purpose of becoming sureties upon bonds, or authorized by law to do so, may be accepted as sureties upon the bonds of referees and trustees whenever the courts are satisfied that the rights of all parties in interest will be thereby amply protected.

η Bonds of referees, trustees, and designated depositories shall be filed of record in the office of the clerk of the court and may be sued upon in the name of the United States for the use of any person injured by a breach of their conditions.

θ Trustees shall not be liable, personally or on their bonds, to the United States, for any penalties or forfeitures incurred by the bankrupts under this act, of whose estates they are respectively trustees.

ι Joint trustees may give joint or several bonds.

κ If any referee or trustee shall fail to give bond, as herein provided and within the time limited, he shall be deemed to have declined his appointment, and such failure shall create a vacancy in his office.

λ Suits upon referees' bonds shall not be brought subsequent to two years after the alleged breach of the bond.

μ Suits upon trustees' bonds shall not be brought subsequent to two years after the estate has been closed.

§ 51. Duties of Clerks.

a Clerks shall respectfully (1) account for, as for other fees received by them, the clerk's fee paid in each case and such other fees as may be received for certified copies of records which may be prepared for persons other than officers; (2) collect the fees of the clerk, referee, and trustee in each case instituted before filing the petition, except the petition of a proposed voluntary bankrupt which is accompanied by an affidavit stating that the petitioner is without, and cannot obtain, the money with which to pay such fees; (3) deliver to the referees upon application all papers which may be referred to them, or, if the offices of such referees are not in the same cities or towns as the offices of such clerks, transmit such papers by mail, and in like manner return papers which were received from such referees after they have been used; (4) and within ten days after each case has been closed pay to the referee, if the case was referred, the fee collected for him, and to the trustee the fee collected for him at the time of filing the petition.

§ 52. Compensation of Clerks and Marshals.

a Clerks shall respectively receive as full compensation for their services to each estate, a filing fee of ten dollars, except when a fee is not required from a voluntary bankrupt.

b Marshals shall respectively receive from the estate where an adjudication in bankruptcy is made, except as herein otherwise provided, for the performance of their service in proceedings in bankruptcy, the same fees, and account for them in the same way, as they are entitled to receive for the performance of the same or similar services in other cases in accordance with laws now in force, or such as may be hereafter enacted, fixing the compensation of marshals.

§ 53. Duties of Attorney-General.

a The Attorney-General shall annually lay before Congress statistical tables showing for the whole country, and by States, the number of cases during the year of voluntary and involuntary bankruptcy; the amount of the property of the estates; the dividends paid and the expenses of administering such estates; and such other like information as he may deem important.

§ 54. Statistics of Bankruptcy Proceedings.

a Officers shall furnish in writing and transmit by mail such information as is within their knowledge, and as may be shown by the records and papers in their possession, to the Attorney-General, for statistical purposes, within ten days after being requested by him to do so.

CHAPTER VI.

CREDITORS.

§ 55. Meetings of Creditors.

a The court shall cause the first meeting of the creditors of a bankrupt to be held, not less than ten nor more than thirty days after the adjudication, at the county seat of the county in which the bankrupt has had his principal place of business, resided, or had his domicile; or if that place would be manifestly inconvenient as a place of meeting for the parties in interest, or if the bankrupt is one who does not do business, reside, or have his domicile within the United States, the court shall fix a place for the meeting which is the most convenient for parties in interest. If such meeting should by any mischance not be held within such time, the court shall fix the date, as soon as may be thereafter, when it shall be held.

b At the first meeting of creditors the judge or referee shall preside, and, before proceeding with the other business, may allow or disallow the claims of creditors there presented, and may publicly examine the bankrupt or cause him to be examined at the instance of any creditor.

c The creditors shall at each meeting take such steps as may be pertinent and necessary for the promotion of the best interests of the estate and the enforcement of this act.

d A meeting of creditors, subsequent to the first one, may be held at any time and place when all of the creditors who have secured the allowance of their claims sign a written consent to hold a meeting at such time and place.

e The court shall call a meeting of creditors whenever one-fourth or more in number of those who have proven their claims shall file a written request to that effect; if such request is signed by a majority of such creditors, which number represents a majority in amount of such claims, and contains a request for such meeting to be held at a designated place, the court shall call such meeting at such place within thirty days after the date of the filing of the request.

f Whenever the affairs of the estate are ready to be closed a final meeting of creditors shall be ordered.

§ 56. Voters at Meetings of Creditors.

a Creditors shall pass upon matters submitted to them at their meetings by a majority vote in number and amount of claims of all creditors whose claims have been allowed and are present, except as herein otherwise provided.

b Creditors holding claims which are secured or have priority shall not, in respect to such claims, be entitled to vote at creditors' meetings, nor shall such claims be counted in computing either the number of creditors or the amount of their claims, unless the amounts of such claims exceed the values of such securities or priorities, and then only for such excess.

§ 57. Proof and Allowance of Claims.

a Proof of claims shall consist of a statement under oath, in writing, signed by a creditor setting forth the claim, the consideration therefor, and whether any, and, if so what, securities are held therefor, and whether any, and, if so what, payments have been made thereon, and that the sum claimed is justly owing from the bankrupt to the creditor.

b Whenever a claim is founded upon an instrument of writing, such instrument, unless lost or destroyed, shall be filed with the proof of claim. If such instrument is lost or destroyed, a statement of such fact and of the circumstances of such loss or destruction shall be filed under oath with the claim. After the claim is allowed or disallowed, such instrument may be withdrawn by permission of the court, upon leaving a copy thereof on file with the claim.

c Claims after being proved may, for the purpose of allowance, be filed by the claimants in the court where the proceedings are pending, or before the referee if the case has been referred.

d Claims which have been duly proved shall be allowed, upon receipt by or upon presentation to the court, unless objection to their allowance shall be made by parties in interest, or their consideration be continued for cause by the court upon its own motion.

e Claims of secured creditors and those who have priority may be allowed to enable such creditors to participate in the proceedings at creditors' meetings held prior to the determination of the value of their securities or priorities, but shall be allowed for such sums only as to the courts seem to be owing over and above the value of their securities or priorities.

f Objections to claims shall be heard and determined as soon as the convenience of the court and the best interests of the estates and the claimants will permit.

g The claims of creditors who have received preferences, voidable under section sixty, subdivision b, or to whom conveyances, transfers, assignments, or incumbrances, void or voidable under section sixty-seven, subdivision e, have been made or given, shall not be allowed unless such creditors shall surrender such preferences, conveyances, transfers, assignments, or incumbrances.

h The value of securities held by secured creditors shall be determined by converting the same into money according to the terms of the agreement pursuant to which such securities were delivered to such creditors or by such creditors and the trustee, by agreement, arbitration, compromise, or litigation, as the court may direct, and the amount of such value shall be credited upon such claims and a dividend shall be paid only on the unpaid balance.

i Whenever a creditor, whose claim against a bankrupt estate is secured by the individual undertaking of any person, fails to prove such claim, such person may do so in the creditor's name, and if he discharge such undertaking in whole or in part he shall be subrogated to that extent to the rights of the creditor.

j Debts owing to the United States, a State, a county, a district, or a municipality as a penalty or forfeiture shall not be allowed, except for the amount of the pecuniary loss sustained by the act, transaction, or proceeding out of which the penalty or forfeiture arose, with reasonable and actual costs occasioned thereby and such interest as may have accrued thereon according to law.

k Claims which have been allowed may be reconsidered for cause and re-allowed or rejected in whole or in part, according to the equities of the case, before but not after the estate has been closed.

l Whenever a claim shall have been reconsidered and rejected, in whole or in part, upon which a dividend has been paid, the trustee may recover from the creditor the amount of the dividend received upon the claim if rejected in whole or the proportional part thereof if rejected only in part.

m The claim of any estate which is being administered in bankruptcy against any like estate may be proved by the trustee and allowed by the court in the same manner and upon like terms as the claims of other creditors.

n Claims shall not be proved against a bankrupt estate subsequent to one year after the adjudication; or if they are liquidated by litigation and the final judgment therein is rendered within thirty days before or after the expiration of such time, then within sixty days after the rendition of such judgment: Provided, That the right of infants and insane persons without guardians, without notice of the proceedings, may continue six months longer.

§ 58. Notices to Creditors.

(a) Creditors shall have at least ten days' notice by mail, to their respective addresses as they appear in the list of creditors of the bankrupt, or as afterwards filed with the papers in the case by the creditors, unless they waive notice in writing, of (1) all examinations of the bankrupt; (2) all hearings upon applications for the confirmation of compositions; (3) all meetings of creditors; (4) all proposed sales of property; (5) the declaration and time of payment of dividends; (6) the filing of the final accounts of the trustee, and the time when and the place where they will be examined and passed upon; (7) the proposed compromise of any controversy; (8) the proposed dismissal of the proceedings, and (9) there shall be thirty days' notice of all applications for the discharge of bankrupts.

b Notice to creditors of the first meeting shall be published at least once and may be published such number of additional times as the court may direct; the last publication shall be at least one week prior to the date fixed for the meeting. Other notices may be published as the court shall direct.

c All notices shall be given by the referee, unless otherwise ordered by the judge.

§ 59. Who may File and Dismiss Petitions.

a Any qualified person may file a petition to be adjudged a voluntary bankrupt.

b Three or more creditors who have provable claims against any person which amount in the aggregate in excess of the value of securities held by them, if any, to five hundred dollars or over; or if all of the creditors of such person are less than twelve in number, then one of such creditors whose claim equals such amount may file a petition to have him adjudged a bankrupt.

c Petitions shall be filed in duplicate, one copy for the clerk and one for service on the bankrupt.

d If it be averred in the petition that the creditors of the bankrupt are less than twelve in number, and less than three creditors have joined as petitioners therein, and the answer avers the existence of a larger number of creditors, there shall be filed with the answer a list under oath of all the creditors, with their addresses, and thereupon the court shall cause all such creditors to be notified of the pendency of such petition and shall delay the hearing upon such petition for a reasonable time, to the end that parties in interest shall have an opportunity to be heard; if upon such hearing it shall appear that a sufficient number have joined in such petition, or if prior to or during such hearing a sufficient number shall join therein, the case may be proceeded with, but otherwise it shall be dismissed.

e In computing the number of creditors of a bankrupt for the purpose of determining how many creditors must join in the petition, such creditors as were employed by him at the time of the filing of the petition or are related to him by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, as determined by the common law, and have not joined in the petition, shall not be counted.

f Creditors other than original petitioners may at any time enter their appearance and join in the petition, or file an answer and be heard in opposition to the prayer of the petition.

g A voluntary or involuntary petition shall not be dismissed by the petitioner or petitioners or for want of prosecution or by consent of parties until after notice to the creditors, and to that end the court shall, before entertaining an application for dismissal, require the bankrupt to file a list, under oath, of all his creditors, with their addresses, and shall cause notice to be sent to all such creditors of the pendency of such application, and shall delay the hearing thereon for a reasonable time to allow all creditors and parties in interest opportunity to be heard.

§ 60. Preferred Creditors.

a A person shall be deemed to have given a preference if, being insolvent, he has, within four months before the filing of the petition, or after the filing of the petition and before the adjudication, procured or suffered a judgment to be entered against himself in favor of any person, or made a transfer of any of his property, and the effect of the enforcement of such judgment or transfer will be to enable any one of his creditors to obtain a greater percentage of his debt than any other of such creditors of the same class. Where the preference consists in a transfer, such period of four months shall not expire until four months after the date of the recording or registering of the transfer, if by law such recording or registering is required.

b If a bankrupt shall have procured or suffered a judgment to be entered against him in favor of any person or have made a transfer of any of his property, and if, at the time of the transfer, or of the entry of the judgment, or of the recording or registering of the transfer if by law recording or registering thereof is required, and being within four months before the filing of the petition in bankruptcy or after the filing thereof and before the adjudication, the bankrupt be insolvent and the judgment or transfer then operate as a preference, and the person receiving it or to be benefited thereby, or his agent acting therein, shall then have reasonable cause to believe that the enforcement of such judgment or transfer would effect a preference, it shall be voidable by the trustee and he may recover the property or its value from such person. And for the purpose of such recovery any court of bankruptcy, as hereinbefore defined, and any state court which would have had jurisdiction if bankruptcy had not intervened, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

c If a creditor has been preferred, and afterwards in good faith gives the debtor further credit without security of any kind for property which becomes a part of the debtor's estates, the amount of such new credit remaining unpaid at the time of the adjudication in bankruptcy may be set off against the amount which would otherwise be recoverable from him.

d If a debtor shall, directly or indirectly, in contemplation of the filing of a petition by or against him, pay money or transfer property to an attorney and counselor at law, solicitor in equity, or proctor in admiralty for services to be rendered, the transaction shall be re-examined by the court on petition of the trustee or any creditor and shall only be held valid to the extent of a reasonable amount to be determined by the court, and the excess may be recovered by the trustee for the benefit of the estate.

CHAPTER VII.

ESTATES.

§ 61. Depositories for Money.

a Courts of bankruptcy shall designate, by order, banking institutions as depositories for the money of bankrupt estates, as convenient as may be to the residences of trustees, and shall require bonds to the United States, subject to their approval, to be given by such banking institutions, and may from time to time as occasion may require, by like order increase the number of depositories or the amount of any bond or change such depositories.

§ 62. Expenses of Administering Estates.

a The actual and necessary expenses incurred by officers in the administration of estates shall, except where other provisions are made for their payment, be reported in detail, under oath, and examined and approved or disapproved by the court. If approved, they shall be paid or allowed out of the estates in which they were incurred.

§ 63. Debts which may be Proved.

a Debts of the bankrupt may be proved and allowed against his estate which are (1) a fixed liability as evidenced by a judgment or an instrument in writing, absolutely owing at the time of the filing of the petition against him, whether then payable or not, with any interest thereon which would have been recoverable at that date or with a rebate of interest upon such as were not then payable and did not bear interest; (2) due as costs taxable against an involuntary bankrupt who was at the time of the filing of the petition against him plaintiff in a cause of action which would pass to the trustee and which the trustee declines to prosecute after notice; (3) founded upon a claim for taxable costs incurred in good faith by a creditor before the filing of the petition in an action to recover a provable debt; (4) founded upon an open account, or upon a contract express or implied; and (5) founded upon provable debts reduced to judgments after the filing of the petition and before the consideration of the bankrupt's application for a discharge, less costs incurred and interest accrued after the filing of the petition and up to the time of the entry of such judgments.

b Unliquidated claims against the bankrupt may, pursuant to application to the court, be liquidated in such manner as it shall direct, and may thereafter be proved and allowed against his estate.

§ 64. Debts which have Priority.

a The court shall order the trustee to pay all taxes legally due and owing by the bankrupt to the United States, State, county, district, or municipality in advance of the payment of dividends to creditors, and upon filing the receipts of the proper public officers for such payment he shall be credited with the amount thereof, and in case any question arises as to the amount or legality of any such tax the same shall be heard and determined by the court.

b The debts to have priority, except as herein provided, and to be paid in full out of bankrupt estates, and the order of payment shall be (1) the actual and necessary cost of preserving the estate subsequent to filing the petition; (2) the filing fees paid by creditors in involuntary cases, and where property of the bankrupt, transferred or concealed by him either before or after the filing of the petition, shall have been recovered for the benefit of the estate of the bankrupt by the efforts and at the expense of one or more creditors, the reasonable expenses of such recovery; (3) the cost of administration, including the fees and mileage payable to witnesses as now or hereafter provided by the laws of the United States, and one reasonable attorney's fee, for the professional services actually rendered, irrespective of the number of attorneys employed, to the petitioning creditors in involuntary cases, to the bankrupt in involuntary cases while performing the duties herein described, and to the bankrupt in voluntary cases, as the court may allow; (4) wages due to workmen, clerks, traveling or city salesmen,¹ or servants which have been earned within three months before the date of the commencement of proceedings, not to exceed three hundred dollars to each claimant; and (5) debts owing to any person who by the laws of the States or the United States is entitled to priority.

c In the event of the confirmation of a composition being set aside, or a discharge revoked, the property acquired by the bankrupt in addition to his estate at the time the composition was confirmed or the adjudication was made shall be applied to the payment in full of the claims of creditors for property sold to him on credit, in good faith, while such composition or discharge was in force, and the residue, if any, shall be applied to the payment of the debts which were owing at the time of the adjudication.

§ 65. Declaration and Payment of Dividends.

a Dividends of an equal per centum shall be declared and paid on all allowed claims, except such as have priority or are secured.

b The first dividend shall be declared within thirty days after the adjudication, if the money of the estate in excess of the amount necessary to pay the debts which have priority and such claims as have not been, but probably will be, allowed equals five per centum or more of such allowed claims. Dividends subsequent to the first shall be declared upon like terms as the first and as often as the amount shall equal ten per centum or more and upon closing the estate. Dividends may be declared oftener and in smaller proportions if the judge shall so order: Provided, That the first dividend shall not include more than fifty per centum of the money of the estate in excess of the amount necessary to pay the debts which have priority and such claims as probably will be allowed: And provided further, That the final dividend shall not be declared within three months after the first dividend shall be declared.

c The rights of creditors who have received dividends, or in whose favor final dividends have been declared, shall not be affected by the proof and allowance of claims subsequent to the date of such payment or declarations of dividends; but the creditors proving and securing the allowance of such claims shall be paid dividends equal in amount to those already received by the other creditors if the estate equals so much before such other creditors are paid any further dividends.

d Whenever a person shall have been adjudged a bankrupt by a court without the United States and also by a court of bankruptcy, creditors residing within the United States shall first be paid a dividend equal to that received in the court without the United States by other creditors before creditors who have received a dividend in such court shall be paid any amounts.

e A claimant shall not be entitled to collect from a bankrupt estate any greater amount than shall accrue pursuant to the provisions of this act.

§ 66. Unclaimed Dividends.

a Dividends which remain unclaimed for six months after the final dividend has been declared shall be paid by the trustee into court.

b Dividends remaining unclaimed for one year shall, under the direction of the court, be distributed to the creditors whose claims have been allowed but not paid in full, and after such claims have been paid in full the balance shall be paid to the bankrupt: PROVIDED, That in case unclaimed dividends belong to minors such minors may have one year after arriving at majority to claim such dividends.

§ 67. Liens.

a Claims which for want of record or for other reasons would not have been valid liens as against the claims of the creditors of the bankrupt shall not be liens against his estate.

b Whenever a creditor is prevented from enforcing his rights as against a lien created, or attempted to be created, by his debtor, who afterwards becomes a bankrupt, the trustee of the estate of such bankrupt shall be subrogated to and may enforce such rights of such creditor for the benefit of the estate.

c A lien created by or obtained in or pursuant to any suit or proceeding at law or in equity, including an attachment upon mesne process or a judgment by confession, which was begun against a person within four months before the filing of a petition in bankruptcy by or against such person shall be dissolved by the adjudication of such person to be a bankrupt if (1) it appears that said lien was obtained and permitted while the defendant was insolvent and that its existence and enforcement will work a preference, or (2) the party or parties to be benefited thereby had reasonable cause to believe the defendant was insolvent and in contemplation of bankruptcy, or (3) that such lien was sought and permitted in fraud of the provisions of this act; or if the dissolution of such lien would militate against the best interests of the estate of such person the same shall not be dissolved, but the trustee of the estate of such person, for the benefit of the estate, shall be subrogated to the rights of the holder of such lien and empowered to perfect and enforce the same in his name as trustee with like force and effect as such holder might have done had not bankruptcy proceedings intervened.

d Liens given or accepted in good faith and not in contemplation of or in fraud upon this Act, and for a present consideration, which have been recorded according to law, if record thereof was necessary in order to impart notice, shall, to the extent of such present consideration only, not be affected by this Act.

e That all conveyances, transfers, assignments, or incumbrances of his property, or any part thereof, made or given by a person adjudged a bankrupt under the provisions of this act subsequent to the passage of this act and within four months prior to the filing of the petition, with the intent and purpose on his part to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors, or any of them, shall be null and void as against the creditors of such debtor, except as to purchasers in good faith and for a present fair consideration; and all property of the debtor conveyed, transferred, assigned, or encumbered as aforesaid shall, if he be adjudged a bankrupt, and the same is not exempt from execution and liability for debts by the law of his domicile, be and remain a part of the assets and estate of the bankrupt and shall pass to his said trustee, whose duty it shall be to recover and reclaim the same by legal proceedings or otherwise for the benefit of the creditors. And all conveyances, transfers, or incumbrances of his property made by a debtor at any time within four months prior to the filing of the petition against him, and while insolvent, which are held null and void as against the creditors of such debtor by the laws of the State, Territory, or District in which such property is situate, shall be deemed null and void under this act against the creditors of such debtor if he be adjudged a bankrupt, and such property shall pass to the assignee and be by him reclaimed and recovered for the benefit of the creditors of the bankrupt. For the purpose of such recovery any court of bankruptcy as hereinbefore defined, and any State court which would have had jurisdiction if bankruptcy had not intervened, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

f That all levies, judgments, attachments, or other liens, obtained through legal proceedings against a person who is insolvent, at any time within four months prior to the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against him, shall be deemed null and void in case he is adjudged a bankrupt, and the property affected by the levy, judgment, attachment, or other lien shall be deemed wholly discharged and released from the same, and shall pass to the trustee as a part of the estate of the bankrupt, unless the court shall, on due notice, order that the right under such levy, judgment, attachment or other lien shall be preserved for the benefit of the estate; and thereupon the same may pass to and shall be preserved by the trustee for the benefit of the estate as aforesaid. And the court may order such conveyance as shall be necessary to carry the purposes of this section into effect: PROVIDED, That nothing herein contained shall have the effect to destroy or impair the title obtained by such levy, judgment, attachment, or other lien, of a bona fide purchaser for value who shall have acquired the same without notice or reasonable cause for inquiry.

§ 68. Set-offs and Counterclaims.

a In all cases of mutual debts or mutual creditors between the estate of a bankrupt and a creditor the account shall be stated and one debt shall be set off against the other, and the balance only shall be allowed or paid.

b A set-off or counterclaim shall not be allowed in favor of any debtor of the bankrupt which (1) is not provable against the estate; or (2) was purchased by or transferred to him after the filing of the petition, or within four months before such filing, with a view to such use and with knowledge or notice that such bankrupt was insolvent, or had committed an act of bankruptcy.

§ 69. Possession of Property.

a A judge may, upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that a bankrupt against whom an involuntary petition has been filed and is pending has committed an act of bankruptcy, or has neglected or is neglecting, or is about to so neglect his property that it has thereby deteriorated or is thereby deteriorating or is about thereby to deteriorate in value issue a warrant to the marshal to seize and hold it subject to further orders. Before such warrant is issued the petitioners applying therefor shall enter into a bond in such an amount as the judge shall fix, with such sureties as he shall approve, conditioned to indemnify such bankrupt for such damages as he shall sustain in the event such seizure shall prove to have been wrongfully obtained. Such property shall be released, if such bankrupt shall give bond in a sum which shall be fixed by the judge, with such sureties as he shall approve, conditioned to turn over such property, or pay the value thereof in money to the trustee, in the event he is adjudged a bankrupt pursuant to such petition.

§ 70. Title to Property.

a The trustee of the estate of a bankrupt, upon his appointment and qualification, and his successor or successors, if he shall have one or more, upon his or their appointment and qualification shall in turn be vested by operation of law with the title of the bankrupt, as of the date he was adjudged a bankrupt, except in so far as it is to property which is exempt, to all (1) documents relating to his property; (2) interests in patents, patent rights, copyrights, and trade-marks; (3) powers which he might have exercised for his own benefit, but not those which he might have exercised for some other person; (4) property transferred by him in fraud of his creditors; (5) property which prior to the filing of the petition he could by any means have transferred or which might have been levied upon and sold under judicial process against him: Provided, That when any bankrupt shall have any insurance policy which has a cash surrender value payable to himself, his estate, or personal representatives, he may, within thirty days after the cash surrender value has been ascertained and stated to the trustee by the company issuing the same, pay or secure to the trustee the sum so ascertained and stated, and continue to hold, own, and carry such policy free from the claims of the creditors participating in the distribution of his estate under the bankruptcy proceedings, otherwise the policy shall pass to the trustee as assets; and (6) rights of action arising upon contracts or from the unlawful taking or detention of, or injury to, his property.

b All real and personal property belonging to bankrupt estates shall be appraised by three disinterested appraisers; they shall be appointed by, and report to, the court. Real and personal property shall, when practicable, be sold subject to the approval of the court; it shall not be sold otherwise than subject to the approval of the court for less than seventy-five per centum of its appraised value.

c The title to property of a bankrupt estate which has been sold, as herein provided, shall be conveyed to the purchaser by the trustee.

d Whenever a composition shall be set aside, or discharge revoked, the trustee shall, upon his appointment and qualification, be vested as herein provided with the title to all of the property of the bankrupt as of the date of the final decree setting aside the composition or revoking the discharge.

e The trustee may avoid any transfer by the bankrupt of his property which any creditor of such bankrupt might have avoided, and may recover the property so transferred, or its value, from the person to whom it was transferred, unless he was a bona fide holder for value prior to the date of the adjudication. Such property may be recovered or its value collected from whoever may have received it, except a bona fide holder for value. For the purpose of such recovery any court of bankruptcy as hereinbefore defined, and any State court which would have had jurisdiction if bankruptcy had not intervened, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

f Upon the confirmation of a composition offered by a bankrupt, the title to his property shall thereupon revert in him.

That the clerks of the several district courts of the United States shall prepare and keep in their respective offices complete and convenient indexes of all petitions and discharges in bankruptcy heretofore or hereafter filed in the said courts, and shall, when requested so to do, issue certificates of search certifying as to whether or not any such petitions or discharges have been filed; and said clerks shall be entitled to receive for such certificates the same fees as now allowed by law for certificates as to judgments in said courts: Provided, That said bankruptcy indexes and dockets, shall at all times be open to inspection and examination by all persons or corporations without any fee or charge therefor.

That neither the referee, receiver, marshal, nor trustee shall in any form or guise receive, nor shall the court allow him, any other or further compensation for his services than that expressly authorized and prescribed in this Act.

THE TIME WHEN THIS ACT SHALL GO INTO EFFECT.

The original act of 1898 provided as follows.

a This act shall go into full force and effect upon its passage: Provided, however, That no petition for voluntary bankruptcy shall be filed within one month of the passage thereof, and no petition for involuntary bankruptcy shall be filed within four months of the passage thereof.

b Proceedings commenced under State insolvency laws before the passage of this act shall not be affected by it.

The amendatory act of 1903 provides as follows.

§ 19.

That the provisions of this amendatory act shall not apply to bankruptcy cases pending when this act takes effect, but such cases shall be adjudicated and disposed of conformably to the provisions of the said act of July first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight.

The amendatory act of 1910 provides as follows.

That the provisions of this amendatory Act shall not apply to bankruptcy cases pending when this Act takes effect, but such cases shall be adjudicated and disposed of conformably to the provisions of said Act approved July first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, as amended by said Act approved February fifth, nineteen hundred and three, and as further amended by said Act approved June fifteenth, nineteen hundred and six.

Approved, June 25, 1910.

GENERAL ORDERS IN BANKRUPTCY

ADOPTED BY THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

AT THE OCTOBER TERM, 1898.

Preamble.

In pursuance of the powers conferred by the Constitution and laws upon the Supreme Court of the United States, and particularly by the act of Congress approved July 1, 1898, entitled "An act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States, it is ordered, on this 28th day of November, 1898, that the following rules be adopted and established as general orders in bankruptcy, to take effect on the first Monday, being the second day, of January, 1899. And it is further ordered that all proceedings in bankruptcy had before that day, in accordance with the act last aforesaid, and being in substantial conformity either with the provisions of these general orders, or else with the general orders established by this court under the bankrupt act of 1867 and with any general rules or special orders of the courts in bankruptcy, stand good, subject, however, to such further regulation by rule or order of those courts as may be necessary or proper to carry into force and effect the bankrupt act of 1898 and the general orders of this court.

Cross references: To the law: § 30.

To the General Orders: XXXVII, XXXVIII.

To the Equity Rules: LXXIX. (See, also, Revised Statutes, §§ 913, 914.)

ILLUSTRATIVE CASES.

The General Orders were only intended to execute the Act, not to add to its provisions.

I. Docket.

The clerk shall keep a docket, in which the cases shall be entered and numbered in the order in which they are commenced. It shall contain a memorandum of the filing of the petition and of the action of the court thereon, of the reference of the case to the referee, and of the transmission by him to the clerk of his certified record of the proceedings, with the dates thereof, and a memorandum of all proceedings in the case except those duly entered on the referee's certified record aforesaid. The docket shall be arranged in a manner convenient for reference, and shall at all times be open to public inspection.

Cross references: To the law: As to commencement of proceedings, § 1 (10); As to duties of the clerk, §§ 51, 71; As to duties of the referee, §§ 29-c, 39-a (7), 42; As to duties of the trustee, §§ 29-c, 49.

To the General Orders: II, IV.

To the Equity Rules: I-VI, inclusive.

II. Filing of Papers.

The clerk or the referee shall indorse on each paper filed with him the day and hour of filing, and a brief statement of its character.

Cross references: To the law: §§ 18-a, 59-a-b.

To the General Orders: VI, IX, XX.

III. Process.

All process, summons and subpoenas shall issue out of the court, under the seal thereof, and be tested by the clerk; and blanks, with the signature of the clerk and seal of the court, may, upon application, be furnished to the referees.

Cross references: To the law: As to process in involuntary proceedings, § 18-a (and also under §§ 4 and 5); As to process to witnesses, § 21-a.

IV. Conduct of Proceedings.

Proceedings in bankruptcy may be conducted by the bankrupt in person in his own behalf, or by a petitioning or opposing creditor; but a creditor will only be allowed to manage before the court his individual interest. Every party may appear and conduct the proceedings by attorney, who shall be an attorney or counselor authorized to practice in the circuit or district court. The name of the attorney or counselor, with his place of business, shall be entered upon the docket, with the date of the entry. All papers or proceedings offered by an attorney to be filed shall be indorsed as above required, and orders granted on motion shall contain the name of the party or attorney making the motion. Notices and orders which are not, by the act or by these general orders, required to be served on the party personally may be served upon his attorney.

VI. Petitions in Different Districts.

In case two or more petitions shall be filed against the same individual in different districts, the first hearing shall be had in the district in which the debtor has his domicile, and the petition may be amended by inserting an allegation of an act of bankruptcy committed at an earlier date than that first alleged, if such earlier act is charged in either of the other petitions; and in case of two or more petitions against the same partnership in different courts, each having jurisdiction over the case, the petition first filed shall be first heard, and may be amended by the insertion of an allegation of an earlier act of bankruptcy than that first alleged, if such earlier act is charged in either of the other petitions; and, in either case, the proceedings upon the other petitions may be stayed until an adjudication is made upon the petition first heard; and the court which makes the first adjudication of bankruptcy shall retain jurisdiction over all proceedings therein until the same shall be closed. In case two or more petitions shall be filed in different districts by different members of the same partnership for an adjudication of the bankruptcy of said partnership, the court in which the petition is first filed, having jurisdiction, shall take and retain jurisdiction over all proceedings in such bankruptcy until the same shall be closed; and if such petitions shall be filed in the same district, action shall be first had upon the one first filed. But the court so retaining jurisdiction shall, if satisfied that it is for the greatest convenience of parties in interest that another of said courts should proceed with the cases, order them to be transferred to that court.

VII. Priority of Petitions.

Whenever two or more petitions shall be filed by creditors against a common debtor, alleging separate acts of bankruptcy committed by said debtor on different days within four months prior to the filing of said petitions, and the debtor shall appear and show cause against an adjudication of bankruptcy against him on the petitions, that petition shall be first heard and tried which alleges the commission of the earliest act of bankruptcy; and in case the several acts of bankruptcy are alleged in the different petitions to have been committed on the same day, the court before which the same are pending may order them to be consolidated, and proceed to a hearing as upon one petition; and if an adjudication of bankruptcy be made upon either petition, or for the commission of a single act of bankruptcy, it shall not be necessary to proceed to a hearing upon the remaining petitions, unless proceedings be taken by the debtor for the purpose of causing such adjudication to be annulled or vacated.

IX. Schedule in Involuntary Bankruptcy.

In all cases of involuntary bankruptcy in which the bankrupt is absent or cannot be found, it shall be the duty of the petitioning creditor to file, within five days after the date of the adjudication, a schedule giving the names and places of residence of all the creditors of the bankrupt, according to the best information of the petitioning creditor. If the debtor is found, and is served with notice to furnish a schedule of his creditors and fails to do so, the petitioning creditor may apply for an attachment against the debtor, or may himself furnish such schedule as aforesaid.

XII. Duties of Referee.

1. The order referring a case to a referee shall name a day upon which the bankrupt shall attend before the referee; and from that day the bankrupt shall be subject to the orders of the court in all matters relating to his bankruptcy, and may receive from the referee a protection against arrest, to continue until the final adjudication on his application for a discharge, unless suspended or vacated by order of the court. A copy of the order shall forthwith be sent by mail to the referee, or be delivered to him personally by the clerk or other officer of the court. And thereafter all the proceedings, except such as are required by the act or by these general orders to be had before the judge, shall be had before the referee.

2. The time when and the place where the referees shall act upon the matters arising under the several cases referred to them shall be fixed by special order of the judge, or by the referee; and at such times and places the referees may perform the duties which they are empowered by the act to perform.

3. Applications for a discharge, or for the approval of a composition, or for an injunction to stay proceedings of a court or officer of the United States, or of a State, shall be heard and decided by the judge. But he may refer such an application, or any specified issue arising thereon, to the referee to ascertain and report the facts.

XIV. No Official or General Trustee.

No official trustee shall be appointed by the court, nor any general trustee to act in classes of cases.

XV. Trustee not Appointed in Certain Cases.

If the schedule of a voluntary bankrupt discloses no assets and if no creditor appears at the first meeting, the court may, by order setting out the facts, direct that no trustee be appointed; but at any time thereafter a trustee may be appointed, if the court shall deem it desirable. If no trustee is appointed as aforesaid, the court may order that no meeting of the creditors other than the first meeting shall be called.

XVII. Duties of Trustee.

The trustee shall, immediately upon entering upon his duties, prepare a complete inventory of all the property of the bankrupt that comes into his possession. The trustee shall make report to the court, within twenty days after receiving the notice of his appointment, of the articles set off to the bankrupt by him, according to the provisions of the forty-seventh section of the act, with the estimated value of each article, and any creditor may take exceptions to the determination of the trustee within twenty days after the filing of the report. The referee may require the exceptions to be argued before him, and shall certify them to the court for final determination at the request of either party. In case the trustee shall neglect to file any report or statement which it is made his duty to file or make by the act, or by any general order in bankruptcy, within five days after the same shall be due, it shall be the duty of the referee to make an order requiring the trustee to show cause before the judge, at a time specified in the order, why he should not be removed from office. The referee shall cause a copy of the order to be served upon the trustee at least seven days before the time fixed for the hearing, and proof of the service thereof to be delivered to the clerk. All accounts of trustees shall be referred as of course to the referee for audit, unless otherwise specially ordered by the court.

XVIII. Sale of Property.

1. All sales shall be by public auction unless otherwise ordered by the court,

2. Upon application to the court, and for good cause shown, the trustee may be authorized to sell any specified portion of the bankrupt's estate at private sale; in which case he shall keep an accurate account of each article sold, and the price received therefor, and to whom sold; which account he shall file at once with the referee.

3. Upon petition by a bankrupt, creditor, receiver, or trustee, setting forth that a part or the whole of the bankrupt's estate is perishable, the nature and location of such perishable estate, and that there will be loss if the same is not sold immediately, the court, if satisfied of the facts stated and that the sale is required in the interest of the estate, may order the same to be sold, with or without notice to the creditors, and the proceeds to be deposited in court.

XXI. Proof of Debts.

1. Depositions to prove claims against a bankrupt's estate shall be correctly entitled in the court and in the cause. When made to prove a debt due to a partnership, it must appear on oath that the deponent is a member of the partnership; when made by an agent, the reason the deposition is not made by the claimant in person must be stated; and when made to prove a debt due to a corporation, the deposition shall be made by the treasurer, or, if the corporation has no treasurer, by the officer whose duties most nearly correspond to those of treasurer. Depositions to prove debts existing in open account shall state when the debt became or will become due; and if it consists of items maturing at different dates the average due date shall be stated, in default of which it shall not be necessary to compute interest upon it. All such depositions shall contain an averment that no note has been received for such account, nor any judgment rendered thereon. Proofs of debt received by any trustee shall be delivered to the referee to whom the cause is referred. . . }

2. Any creditor may file with the referee a request that all notices to which he may be entitled shall be addressed to him at any place, to be designated by the post-office box or street number, as he may appoint; and thereafter, and until some other designation shall be made by such creditor, all notices shall be so addressed; and in other cases notices shall be addressed as specified in the proof of debt.

3. Claims which have been assigned before proof shall be supported by a deposition of the owner at the time of the commencement of proceedings, setting forth the true consideration of the debt, and that it is entirely unsecured, or if secured, the security, as is required in proving secured claims. Upon the filing of satisfactory proof of the assignment of a claim proved and entered on the referee's docket, the referee shall immediately give notice by mail to the original claimant of the filing of such proof of assignment; and, if no objection be entered within ten days, or within further time allowed by the referee, he shall make an order subrogating the assignee to the original claimant. If objection be made, he shall proceed to hear and determine the matter.

4. The claims of persons contingently liable for the bankrupt may be proved in the name of the creditor when known by the party contingently liable. When the name of the creditor is unknown, such claim may be proved in the name of the party contingently liable; but no dividend shall be paid upon such claim, except upon satisfactory proof that it will diminish pro tanto the original debt.

5. The execution of any letter of attorney to represent a creditor, or of an assignment of claim after proof, may be proved or acknowledged before a referee, or a United States commissioner, or a notary public. When executed on behalf of a partnership or of a corporation, the person executing the instrument shall make oath that he is a member of the partnership, or a duly authorized officer of the corporation on whose behalf he acts. When the person executing is not personally known to the officer taking the proof or acknowledgment, his identity shall be established by satisfactory proof.

6. When the trustee or any creditor shall desire the re-examination of any claim filed against the bankrupt's estate, he may apply by petition to the referee to whom the case is referred for an order for such re-examination, and thereupon the referee shall make an order fixing a time for hearing the petition, of which due notice shall be given by mail addressed to the creditor. At the time appointed the referee shall take the examination of the creditor, and of any witnesses that may be called by either party, and if it shall appear from such examination that the claim ought to be expunged or diminished, the referee may order accordingly.

XXII. Taking of Testimony.

The examination of witnesses before the referee may be conducted by the party in person or by his counsel or attorney, and the witnesses shall be subject to examination and cross-examination, which shall be had in conformity with the mode now adopted in courts of law. A deposition taken upon an examination before a referee shall be taken down in writing by him, or under his direction, in the form of narrative, unless he determines that the examination shall be by question and answer. When completed it shall be read over to the witness and signed by him in the presence of the referee. The referee shall note upon the deposition any question objected to, with his decision thereon; and the court shall have power to deal with the costs of incompetent, immaterial, or irrelevant depositions, or parts of them, as may be just.

XXVIII. Redemption of Property and Compounding of Claims.

Whenever it may be deemed for the benefit of the estate of a bankrupt to redeem and discharge any mortgage or other pledge, or deposit or lien, upon any property, real or personal, or to relieve said property from any conditional contract, and to tender performance of the conditions thereof, or to compound and settle any debts or other claims due or belonging to the estate of the bankrupt, the trustee, or the bankrupt, or any creditor who has proved his debt, may file his petition therefor; and thereupon the court shall appoint a suitable time and place for the hearing thereof, notice of which shall be given as the court shall direct, so that all creditors and other persons interested may appear and show cause, if any they have, why an order should not be passed by the court upon the petition authorizing such act on the part of the trustee.

XXIX. Payment of Moneys Deposited.

No moneys deposited as required by the act shall be drawn from the depository unless by check or warrant, signed by the clerk of the court, or by a trustee, and countersigned by the judge of the court, or by a referee designated for that purpose, or by the clerk or his assistant under an order made by the judge, stating the date, the sum, and the account for which it is drawn; and an entry of the substance of such check or warrant, with the date thereof, the sum drawn for, and the account for which it is drawn, shall be forthwith made in a book kept for that purpose by the trustee or his clerk; and all checks and drafts shall be entered in the order of time in which they are drawn, and shall be numbered in the case of each estate. A copy of this general order shall be furnished to the depository, and also the name of any referee or clerk authorized to countersign said checks.

XXX. Imprisoned Debtor.

If, at the time of preferring his petition, the debtor shall be imprisoned, the court, upon application, may order him to be produced upon habeas corpus, by the jailer or any officer in whose custody he may be, before the referee, for the purpose of testifying in any matter relating to his bankruptcy; and, if committed after the filing of his petition upon process in any civil action founded upon a claim provable in bankruptcy, the court may, upon like application, discharge him from such imprisonment. If the petitioner, during the pendency of the proceedings in bankruptcy, be arrested or imprisoned upon process in any civil action, the district court, upon his application, may issue a writ of habeas corpus to bring him before the court to ascertain whether such process has been issued for the collection of any claim provable in bankruptcy, and if so provable he shall be discharged; if not, he shall be remanded to the custody in which he may lawfully be. Before granting the order for discharge the court shall cause notice to be served upon the creditor or his attorney, so as to give him an opportunity of appearing and being heard before the granting of the order.

XXXV. Compensation of Clerks, Referees and Trustees.

1. The fees allowed by the act to clerks shall be in full compensation for all services performed by them in regard to filing petitions or other papers required by the act to be filed with them, or in certifying or delivering papers or copies of records to referees or other officers, or in receiving or paying out money; but shall not include copies furnished to other persons, or expenses necessarily incurred in publishing or mailing notices or other papers.

2. The compensation of referees, prescribed by the act, shall be in full compensation for all services performed by them under the act, or under these general orders; but shall not include expenses necessarily incurred by them in publishing or mailing notices, in traveling, or in perpetuating testimony, or other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties under the act and allowed by special order of the judge.

3. The compensation allowed to trustees by the act shall be in full compensation for the services performed by them; but shall not include expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties and allowed upon the settlement of their accounts.

4. In any case in which the fees of the clerk, referee and trustee are not required by the act to be paid by a debtor before filing his petition to be adjudged a bankrupt, the judge, at any time during the pendency of the proceedings in bankruptcy, may order those fees to be paid out of the estate; or may, after notice to the bankrupt, and satisfactory proof that he then has or can obtain the money with which to pay those fees, order him to pay them within a time specified, and, if he fails to do so, may order his petition to be dismissed. He may also, pending such proceedings, both in voluntary and involuntary cases, order the commissions of referees and trustees to be paid immediately after such commissions accrue and are earned.

1. Appeals from a court of bankruptcy to a circuit court of appeals, or to the supreme court of a Territory, shall be allowed by a judge of the court appealed from or of the court appealed to, and shall be regulated, except as otherwise provided in the act, by the rules governing appeals in equity in the courts of the United States.

2. Appeals under the act to the Supreme Court of the United States, from a circuit court of appeals, or from a supreme court of a Territory, or from the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, or from any court of bankruptcy whatever, shall be taken within thirty days after the judgment or decree, and shall be allowed by a judge of the court appealed from, or by a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

3. In every case in which either party is entitled by the act to take an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, the court from which the appeal lies shall, at or before the time of entering its judgment or decree, make and file a finding of the facts, and its conclusions of law thereon, stated separately; and the record transmitted to the Supreme Court of the United States on such an appeal shall consist only of the pleadings, the judgment or decree, the finding of facts, and the conclusions of law.

XXXVII. General Provisions.

In proceedings in equity, instituted for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the act, or for enforcing the rights and remedies given by it, the rules of equity practice established by the Supreme Court of the United States shall be followed as nearly as may be. In proceedings at law, instituted for the same purpose, the practice and procedure in cases at law shall be followed as nearly as may be. But the judge may, by special order in any case, vary the time allowed for return of process, for appearance and pleading, and for taking testimony and publication, and may otherwise modify the rules for the preparation of any particular case so as to facilitate a speedy hearing.

RULES OF THE DISTRICT COURTS IN BANKRUPTCY.

[737]

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK.

RULE I.

Petitions.

Petitions should state where the debtor has resided, including the street and number, if any, and also where his principal place of business, if any, has been during the preceding six months, or the greater part thereof; and the schedules, as respects creditors in the city of New York, should state the street and number of their residence, or place of business, so far as known.

Petitions by one or more of several copartners should state, in case a discharge from copartnership debts is desired, whether there are firm assets, and, if there are, the petition should further state whether the firm and any other partners not joining in the petition are solvent or insolvent, and, if insolvent, the place of residence and whereabouts of such other partners, so far as known, or ascertainable, in order that they may be brought in as parties in case they refuse to join in the petition. Petitions and other papers filed, except schedules, shall be upon law cap, not more than nine inches wide by fourteen inches long.

RULE II.

Laches.

In case of unreasonable delay in the bankruptcy proceedings after an injunction or stay of any other proceeding has been granted, application may be made on any motion day in bankruptcy, on five days' notice, to dissolve the stay, though the time limited in the order granting the stay has not expired.

RULE III.

Publication of Notices.

Notices for the first meeting of creditors shall be published once only unless otherwise ordered.

RULE IV.

Newspapers for Official Advertising.

The following newspapers are designated in pursuance of section 28 of the Act, for publication of notices and orders:

In New York County — "The New York Times."

In Bronx County — "The North Side News."

In Westchester County — "Yonkers Statesman."

In Putnam County — "The Putnam County Republican."

In Dutchess County — "The Poughkeepsie Daily Eagle."

In Columbia County — "The Columbia Republican."

In Greene County — "The Catskill Mail."

In Sullivan and Ulster Counties — "The Kingston Daily Freeman."

In Orange County — "The Newburgh Journal."

In Rockland County — "The Nyack Evening Journal."

RULE V.Depositories.

Banking institutions as depositories for moneys of bankrupt estates shall be designated by orders entered for that purpose, and the Clerk shall keep a list of authorized depositories open to the inspection of the public.

RULE VI.Checks and Warrants.

The Referee before whom a case is pending is designated as the one to countersign all warrants and checks for the withdrawal of money from the depository under Rule 29 of the General Orders, unless otherwise specially ordered by a Judge.

RULE VII.Applications for Discharge, and Compositions.

Applications for the discharge of the bankrupt, or for confirmation of a composition, duly verified, should be filed in the first instance with the Referee in charge, who will thereupon fix a day for the hearing before the Judge, which may be upon any Bankruptcy Motion day at 10:30 a. m., and give the requisite notices thereof to all creditors or other persons interested, and thereafter transmit to the Clerk of the Court three days prior to the return day, due proof of the service of such notices, together with the petition for discharge or composition and a certificate or report of the Referee as to the fact whether the bankrupt has in all things conformed to the requirements of the Act, and has committed none of the offenses and done none of the acts prohibited in subdivision B of section 14, and whether the bankrupt in the opinion of the Referee is entitled to his discharge. On the return day, the default of all creditors not appearing in opposition to the discharge or composition shall be entered. Upon due filing of written specifications of the grounds of opposition to the discharge or composition, the same shall be referred to the Referee in charge to take the proofs and testimony offered by the parties, and to ascertain and report the facts. The hearing thereon before the Referee may be brought on by any party on five days' notice thereof to the attorneys of the other parties.

RULE VIII.Opposition to Discharge.

On the return day of the application for discharge or composition the default of all creditors not appearing in opposition thereto shall be entered. If there is no appearance in opposition the bankrupt, if he appears to be entitled thereto, shall be forthwith discharged, or the composition allowed. If any appearance in opposition is filed the bankrupt, who must be personally present, may be examined instantly if desired by the parties appearing, and specifications in opposition to the discharge must be verified, and filed in the Clerk's office, as required, within ten days after the said return day, and the further hearing on the discharge shall stand adjourned two weeks from the return day at the same hour.

On such adjourned day any exceptions to the relevancy or sufficiency of the specifications in opposition to the discharge shall be summarily heard. If the specifications are not excepted to, or if upon exception they are sustained, the same shall be referred to the Referee in charge to take the proofs and testimony offered by the parties, and to ascertain and report the facts. The hearing thereon before the Referee may be brought on by either party on five days' notice thereof to the attorney of the other. After the filing of the Referee's report thereon the further hearing before the Judge may be had on any Bankruptcy Motion day, on five days' written notice to the parties who have appeared.

RULE IX.

Closing Cases and Vacation of Stay.

Where there are no assets and no trustee has been appointed, and no application for a trustee is pending, after a meeting of creditors duly called, the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of the payment by the Clerk to the Referee of the deposit for his services, when a discharge has been granted or refused to the bankrupt, or when three months have elapsed after the first meeting of creditors without any application by the bankrupt for his discharge.

Where a trustee has been appointed the case shall be deemed closed, and the deposit for his services paid to him on the confirmation of a composition, or on approval of the trustee's final account, and payment of the final dividend, or upon the trustee's verified report that no assets have come into his hands or were discoverable. When the case is closed, if no trustee has been appointed, the deposit for trustee's services shall be paid by the Clerk to the petitioner's attorney.

If no meeting of creditors has been held, the case shall be deemed closed at the expiration of one year from the date of adjudication, and any stay granted thereon shall thereupon be deemed vacated unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

RULE X.

Accounting for Indemnity.

The Referee's certificate that the case is closed must be accompanied by an itemized statement of the sums deposited with him as indemnity, and of the items of charges against the same with the dates thereof, and of the balance remaining, if any; and upon the receipt of such statement, together with a certificate that the case is closed, the deposit shall be paid over by the Clerk.

RULE XI.

Notices, Method of Mailing.

All notices mailed by Referees to creditors shall have printed upon the envelope inclosing the notice the name and address of the Referee, with direction to return the same to him if the person addressed is not found within ten days. Returned notices or a list thereof shall be preserved and reported as required.

RULE XII.

Referees' Expenses, How Reimbursed.

Referees' drafts or orders upon the trustee for the payment of money to themselves, are allowed only for the expenses already incurred, and shall be accompanied by duplicate vouchers to the trustee stating the items of the expenses, payment of which is called for; and one of such vouchers shall upon payment be forthwith filed by the trustee in the Clerk's office.

RULE XIII.

Delay in Hearings, Procedure on.

If the hearing before the Referee on specifications of objection to discharge or composition is not begun within one month after the specifications of objection are referred to the Referee, or if, after the hearing is begun, there is unreasonable delay by the bankrupt in carrying on and completing such hearing, the Referee is directed to certify such facts to the Court; and thereupon, upon notice to the bankrupt, an application to dismiss the petition may be made.

RULE XIV.Sureties, Insolvency of.

In all cases where a bond is taken for the delivery of property upon claim therefor, if either of the sureties shall become insolvent pending the proceeding, a new surety may be required to be given by order of the Court.

RULE XV.Petitions for Review, Limitation of Time for.

A petition for review of a Referee's order must be filed with the Referee within ten days after the order is made, unless such time is extended before or after expiration of said ten days, by the Referee or the Court.

RULE XVI.Official Auctioneer.

An official auctioneer shall be designated by this Court, who may be removed by it at any time. Such auctioneer shall provide an adequate warehouse and shall receive and store in such warehouse, and insure, if requested, movable property of bankrupt estates, without charge for storage if sold at auction by him. Such auctioneer shall give a bond to the United States, to be approved by this Court, with sureties or a surety company in the sum of $50,000, conditioned for the faithful and prompt accounting for all moneys and property which may come into his possession as such auctioneer, for compliance with all rules, orders and decrees of this Court, and for the faithful performance of the duties of his office in all respects.

RULE XVII.Sales, How Held, and Advertisement Thereof.

Sales of the property of bankrupt estates in New York City shall be by public auction by the official auctioneer, unless otherwise specially ordered. Notice of auction sales shall be given to all known creditors by mail and by advertisement in the New York Times and Daily Trade Record, if the sale is in the City of New York, and in the newspaper designated in Rule 5 if the sale is without the City of New York. Such notice shall be sent and published five days before the sale, in cases of sales by receivers, and ten days before the sale in cases of sales by trustees, unless a shorter notice is specially ordered. Sales in New York City shall also be advertised as above required on the morning of the sale. The receiver or trustee conducting the sale may cause such further advertising or notice to be given as he may deem desirable.

At least two days before a sale a conspicuous notice of such sale shall be placed on the front of the premises where the sale is to take place, and the property placed on exhibition there.

The receiver or trustee may direct that the goods be sold first in bulk and then in lots, the highest aggregate being accepted, or in any other manner, in his discretion. If the sale is not a simple auction sale, the method to be adopted and any other terms of sale shall be printed on the catalogue and announced by the auctioneer before the sale. The auctioneer shall also announce before each sale and the catalogue shall contain a statement that no sale will be completed without the special order of the Court, unless the sale realizes seventy-five per cent or more of the appraised value of the goods sold. Any goods replevined or reclaimed or for any cause withdrawn from the sale shall be set apart and conspicuously marked "Withdrawn from sale," and such fact announced by the auctioneer before the sale.

RULE XVIII.

Auctioneer's Fees and Charges.

The auctioneer shall be allowed a reasonable charge for the storage of goods if not sold by him, and his reasonable disbursements for necessary labor, cataloguing, printing, insurance, and all other actual and necessary disbursements. He shall also be allowed the following commissions upon the proceeds of sales made by him: Four per cent on the first five thousand dollars or any part thereof; two per cent on the next ten thousand dollars or any part thereof, and one per cent on any additional amount. No other compensation shall be allowed.

RULE XIX.

Taxation of Fees and Charges.

Any official of this Court (including the official auctioneer) making any charge for services or expenses, shall upon the request of any interested party deliver to him a statement in writing of such charge or fee, properly itemized, and the amount of such charge or fee may thereupon be taxed by the Clerk upon a notice of two hours if the auctioneer or official making the charge has an office within the City of New York, and upon a notice of twenty-four hours if he has an office outside of the City of New York.

RULE XX.

Counsel for Receivers.

No receiver in bankruptcy shall employ any attorney or counsel except upon the order of this Court. Such order shall be granted only upon the petition of the receiver setting forth the name of the counsel whom he wishes to employ, the reasons for the selection of that person, and showing the necessity of employing any attorney or counsel.

RULE XXI.

Books and Documents, How Disposed of.

Account books, documents and papers of every description, constituting part of a bankrupt's estate, which have been deposited for storage with the official auctioneer by any receiver, trustee, bankrupt or other person, shall be removed from such storage within one month after the case is closed, and within one year after such deposit in all cases, whether the case is closed or not. If this rule is not complied with, the auctioneer may sell the same at public auction, after mailing reasonable written notice of the time and place of such sale to the receiver or trustee, or to the bankrupt or his attorney, if the case has been closed. The auctioneer, upon approval of the Court, may appropriate so much of the proceeds of said sale as may be reasonably necessary to pay him a just recompense for the storage charges on such account books and papers. All other property belonging to a bankrupt's estate, left on storage with the official auctioneer more than one year, shall be liable after such year to reasonable storage charges, and, if such storage charges are not paid, upon demand, the auctioneer may sell such property, after sending written notice by mail to the receiver or trustee of the time and place of such sale, and after due advertisement as provided in the Rules of this Court for auction sales, and shall pay into Court the proceeds in excess of storage charges, to await the further order of the Court.

RULE XXII.

Allowances, Notice of Application for.

All applications before Referees for allowances to receivers, trustees, appraisers, accountants or attorneys shall be heard on notice sent by mail to the creditors of the various attorneys, accountants and appraisers by the Referee. (Amended June 22, 1915. In effect July 1, 1915.)

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK.

It is ordered that the following additional rule in bankruptcy be and hereby is adopted as a rule of this court:

RULE XXIII.Compositions, Affidavit on Confirmation of.

Upon any application for confirmation of a composition, the bankrupt or alleged bankrupt shall tender to the Court with the order for confirmation, an affidavit which shall state all amounts paid or promised to be paid prior to, upon or after, the confirmation of said composition in consideration of or in connection with such composition, to the receiver, trustee or assignee and each of his or their respective attorneys and counsel, to the attorney for the bankrupt, to any person rendering service in effecting or aiding the composition, or to any attorney for petitioning creditors, and to attorneys, counsel or other representatives of creditors or creditors' committees. Such affidavit shall also state what if any reclamations are pending, and the disposition to be made of them, in the event of composition being approved.

INSTRUCTIONS TO REFEREES IN BANKRUPTCYAnd Charges Authorized to be Made by Them for Disbursements and Expenses.

1. Referees are required to call a first meeting of creditors forthwith upon receiving schedules, and to do so without waiting for indemnity to cover expenses, or request from any party in interest.

2. All hearings before Referees on references held pursuant to any order of Court other than orders of adjudication, shall be considered as hearings on references to Referees as Special Masters and charged for at $5 a day unless a higher charge be ordered by the Court.

3. Referees are instructed not to cause the proceedings of the first meeting of creditors, either at the first session thereof or any adjourned session, to be taken stenographically unless requested by some party or parties in interest, and if such request is made then not unless the same be approved by the Referee and arrangements made satisfactory to the Referee for the payment of the stenographer who takes the notes of such proceedings, and no stenographer shall be employed for this purpose unless approved by the Referee.

4. Referees are directed to exercise an active supervision over trustees to prevent delay in the settlement of estates. The provisions of section 47 of the Bankruptcy Act, requiring that trustees make reports every two months, and of section 65, requiring dividends to be paid within thirty days after the adjudication, if there is sufficient money applicable thereto to pay a dividend of five per cent, and thereafter whenever there is sufficient money to pay a dividend of ten per cent, should be strictly enforced. If any trustee, after due notice from the Referee, neglects to make such reports, or to pay such dividends, or unreasonably delays, in any respect, the prompt settlement of the estate, the Referee in charge is directed to make a certificate of the facts, and upon it to issue an order, returnable before the judge on any motion day, requiring the trustee to show cause why he should not be removed.

5. Referees are directed to make a report to the Court, in the months of April and October in each year, of all unsettled cases which have been pending before them more than fifteen months. Such reports should contain the title and number of the case, the date when it was referred, and a concise statement showing what substantial proceedings have been had in the case, and why it has not been closed.

6. All evidence offered before referees shall be taken stenographically and the notes thereof preserved, but not transcribed unless ordered by the Referee for his own use or at the request of some party in interest. If the Referee desires such transcript for his own use it shall be furnished at the cost of the petitioner or moving party and shall be paid for before the final submission of the case.

Referees shall make and file their decisions in all calendar cases within one month after their final submission, unless such time be extended by order of a Judge of this Court, and shall forthwith give written notice of such filing to all the parties in interest or their attorneys who have appeared before them.

7. Upon receiving from or on behalf of any petitioning creditor the list referred to in General Order No. 9, Referees shall on payment of estimated expenses forthwith call a first meeting of creditors, and prepare and file schedules in compliance with section 39, subdivision 6, of the Bankruptcy Act.

8. Referees sitting as Special Masters to ascertain the compensation of Receivers and their attorneys are directed not to allow any attorney for any Receiver more than twice the statutory allowance of the Receiver. If, in the opinion of the Master, a greater compensation should be awarded, Master shall certify concisely to the Court the grounds of his opinion and the amount of the Receiver's fee allowed. Applications for additional compensation shall be heard as motions on the Bankruptcy Motion Calendar. The same course shall be pursued by Referees in respect of the compensation of attorneys for Trustees. (Added February 1, 1913.)

9. The referees are required to arrange among themselves a schedule for the months of July, August and September, in such manner that at least two Referees shall be in attendance at their several offices at any one time during said months. Such schedule being furnished to the Court, the Clerk will thereupon assign all cases in accordance with the schedule. (Added February 1, 1913.)

10. Within twenty days after a petition for discharge shall have been filed with the Referee, the order to show cause thereon shall be issued. (Added June 22, 1915. In effect July 1, 1915.)

And it is further ordered that the following additional instructions to referees are hereby adopted and ordered to be communicated to the several referees, viz.:

11. Upon the declaration of a final dividend referees shall direct the trustees at the expiration of one year from the date of such final dividend, to stop payment on all dividend checks then unpaid, and to deposit the amount of such unclaimed dividends with the Clerk of this Court, and at the same time to file with said Clerk a list of the persons entitled to such unclaimed dividends. The Clerk shall thereupon deposit the amount so received by him in the registry of the Court to the credit of the case.

If, after the declaration of a final dividend or other termination of proceedings, any trustee or receiver shall have paid to him any moneys of the estate, he shall notify at least two of the larger creditors of the estate, and forthwith pay the same to the Clerk of this Court, who shall deposit the same as is hereinabove directed in respect of unclaimed dividends.

By order of the Court.

Dated April 10, 1916.

Authorized Charges for Disbursements and Expenses.

The following charges are allowed and shall be separately stated in monthly accounts:

1. Cash paid for advertisements (vouchers to be annexed).
2. For all clerical aid in preparing advertisements and notices to creditors of first meeting, mailing the same, and making proof thereof, keeping register, files and records, and preparing typewritten memoranda of proceedings prior to the first meeting of creditors, including stationery, envelopes, printing, letters, messages, and all petty expenses, $5.00.

(This item may be entitled Clerical aid, etc., prior to first meeting.)

3. For similar clerical aid and other expenses as above stated, in proceedings upon applications for discharge, $5.00.

4. If the notices to creditors in the above proceedings exceed 20 in number, 10 cents in addition to the above, for each notice in excess of 20 up to 50 additional notices, and 5 cents for each notice above 50 (the number of creditors to be stated).

5. For office accommodations and for clerical aid in taking and keeping notes and records of proceedings at first meeting of creditors and thereafter up to choice or appointment and qualification of trustee, $2.50.

6. Other special notices to creditors as required by law, 5 cents per each notice (the number to be stated).

7. For clerical aid in filing, recording, preserving and returning any interlocutory order made by the Referee, 10 cents.

8. For three appraisers in cases of merely nominal assets, i. e., assets of apparent but no real value (beyond the charge for appraisal), $1 each, $3.00.

9. For office accommodations and for clerical aid in taking and keeping notes and records at all meetings at which any business is transacted (other than the first session of the first meeting of creditors), for each meeting, $2.50.

10. For copies of orders or other papers the person requesting and receiving such copies shall pay 10 cents per folio.

In order to insure similarity of practice in all cases, it is directed that the above charges shall be adhered to and applied by all the Referees uniformly, and that no other charges be made without previous submission to this Court and approval by the Court or a Judge thereof. The Referee's certificate that the case is closed shall be accompanied by an itemized statement of the sums deposited as indemnity, the items of charges against the same and the balance remaining, if any.

11. Referees are authorized in their discretion to require the charge for adjourned meetings (viz., $2.50) to be paid in advance by the party requesting such adjournment.

12. The foregoing provisions for clerical services and office expenses (i. e., sections 2, 5 and 9) shall apply only to cases in which there are no assets; where there are sufficient assets double said amounts shall be charged.

13. If there are sufficient assets in the estate, the estimated amount of items 1, 2, 4 and 5 shall be paid out of the estate directly to the Referee by the receiver or trustee in charge upon the Referee's written request.

The estimated amount of items 1, 3 and 4 shall in applications for discharge, be paid by the bankrupt on filing his petition for discharge.

Charges under items Nos. 6-10 inclusive shall be paid for out of the estate on settlement of the trustee's accounts. But if in the opinion of the Referee sufficient funds will not be in the estate at the time of such settlement, payment may be required of said items from the persons requesting the service.

Instructions to Receivers in Bankruptcy.

1. Receivers are required to carefully observe Bankruptcy Rule 20, and show the necessity of counsel in applying for the same.

2. It is ordinarily the duty of receivers to press for adjudication, and if petitioning creditors delay entry thereof they must report that fact to the Court.

3. If in involuntary cases schedules are not filed within the time allowed by law (or any extension thereof by order), receivers must cause to be made on behalf of petitioning creditors the schedule contemplated by General Order No. IX, deliver the same to a Referee designated by the Court, and request said Referee to comply with the seventh instruction to Referees.

4. In all cases it is the duty of receivers to hasten the calling of the first meeting of creditors, and any delay in calling the same must be reported to the Court.

5. The fees of Special Commissioners under section 21-a are fixed as follows, viz.: For each hearing or adjournment, $2, and for each folio of testimony taken, five cents additional. Receivers are authorized to pay Commissioners' fees on this basis, and if the estate shall have passed into the hands of a trustee before such fees are fixed, then trustees are authorized to pay same. (Added October 4, 1912, applying to all examinations commenced on or after October 7, 1912.)

6. Receivers are required to file their reports and accounts within twenty days after the election of the Trustee, unless the time be extended by the Court upon application of the Receiver showing sufficient reason for such extension, and Referees are required to enforce this rule. (Added February 1, 1913.)

The Bankruptcy Rules are amended by the addition of the following rules:

24. Receivers, When to Continue Business — The order appointing a receiver may authorize him to continue the business for a period of not more than five days, in which case he shall within such period inquire into the propriety of its further continuance and submit to the court a report on such inquiry with his recommendation thereon. Upon such report the court may authorize a further continuance of the business for a fixed period. The continuance of the business for the provisional period of five days shall not entitle the receiver to more than a single commission, except upon special direction of the court. Dated October 24, 1916.

The "Instructions to Referees in Bankruptcy" are hereby amended by the addition of the following article:

12. In reporting upon receivers' and trustees' accounts, where the petitioner has conducted business, the referee shall state the length of time during which the business has been conducted, a general description of the business, its gross volume during the period of its conduct, and the net result in profit or loss to the estate.

Dated October 24, 1916.

The second "Instructions to Referees in Bankruptcy" shall be amended so as to read as follows:

2. All hearings before referees on references after adjudication, except hearings on discharges and compositions, shall be treated as part of the general administration of the estate, and not as references to special masters.

Referees will annex to all reports as special masters a certificate showing the dates on which hearings were held, or consideration given to the cause, and the total number of days so occupied. The court will calculate allowances to special masters upon such certificates at the rate of $5 for each day, unless application is made for a higher amount.

By order of the court. Dated October 25, 1916.

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK.

RULE I.

Sessions of District Court.

Except during the absence or inability of the District Judge, the District Court will be open for the transaction of business as a Court of Bankruptcy on the first and third Tuesdays of every month at the chambers of the Judge in Norwich, N. Y., at ten o'clock in the forenoon, except during the months of July and August and when the Judge is holding a term elsewhere. No contested case or matter in bankruptcy will, in ordinary circumstances, be taken up on other days. In case of the non-attendance of the Judge at the time hereby appointed, or at any other time which may by special order be designated for any Special Session of the Court, all proceedings shall be continued, as of course and without prejudice, to the next session of the Court.

The District Court will also be open for the transaction of business as a Court of Bankruptcy on the first days of the regular terms appointed to be held at Albany on the second Tuesday in February, at Syracuse on the first Tuesday in April, at Binghamton on the second Tuesday in June, at Auburn on the first Tuesday in October, and at Utica on the first Tuesday in December.

RULE II.

Notice of Motions and Other Hearings.

Motions must be noticed and orders to show cause must be made returnable on Tuesdays and at the times and places indicated in the preceding rule. If noticed for any other day, except by leave of the Judge, the notice will be treated as a nullity. Notice of motion, if personally served, must be served at least eight days, and, if served by mail, at least ten days, before the time appointed for the hearing. The Judge or Referee may, upon an affidavit showing grounds therefor, make an order to show cause why the relief demanded should not be granted and in the order may direct that service of less than eight days shall be sufficient. When not otherwise specially provided for by law, all notices of other hearings and proceedings in bankruptcy shall conform to the foregoing provisions as to notices of motion.

RULE III.

Proceedings in Counties Where There is no Referee or Newspaper.

In case a petition is filed by or against a bankrupt who resides in any county where there is a vacancy in the office of referee or where the referee is disqualified, absent, sick or otherwise unable to act, the reference shall be made to the referee who is most conveniently located to the bankrupt's residence. In case a petition is filed by or against a bankrupt who resides in a county where there is no designated newspaper, or where the designated newspaper for any reason refuses to act, the notices required by law may be published in a newspaper named by the parties in interest published in the county where the bankrupt resides, or the major part of his property is situated.

RULE IV.

Filing Petition; Deposit of Fees.

All petitions shall be filed with the Clerk at his office in Utica. At the time of filing a petition thirty dollars shall be paid to the Clerk by the petitioner, except in cases where a fee is not required from a voluntary bankrupt; being ten dollars for the Clerk, fifteen dollars for the Referee and five dollars for the Trustee. In case the petition is dismissed it shall be the duty of the Clerk forthwith to return to the petitioner the amount deposited for the fees of the Referee and Trustee, respectively. Voluntary petitions must be filed in triplicate and involuntary petitions in duplicate. When the Judge is absent from the District it shall be the duty of the Clerk to enter an order as provided in form No. 15, reciting the absence of the Judge, and referring the case to the proper Referee. When the Judge is present a Court order shall be entered as provided in form No. 14. Fees deposited by the petitioner in an involuntary case must be returned to him by the trustee out of the estate of the bankrupt in all cases where property sufficient for such purpose comes to the hands of the trustee.

RULE V.

Petition in Forma Pauperis.

In case a petition is filed by a proposed voluntary bankrupt which is accompanied by an affidavit under subdivision 2 of section 51 of the act, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to file said petition without the payment of the fees provided for by law. If the Clerk, or the Referee to whom said petition is referred, has reason to believe such affidavit is false, he may file a certificate to that effect and cause the bankrupt to be examined. If upon such examination the Referee reports in writing that the statements contained in such affidavit are false, and that the bankrupt has or can obtain money with which to pay said fees, such report shall be sufficient proof upon which to base proceedings under subdivision 4 of General Order No. XXXV.

RULE VI.

Referees to Fix Time and Place of Hearings.

The Clerk shall mail a copy of the order of reference to the Referee, and thereafter all proceedings, except such as are required by the act, or by the general orders, to be had before the Judge, shall be had before the Referee, who shall fix the time when and the place where he will act upon the matters arising in the case; except that all meetings of creditors must be held in the county of the bankrupt either at the county seat or at a place more convenient for the parties in interest. If the Referee cannot attend on the day named in the order of reference he may name a subsequent day within ten days thereafter, and give the bankrupt timely notice of the change; but the day first named shall be the day from which the bankrupt shall be subject to the orders of the Court as provided in General Order No. XII.

If the place named in the order of reference be manifestly inconvenient as a place of meeting for the parties in interest, the Referee may fix a more convenient place and give the bankrupt timely notice of the change.

RULE VII.

Involuntary Petition — Notice to Debtor — Reference on Default.

Where an involuntary petition is filed in conformity with law it shall be the duty of the Clerk to enter an order to show cause and issue a subpoena, as provided in forms No. 4 and No. 5, respectively, stating the time and place when the debtor is to appear. There shall be indorsed upon the subpoena the following:

"Notice to defendant. It is not necessary for you to appear on the return day of this subpoena. You may appear and plead to the petition at any time within five days after said return day."

In case no pleadings are filed by the bankrupt or any of his creditors the Judge, or, in his absence, the Clerk, will enter the proper order without further appearance or motion on the part of the petitioner.

RULE VIII.

Pleadings in Involuntary Cases — Trial by Jury.

Prior to the denial of bankruptcy as provided in form No. 6, the pleadings in involuntary cases on the part of the alleged bankrupt, or any of his creditors who oppose the adjudication, shall conform as nearly as may be to the pleadings of the defendant in an equity action in the Circuit Court of the United States.

In case a jury trial is demanded, as provided by section 19 of the act, the Clerk shall enter an order as provided in form No. 7, and the issue may be noticed for trial at any of the regular terms of the District Court and shall proceed in all respects like the trial of any action at common law, except that the Court may frame and send to the jury special questions presenting the issues to be tried. Upon the coming in of the verdict the Judge may, in accordance therewith, make an adjudication either that the debtor is or is not a bankrupt. In case a jury trial is not demanded the Judge may determine the issues presented by the pleadings or he may refer the same, or any specified issue, to a special master to ascertain and report the facts, and the master shall report the evidence with findings of fact and conclusions of law separately stated.

Except in jury trials causes cannot be noticed for proof and witnesses cannot be called and sworn in open Court without the previous special allowances of the Judge, on adequate cause shown.

RULE IX.

Dismissal of Petition.

In all cases of application for the dismissal of a petition, the bankrupt shall file a list under oath of all his creditors, with their addresses, and thereupon ten days' notice by mail and by publication once at least ten days prior to the hearing of the application, shall be given to all creditors of the pendency of such application and of the time and place of the hearing thereon.

RULE X.

Discharge and Composition — Petition and Report of Referee.

The petition for a discharge or for a confirmation of a composition must be duly verified and be filed with the clerk. The petition for a discharge must conform to the provisions of General Order No. XXXI, and of form No. 57. There must also be presented at some time before the final discharge is granted a report or certificate of the Referee that the bankrupt has in all things conformed to the requirements of the act, that he has committed none of the offenses and done none of the acts prohibited in subdivision b of section 14 of the act, and that he is, in the opinion of the Referee, entitled to his discharge.

Proof of mailing and publication, as provided in the next succeeding rule, shall be sent by the Referee to the Clerk at Utica, N. Y., at least two days prior to the hearing, and the Clerk shall present the same to the Court at the hearing.

RULE XI.

Discharge Order to Show Cause — Opposition of Creditors.

The order to show cause why a discharge should not be granted or a composition confirmed may be entered by the Clerk or the Deputy Clerk. It must state the time and place of the hearing and direct that the Referee give notice as provided in section 58 of the act to all known creditors and other persons in interest. The notice must be mailed and published once, at least ten days prior to said hearing, except that in cases commenced after June 25, 1910, there shall be thirty days' notice by mail, and publication of all applications for the discharge of bankrupts. Proof of mailing and publication must be presented on the return day of the order. If no creditor or other party in interest appears and opposes, the discharge shall be granted. In case a creditor or other party in interest desires to oppose the granting of the discharge he shall appear on the return day and file a verified specification of the grounds of his opposition, as provided in General Order No. XXXII. The issue thus joined may be referred to the referee to ascertain and report the facts with his conclusions thereon. Either party may except to said report and the exceptions may be heard by the Judge on any Court day upon the usual notice. The petitioner may, within five days from the service of a copy of the order of reference, and on giving at least eight days' notice personally or by mail to the objecting creditor, move the Court or Judge at term or in Chambers, to have the specifications of objections to the discharge or the confirmation of the composition made more certain and definite or within such time may demur thereto or move their dismissal; in default whereof such specifications shall be deemed sufficient to present the questions suggested thereby. Such notice of motion or demurrer shall also specify the grounds of objection.

RULE XII.

Pleadings Written on Legal Cap and Indorsed.

All petitions, schedules and pleadings shall be written, typewritten, or printed upon white paper of the size of legal cap — approximately thirteen inches long by eight inches wide. All pleadings must be properly indorsed with the name of the Court, the title of the cause, and, if the parties appear by an attorney, his name and office address. If the attorney resides in a city, the street and number must be given.

RULE XIII.

Notices and How Served.

All notices required to be given under section 58 of the act shall, in case the Referee so directs, be given by the bankrupt or his attorney in involuntary cases and by the petitioner or his attorney in involuntary cases, and when so given the person giving the notice shall make return to the Referee in the form of an affidavit with the notice, or a copy thereof, annexed, showing due mailing or publication of said notice as required by law. The affidavits of mailing and of publication may be sworn to or affirmed before any officer authorized to administer oaths under section 20 of the act. Notice to creditors of meetings subsequent to the first, in cases where there are undivided assets, shall be the same as the notice provided for the first meeting in section 58 of the act. In cases where there are no assets, the Referee may, in his discretion, dispense with the publication of such notice. The original notice shall be signed by the Referee. It shall be printed upon or inclosed within a sealed post-paid wrapper in such a manner that the address and postmark shall, if possible, be on the same paper as the notice, or, in the discretion of the Referee, said notice may be printed upon a postal card or other card. It is not intended by this rule to prohibit the use of "official envelopes."

RULE XIV.

Sales of Bankrupt's Property.

Public sales of real estate of bankrupts by Trustees in Bankruptcy shall be upon such notice as to time as the Referee directing the sale shall direct but such notice must be in all cases published and served on all creditors and persons in occupation of the premises either personally or by mail at least ten days prior to such sale. (Amended, 1913.)

RULE XV.

List of Claims and Accounts Transmitted to Clerk.

General Order No. XXIV shall not be construed to require the Referee to transmit to the Clerk a separate statement of each proof of debt, but only that he shall transmit a list of the claims proved after he has reason to believe that all the claims have been proved against the estate that will be presented.

General Order No. XXVI shall not be construed to require the Referee to transmit to the Clerk a separate account of each case which may be referred to him, but only a statement of his disbursements in all cases and for all causes since his last monthly return.

RULE XVI.

Clerk to Transmit Papers to the Referee.

The Clerk shall transmit all proofs of claims, and other papers filed with him under General Order No. XX, subsequent to the reference, to the referee, except such papers which, by the terms of said General Order, are required to be filed with the Clerk alone.

RULE XVII.

Filing of Returns, Reports, Adjudications, Bonds, etc.

All returns and reports from referees or other officers of the Court shall be directed to the Clerk of the Court at Utica, N. Y., and all returns and reports which by law or the general orders are required to be made to the Judge, shall be directed to him in care of the Clerk at Utica, N. Y.

It shall be the duty of the Referee to transmit to the Clerk forthwith all adjudications made during the absence of the Judge, and all bonds of trustees and the orders approving the same within five days of the approval thereof. The Referee shall retain in his possession the papers and records until said case is finally closed. He shall then, within five days, transmit his record book and all papers in the case to the Clerk, together with a certificate specifying that the case is closed.

RULE XVIII.

Fees of Clerk, Referee and Trustee, When Paid.

The trustee's fee of five dollars deposited with the Clerk shall be paid to the trustee upon the certificate of the Referee that the services of the Trustee have been actually rendered and that the case has been closed. He shall be paid such commissions as may be allowed by the Referee under section 48 of the act as amended upon the order of the Referee at the time the dividend is made. The Referee shall be paid his commissions at the same time. In case no trustee is appointed, as provided in General Order No. XV, the Clerk shall, upon the certificate of the Referee, return the five dollar deposit to the petitioner.

The Clerk shall pay to the Referee the fifteen dollars deposited as fees of the Referee upon receiving the latter's certificate that the case has been closed and that his services have been rendered. Where there are no assets the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of the payment of said fees to the Referee and trustee when a discharge has been granted or refused to the bankrupt. If no application for a discharge has been made the case shall be deemed closed at the expiration of two months from the date of the adjudication. In cases where there are assets the case shall be deemed closed upon the confirmation of a composition or the payment of the final dividend.

RULE XIX.

Money Drawn by Countersigned Checks.

When money is deposited in the name of the Clerk of the Court, or of a Trustee, it shall not be drawn unless by check signed by said Clerk or Trustee, having on its face the number and title of the cause and countersigned by the Referee in charge. All checks must conform to this rule and also to the requirements of General Order No. XXIX. The Clerk shall furnish to the depositories a copy of said general order and also a copy of this rule.

RULE XX.

Referees to Direct Prosecution and Defense of Suits and Allow Amendments.

The Referee may direct the prosecution and the defense of suits by the trustee as provided in subdivisions c and d of section 11 of the act. He may allow amendments to the pleadings and papers which do not involve jurisdictional defects in all matters pending before him, and he shall, in the first instance, have full power and authority over the proof and allowance of claims as provided by section 57 of the act and General Order No. XXI. When a petition referred to a Referee is insufficient upon its face to confer jurisdiction he shall return the same to the Clerk with a statement of the defects noted thereon, and no further proceedings shall be had thereon until a new or amended petition remedying such defects is filed with the Clerk.

The Referee may, upon his own motion, direct that the schedules be made more definite and certain by requiring the street and number to be given where a creditor resides in a city, and the Referee may direct that the bankrupt furnish any other information regarding his property or his creditors which the Referee may deem essential.

RULE XXI.

Referees to Grant Stays.

When a motion for an injunction is pending or is about to be made the Referee may, in order to prevent injury to the property of the bankrupt, or otherwise, grant a temporary restraining order staying proceedings until the hearing and decision of said motion. In case all parties in interest agree that said motion be heard by the Referee in charge, they may file with the Referee a written stipulation to that effect. The decision of the Referee on such motion shall be filed with the Clerk, and if the Referee decides that an injunction shall issue, an order to that effect may be made by the Judge.

RULE XXII.

Referees May Pass upon Relevancy of Testimony and Confine Examinations Within Reasonable Limits.

Referees may pass upon the competency, materiality and relevancy of evidence in matters properly before them for investigation, and shall have all the powers of the Judge concerning the admission or rejection thereof, and shall note on the record all objections, the rulings thereon and the exceptions which may be taken; and in cases where testimony is excluded they shall note a brief statement by the party offering the same of the facts he expects to prove thereby. Referees shall limit the inquiry before them to relevant and material matters, and in case an examination or a cross-examination is unnecessarily prolix, or improperly prolonged, the Referee may, in his discretion, limit the time of such examination; or he may impose costs, including the fees of the stenographer and other expenses, upon the party responsible for the improper prolongation.

RULE XXIII.

Hearing of Question Certified by Referee.

After a question has been certified by the Referee pursuant to General Order No. XXVII, and as provided in form No. 56, the papers shall be filed with the Clerk and the hearing may be brought on before the Judge upon any Court day by either party by giving the usual notice provided in Rule II of this Court.

RULE XXIV.

Claims Need Not be Approved Where There are No Assets.

In cases which show no assets the Referee need not formally approve or disallow any claims filed with him, except on special request or motion, but such claims shall be returned with the papers to the Clerk at the conclusion of the case. If, in such a case, assets sufficient to pay a dividend are discovered by the Trustee, such claims shall be allowed, continued or disallowed by the Referee at the first meeting of creditors after it is determined that such estate will pay a dividend.

RULE XXV.

Referees May Make Rules in Proceedings Before Them.

Referees may make other general or special rules for the guidance of proceedings before them within their respective territorial jurisdictions, and may from time to time alter and amend the same, provided that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the act, with the general orders of the Supreme Court or with these rules.

RULE XXVI.

Powers Delegated to Referees.

The referees heretofore or hereafter appointed for the northern district of New York are hereby, respectively, vested with the jurisdiction which, by the Bankruptcy Act of July 1, 1898, and the general order of the Supreme Court, promulgated at the October Term of 1898, the Court or Judge may delegate to or confer upon said referees; and they are, respectively, empowered and authorized to do all acts, take all proceedings, make all orders and decrees, and perform all duties so authorized to be delegated by said act, and said general orders, without special authority in each case and under the general authority conferred by this order.

RULE XXVII.

Special Order of Judge.

In cases not provided for by the Bankruptcy Act of 1898, the general orders, or these rules, the practice of the District Court shall be subject to the special order of the District Judge, which order shall be followed even though it may conflict with these rules.

RULE XXVIII.

Rules Under Act of 1867, When Applicable.

The rules adopted by this Court under the act of 1867, where they are not inconsistent with these rules, the provisions of the act of 1898, and the general orders of the Supreme Court, shall be followed as far as applicable.

RULE XXIX.

Revocation of Former Rules.

The order, dated July 29, 1898, conforming the practice under the Bankruptcy Act of 1898 to the practice under the Bankruptcy Act of 1867, the order of the same date regulating the practice in counties where a Referee had not been appointed or a newspaper designated, and the order of October 10, 1898, fixing the times for holding special sessions of the Court are, and each of them is, hereby vacated.

RULE XXX.

Fees of Referee as Special Master.

The issues under Rules VIII and XI shall be referred to the Referee as a special master, and he shall be entitled to receive for his services five dollars for each day actually spent in hearing such reference and preparing his report. Such sum shall be chargeable in the first instance to the party opposing the adjudication, discharge or composition, respectively, and indemnity may be demanded by the Referee before proceeding with the hearing. In case the petition in an involuntary proceeding be dismissed with costs such sum may be taxed against the petitioning creditors.

If a composition is not confirmed or is set aside such sum may, in the discretion of the Court, be ordered paid by the trustee.

In other cases when matters are referred to the Referee as a special master, requiring services not devolving upon him, by virtue of his office, he shall receive a like compensation which shall be chargeable in the first instance to the party bringing on the reference and shall be paid by the party ultimately defeated in such reference. Should such reference, in the cases last referred to, be unusually difficult or extraordinary, a higher rate of compensation may be paid if stipulated by both parties and sanctioned by the Judge.

RULE XXXI.

Referees Not to Appoint Receivers, etc.

Referees in bankruptcy in this district will not appoint receivers or exercise jurisdiction over or make orders for the direction of receivers appointed by the Court, nor will they in any case make an order relating to the disposition of the property in the hands of such receivers, or in relation to the accounts of such receivers unless by special order of the Judge. All such matters must be brought to the attention of the Court appointing the receiver.

RULE XXXII.

Confirmation of Composition.

In all cases of composition, the application for confirmation with notice and proofs of service must be accompanied by a report from the Referee, the offer and acceptances, and the certificate of the depository, setting forth the date when the petition was filed, the amount and place of deposit, the names of all the creditors whose claims are allowed and the amount of same, and the amount to which each is entitled under the composition; also all expenses and allowances and to whom made and payable.

The order of distribution will provide that the same be made by the Referee and specify the names of creditors, etc., and the amount to be paid to each.

RULE XXXIII.

Inventories.

Inventories by receivers and trustees of bankrupt estates shall be made and executed in duplicate; one to be filed with the Clerk of this Court within ten days after completion, the other to be filed with the Referee. Failure to comply with this rule shall be ground for removal.

RULE XXXIV.

Attorney for Trustee.

Referees shall in no case nominate or appoint an attorney or attorneys for a trustee unless specially directed so to do by the Judge.

RULE XXXV.

It is ordered that, after the expiration of one year from the time a case is referred to a Referee, such Referee cause the Trustee in bankruptcy to make and file a report of all his receipts, disbursements and transactions in relation to the estate, and that the Referee call a final meeting of creditors for the purpose of closing the estate, unless there be litigation pending which makes the closing of the estate impracticable or impossible.

Also ordered that when a case is closed by the Referee the papers in the case be forwarded to and filed with the Clerk.

Also ordered that all correspondence relating to cases in bankruptcy be filed by the Referee separate and apart from his private correspondence and with the papers in the case unless such correspondence be of a private and confidential nature.

Also ordered that in case a Trustee in bankruptcy neglects or refuses when ordered so to do to file his report such neglect or refusal will be cause for removal.

Also ordered that referees in bankruptcy, so far as possible and practicable, itemize the various fees for expenses charged and received by them in administering an estate, and that in computing commissions the records show the amount on which commissions are computed and allowed. Feb. 7, 1916.

EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK.

RULE I.

Rules Governing Referees.

Examine schedules and require them to conform to the provisions of the Rules of the United States Supreme Court and the Rules of this Court.

RULE II.

Notify bankrupt and his attorney to be present before Referee on the day fixed by the Court in the order of reference.

RULE III.

The day and hour of filing shall be indorsed on each paper filed with Referee.

RULE IV.

Fix day for first meeting of creditors.

RULE V.

Publish first meeting of creditors in newspaper designated by the Court in the county for which the Referee is appointed. Such publication to be made once only, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

RULE VI.

After first meeting of creditors file with Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court a list of the claims proved, under the heading of Unsecured, Secured, and Preferred, with address of each creditor.

RULE VII.

File with Clerk of Bankruptcy Court the appointment of the Trustee, signed by all persons voting, with proof of publication and certificate of mailing notices.

RULE VIII.

Notify Trustee of his appointment and the amount of the bond as fixed by creditors or Referee.

RULE IX.

Referee shall inclose to Trustee a form for his acceptance of the trust.

RULE X.

Referee shall file with the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court notification to Trustee and his acceptance, and approve bond of Trustee.

RULE XI.

If no creditors appear at first meeting and no claims are proved, and schedule discloses no assets, Referee shall enter order that no trustee be appointed until further order of the Court.

RULE XII.

If no creditors appear at first meeting, but proofs of claims are filed, Referee shall appoint a trustee; but amount of bond fixed by him may be nominal, if schedules disclose no assets.

RULE XIII.

If creditors fail to appoint a trustee at first meeting, Referee shall appoint trustee and fix the bond in proportion to the amount of assets disclosed in schedules.

RULE XIV.

Referees shall appoint appraisers whenever the schedules or the examination of the bankrupt discloses real or personal property of a kind requiring appraisal. Appraisers should be persons thoroughly competent to appraise the property of the bankrupt.

RULE XV.

On the coming in of the final report of Trustee, Referees shall declare the amount of dividends on claims proved and allowed, and deliver to the Trustee dividend sheets showing the amount to be paid on each claim allowed, and on the distribution of all assets in hands of Trustee, enter order discharging him of his trust.

RULE XVI.

If the schedules of bankrupt or his examination disclose no assets, or the report of the Trustee shows no assets, Referee may enter order discharging Trustee of his trust.

RULE XVII.Rules Governing Trustees.

The attention of Trustees is specially called to Rule XVII of United States Supreme Court, which must be strictly observed.

RULE XVIII.General Rules.

Motion days in Bankruptcy will be on Friday of each week at 2 p. m.

RULE XIX.

The residence and post-office address of the bankrupt must be given in his petition

RULE XX.

Where an involuntary petition is filed and conforms to the requirements of law, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to enter an order to show cause, and issue a subpoena, returnable on a motion day, stating the time and place when the debtor is to appear, and attach to the subpoena the following notice:

“NOTICE TO ALLEGED BANKRUPT. You (and each of you is) are required to plead to the petition in the above matter within ten days after the return day, or within such further time as the Court may allow, failing to do so the petition will be taken pro confesso.”

In case it is impossible to make said subpoena returnable on a motion day within the fifteen days provided by section 18 of the Act, the Clerk shall attach to the subpoena the following notice:

“The return of the subpoena is made on the day of, A. D., at 10:30 a. m., for the following cause: that the return be made on a motion day of this Court.”

RULE XXI.

All proofs of claims shall be indorsed with title of proceeding, amount of claim, name of creditor and post-office address, and, if represented by agent or attorney, the name of the agent or attorney and his post-office address, and the Referee shall indorse thereon "Allowed," or "Disallowed."

RULE XXII.

All orders for examination of bankrupt shall be signed by Referee to whom proceedings are referred.

RULE XXIII.

All summons for attendance of witnesses shall be signed by the Clerk of Bankruptcy Court.

RULE XXIV.

All applications for Receivers or Special Warrants to Marshal must be made to the Judge of the Court.

RULE XXV.

All sales of real or personal property of the bankrupt, or redemption of property from lien, or compounding of claims, must be subject to the approval of the Judge of the Court before title thereto is passed.

RULE XXVI.

A certificate of discharge to bankrupt, on his petition for discharge, will not be granted until Referee reports that the bankrupt has conformed to all the requirements of the Act relating to Bankruptcy.

RULE XXVII.

Amendments to Schedules will be allowed by referees on application of the petitioner stating the cause of the error in the original on file, and must be made in triplicate and presented to the Referee, who will examine the same, and, if in accordance with the forms and rules of the United States Supreme Court, file the application and his order allowing the same, together with one of the amended schedules with the Clerk of the Court, and also forward to the trustees a copy of the order allowing amendment with one of the amended schedules, the other amended schedule to be retained by him.

RULE XXVIII.

If after the first meeting of creditors and appointment of a Trustee or Trustees, the schedules filed by the bankrupt should be amended by adding thereto the names of any creditors omitted from the original schedules as filed, such creditors shall be notified that such first meeting of creditors has been held and Trustee or Trustees appointed, and upon duly filing their claims with the Referee and having the same allowed by him, they will be entitled to notice of all further proceedings of which creditors are entitled to notice, and to participation in any dividends to be declared; and if it should be made to appear to the Court by any of the creditors, whose names have been added to the schedules by the amendment thereto that the appointment of the Trustee has been made in violation of the right of the creditors omitted from the original schedules, the said appointment shall be set aside and another meeting of creditors called for the appointment of another Trustee.

RULE XXIX.

After thirty days have elapsed from the date of the order of reference to a Referee of an adjudicated petition in voluntary bankruptcy, and no proceedings have been taken therein by the bankrupt, due notice having been given by the Referee to the bankrupt and his Attorney (if petitioner is represented by Attorney) to proceed in the matter, and the time not having been enlarged, the Referee shall report the facts to the Court and apply for an order to show cause, to be served on the bankrupt or his Attorney, why the order of adjudication should not be vacated and the petition dismissed.

RULE XXX.

The amount deposited with a Referee to indemnify him for disbursements shall not exceed for first meeting of creditors, $10, where the number of creditors does not exceed fifty, and for every creditor beyond fifty, ten cents for each additional creditor; for meeting of creditors to consider composition, $15; and for every day occupied after the first day such as the Referee may deem necessary to cover the disbursement, not exceeding $10; and on application by creditor or creditors for examination of bankrupt or witness, $5; and for every day occupied after the first day, $5 in addition thereto, unless a greater amount is specially ordered by the Court.

RULE XXXI.

The amount deposited with the Clerk of the Court to indemnify him for disbursements shall not exceed $5 on application for discharge, and $5 on application to confirm composition, unless specially ordered by the Court.

RULE XXXII.

The Trustee's fee of five dollars deposited with the Clerk shall be paid to the Trustee upon the coming in of the Referee's report, that the Trustee has been discharged from his trust. In case no Trustee is appointed, as provided in General Order No. 15, the Clerk shall, upon the report of the Referee, return the five dollars deposited for fees of Trustee, to petitioner.

On the coming in of the Referee's final report, the Clerk shall pay to the Referee the ten dollars deposited as his fees. When there are no assets, the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of the payment of said fees to the Referee and Trustee, when a discharge has been granted to the Trustee. In cases where there are assets, the case shall be deemed closed upon the confirmation of a composition, or the payment of a final dividend.

RULE XXXIII.

The following are the newspapers designated in which notices required by the Act of Congress relating to Bankruptcy are to be published:

The Brooklyn Standard-Union for the County of Kings.
The Daily Star, Long Island City, for the County of Queens.
The South Side Signal for the County of Suffolk.
The Staten Islander for the County of Richmond.
The South Side Observer for the County of Nassau.

RULE XXXIV.

The following are the Banking Institutions designated as depositories for the money received by Trustees of bankrupt estates:

Corn Exchange Bank, Brooklyn Branch.
The Franklin Trust Co., of the County of Kings.
The Hamilton Trust Co., of the County of Kings.
The Corn Exchange Bank, Staten Island Branch, of the County of Richmond.
The Corn Exchange Bank, Queens County Branch, of the County of Queens.
Queens County Trust Co., of the County of Queens.
The People's Trust Co., of Brooklyn.

The Nassau Trust Co., of Brooklyn.
 The Home Trust Co., of Brooklyn.
 City National Bank of Brooklyn.
 Nassau National Bank of Brooklyn.
 The Broadway Trust Co., Flatbush Branch, County of Kings.
 Brooklyn Trust Co., County of Kings.
 Kings County Trust Co., Brooklyn.
 Mechanic's Bank, Brooklyn.
 Suffolk County Trust Co., of Riverhead, N. Y.
 Greenpoint National Bank of Brooklyn.
 Richmond Borough National Bank, Richmond Co.

RULE XXXV.

Composition.

When a debtor is desirous of making an offer of composition to his creditors, the petition to consider the same must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, and an application made to the Court for an order of reference to the Referee to whom the matter had been referred, directing a meeting of the petitioner's creditors on ten days' notice of said meeting, by mail, to all the creditors mentioned in his schedule, and publication of said notice, once, in the designated newspaper.

RULE XXXVI.

The Referee to whom the petition for composition is referred shall, after final consideration of creditors, report the proceedings had before him, with proof of mailing notices of meeting, and the names and addresses of creditors objecting to composition.

RULE XXXVII.

On the coming in of the report of Referee on petition for composition, an application must be made to the Court, for an order fixing a day for hearing on the order to confirm the composition.

RULE XXXVIII.

If any names of creditors objecting to the composition offered appear on the report of the Referee, the Clerk of the Court shall send notice of said hearing, by mail, to each creditor so objecting, and make proof of mailing.

RULE XXXIX.

All creditors voting for, or objecting to, a resolution or offer of composition, must prove their claims and have the same allowed before their vote or objection is recorded.

RULE XL.

In all cases where the bond required to be given by the Trustee, appointed by the creditors or Referee, is not greater in amount than two hundred dollars, the Referee to whom the matter is referred may accept the individual bond of the Trustee, so appointed.

RULE XLI.

On specifications in opposition to the discharge of a bankrupt being filed, the matter of the specifications may be referred to a special commissioner, to take the evidence and report the same with his opinion thereon to the Court. The party filing the specifications shall deposit with the person to whom the matter is referred an amount sufficient to cover the expense of taking the proofs and a per diem fee of five dollars for each hearing. Should an adjournment be granted a per diem fee of three dollars shall be paid by the party requesting the adjournment, provided the Referee or commissioner is in actual attendance.

RULE XLII.

A bankrupt, petitioning for his discharge in voluntary proceedings, must set forth in his petition that he has not been granted a discharge in bankruptcy within six years.

RULE XLIII.

On the presentation of a petition for the adjudication of a bankrupt, the Clerk shall enter on the minutes of the Court the name of the attorney presenting the same, and note the proceedings thereon; and the Clerk is hereby directed to attach the seal of the Court when required, and to sign the order of adjudication, the order of reference, and all orders of publication in the proceeding, when any such orders shall have been granted by the Judge or Court, and such orders shall be entered thereupon.

WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK.

RULE I.

Proceedings in Counties Where There is no Referee or Newspaper.

In case a petition is filed by or against a bankrupt who resides in any county where there is a vacancy in the office of Referee or where the Referee is disqualified, absent, sick or otherwise unable to act, the reference shall be made to the Referee who is most conveniently located to the bankrupt's residence. In case a petition is filed by or against a bankrupt who resides in a county where there is no designated newspaper, or where the designated newspaper for any reason refuses to act, the notices required by law may be published in a newspaper named by the parties in interest published in the county where the bankrupt resides, or the major part of his property is situated.

RULE II.

Filing Petition; Deposit of Fees.

All petitions shall be filed with the Clerk at his office in Buffalo. At the time of filing a petition thirty dollars shall be paid to the Clerk by the petitioner, except in cases where a fee is not required by a voluntary bankrupt; being ten dollars for the Clerk, fifteen dollars for the Referee and five dollars for the Trustee. In case the petition is dismissed it shall be the duty of the Clerk forthwith to return to the petitioner the amount deposited for the fees of the Referee and Trustee, respectively. Voluntary petitions must be filed in triplicate and involuntary petitions in duplicate. When the Judge is absent from the district it shall be the duty of the Clerk to enter an order as provided in Form No. 15, reciting the absence of the Judge, and referring the case to the proper Referee. When the Judge is present, a Court order shall be entered as provided in Form No. 14. Fees deposited by the petitioner in an involuntary case must be returned to him by the Trustee out of the estate of the bankrupt in all cases where property sufficient for such purpose comes to the hands of the Trustee.

RULE III.

Petition in Forma Pauperis.

In case a petition is filed by a proposed voluntary bankrupt which is accompanied by an affidavit under subdivision 2 of section 51 of the Act, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to file said petition without the payment of the fees provided for by law. If the Clerk, or the Referee to whom said petition is referred, has reason to believe such affidavit is false, he may file a certificate to that effect and cause the bankrupt to be examined. If upon such examination the Referee reports in writing that the statements contained in such affidavit are false, and that the bankrupt has or can obtain money with which to pay said fees, such report shall be sufficient proof upon which to base proceedings under subdivision 4 of General Order No. XXXV.

RULE IV.

Referee to Fix Time and Place of Hearings.

The Clerk shall mail a copy of the order of reference to the Referee, and thereafter all proceedings, except such as are required by the act, or by the general orders, to be had before the Judge, shall be had before the Referee, who shall fix the time when and the place where he will act upon the matters arising in the case; except that all meetings of creditors must be held in the county of the bankrupt, either at the county seat or at a place more convenient for the parties in interest. If the Referee cannot attend on the day named in the order of reference he may name a subsequent day within ten days thereafter, and give the bankrupt timely notice of the change; but the day first named shall be the day from which the bankrupt shall be subject to the orders of the Court as provided in General Order No. XII.

If the place named in the order of reference be manifestly inconvenient as a place of meeting for the parties in interest, the Referee may fix a more convenient place and give the bankrupt timely notice of the change.

RULE V.

Involuntary Petition — Notice to Debtor — Reference on Default.

Where an involuntary petition is filed in conformity with law it shall be the duty of the Clerk to issue a subpoena, as provided in Form No. 5, stating the time and place when the debtor is to appear. There shall be endorsed upon the subpoena the following:

"Notice to defendant.—It is not necessary for you to appear on the return day of this subpoena. You may appear and plead to the petition at any time within five days after said return day."

In case no pleadings are filed by the bankrupt or any of his creditors the Judge, or, in his absence, the Clerk, will enter the proper order without further appearance or motion on the part of the petitioner. Order of adjudication in involuntary proceedings shall not be entered until the expiration of five days after the return day of the subpoena.

RULE VI.

Service of Subpoena — Publication.

In involuntary proceedings, if personal service of the subpoena cannot be made by a delivery of a copy thereof to the debtor or to some adult person who is a member or resident in the debtor's family, at his dwelling house or usual place of abode within the district, and if the debtor shall not file his appearance within ten days after the return day of the subpoena, the Court, on proof by affidavit of the foregoing facts, and of the whereabouts of the debtor, will make an order directing such debtor to appear, plead, answer or demur by a day certain to be designated therein, pursuant to section 738 of the United States Revised Statutes, which order shall be served upon such absent debtor, if practicable, wherever found, or if personal service of such order upon such absent debtor is not practicable, such order shall be published as provided in the act; and upon proof of such service or publication of said order, and of compliance with the terms thereof, proceedings shall be had as upon personal service of the debtor within the district.

Upon the petition of one or more of several copartners, where some other member or members of the firm refuse to join in the petition, the like proceedings if there are firm assets, must be had to bring in the other copartners.

RULE VII.

Pleadings in Involuntary Cases; Trial by Jury.

Prior to the denial of bankruptcy, as provided in Form No. 6, the pleading in involuntary cases on the part of the alleged bankrupt, or any of his creditors who oppose the adjudication, shall conform as nearly as may be to the pleadings of the defendant in an equity action in the District Court of the United States.

In case a jury trial is demanded, as provided by section 19 of the Act, the Clerk shall place the issue on the Calendar of the next regular term of the District Court for trial unless a jury shall be in attendance, in which case it may be added by the Clerk to the current Calendar. The case shall then proceed in all respects like the trial of any action at common law, except that the Court may frame and send to the jury special questions presenting the issue to be tried. Upon the coming in of the verdict the Judge may, in accordance therewith, make an adjudication either that the debtor is or is not a bankrupt. In case a jury trial is not demanded the Judge may determine the issues presented by the pleadings, or he may refer the same, or any specified issue, to a special master to ascertain and report the facts with his opinion thereon.

RULE VIII.

Dismissal of Petition.

Every application to dismiss a voluntary or involuntary petition, as contemplated by section 59-g of the Bankruptcy Act, must be by petition in writing, signed and verified by the applicant or his attorney of record, and, if made before the bankrupt's schedules have been filed, such application must be accompanied by a list, verified by the bankrupt, of all his creditors, with their addresses. Upon the filing of such petition and list, when required, an order to show cause why such petition should not be granted may be entered by the Clerk. Thereafter, all proceedings, notices and pleas on such petition shall be the same as or similar to those on orders to show cause why discharges should not be granted as the same are fixed by Rule 10.

RULE IX.

Discharge and Composition — Petition and Report of Referee.

The petition for a discharge or for a confirmation of a composition must be duly verified and be filed with the Clerk. The petition for a discharge must conform to the provisions of General Order No. XXXI and of Form No. 57. There must also be presented before the final discharge is granted a report or certificate of the Referee that the bankrupt has in all things conformed to the requirements of the Act, that he has committed none of the offenses and done none of the acts prohibited in subdivision b of section 14 of the Act, and that he is, in the opinion of the Referee, entitled to his discharge.

Proof of mailing and publication, as provided in the next succeeding rule, together with his certificate of conformity, shall be sent by the Referee to the Clerk, at Buffalo, N. Y., at least one day prior to the hearing, and the Clerk shall present the same to the Court at the hearing.

RULE X.

Discharge Order to Show Cause; Opposition of Creditors.

The order to show cause why a discharge should not be granted or a composition confirmed may be entered by the Clerk or Deputy Clerk. It must state the time and place of hearing, and direct that the Referee give notice as provided in section 58 of the Act to all known creditors and other persons in interest. The notice must be mailed and published once, at least thirty days as to applications for discharge and as to composition ten days prior to said hearing. Proof of mailing and publication must be presented at least one day prior to the return day of the order. If no creditor or other party in interest appears and opposes, the discharge shall be granted. In case a creditor or other party in interest desires to oppose the granting of the discharge, he shall appear on the return day and file a verified specification of the grounds of his opposition, as provided in General Order No. XXXII. The issue thus joined may be referred to the Referee to ascertain and report the facts with his conclusions thereon. Either party may except to said report and the exceptions may be heard by the Judge on any motion day upon the usual notice.

The petitioner may, within five days from the service of a copy of the order of reference, and on giving at least five days' notice personally or eight days' notice by mail to the objecting creditor, move the Court on any motion day to have the specifications of objections to the discharge or the confirmation of the composition made more certain and definite or within such time may move their dismissal; in default whereof such specifications shall be deemed sufficient to present the questions suggested thereby. Such notice of motion shall also specify the grounds of objection.

RULE XI.

Confirmation of Composition.

In all cases of composition, except when the offer is made before adjudication, the application for confirmation with notice and proofs of service must be accompanied by the offer and acceptances and the certificate of the Referee, setting forth the amount of the composition fund and place of deposit, the names of all the creditors whose claims are allowed and the amount of the same and the amount to which each is entitled under the composition; also all expenses and allowances, and to whom made and payable.

RULE XII.

Petitions.

Petitions should state where the debtor has resided, including the street and number, if any, and also where his principal place of business, if any, has been during the preceding six months, or the greater part thereof, and the schedules should state the street and number or the residence, or place of business, of the creditors, so far as known. Petitions by one or more of several copartners should state, in case a discharge from copartnership debts is desired, whether there are firm assets, and, if there are, the petition should further state whether the firm or any other partners, not joining in the petition are solvent or insolvent, and, if insolvent, the place of residence and whereabouts of such other partners, so far as known, or ascertainable, in order that they may be brought in as parties in case they refuse to join in the petition.

Petitions, schedules and other papers filed shall be written, typewritten or printed upon white paper of the size of law cap, approximately thirteen inches long by eight inches wide. All pleadings must be properly indorsed with the name of the Court, the title of the cause, and, if the parties appear by an attorney, his name and office address. If the attorney resides in a city, the street and number must be given.

RULE XIII.

Notices and How Served.

All notices required to be given under section 58 of the Act shall, in case the Referee so directs, be given by the bankrupt or his attorney in voluntary cases, and by the petitioner or his attorney in involuntary cases, and when so given the person giving the notice shall make return to the Referee in the form of an affidavit with the notice, or a copy thereof, annexed, showing due mailing or publication of said notice as required by law. The affidavits of mailing and of publication may be sworn to or affirmed before any officer authorized to administer oaths under section 20 of the Act. Notice to creditors of meetings subsequent to the first, in cases where there are undivided assets, shall be the same as the notice provided for the first meeting in section 58 of the Act. In cases where there are no assets the Referee may, in his discretion, dispense with the publication of such notice. The original notice shall be signed by the Referee. It shall be printed upon or inclosed within a sealed post-paid wrapper in such a manner that the address and postmark shall, if possible, be on the same paper as the notice, or in the discretion of the Referee, said notice may be printed upon a postal card or other card.

RULE XIV.

Sales of Bankrupt's Property as Amended Should Read.

The sales of a bankrupt's property authorized by the Act and General Order No. XVIII shall be under the direction of the Referee. Public sales shall be upon the notice required by section 58 of the Act, and such additional notice as the Referee may direct. When notice of the sale of real estate is published the description of the real property to be sold need not be by metes and bounds, but it shall be sufficient to identify and locate the property, and the notice shall contain a reference to the order filed in the Clerk's office where a more specific description as to the metes, bounds, etc., may be found.

RULE XV.

List of Claims and Accounts Transmitted to Clerk.

General Order No. XXIV shall not be construed to require the Referee to transmit to the Clerk a separate statement of each proof of debt, but only that he shall transmit a list of the claims proved after he has reason to believe that all the claims have been proved against the estate that will be presented.

General Order No. XXVI shall not be construed to require the Referee to transmit to the Clerk a separate account of each case which may be referred to him, but only a statement of his disbursements in all cases and for all causes since his last monthly return.

RULE XVI.

Clerk to Transmit Papers to the Referee.

The Clerk shall transmit all proofs of claims, and other papers filed with him under General Order No. XX, subsequent to the reference, to the Referee, except such papers which, by the terms of said General Order, are required to be filed with the Clerk alone.

RULE XVII.

Filing of Returns, Reports, Adjudication, Bonds, etc.

All returns and reports from Referees or other officers of the Court shall be directed to the Clerk of the Court at Buffalo, N. Y., and all returns and reports which by law or the general orders are required to be made to the Judge shall be directed to him in care of the Clerk at Buffalo, N. Y.

It shall be the duty of the Referee to transmit to the Clerk forthwith all adjudications made during the absence of the Judge, and all bonds of Trustees and the orders approving the same within five days of the approval thereof. The Referee shall retain in his possession the papers and records until said case is finally closed. He shall then, within five days, transmit his record book, and all papers in the case to the Clerk, together with a certificate specifying that the case is closed.

RULE XVIII.

Fees of Referee and Trustee, When Paid.

The Trustee's fee of five dollars deposited with the Clerk shall be paid to the Trustee when the services of the Trustee have been actually rendered and the case has been closed and the Referee has made his return as required by Rule 17. He shall be paid such commissions as may be allowed under section 48 of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended at the time the final dividend is made. The Referee shall be paid his commissions at the same time. In case no Trustee is appointed as provided in General Order No. XV, the Clerk shall, upon filing the certificate of the Referee specifying that the case is closed, the Referee's record book, and his return as provided in Rule 17, pay the five dollars, deposited for Trustee's fee, to the petitioner's attorney.

The Clerk shall pay the Referee the fifteen dollars deposited as fees of the Referee upon receiving the latter's record book, return and certificate that the case has been closed and that his services have been rendered, and in case of a composition, upon the confirmation thereof. Where there are no assets a case may be closed by the Referee and his return and certificate thereof made and filed with the Clerk at the expiration of four months from the date of adjudication, provided no application for the discharge has been made and provided further that if an application for discharge has been made that the same has been granted or refused to the bankrupt.

RULE XIX.

Money Drawn by Countersigned Checks.

When money is deposited in the name of the Clerk of the Court, or of a Trustee, it shall not be drawn unless by check signed by said Clerk or Trustee, having on its face the number and title of the cause and countersigned by the Referee in charge. All checks must conform to this rule, and also to the requirements of General Order No. XXIX. The Clerk shall furnish to the depositories a copy of said general order and also a copy of this rule.

RULE XX.

Referees to Direct Prosecution and Defense of Suits and Allow Amendments.

The Referee may direct the prosecution and the defense of suits by the Trustee as provided in subdivisions c and d of section 11 of the Act. He may allow amendments to the pleadings and papers which do not involve jurisdictional defects in all matters pending before him, and he shall, in the first instance, have full power and authority over the proof and allowance of claims as provided by section 57 of the Act and General Order No. XXI. When a petition referred to a Referee is insufficient upon its face to confer jurisdiction he shall return the same to the Clerk with a statement of the defects noted thereon, and no further proceedings shall be had thereon until a new or amended petition remedying such defects is filed with the Clerk.

The Referee may, upon his own motion, direct that the schedules be made more definite and certain by requiring the street and number to be given where a creditor resides in a city, and the Referee may direct that the bankrupt furnish any other information regarding his property or his creditors which the Referee may deem essential.

RULE XXI.

Referees to Grant Stays.

When a motion for an injunction is pending, or is about to be made, the Referee may, in order to prevent injury to the property of the bankrupt, or otherwise, grant a temporary restraining order staying proceedings until the hearing and decision of said motion. In case all parties in interest agree that said motion be heard by the Referee in charge, they may file with the Referee a written stipulation to that effect. The decision of the Referee on such motion shall be filed with the Clerk, and if the Referee decides that an injunction shall issue, an order to that effect may be made by the Judge.

RULE XXII.

Referees May Pass upon Relevancy of Testimony and Confine Examinations Within Reasonable Limits.

Referees may pass upon the competency, materiality and relevancy of evidence in matters properly before them for investigation, and shall have all the powers of the Judge concerning the administration or rejection thereof, and shall note on the record all objections, the rulings thereon and the exceptions which may be taken; and in cases where testimony is excluded they shall note a brief statement by the party offering the same of the facts he expects to prove thereby. Referees shall limit the inquiry before them, to relevant and material matters, and in case an examination or a cross-examination is unnecessarily prolix, or improperly prolonged, the Referee may, in his discretion, limit the time of such examinations; or he may impose costs, including the fees of the stenographer and other expenses, upon the party responsible for the improper prolongation.

RULE XXIII.

Petitions for Review, Limitation of Time for.

A petition for review of a Referee's order must be filed with the Referee within ten days after the order is made, unless such time is extended before or after expiration of said ten days, by the Referee or the Court.

RULE XXIV.

Claims Need Not be Approved Where There are no Assets.

In cases which show no assets the Referee need not formally approve or disallow any claims filed with him, except on special request or motion, but such claims shall be returned with the papers to the Clerk at the conclusion of the case. If, in such a case, assets sufficient to pay a dividend are discovered by the Trustee, such claims shall be allowed, continued or disallowed by the Referee at the first meeting of creditors after it is determined that such estate will pay a dividend.

RULE XXV.

Referees May Make Rules in Proceedings Before Them.

Referees may make other general or special rules for the guidance of proceedings before them within their respective territorial jurisdictions, and may from time to time alter and amend the same, provided that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the act, with the general orders of the Supreme Court, or with these rules.

RULE XXVI.

Powers of Referees.

The referees heretofore or hereafter appointed for the Western District of New York are hereby, respectively, vested with the jurisdiction which by the Bankruptcy Act of July 1, 1898, and its amendments, and the general orders of the Supreme Court promulgated at the October Term of 1898, the Court or Judge may delegate to or confer upon said Referees; and they are, respectively, empowered and authorized to do all acts, take all proceedings, make all orders and decrees, and perform all duties so authorized to be delegated by said act, and said general orders, without special authority in each case, and under the general authority conferred by this order.

RULE XXVII.

Special Masters, Fees, etc.

When the issues under Rules 7 and 10 are referred to a special master, he shall be entitled to receive for his services five dollars for each day actually spent in hearing such reference and preparing his report. Such sum shall be chargeable in the first instance to the party opposing the adjudication, discharge or composition, respectively, and indemnity may be demanded by the special master before proceeding with the hearing. In case the petition in an involuntary proceeding be dismissed with costs such sum may be taxed against the petitioning creditors.

If a composition is not confirmed, or is set aside, such sum may, in the discretion of the Court, be ordered paid by the Trustee.

In other cases when matters are referred to the Referee as a special master, requiring services not devolving upon him by virtue of his office, he shall receive a like compensation which shall be chargeable in the first instance to the party bringing on the reference and shall be paid by the party ultimately defeated in such reference.

Should the reference in any of such cases, be unusually difficult or extraordinary, a higher rate of compensation may be paid if stipulated by both parties and sanctioned by the Judge.

RULE XXVIII.

Referee's Expenses.

Referees shall be entitled to collect, as an indemnity against their actual and necessary expenses in the administration of estates, a sum not to exceed six dollars from each case referred to them, which shall be paid by the bankrupt (unless relieved therefrom by order of the Referee or the Judge) in no asset cases, and out of the estate in asset cases; as well as a reasonable sum in addition, dependent upon the probable number of hearings, to be paid out of the estate in asset cases and to be fixed by the Referee or the Judge; provided that each Referee shall, in the reports required by General Order XXVI, detail the amounts so collected, as well as the way in which the same are disbursed, and to that end Rule 15 is modified accordingly.

RULE XXIX.

Monthly Reports by Referees.

Referees will hereafter be required strictly to observe General Order XXVI, and, in making the monthly return of receipts and disbursements therein required, shall substantially conform to the following form:

RULE XXX.

Receivers, Appointment of, Allowances to and Accounts of.

The District Judge of this district shall appoint all receivers in voluntary and involuntary proceedings, make all orders for their direction, make all orders for the disposition of property in the hands of receivers, and on report of the Referee showing compliance with section 48 of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended, finally settle their accounts and allowances. Referees may appoint receivers in voluntary proceedings when the District Judge is absent from the District upon receiving a certificate from the Clerk to that effect.

RULE XXXI.

Allowance to Attorneys, Trustees, Appraisers, etc.

All allowances made by referees for compensation of attorneys for petitioning creditors or the bankrupt, or the trustee or receivers, and disbursements, fees of appraisers, and allowances and commissions to trustees and special masters to be paid out of the bankrupt estate must be submitted to the District Judge for his approval or modification before the same shall be paid. Referees are directed not to allow any attorney for any receiver or trustee more than twice the statutory allowance of the receiver or trustee for whom he is attorney in the case. If, in the opinion of the Referee, a greater compensation should be awarded, the Referee shall certify concisely to the Court the grounds of his opinion and the amount of the receiver's or trustee's fee allowed. Applications for additional compensation in all cases, either on certificate or independently thereof, shall be heard as motions on the Tuesday Bankruptcy Motion Calendar. (Amended December 31, 1914.)

RULE XXXII.

. Attorneys for Receivers, Trustees, Appointment of, etc.

Receivers and trustees in bankruptcy are directed not to retain as their attorney or counsel the attorney or counsel of the petitioning creditors or of the bankrupt, or the attorney at whose instance the receiver was appointed, or of any creditor, unless a special order authorizing such employment is obtained from the Judge before adjudication, and after adjudication, from the Referee.

RULE XXXIII.Attorneys Holding or Voting Proxies.

Any attorney or counsel who has secured proxies and voted upon the election of Trustee or who is the attorney for persons holding such proxies shall not be retained by the Trustee without first obtaining an order of the Court authorizing such retainer.

RULE XXXIV.Inventories, When and Where to be Filed.

For the convenience of creditors of bankrupts and their attorneys, all inventories made by receivers and trustees of bankrupt estates must be made in duplicate, one of which shall be filed with the Clerk of this Court within ten days after completion, and the other, with the Referee having charge of the case.

DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS.

RULE I.

Petitions and schedules shall conform in size and arrangement to the blanks now in use in this district, and other papers filed shall conform to such blanks as nearly as may be, provided, however, that if any paper is presented for filing which is of a different size, the Clerk may in his discretion file it. All papers shall be written legibly, or printed.

RULE II.

Amendments to the schedule shall be sworn to and filed in triplicate with the Clerk, or with the Referee.

RULE III.

Each item in the schedule not otherwise filled out, shall be carried out by the entry "nothing."

RULE IV.

The address of creditors residing in cities and large towns shall be given by street and number. If either street or number is unknown, it shall be so stated in the schedule.

RULE V.

An individual petition filed by a member of the firm which is not insolvent, shall contain the names and residences of all members of the firm. The schedules of said petition shall show the different classes of debts.

RULE VI.

The petition of a corporation shall be signed by its treasurer, cashier or chief financial officer. The petition of a banking corporation shall be signed by its president, cashier or treasurer. If by affidavit or otherwise it appears that no such officer is within the district, the petition may be signed by any officer or agent of the corporation having knowledge of the facts, and duly authorized by the petitioner.

RULE VII.

A bankrupt intending to offer terms of composition to his creditors, may notify the Referee of his intention to do so, before the order for the first meeting is made; and in such case, the Referee shall include in the notice of the first meeting a statement of the terms of composition to be proposed.

RULE VIII.

In case of composition the deposit shall be sufficient to pay the proposed percentage upon all unsecured debts scheduled by the bankrupt, unless the Court should otherwise order.

RULE IX.

Upon the acceptance of terms of composition by the creditors, the Referee shall send to the Clerk's office a list of the claims proved, and his report concerning (1) the examination of the bankrupt, (2) the terms of composition and the acceptance thereof, (3) the cost of proceedings before the Referee, including those of the Trustee, (4) the sufficiency of the deposit, and (5) the propriety of confirming the composition.

RULE X.

A trustee shall be allowed additional compensation for professional services rendered in the administration of the estate only when the Referee, before the services are rendered, shall have authorized, in writing, the Trustee to make additional charge therefor. This may be done in the discretion of the Referee, when he is of opinion that the services are necessary, can be most efficiently rendered by the Trustee, and are not included in the duties imposed upon the Trustee by the Bankrupt Act.

RULE XI.

An itemized account shall be annexed to the proof of debt in every case where this is possible.

RULE XII.

An assignment of the right to collect and receive a dividend in bankruptcy or a payment in composition, or a waiver of the deposit in Court of the consideration to be paid by the bankrupt to a creditor in a case where a composition has been offered, shall be acknowledged before an officer authorized to administer oaths, who shall certify that the assignor or waiving creditor is personally known to him.

No such waiver shall be good or valid unless the waiving creditor shall have filed a proof of his claim.

RULE XIII.

Upon an order for the examination of a bankrupt or other witness, any person interested may carry on the examination as effectually as the person at whose instance the order was made, and any person interested may take up and support a motion or petition filed by another person.

RULE XIV.

A petition under General Order XXVII for the review of a judgment, order or finding made by a Referee, shall be filed within ten days after the order is made, unless the time of filing is extended by the Court. A party to such petition who desires to introduce evidence other than that taken before the Referee shall apply in writing to the Judge for leave to do so, and shall state in his application the substance of the additional evidence to be offered, and the reason of his failure to introduce it before the Referee.

RULE XV.

A petition for a rehearing shall set out the special matter or cause for which the rehearing is sought. It shall be signed by counsel, and the facts therein stated, if not apparent on the record, shall be verified by oath.

RULE XVI.

The attorney of record of the bankrupt shall not act for any creditor or for the Trustee in bankruptcy proceedings.

RULE XVII.

Either at the time of filing schedules in bankruptcy, or amendments thereto, or as soon as may be thereafter, the bankrupt shall file with the Clerk or with the Referee, in triplicate, a typewritten list of the creditors alphabetically arranged, with their addresses—one for the use of the Clerk, one for the use of the Referee, and one for the use of the Trustee.

STANDING ORDERS.I.

Motions in all matters in bankruptcy may be marked for hearing on Monday of each week, except during August, at two o'clock p. m.

Any party interested may set down for hearing any of the matters referred to in this rule by delivering or mailing notices thereof in writing to the Clerk of the Court and the opposing party no later than the preceding Thursday, a certificate specifying all parties to whom notice was given and the date of such notice to be filed before the hearing.

II.

The accounts of referees returned to Court under General Order XXVI shall be filed with the Clerk and may thereafter be examined by any person interested. If no objection to their allowance is filed within ten days of their return they shall stand as allowed without further order.

III.

Immediately after the disbursement of money to creditors in a bankruptcy case the commissions of the Referee and Trustee on such money shall be due and payable.

DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT.

RULE I.

Petition should state both debtor's residence and principal place of business during preceding six months or greater part thereof.

RULE II.

All petitions, schedules, and other papers should be on paper eight (8) inches wide and thirteen (13) inches long.

All papers filed must be legibly written or printed on paper with a margin of at least one and one-half (1½) inches on the upper end of each page, and one (1) inch on the left of each page. They should be properly folded and endorsed outside, (1) with number of case; (2) title of Court; (3) title of case; (4) character of paper; (5) name and address of attorney presenting same.

In involuntary cases, as many copies of the petition should be filed as there are parties defendant, with one more for the Clerk.

RULE III.

Petitioners making no deposit for officers' fees should be examined by the Referee in regard to their means. If he is not satisfied as to the inability of the bankrupt to make a deposit, he should so report to the Court, and further proceedings will meantime be stayed.

RULE IV.

Writs of subpoena in involuntary cases should be made returnable on the first Monday after filing of petition, which will allow six days' notice to be served on the debtor. The writ should contain notice to the debtor or defendant that he need not appear on the return day, and that five days are allowed thereafter for such appearance and answer.

In case the debtor is not found to be served, the Marshal shall forthwith make return of such fact to the Court, and the Clerk shall issue an order for publication of notice of pendency of such petition and of the return day thereon two times in some newspaper published near the last place of debtor's abode, and until fifteen days after such notice shall have been published, no adjudication or reference shall be made.

RULE V.

Notice of the first meeting of creditors shall be published but once unless otherwise specially ordered.

RULE VI.

A bankrupt intending to offer terms of composition to his creditors may notify the Referee of his intention to do so before the order for the first meeting is made; and in such case the Referee shall include in the notice of the first meeting a statement of the terms of composition to be proposed.

RULE VII.

Applications for discharge or for confirmation of composition must be filed in Court, and shall be at once referred to the Referee in Bankruptcy having charge of the case, as special master, who may require a deposit in cash to cover the expenses of such application.

Such Special Master shall thereupon appoint a time and place for the consideration of such application, and for the attendance and examination of the bankrupt, and for appearance to show why such application should not be granted; and such Special Master, at least ten days before the time so specified, shall mail to each known creditor a notice thereof; and cause the same to be once published, which notice shall be substantially in the following form: viz.:

District Court of the United States

District of Connecticut.

In the matter of Bankrupt.

(Upon Petition for Discharge.)

(Upon Confirmation of Composition.)

Notice is hereby given that of in the County of and State of Connecticut, has filed his application, dated A. D. 191 for a discharge from all his debts in bankruptcy (a confirmation of composition of per cent proposed by him), and that all his creditors and other persons interested objecting to such discharge (confirmation) may attend before Special Master, at his office in Conn., on the day of, 19...., at o'clock, M., then and there to examine the bankrupt, and to show cause, if any they have, why such discharge should not be granted (composition should not be confirmed), and to determine whether or not to authorize the Trustee to interpose objections to such discharge.

The Special Master will take all examinations on such application and if specifications in opposition are filed, will take evidence thereon and ascertain and report the facts and forward the papers in the proceedings under such order to the Judge.

Each member of a bankrupt partnership should proceed for a discharge by separate application.

RULE VIII.

Specifications in opposition to discharge or confirmation of composition must be verified by the party interposing same, and filed in duplicate with the Special Master within ten days after the said return day one of which duplicates shall be forthwith mailed by the Special Master to the bankrupt or his attorney.

RULE IX.

In cases where a person shall be entitled to have a trial by jury and shall have duly applied therefor, the cause may be continued to the next regular term of the District Court.

After a cause shall be placed on the trial calendar it may be passed over to another day of the same term by consent of counsel or order of the Court, but shall not be continued beyond the term save in exceptional cases by order of the Court upon good cause shown by affidavit and upon such terms as the Court shall in its discretion impose. Continuances beyond the term by consent of the parties shall be allowed on condition only that a stipulation be signed by counsel for all the parties and that all costs incurred theretofore be paid. Thereupon an order shall be entered dropping the case from the trial calendar, subject to reinstatement within one year upon application to the court by either party, in which event it shall be heard at the earliest convenient day. If not so reinstated within the year, the suit shall be dismissed without prejudice to a new one.

RULE X.

General Order No. XXIV shall not be construed to require Referees to transmit to the Clerk any statement of proof of debt until he shall have reason to believe that all claims have been proved, nor shall Order No. XXVI be construed to require Referees to return to the Judge other than his general monthly reports of expenses which need not apportion such expenses to each particular case, unless required by further order.

RULE XI.

The money of the bankrupt estate shall be deposited in designated depositories, in the name of the estate of which the Trustee or Receiver has been appointed, and drawn out only by check or warrant signed by the Trustee or Trustees or Receiver of the estate, and countersigned by the Referee acting in the case, who is hereby designated to countersign such checks. There shall be written or printed on the face of each check so drawn, a brief statement of the general purpose for which the disbursement is made, and the Trustee or Trustees or Receiver of each estate shall keep a record of all checks drawn by him in the manner prescribed in General Order XXIX.

RULE XII.

No Trustee shall engage in litigation in behalf of the estate, either for the purpose of securing assets or contesting the claims of a creditor without the approval of the Referee.

RULE XIII.

Any order or finding of a Referee may, under proper circumstances be reconsidered, vacated or modified by him at any time while the case in which the order or finding is made is still pending before him.

A petition for review of a Referee's order must be filed with the Referee within ten days after the order is made, unless such time is extended by the Referee.

Notice of the filing of a decision of the Judge upon a petition for review of a Referee's order shall be given to the Referee by the Clerk.

RULE XIV.

Costs in actions by creditors in which an attachment has been dissolved by the adjudication in bankruptcy shall be entitled to priority only, where they have necessarily been incurred in good faith, and have resulted in preserving the assets of the debtor. Claims for such costs shall be proven in the name of the creditor, but may be verified by the attorney, in the action as agent or attorney for the creditor.

RULE XV.

Referees are authorized to permit the amendment of petitions and schedules upon the application of the bankrupt, and may, upon their own action, require the bankrupt to amend the schedules or petition.

Schedules shall give the last known post office address of the creditors named therein, with street and number when possible.

RULE XVI.

When any attorney shall be entitled to the allowance of a fee for professional services rendered to the bankrupt, the petitioning creditor in involuntary proceedings, the Trustee or Receiver, he shall file with the Referee a verified petition stating the nature and character of the services performed by him and the amount he claims therefor, and praying that the same may be allowed. The Referee shall consider such petition, and shall allow said attorney such sum as may be just.

RULE XVII.

Within the first month after his appointment and at the expiration of every two months thereafter, the Trustee or Receiver shall file with the Referee a report in writing of the condition of the assets of the estate, giving full detail of his actions as such Trustee or Receiver.

RULE XVIII.

Where the bankrupt has no property of value other than such as is exempt, and no assets have come into the hands of the Trustee, it shall be unnecessary to call a final meeting of creditors, and the Trustee shall be entitled to execute a discharge from his trust by filing a report with the Referee, stating such facts and making it appear to the satisfaction of the Referee that there is no property of the bankrupt available as assets of the estate.

RULE XIX.

Where it appears that the bankrupt has no property of value except such as is exempt, the Referee shall not be required to proceed with the administration of the estate, or to take any action therein until the petitioner has deposited with the Referee a sum sufficient to cover the costs of advertising, printing, and other expenses incident to the administration of the estate.

RULE XX.

Money deposited to effect a composition shall be deposited in the name of the Receiver or Trustee, if one has been appointed, and checks against the same shall be countersigned by the Referee. If no Receiver or Trustee has been appointed, the deposit shall be in the name of the Referee.

Where any part of the consideration to be distributed under the proposed composition shall consist of promissory notes, they shall be delivered, promptly executed, to the Referee, and upon his order they shall be sent by the Trustee or Receiver by registered mail to the respective creditors entitled to receive them.

RULE XXI.

When there are no assets and no Trustee has been appointed, or applied for, after a hearing of the creditors duly called, unless dispensed with by order of Court, the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of the payment by the Clerk to the Referee of the deposit for his services when a discharge has been granted or refused to the bankrupt, or when three months have elapsed after the first meeting of creditors without any application by the bankrupt for his discharge.

Where a Trustee has been appointed, the case shall be deemed closed and the deposit for his service paid to him on the confirmation of a composition, or on approval of the Trustee's final account and payment of the final dividend, or upon the Trustee's verified report that no assets have come into his hands or were discoverable. When the case is closed, if no Trustee has been appointed, the deposit for Trustee's services shall be paid by the Clerk to the petitioner's attorney.

RULE XXII.

The notice required to creditors of application to dismiss bankruptcy proceedings, both voluntary and involuntary, under section 59g, of the Bankrupt Law of July 1, 1898, before adjudication and reference shall be by notice signed by the Clerk and inserted two times in some newspaper published near the residence of the bankrupt named, at least ten days before any order of dismissal shall be made.

After adjudication and reference, the notices given to creditors shall be such as the Referee may order.

If any creditor shall appear in opposition to the dismissal within ten days, the matter in issue shall be placed on the bankruptcy calendar for disposition on the next motion day in bankruptcy at Hartford.

RULE XXIII.

When a motion for an injunction is pending or is about to be made, the Referee may, in order to prevent injury to the property of the bankrupt, or otherwise, grant a temporary restraining order staying proceedings until the motion is determined. In case all parties in interest agree that said motion be heard by the Referee in charge, they may file with the Referee a written stipulation to that effect. The decision of the Referee on such motion shall be filed with the Clerk, and if the Referee decides that an injunction shall issue, an Order to that effect may be made by the Judge.

RULE XXIV.

Referees and Special Masters may pass upon the competency, materiality, and relevancy of evidence in matters properly before them for investigation, and shall have all the powers of the Judge concerning the admission or rejection thereof, and shall note on the record all objections, the rulings thereon, and the exceptions which may be taken; and in cases where testimony is excluded, they shall note a brief statement by the party offering same of the facts he expects to prove thereby. Referees and Special Masters shall limit the inquiry before them to relevant and material matters, and in case an examination or cross-examination is unnecessarily prolix, or improperly prolonged, they may, in their discretion limit the time of such examination, and may impose costs, including the fees of the stenographer and other expenses, upon the party responsible for the improper prolongation.

RULE XXV.

The Judge will hear matters in bankruptcy on the first Monday of every month, in the year, except July and August, at 2 p. m., unless otherwise ordered.

Parties desiring to be heard upon any motion in any case in which a proper appearance has been made for the opposing party, must serve notice of such motion and copy of the papers upon which it is based, on the opposing party at least five days prior to the date of the expected hearing, and must return such notice or motion papers into the Clerk's office within one day thereafter.

RULE XXVI.

In petitions for involuntary bankruptcy, or in an affidavit filed with such petitions, the probable value of the assets of the alleged bankrupt shall be stated. In all cases in which such value shall amount to $1,000 or more, an order appointing one of the Referees in Bankruptcy a Special Master in the case shall be annexed to the petition. Thereupon the Receiver, if one is appointed, or if no Receiver is appointed, the attorney for the petitioning creditors shall make and file with the designated Master, as complete a list of the names and addresses of the creditors as can be immediately ascertained. The Master may call a meeting of the alleged bankrupt's creditors upon five days' notice to the creditors named in such list; at which meeting the Receiver, if one has been appointed, shall make a report of the condition of the estate and the creditors may appoint a committee, or take such action in the case as they see fit.

RULE XXVII.

When a Receiver is appointed prior to adjudication and order of reference, the Clerk shall forthwith send to the Referee to whom the case is to be referred, a certified copy of the order of appointment, and of any other order made in the case prior to the order of reference.

RULE XXVIII.

If the entire assets of the estate in excess of the amount necessary to pay expenses of administration and the debts which have priority do not exceed five per cent of the claims which have been proved at the date of the hearing upon the Trustee's first account, and if the estate is then ready to be closed, the first dividend may be omitted, and a final and only dividend may be declared at that time and the estate closed.

RULE XXIX.

Duplicates of all pleadings shall be made and filed in the Clerk's office, one copy of which shall be forthwith transmitted by mail to the Referee.

DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY.

Adopted September 1, 1915.

RULE I.

Notice of Motions and Other Hearings.

Motions must be noticed and orders to show cause must be made returnable on motion days. If noticed for any other day, except by leave of the Judge, the notice will be treated as a nullity. Notice of motion must be served at least five days before the time appointed for the hearing. The Judge or Referee may, upon an affidavit showing grounds therefor, make an order to show cause why the relief demanded should not be granted. When not otherwise specially provided for by law, all notices of other hearings and proceedings in bankruptcy shall conform to the foregoing provisions as to notices of motion. All proofs of service of notices, notes of issue, etc., shall be in the hands of the Clerk at Trenton by the Saturday prior to the motion day upon which the said motion is to be argued.

RULE II.

Filing Petition — Deposit of Fees.

ALL petitions and schedules shall be originals (duplicate and triplicate may be in carbon, but each page of all schedules must be signed by the petitioner or bankrupt, and full sets must be filed; if there are no items, the word "none" shall be inserted) and shall be filed in triplicate with the Clerk in Trenton or Newark. At the time of filing a petition thirty dollars shall be paid to the Clerk by the petitioner, except in cases where a petition is filed by a voluntary bankrupt in forma pauperis, being ten dollars for the Clerk, fifteen dollars for the Referee and five dollars for the Trustee. In involuntary cases a deposit of ten dollars for service fees shall also be made with the United States Marshal when petition is filed, the unused balance of which he shall immediately return. In case the petition is dismissed it shall be the duty of the Clerk forthwith to return to the petitioner, or his attorney, the unused portion of the amount deposited for the fees of the Referee and Trustee, respectively. When the Judges are both absent from the district it shall be the duty of the Clerk to enter an order as provided in Form No. 15, reciting such absence, and referring the case to the proper Referee. When either of the Judges is present, a Court order shall be entered as provided in Form No. 14.

RULE III.

Proceedings in Counties Where There Is No Referee.

In case a petition is filed by or against a bankrupt who resides in any county where there is no Referee or where the Referee is disqualified, absent, sick or otherwise unable to act, the reference shall be made to such Referee as the Court may select.

RULE IV.

Petition in Forma Pauperis.

In case a petition is filed by a proposed voluntary bankrupt which is accompanied by an affidavit under subdivision 2 of section 51 of the act, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to file said petition without the payment of the fees provided for by law. If the Clerk or the Referee to whom said petition is referred has reason to believe such affidavit is false, he may file a certificate to that effect and cause the bankrupt to be examined. If upon such examination the Referee reports in writing that the statements contained in such affidavit are false, and that the bankrupt has or can obtain money with which to pay said fees, such report shall be sufficient proof upon which to base proceedings under subdivision 4 of General Order No. XXXV.

RULE V.

Referees to Fix Time and Place for Hearings.

The Clerk shall mail a copy of the order of reference to the Referee, and thereafter all proceedings, except such as are required by the act or by the general orders, to be had before a Judge of the Court shall be had before the Referee, who shall fix the time when and the place where he will act upon the matters arising in the case.

If the time and place, or either, named in the order of reference be manifestly inconvenient as a place of meeting for the parties in interest, the Referee may fix a more convenient time and place and give the bankrupt, all creditors and parties in interest timely notice of the change. (See section 55 of the Bankruptcy Act.)

RULE VI.

Involuntary Petition — Notice to Debtor — Reference on Default.

Two original involuntary petitions must be filed in cases where there is only one alleged bankrupt, and as many more original petitions shall be filed as there are respondents; all copies, while they may be carbons, shall be signed and verified by the petitioning creditors; it shall then be the duty of the Clerk to enter an order to show cause and issue a subpoena, as provided in Forms Nos. 4 and 5, respectively, returnable on a Court day, stating the time and place when the debtor is to appear. In case it is impossible to make said subpoena returnable on a Court day within the fifteen days provided in section 18 of the act, or for service to be made in time, the Clerk shall make subpoena returnable on either the first or second Court day thereafter without a special order in each case. There shall be indorsed upon the subpoena the following:

"Notice to defendant — It is not necessary for you to appear on the return day of this subpoena. You may appear and plead to the petition at any time within five days after said return day."

In case no pleadings are filed by the bankrupt or any of his creditors, the Judge, or, in his absence, the Clerk, will enter the proper order without further appearance or motion on the part of the petitioner.

RULE VII.

Voluntary Appearance and Waiver in Involuntary Cases.

Alleged bankrupt may file voluntary appearance and waiver of service of petition if desired, in which case the Clerk shall not be required to issue subpoena in the matter, but shall issue the usual order to show cause as per Form No. 4 in order to establish the date of the return day. The solicitor to petitioning creditors shall forthwith notify the alleged bankrupt or his solicitor of such date, and at the same time shall mail him a copy of the petition in bankruptcy. The case shall then proceed in the same manner as if service had been regularly made by the United States Marshal.

When a consent to immediate adjudication is filed by any alleged bankrupt, properly authenticated or otherwise proven to the satisfaction of the Clerk, the Clerk may enter orders of adjudication and reference forthwith.

RULE VIII.

Service of Subpoena — Publication.

In involuntary proceedings, if personal service of the subpoena cannot be made by a delivery of a copy thereof to the debtor or to some adult person who is a member or resident in the debtor's family at his dwelling-house or usual place of abode within the district and if the debtor shall not file an appearance within five days after the return day of the subpoena, the Court, on proof by affidavit of the foregoing facts, and of the whereabouts of the debtor, will make an order directing such debtor to appear, plead, answer, or demur by a day certain to be designated therein, pursuant to section 738 of the United States Revised Statutes, which order shall be served upon such absent debtor, if practicable, wherever found, or if personal service of such order upon such absent debtor is not practicable, such order shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks (being three publications) as the Court may direct; and upon proof of such service or publication of said order and of compliance with the terms thereof, proceedings shall be had as upon personal service of the debtor within the district.

Upon the petition of one or more of several copartners, where some other member or members of the firm refuse to join in the petition, the like proceedings, if there are firm assets, must be had to bring in the other copartners.

RULE IX.

Involuntary Case — Triplicate Schedules.

In involuntary cases the schedules filed by the bankrupt or petitioning creditors (all pages of which shall be signed and blank places filled out as in voluntary cases) shall be filed with the Clerk or with the Referee in charge of the case within ten days from the date of adjudication, and shall be in triplicate—one copy for the Clerk, one for the Referee, and one for the Trustee—as in voluntary cases.

RULE X.

Pleadings in Involuntary Cases — Trial by Jury.

Prior to the denial of bankruptcy, as provided in Form No. 6, the pleadings in involuntary cases on the part of the alleged bankrupt, or any of his creditors who oppose the adjudication, shall conform as nearly as may be to the pleadings of the defendant in an equity action in the District Court of the United States.

In case a jury trial is demanded, as provided by section 19 of the act, the Clerk shall enter an order as provided in Form No. 7, and the issue shall be noticed for trial on a day to be named by the Court, and shall proceed in all respects like the trial of any action at common law, except that the Court may frame and send to the jury special questions presenting the issues to be tried. Upon the coming in of the verdict the Judge may, in accordance therewith, make an adjudication either that the debtor is or is not a bankrupt. In case a jury trial is not demanded, the Judge may determine the issues presented by the pleadings, or he may refer the same, or any specified issue, to the Referee, as Special Master, to ascertain and report the facts.

RULE XI.

Dismissal of Petition for Want of Prosecution.

Where a motion is made prior to adjudication to dismiss a petition for lack of prosecution or upon consent, notice must be given to the creditors and all others who have appeared either as petitioners or in opposition to the petition or otherwise; or their consents to the entry of such an order must be obtained.

RULE XII.Vacating Order of Adjudication — Thirty Days.

After thirty days have elapsed from the date of the order of reference to a Referee of an adjudicated petition in voluntary bankruptcy, and no proceedings have been taken therein by the bankrupt, due notice having been given by the Referee to the bankrupt and his attorney (if petitioner is represented by attorney) to proceed in the matter, and the time not have been enlarged, the Referee shall forthwith report the facts to the Court and apply for an order to show cause, to be served on the bankrupt or his attorney, why the order of adjudication should not be vacated and the petition dismissed.

RULE XIII.Discharges and Compositions.

a. The petition for a discharge or for a confirmation of a composition must be filed with the Clerk. Such petitions must be duly verified and must conform to the provisions of General Order No. XXXI and of forms Nos. 57 and 61. There must also be presented before the final discharge is granted a report or certificate of the Referee that the bankrupt has, in all things, conformed to the requirements of the act; that he has committed none of the offenses and done none of the acts prohibited in subdivision B of section 14 of the act, and that he is, in the opinion of the Referee, entitled to his discharge.

b. When a debtor, after adjudication, is desirous of making an offer of composition to his creditors, the petition to consider the same must be filed with the Referee to whom the matter is referred, requesting a meeting of the petitioner's creditors to consider the same. In composition proceedings before adjudication, the procedure shall be in accordance with section 12-a of the Bankruptcy Act as amended. The Referee shall call such meeting, and after final consideration of creditors report the proceedings had before him, with proofs of publication and mailing, to the Court. He shall also compute and report what amount is required to be deposited by the bankrupt to complete the terms of the composition. On the coming in of the report of Referee on petition for composition, accompanied by a certificate of deposit of the composition fund, subject to the order of a Judge of this Court, a petition must be filed by the bankrupt with the Clerk for a rule that creditors show cause why said offer of composition should not be confirmed.

c. The petition for confirmation of composition shall set forth that the composition proposed has been accepted in writing by a majority in number and amount of all creditors whose claims have been allowed; that a fund sufficient to pay the consideration proposed, debts having priority, and the costs of the proceedings has been deposited in a depository of the Court, subject to the order of a Judge of this Court. Thereupon a rule will issue upon the creditors to show cause why the proposed composition should not be confirmed. Objecting creditors shall enter an appearance thereto on the return day and file specifications of their objection within ten days thereafter.

d. Proof of mailing and publication shall be sent by the Referee to the Clerk at least two days prior to the hearing, and the Clerk shall present the same to the Court at the hearing.

e. Upon the confirmation of a composition the Clerk shall notify the Referee. The Trustee (if there be one) shall then prepare and mail to all creditors checks for the amounts due them respectively, said checks to be signed by him and countersigned by the Referee, in the same manner so near as may be as similar acts are done by them in the usual administration of bankruptcy estates where there are assets and where no composition has been proposed. In compositions before adjudication, checks shall be prepared, signed and mailed by the Referee.

In case of a surplus, the Referee shall return the same to the person entitled thereto.

RULE XIV.

Discharge and Composition — Order to Show Cause — Opposition of Creditors.

The order to show cause why a discharge should not be granted or a composition confirmed may be entered by the Clerk. It must state the time and place of the hearing, and direct that the Referee give notice, as provided in section 58 of the act, to all known creditors and other persons in interest. The notice on discharge must be mailed, and published at least once thirty days prior to said hearing. The notice on composition must be mailed at least ten days prior to said hearing, and shall be published at least once not less than five days prior thereto. Proof of publication and mailing must be presented on the return day of the order. If no creditor or other party in interest appears and opposes, the discharge shall be granted, provided the Referee has certified that bankrupt has complied with the requirements of the act and is entitled to a discharge. If the Referee's certificate of conformity is not received by the return day, said return day shall be adjourned from week to week until it is received. In case a creditor or other party in interest desires to oppose the granting of the discharge, or composition, he shall cause to be filed on the return day his appearance (in which the creditor's name shall appear) in opposition thereto, and file a verified specification of the grounds of his opposition (in triplicate) within ten days thereafter, as provided in General Order No. XXXII. Trustee's appearances shall show authorization of creditors as provided by Section 14 b (6) of the act as amended. The issue thus joined may be referred to the Referee as Special Master, to ascertain and report the facts, with his conclusions thereon. Upon the filing of said report (notice of which shall be given forthwith by the Special Master to the bankrupt and to the objecting creditors, or their solicitors) any party in interest may except thereto within five days, and the exceptions may be heard by the Judge on any motion day upon five days' notice, proof of which shall be filed with the Clerk by the Saturday before the day of argument. In case no exceptions shall be filed to said report within the said five days, the report may be confirmed without further notice.

RULE XV.

Consideration and Fees in Compositions.

At or before the first meeting before the Referee to consider an offer of composition, the debtor and his attorney shall file an affidavit or affidavits with the Referee, which shall show each and every amount of money, article or other consideration paid theretofore, or promised or agreed to be paid then or at any subsequent time, directly or indirectly, to any person, as fees or otherwise, in the furtherance of, or having any relation whatever to said composition, except the money or consideration specifically set forth in said composition offer to be paid to creditors, and except the fee for services to be paid to the bankrupt's own solicitor. If any moneys or other consideration has been or is to be paid, directly or indirectly, in the furtherance of said composition to any receiver, trustee, solicitor for a receiver or trustee, or solicitor for the petitioning creditors, there shall likewise be filed by each of them, to whom such payment has been or is to be made, an affidavit or affidavits setting forth the amount thereof, and how and when it has been or is to be made, and the purpose thereof. Brief notice of said amounts, articles or other consideration, if any, shall be sent to all creditors in the notice of the return of the rule to show cause why said composition should not be confirmed.

RULE XVI.

Allowance to Special Masters.

a. The issue raised by petitions and answers in involuntary cases, where jury trial is not demanded, and upon specifications against discharge or confirmation of composition, shall be referred to the Referee as a Special Master, and he shall be entitled to receive for his services ten dollars for each day (with proportionate rates according to the time occupied) actually spent in hearing such reference and preparing his report, and ten cents for each folio of testimony taken and twenty cents for each folio of his report. Such sum shall be chargeable in the first instance to the party opposing the adjudication, discharge or composition respectively, and indemnity may be demanded by the Referee before proceeding with the hearing. In case the petition in an involuntary proceeding be dismissed with costs, such sum may be taxed against the petitioning creditors.

b. If a composition is not confirmed or is set aside, such sum may, in the discretion of the Court, be ordered paid by the Trustee.

c. In other cases, when matters are referred to the Referee as a Special Master to take testimony and report his finding, requiring services not devolving upon him by virtue of his office as Referee, he shall receive a like compensation, which shall be chargeable in the first instance to the party bringing on the reference, and shall be paid by the party ultimately defeated in such reference. Should such reference be unusually difficult or extraordinary, a higher rate of compensation may be paid if ordered by the Judge.

d. In cases where references are made to Special Masters under section 21-a, or in similar cases where testimony is to be taken but no findings are to be filed, the allowance shall be four dollars per day (with proportionate rates according to the time occupied), and ten cents for each folio of testimony taken.

e. For any copy of the testimony furnished by the Special Master, he shall be entitled to receive ten cents per folio from the party requesting it, not to be charged as an expense to the estate.

RULE XVII.

Filing of Returns, Reports, Bonds, etc.

All returns and reports from Referees, or other officers of the Court, shall be directed to the Clerk of the Court at Trenton, and all returns and reports which by law or the general orders are required to be made to the Judge, shall be directed to him in care of the Clerk at Trenton, or to said Clerk.

It shall be the duty of the Referee to transmit to the Clerk all appointments of Trustees and Receivers immediately, and all bonds of Trustees and the orders approving the same, and all self-approved bonds of Receivers within five days after the approval thereof. The Referee shall retain in his possession the papers and records until said case is finally closed. He shall then, within five days, transmit his record-books and all papers in the case to the Clerk, together with a certificate specifying that the case is closed, also the Referee's Memoranda of Data for Bankruptcy Statistics.

RULE XVIII.

Fees of Clerk, Referee and Trustee—When Paid. •

The Trustee's fee of five dollars, deposited with the Clerk, shall be paid to the Trustee upon the certificate of the Referee that the services of the Trustee have been actually rendered and that the case has been closed. He shall be paid such commissions as may be allowed by the Court, under section 48 of the act, upon the order of the Referee at the time the dividend is made. The Referee shall be paid his commissions at the same time. In case no Trustee is appointed, as provided in General Order No. XV, the Clerk shall, upon the certificate of the Referee, return the five-dollar deposit to the petitioner.

In every case the Clerk shall be entitled to receive the filing fee of ten dollars, except as provided in in forma pauperis cases. The Clerk shall pay to the Referee the fifteen dollars deposited as a fee of the Referee, upon receiving the latter's certificate that the case has been closed and that his services have been rendered. Where there are no assets the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of the payment of said fees to the Referee and Trustee when a discharge has been granted or refused to the bankrupt, or if no application for a discharge has been made at the expiration of two months from the date of the adjudication. In cases where there are assets the case shall be deemed closed upon the confirmation of a composition or the payment of the final dividend.

RULE XIX.

Money Drawn by Countersigned Checks.

When money is deposited in the name of the Clerk of the Court, or of a Trustee, it shall not be drawn unless by check, signed by said Clerk or Trustee, having on its face the title of the cause and countersigned by a Judge of the Court or by the Referee in charge.

All checks must conform to this rule, and also to the requirements of General Order No. XXIX. The Clerk shall furnish to the depositories a copy of said general order, and also a copy of this rule.

RULE XX.

Referees to Direct Prosecution and Defense of Suits and Allow Amendments.

The Referee may direct the prosecution and the defense of suits by the Trustee, as provided in subdivisions C and D of section 11 of the act. He may allow amendments to the pleadings and papers which do not involve jurisdictional defects in all matters pending before him, and he shall, in the first instance, have full power and authority over the proof and allowance of claims, as provided by section 57 of the act, and General Order No. XXI. When a petition referred to a Referee is insufficient upon its face to confer jurisdiction, he shall return the same to the Clerk with a statement of the defects noted thereon, and no further proceedings shall be had thereon until a new or amended petition remedying such defects is filed with the Clerk.

The Referee may, upon his own motion, direct that the schedules be made more definite and certain, and the Referee may direct that the bankrupt furnish any other information regarding his property or his creditors which the Referee may deem essential.

RULE XXI.

Referees to Grant Stays.

When a motion for an injunction is pending, or is about to be made, the Referee may, in order to prevent injury to the property of the bankrupt, or otherwise, grant a temporary restraining order staying proceedings until the hearing and decision of said motion. In case all parties in interest agree that said motion be heard by the Referee in charge, they may file with the Referee a written stipulation to that effect. The decision of the Referee on such motion shall be filed with the Clerk, and if the Referee decides that an injunction shall issue, an order to that effect may be made by the Judge.

RULE XXII.

Previous Application Not Made.

All petitions for receivers, injunctive or other relief shall contain an averment that such or similar application has not been made elsewhere.

RULE XXIII.

Rebate on Bonds.

In all cases where a Receiver has been appointed, either by the Court or by a Referee, Trustees shall hereafter obtain their bonds from the same Surety Company which furnished the Receiver's bond, and shall obtain proper rebate on the premium for Receiver's bond when same ceases by the qualification of the Trustee and is thereby merged into the Trustee's bond, carefully accounting therefor in Receiver's account and petition for allowances.

RULE XXIV.

Referees May Pass upon Relevancy of Testimony and Confine Examinations Within Reasonable Limits.

Referees may pass upon the competency, materiality and relevancy of evidence in matters before them, and shall have all the powers of the Judge concerning the admission or rejection thereof, and shall note on the record all objections, the rulings thereon and the exceptions which may be taken; and in cases where testimony is excluded they shall note a brief statement by the party offering the same of the facts he expects to prove thereby. Referees shall limit the inquiry before them to relevant and material matters, and in case an examination or a cross-examination is unnecessarily prolix, or improperly prolonged, the Referee may, in his discretion, limit the time of such examination; or he may impose costs, including the fees of the stenographer and other expenses, upon the party responsible for the improper prolongation.

RULE XXV.

Receivers and Trustees to Use Original Testimony.

Receivers and Trustees shall use the original (Referee's or Court) copy of testimony, and shall not order, at the expense of the estate, a copy for their own use; provided that the Referee may, special reason appearing therefor on verified petition, order one copy to be made, to be charged to the estate, same not to cost more than five cents per folio.

RULE XXVI.

Hearing of Question Certified by Referee.

After a question has been certified by the Referee pursuant to General Order No. XXVII, and as provided in Form No. 56, the papers shall be filed with the Clerk, and the hearing may be brought on before the Judge upon any motion day by either party by giving five days' notice.

Petition to review an order of a Referee shall be filed with said Referee within five days after being notified of the entry of such order.

RULE XXVII.

In Relation to Franchise and Other Taxes.

In all bankruptcy cases wherein there are assets coming under charge of a Receiver or Trustee, it shall be the duty of the Receiver and of the Trustee, in case no Receiver has been appointed, or the duty shall not have been performed by the Receiver, forthwith to ascertain from the proper sources what taxes, if any, including franchise taxes, are claimed to be due and owing by the bankrupt to the United States, the State of New Jersey, or to the city, town or other municipality in which the bankrupt resides, or in which his estate, or any part thereof, is situate, and to make a written report thereof to the Referee if the case shall have been referred to one, otherwise to the Court, specifying the unpaid taxes upon each piece of property, so far as the same are shown on the tax lists or duplicates, and also the franchise taxes, if any, and the years for which any such taxes have been imposed, to the end that such order may be made in relation thereto, if any, as may be deemed expedient.

RULE XXVIII.

Referees May Make Rules in Proceedings Before Them.

Referees may make other general or special rules for the guidance of proceedings before them within their respective territorial jurisdictions, and may from time to time alter and amend the same, provided that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the act, with the general orders of the Supreme Court or with these rules.

RULE XXIX.

Powers Delegated to Referees.

The Referees heretofore or hereafter appointed for the district of New Jersey are hereby respectively vested with the jurisdiction which, by the Bankruptcy Act of July 1, 1898, and the general orders of the Supreme Court, promulgated at the October Term of 1898, the Court or Judge may delegate to or confer upon said Referees; and they are respectively empowered and authorized to do all acts, take all proceedings, make all orders and decrees and perform all duties so authorized to be delegated by said act and said general orders without special authority in each case and under the general authority conferred by this order.

RULE XXX.

Special Order of Judge.

In cases not provided for by the Bankruptcy Act of 1898, the general orders or these rules, the practice of the District Court shall be subject to the special order of a Judge.

RULE XXXI.

Authorization to Employ Auctioneers.

In settlement of accounts of receivers or trustees no allowance shall be made for fees paid or incurred for auctioneers, nor shall any auctioneer conduct any sale unless his employment has first been authorized by a Judge or the Referee to whom the matter has been referred, and the auctioneer to be employed designated by the Judge or Referee.

RULE XXXII.

Authorization to Employ Counsel.

In the settlement of accounts of receivers and trustees no allowance shall be made for counsel or solicitor's fees, unless the employment of counsel or solicitor has been first authorized by order of the Judge or Referee to whom the matter has been referred; and where a solicitor has been appointed Receiver or Trustee, no such order shall be made, unless it clearly appears that litigation or other cause makes the same necessary or advisable.

RULE XXXIII.

Certificates of Review.

All Referees shall comply literally with General Order No. XXVII of the Supreme Court as to Review matters, and shall:

1. Certify the question presented.
2. Prepare and send up a summary of the evidence relating to such question.
3. The findings and the reasons therefor. (Wherever practical separate the findings of fact from the findings of law.)
4. The order.

The above shall refer to Masters on references so far as same may be applicable.

RULE XXXIV.

Referee's Expenses and Fees.

There shall be allowed as part of the expense the following fees:

1. Paid for advertisements (vouchers annexed).
2. For all clerical aid in preparing advertisement and notices to creditors of first meeting, mailing the same, and proof thereof, keeping register, files and records, and preparing typewritten memoranda of proceedings prior to the first meeting of creditors, including stationery, envelopes, printing, letters, messages, and all petty expenses..... $5 00

(In the final account this item may be called "clerical aid, etc., prior to first meeting.")

3. For similar clerical aid for each of the matters mentioned in section 58, subdivision a 5 00

4. If notices to creditors exceed twenty in number, in addition to the above for each notice in excess of twenty up to fifty (the number of creditors to be stated) 10

5. For each notice in excess of fifty (all special notices to be paid for at the same rates by the party asking them)..... 05

6. For office accommodations and for clerical aid in taking and keeping notes and records of proceedings at first meeting of creditors up to choice or appointment and qualification of Trustee..... 2 50

7. For every other meeting of creditors, including any and every adjourned meeting 1 50

8. For clerical aid in taking and perpetuating testimony on the examination of the bankrupt or other persons before the Referee (where the parties do not agree with the Referee's approval in taking such examination by themselves elsewhere), whether taken in long-hand or transcribed from stenographer's notes, to be paid by the party examining the bankrupt or witness, per folio..... 10

9. For any copy of testimony, to be paid by the party ordering the same, per folio 10

10. For clerical aid in filing, recording and preserving any interlocutory order made by the Referee, to be paid by the party procuring it, each..... 10

11. For copies of orders or other papers, to be paid by the party ordering them, per folio..... 10

12. Clerical aid in receiving, indorsing, filing, recording and preserving proofs of claims, to be paid out of the estate..... 25

13. Expenses of appraisers in appraising nominal assets and reporting..... 3 00

14. In composition proceedings before adjudication, the $15 deposited with the Clerk in the filing fee.

15. When an indemnity deposit is made with a Referee by or on behalf of a bankrupt, the unused portion thereof may be applied by the Referee to compensate him for filing claims in no-asset or in insufficient asset cases, so far as it may extend and be applicable.

RULE XXXVII.Repealer and Adoption of Bankruptcy Rules.

All bankruptcy rules previously adopted in conflict with any of these rules are hereby repealed, and these rules shall go into effect on September 1, 1915.

EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

In addition to notice heretofore provided for the advertisement in the "Public Ledger," a brief notice shall also be published once in the "Legal Intelligencer" in each bankruptcy case from the county of Philadelphia:

"(1) Of first meeting of creditors, stating the time and place and the name of the referee.

(2) Of the appointment of the trustee stating his name and residence or place of business.

(3) Of the time and place of hearing upon the bankrupt's petition to be discharged." (Minute Book D. C. Vol. 2 in Bankruptcy, p. 12.)

The following rules in bankruptcy went into effect December 10, 1904:

Unless the petition be afterwards allowed by a Judge of the District Court for cause shown after notice to opposing interests, a review of any action or order of a Referee must be asked for by petition presented to him before the expiration of the tenth day after such action is taken or order is made, with this exception, namely: A review of the admission or rejection of evidence, if such admission or rejection has been duly objected to at the time, may be asked for within ten days after the Referee has filed his decision in the proceedings wherein the evidence was offered. Referees are instructed to disregard petitions for review when presented after the expiration of the period named, unless accompanied by an order of allowance from a Judge of the District Court.

Prompt notice of filing of decisions upon any subject shall be given by the referee to counsel interested.

The following rule was adopted by the United States Circuit and District Courts, September 27, 1905:

Rule III, Section 4.

Rule III, Section 4. Attorneys and Counsellors-at-Law, admitted to practice in this Court, who are not residents of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and who do not maintain an office in said District for the regular transaction of business, shall, in each case or proceeding in which they appear, have a resident associate counsel who maintains an office in said District, upon whom all notices, rules and pleadings may be served in accordance with the rules and practice of this Court, and who may be required to attend before the Court, Clerk, Commissioners, Auditors, Assignees, Trustees, Referees or other officer of the Court, or before Notaries Public in cases where testimony may be taken before them in accordance with the rules and practice of the Court. The attendance of said Associate Counsel shall be a sufficient appearance for the party or parties whom they so represent.

Additional Rule in Bankruptcy.

Unless a shorter time shall be fixed by special order, forty-eight hours' written notice of an application for the appointment of a Receiver shall be given (a) to the bankrupt or his attorney, (b) to all known creditors and other parties in interest, so far as practicable, and also (c) to their attorneys. The notice shall state the names of the applicants and the day, hour and place of hearing. At the hearing, the attorney for the application shall present an affidavit that notice has been given, setting out a copy thereof, the date of mailing, or of other service, and the names and addresses of the parties thus notified.

No attorney shall be heard for or against the petition until he has filed his appearance in writing, which shall state the names and addresses of the persons whom he represents and the nature and amounts of their respective claims.

No motion for leave to intervene, if it is to be followed by a petition for the appointment of a receiver on behalf of the intervening creditor, will be entertained unless notice of the motion has been given to the attorney for the petitioning creditors.

This rule shall apply to similar motions before a referee. It shall govern all applications and motions presented on or after August 12, 1908.

And now, this 9th day of December, A. D. 1909, it is ordered by the Court:

In addition to the notices by advertisement in the "Legal Intelligencer" provided for by the order of May 18, 1899, a brief notice shall also be published once in that journal (4) of the time and place of hearing a petition for dismissal of the proceeding; (5) of the time and place of hearing upon a petition for the confirmation of a composition with creditors; and (6) of the time and place of any sale of real or personal property by a Receiver or Trustee in bankruptcy.

WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

RULE I.

Powers Delegated to Referees.

A. The Referees heretofore or hereafter appointed for the Western District of Pennsylvania are hereby, respectively, vested with the jurisdiction which, by the Bankruptcy Act of July 1, 1898, and the general orders of the Supreme Court, promulgated at the October Term, 1898, the Court or Judge may delegate to or confer upon such Referees; and they are, respectively, empowered and authorized to do all acts, take all proceedings, make all orders and decrees, and perform all duties so authorized to be delegated by said acts, and said general orders, without special authority in each case and under the general authority conferred by this order.

B. Referees may make rules for the guidance of proceedings before them within their respective territorial jurisdictions, and may from time to time alter and amend the same, provided that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the act, with the general orders of the Supreme Court or with these rules.

RULE II.

Referees to Regulate Evidence.

Referees may pass upon the competency, materiality and relevancy of evidence in matters before them, and shall rule on the admission or rejection thereof, and if desired note on the record all objections, and the rulings thereon; where testimony is excluded they shall, if requested, note a brief statement by the party offering the same of the facts he expects to prove thereby. Referees shall limit the inquiry before them to relevant and material matters, and in case an examination or cross-examination is unnecessarily prolonged, the Referee may, in his discretion, limit the time of such examination; or he may impose costs, including the fees of the stenographer and other expenses, upon the party responsible for the improper prolongation.

RULE III.

Referees to Direct Prosecution and Defense of Suits and Allow Amendments.

Section 1. Referees may direct the prosecution and defense of suits by trustees as provided in subdivisions b and c of section 11 of the Bankrupt Act. They may allow amendment to the pleadings and papers which do not involve jurisdictional defects in all matters pending before them, and they shall, in the first instance, have full power and authority over the proof and allowance of claims, as provided by section 57 of the act and general order, No. XXI. When a referee deems a petition referred to him insufficient upon its face to confer jurisdiction he shall return the same to the Clerk, with a statement of the defects noted thereon, and no further proceedings shall be had thereon until the further order of the Court.

§ 2. The Referees may, of their own motion, direct that schedules be made more definite and certain, and that the bankrupt furnish any other information regarding his property or his creditors which the Referee may deem essential.

RULE IV.Injunctions.

Where, after an adjudication and reference, an application for an injunction is made to the Referee in charge of a case, he may hear the same and either refuse it or order the motion for such injunction to be heard before the Judge, at a time not more than 10 days thereafter, and grant a temporary restraining order pending said motion. The application and all proceedings thereon shall be at once certified and returned by the Referee to the Court.

Where the parties agree in writing that the motion for an injunction shall be heard and decided by the Referee, he may proceed to so hear and decide the same. If he decides that an injunction shall issue, he shall so report to the Clerk, who shall thereupon issue the same, and any party objecting may within 10 days after the issue thereof move the Judge to dissolve said injunction.

RULE V.Attorney for the Estate and His Duties.

Unless specially authorized by the Court, receivers and trustees in bankruptcy shall not retain as their attorney, the attorney of the bankrupt, of the petitioning creditors, of the person applying for the appointment of a Receiver, or of any creditor, and trustees shall not retain as their attorney any attorney who has obtained proxies or voted upon the election of such trustees, or who is an attorney for persons holding such proxies.

RULE VI.Fees of Counsel.

Subject to revision by the Court, Referees shall have power to fix or reduce the fees of counsel for services claimed or charged in accounts. They may exercise such power of their own motion and without objection made.

RULE VII.Review of Referee's Ruling, etc., by the Judge.

When a review by the Judge of any order, ruling or decision of a Referee is desired, an objection shall be made and noted on the record at the time of the ruling or making of the order objected to, and a certificate in the prescribed form shall be presented to the Referee for his signature within two days of any such order, ruling or decision, but the Referee may enlarge the time by order in any particular case. Such certificate, when signed by the Referee, shall be filed forthwith in the Clerk's office. A failure to comply with this rule shall be held a waiver of the right to review upon certificate unless on special order thereafter made by the Referee or Judge. The opinion and decision of the Judge, together with the certificate on which it is made, and the papers, if any, accompanying the same, shall be remitted by the Clerk to the Referee, who shall file them as part of the record in the case.

RULE VIII.Real Estate Sales.

All sales of real estate shall be ordered by the Referee upon the petition of the Trustee, setting forth under oath the facts needful for the information of the Court, and shall be public or private ones, as directed by the Referee, and either for cash or partly on credit and partly for cash; all public sales shall be advertised for at least ten days by handbills, posted in at least 10 public places in the county in which the land is situated, and by publication at least once a week for at least four weeks prior to such sale, in at least one newspaper printed, regularly issued and having a general circulation in the county where the real estate proposed to be sold is situated; the notice shall, among other things, describe the real estate to be sold, and the sale shall take place at the Court House of the county in which the property is situated or upon the premises. Such public sale shall be made under the supervision of the Trustee, with power to adjourn the same. Returns of all sales shall be made to the Referee, by whom the same shall be confirmed nisi, with leave to file with him exceptions in 10 days thereafter. In case no exceptions are filed, the Referee shall, after the expiration of said 10 days, certify the petition, order and return to the Judge, who shall confirm the same and order the delivery of the necessary deed, or deeds, by the trustee to the purchaser, or purchasers. In case exceptions are filed, the Referee shall hear and decide the same in the first instance, and shall thereafter certify the petition, order of sale, return, exceptions and testimony, together with his opinion thereon, to the Judge, who shall thereupon review and determine said exceptions and may set aside said sale or confirm the same and order the Trustee to deliver the deed, or deeds, to the purchaser, or purchasers. Where application is made to sell real estate, clear and divested of liens, written notice shall be given of the application to the lienors. In such cases the Referee shall have power to direct that in case a lienor purchase the land, he may receive credit for a due proportion of his lien on account of the purchase price.

RULE IX.

Reports and Accounts of Trustees.

A. The reports of trustees provided for by section 47, subdivision 10, of the Act, showing the condition of estates, shall be filed with referees. In case they are not filed as above, referees shall order them to be filed forthwith. When the funds reported warrant, referees shall declare dividends upon prior and allowed claims, as provided in section 65.

B. When a final account is filed it shall include the administration of the entire estate. The Referee shall give to creditors notice of a meeting, to be held at least 20 days thereafter, to examine and consider the same. Exceptions may be filed at or before such meeting. The Referee shall dispose of the same and declare a final dividend.

RULE X.

List of Claims and Accounts Transmitted to Clerk.

General Order No. XXIV shall not be construed to require the Referee to transmit to the Clerk a separate statement of each proof of debt, but only that he shall transmit a list of the claims proved after he has reason to believe that all the claims have been proved against the estate that will be presented.

General Order XXVI shall not be construed to require the Referee to transmit to the Clerk a separate account of each case which may be referred to him, but only a statement of his disbursement in all cases and for all causes since his last monthly return.

RULE XI.

Notices: How Served.

Section 1. All notices required to be given under section 58 of the Act shall, in case the Referee so directs, be given by the bankrupt, or his attorney, in voluntary cases, and by the petitioner, or his attorney, in involuntary cases; the person giving the notice shall make return to the Referee in the form of an affidavit with the notice, or copy thereof, annexed, showing due mailing and publication of said notice as required by law. The original notice shall be signed by the Referee. It shall be printed upon or enclosed within a sealed, postpaid wrapper in such a manner that the address and postmark shall, if possible, be on the same paper as the notice; or, in the discretion of the Referee, said notice may be printed upon a postal or other card. It is not intended by this rule to prohibit the use of "official envelopes."

Section 2. Notice to creditors of meetings subsequent to the first in cases where there are undivided assets shall be given, not only to those whose names appear in the schedules filed, but also to such additional ones whose claims have been duly proved and allowed by the Referee.

Section 3. Notice of petitions filed with the Referee for interlocutory orders in the case shall be given as directed by the Referee.

RULE XII.

Referees to Transmit Bonds, etc., to Clerk.

It shall be the duty of referees to forthwith transmit to the clerk all bonds of trustees. The Referee shall retain in his possession all other papers and records until said case is finally closed. He shall then within five days transmit his records, books and all papers in the case to the clerk, together with a certificate that the case is closed.

RULE XIII.

Pleadings: How Prepared.

All petitions, schedules and pleadings must be upon white paper, approximately 14 inches long by 8½ inches wide. All pleadings must be properly endorsed with the name of the court, the title of the cause, and, if the parties appear by attorney, his name and office address. If the attorney resides in a city, the street and number must be given.

RULE XIV.

Clerical Requirements.

A. The petition for adjudication shall be signed in the full christian and surname of the petitioner, and the petition for discharge in the same manner; in other places the customary signature of the signer may be used.

B. Full sets of schedule blanks must be filed. If there are no items applicable to any particular blank, such facts should be stated in said blank. Each schedule sheet must be signed.

C. Petitioners for discharge must use a printed blank (Form No. 57, General Orders). The blank spaces may be filled by hand or typewriting, but the main body printed.

D. All papers must be so endorsed as to disclose the general contents thereof; and all orders, decrees and rules to show cause submitted to the Court by counsel must be prepared so that when served they will of themselves be self-explanatory.

RULE XV.

Depositories.

When money is deposited in the name of the Clerk, or of a Trustee, it shall not be drawn unless by check signed by said Clerk or Trustee, having on its face the number and title of the cause and countersigned by the Referee in charge. All checks must conform to this rule, and also to the requirements of General Order No. XXIX. The Clerk shall furnish depositories with a copy of said general orders and also a copy of this rule.

RULE XVI.

Compositions and Discharges.

A. The procedure in compositions shall be as follows: The petition shall set forth that the composition proposed has been accepted in writing by a majority in number and amount of all creditors whose claims have been allowed; that a fund sufficient to pay the consideration proposed, debts having priority, and the costs of the proceedings, has been deposited subject to the Judge's order. Thereupon a rule will issue upon the creditors to show cause why the proposed composition should not be confirmed. Objecting creditors shall enter an appearance thereto on the return day and file specifications of their objection within ten days thereafter.

B. The petition for discharge shall be accompanied by a certificate by the Referee that the petitioner has been examined by his creditors, or has submitted himself for examination before the Referee, and also a certified list of the creditors who have proved their claims before the Referee.

C. A petition for confirmation of a composition shall be accompanied by a certificate of the Referee that the petitioner has been examined by his creditors or has submitted himself for such examination; a list, certified by the Referee, of all creditors who have proved their claims; a schedule showing the names and addresses of the creditors to whom distribution of the composition fund is made, the amount of their claims and the sum to be paid each under the terms of the composition. The Referee may require the said schedule to be prepared by the bankrupt or his attorney.

RULE XVII.

Triplicate Schedules.

In involuntary cases, the schedule filed by the bankrupt or by petitioning creditors, shall be triplicate—one copy for the Clerk, one for the Referee and one for the Trustee—as in voluntary cases.

RULE XVIII.

Fees: When Paid Officers.

The Trustee's fee of five dollars, deposited with the Clerk, shall be paid to the Trustee on the certificate of the Referee that the case has been closed. He shall be paid such commissions as may be allowed by the Referee, under section 48 of the Act, upon the order of the Referee at the time the dividend is made. The Referee shall be paid his commission at the same time.

In every case where an adjudication has been made, the Clerk shall be entitled to receive the filing fee of ten dollars. The Clerk shall pay to the Referee the ten dollars deposited as fees of the Referee upon receiving the latter's certificate that the case has been closed. Where there are no assets the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of the payment of said fees to the Referee and Trustee when a discharge has been granted or refused to the bankrupt. If no application for a discharge has been made the case shall be deemed closed at the expiration of two months from the date of the adjudication. In cases where there are assets the case shall be deemed closed upon the confirmation of a composition or payment of the final dividend.

RULE XIX.

Petition in Forma Pauperis.

In case a petition is filed by a proposed voluntary bankrupt, accompanied by the affidavit prescribed in section 51, subdivision 2, of the Act, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to file said petition without the payment of the fees provided for by law. Petitioners who have made no deposit with the Clerk should be examined by him, or by the Referee, on their appearance before him, as to their ability to pay. If the Clerk, or Referee, is not satisfied of the petitioner's inability to make the deposit, a report thereof should be made to the Judge, and such report shall be sufficient proof upon which to base proceedings under subdivision 4, General Order No. XXXV.

RULE XX.

Fees and Expenses.

There shall be allowed as part of the expenses the following sums:

1. Amounts paid for advertisements (vouchers annexed).
2. For all clerical aid in preparing advertisement and notices to creditors of first meeting, mailing the same and proof thereof, keeping register, files and records, and preparing typewritten memoranda of proceedings prior to the first meeting of creditors, including stationery, envelopes, printing, letters, messages, and all petty expenses — $5.
(In the monthly account this item may be called clerical aid, etc., prior to first meeting.)
3. For similar clerical aid, etc., on notices of application for discharge or confirmation of composition — $5.
4. For similar clerical aid, etc., on notices of each and any other meeting of creditors — $2.
5. If notices to creditors exceed 20 in number, in any of above cases, 10 cents in addition to the above for each notice in excess of 20 (the number of creditors to be stated).
6. For use of office and for clerical aid in taking and keeping notes and records of proceedings at first meeting of creditors up to choice or appointment and qualification of Trustee (any adjournments at creditors' request to be paid for by them at the same rate) — $2.50.
7. For second, third or final meeting of creditors, the same as above — $2.50.
8. For clerical aid in taking and perpetuating testimony on the examination of the bankrupt or other persons before the Referee (where the parties do not agree with the Referee's approval in taking such examination themselves), 10 cents per folio, whether taken in long hand or transcribed from stenographer's notes, to be paid by the party examining the bankrupt or witness; for any copy of testimony, 10 cents per folio, to be paid by the party ordering the same.
9. For copies of orders, or other papers, 50 cents; if exceeding one page, 25 cents additional for each page, to be paid by the party ordering.
10. Clerical aid in receiving, endorsing, filing, recording and preserving proofs of claims, to be paid by each creditor on the allowance of claim, 50 cents.
11. A deposit of $5 with the Clerk at the time of filing the petition, and of $15 with the Referee at the time of appearance before him, to meet the foregoing expenses fixed by this rule, shall be required in all cases, the same to be refunded out of the assets of the estate.

RULE XXI.

Special Order of Judges.

In matters not specially provided for by the Bankruptcy Act of 1898, the general orders, or these rules, the practice of the District Court shall be subject to the special order of the District Judge, which order shall be followed, even though it may conflict with these rules.

REFEREE'S RULES IN BANKRUPTCY.

In the Allegheny County District, Western District of Pennsylvania.

In addition to the general orders and rules of the District Court, the following rules are hereby adopted and prescribed for the regulation of proceedings in bankruptcy in Allegheny County District of Western District of Pennsylvania, pursuant to Rule 1 of the District Court. These rules shall yield to any special order hereafter prescribed.

WILLIAM R. BLAIR,

Referee in Bankruptcy for Allegheny County District.

RULE I.

Time and Place of Proceedings.

Unless otherwise ordered, all proceedings in bankruptcy shall be held at the office of the Referee, Room 25, St. Nicholas Building, 450 Fourth avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Tuesday and Friday from 10 a. m. to 12 m. in each week shall be the regular days for motions and hearings where no testimony is to be taken. No motions or arguments will be heard on any other day except for special reasons. At all other times than Tuesday and Friday mornings, the regular order of business of the Court before the Referee, shall be, meetings of creditors and hearings for the purpose of taking testimony, as may be fixed by special order of the Referee.

RULE II.

Files and Records.

The office of the Referee shall be open for the filing of papers, and the files and records must be open for public inspection on all days, not holidays or half holidays, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. No paper or record shall be taken from the office of the Referee for any purpose whatever, except on a written order of the Referee, and in that event such order shall be left in place of the paper or record so taken as a voucher therefor.

RULE III.

Appearances.

Appearances shall be entered by filing with the Referee a written praecipe stating the name and residence of the party for whom appearance is entered, and the amount of claim if for a creditor. If the appearance is special, the special purpose shall be set forth fully in the praecipe. No appearance for a creditor other than special shall be entered or noted, until the proof of debt of such creditor shall have been filed for allowance. An appearance by any person other than by a party in person, or by an attorney-at-law of the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania shall be accompanied by a letter of attorney substantially in the form No. 20 attached to the general orders which shall be filed with the praecipe. Any attorney-at-law of the Court may be required by the Referee to file a letter of attorney authorizing his appearance, and the Referee may refuse to allow an attorney who is unable to produce written evidence of his authority to participate in further proceedings in the case until such written evidence is filed.

RULE IV.

Preparation of Papers.

All bonds, orders, dividend sheets, reports, returns and other papers shall be prepared by the attorney for the estate or bankrupt appearing in person. All such papers shall be written, typewritten or printed on white paper of the size of legal cap, and shall be endorsed as provided in Rule 12 for the District Court in Bankruptcy.

RULE V.

Notices.

All notices of petitions for interlocutory orders shall be given by the petitioner unless otherwise specially ordered by the Referee.

RULE VI.

Practice on Amendments; Bringing in New Parties, etc.

Section 1. Prior to the time set for, or before the transaction of any other business at the first meeting of creditors, a petition and schedules or other papers may be amended and new parties brought in, as of course and without notice, unless otherwise ordered. Except as hereinbefore in this rule provided, at or before the first meeting of creditors, a petition and schedules or other papers shall not be amended in any material matter, except on an application, made either at a stated meeting or hearing (or upon motion) and cause shown, after due notice to the adverse party or the creditor or other party in interest to be affected thereby. In case the amendment will add a party to the proceeding, such party shall be entitled to notice of the motion, and any meeting already noticed may be adjourned for that purpose. If publication is begun or is completed when the motion for the amendment adding other parties is made, further publication as to such other parties may be dispensed with.

Section 2. All applications for amendments shall be made by a verified petition addressed to the Referee, and the amendments desired shall be set out in separate schedules or paragraphs, and in such way as to bring them clearly to the attention of the Referee. Similar schedules or paragraphs shall also be incorporated in any order granting amendments. Copies of orders which amend a petition and schedules, duly certified by the Referee, shall be forthwith filed with the Clerk, and, if then appointed, with the Trustee.

RULE VII.

Creditors' Meeting.

The order of business at all creditors' meetings, unless a special order is made to the contrary, shall be as follows: (1) Consideration of proofs of debt; (2) Choice and appointment of trustees; (3) Examination of the bankrupt on oath; (4) Special motions. Only creditors whose claims have been allowed or attorneys authorized to represent such creditors may take part in the choice of the Trustee.

RULE VIII.

Filing and Allowance of Proofs of Debt.

Section 1. Proofs of debt filed for allowance must conform to section 57 of the Act, and to General Order XXI. Claims which are not properly proven will be marked suspended, and will not be taken up again except on special request or motion. The Referee will not notify creditors of the allowance, disallowance or suspension of claims except in answer to verbal or written requests. Claims which are objected to or contested will be considered and allowed or disallowed as soon as possible after the objection or contest is noted. Such objection or the ground of such contest, must, if required by the Referee, be reduced to writing, verified and filed. Testimony on contested claims may be heard at any time if the adverse parties are present or represented, provided such hearing shall not interfere with the regular order of the day, and such adverse party is present or represented, otherwise only on notice to the Trustee, or, if he is the moving party, on notice to the claimant or his attorney.

Section 2. Claims upon which a judgment has been recovered shall be proved as secured claims; if the claimant so desire he may add to the proof in such cases a waiver and release of any lien or security resulting from such judgment, and in case of such waiver and release the claim may be allowed by the Referee as an unsecured claim.

Section 3. In cases where a claimant has several claims of the same class, as for instance, several promissory notes or promissory notes and a book account, the claims shall be embodied in one proof of debt, and in such cases a brief itemized statement of the claim shall be contained in or attached to the proof of debt; but claims of different classes, as for instance secured claims and unsecured claims, shall not be contained in the same proof of debt.

RULE IX.

Examination of Bankrupt.

Section 1. The bankrupt shall attend on the day set for the first meeting of his creditors, and on the day set for the final meeting of creditors. He may be briefly examined in the regular order on the call of the case, but if such examination will last more than fifteen minutes, or if other witnesses are to be called, the meeting shall be continued to some other day and hour, to be fixed by the Referee.

Section 2. In case the creditors do not desire to examine the bankrupt at the first meeting or at the adjournment thereof, an order for examination will be granted by the Referee on motion by the Trustee or any Trustee or any creditor whose claim has been allowed. Notice of such examination shall be given as required by section 58, of the Act of July 1, 1898, by the Trustee or creditor obtaining such order and proof of such notice shall be filed with the Referee at or prior to the time fixed for said examination. After an examination ordered and held as aforesaid, another examination of the bankrupt will not be ordered, except upon cause shown.

RULE X.

Perpetuation of Testimony.

Section 1. The examination of the bankrupt and of any witnesses at meetings of creditors or otherwise and all testimony offered on contested claims, or for any other purpose, will be taken down by the official stenographer in the form of question and answer and transcribed, signed and filed of record with the Referee. The expense of thus perpetuating testimony will be at the rate of ten cents (10c) a folio for both copies and shall be paid as follows: Where there are no assets for one reasonable examination in one day, by the bankrupt, and thereafter by the creditor or party in interest for whose benefit or at whose request such examination or testimony is had or taken; where there are assets, as may be ordered by the Referee in each particular case.

Section 2. After the testimony has been transcribed, the attorney calling the witness examined, shall notify said witness to appear before the Referee, that such testimony may be signed as provided in General Order XXII.

RULE XI.

Duties of Appraisers.

Appraisers shall within ten days after their appointment, unless such time be extended by the Referee, file their report substantially in the form known as Form No. 13, and they shall also include in the report a schedule of the property claimed as exempt by the bankrupt, with the value of each item or article thereof.

RULE XII.

Miscellaneous Provisions as to Trustees.

Section 1. Trustees' bonds shall conform to Form No. 25, but such bonds shall be properly entitled in the proceeding; the principal, and sureties thereon, shall duly acknowledge the execution thereof, and the sureties shall justify in the penal sum of the bond by making and filing with the bond an affidavit substantially as follows:
Western District of Pennsylvania, County of Allegheny, ss.:

..... of being duly sworn, says that he is one of the sureties to the annexed bond, that he is a resident of.....
.....
and that he is worth the sum of.....
over and above all his debts and exemptions and liabilities, which he owes or has incurred, and exclusive of property exempt by law from levy and sale under execution.
.....

Subscribed and sworn to before me this..... day of....., 19.....
.....

Section 2. The Trustee shall attend all examination of the bankrupt held after he shall qualify, and all meetings of creditors, and it shall be the duty of the attorney of the estate to notify him of such examinations and meetings.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Trustee in cases which show no assets, and where no examination of the bankrupt has been asked, to carefully examine the bankrupt as to his acts and property, and to report any pertinent facts which may appear on such examination.

Section 4. If the Trustee is satisfied that there are no assets that can come into his hands for administration, he shall forthwith report no assets; and ask for his discharge. If in a case claimed to show no assets, he shall be in doubt, or if he shall be of the opinion that there are assets in such an estate, he shall forthwith report the facts by petition, asking for instructions.

Section 5. If the Trustee is satisfied that there are assets in the estate which have no value or the assumption of which would prove a burden to the estate, it shall be his duty forthwith to report the facts by petition asking for instructions.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of the Trustee of an estate which shows assets to examine all claims filed at least once in every thirty days and if the same are found improperly proved or in any way so deficient as to prevent their allowance if not contested, to notify the creditors filing such claims of such deficiencies and ask that the same be proved as provided in section 57 of the Act and General Order XXI, at a time to be fixed by the Referee.

Section 7. All reports and returns made by the Trustee shall be verified.

RULE XIII.

Setting off Exemptions.

Section 1. Where there is no Trustee appointed, the exemptions claimed by the bankrupt may be set off to him at the time the order to that effect is signed, and, in that event, the following clause shall be inserted in Form No. 27:

"And it appearing that the said bankrupt is entitled to the exemptions claimed in the schedules accompanying the petition herein, it is further ordered that the property claimed in said schedules, being exempt pursuant to Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (approved April 9, 1849, P. L. 533), and its supplements be, and the same hereby is, set off to the said....., the bankrupt.”

Prior to asking for such order, the bankrupt shall satisfy the Referee, by affidavit or otherwise, as to the value of such exemptions, and that he is entitled to the same.

Section 2. Reports of trustees of articles set apart by them as exempt to the bankrupt's, shall at the time they are filed be confirmed nisi by the Referee, and said confirmation shall become absolute in twenty days without further order, unless exception be in the meantime filed thereto, in accordance with the General Order XVII.

RULE XIV.

Hearings on Special Reference.

On receipt of a special order of reference the Referee will, on motion of any party interested, fix a day on which the parties shall appear before him and proceed with the reference; notice thereof, as directed by the Referee, shall be given to the adverse parties by the party at whose instance the time is fixed. If testimony is taken upon said reference, it shall be taken, transcribed, and paid for, in the same manner, and at the same rate by the moving party as is prescribed in Rule 10 of these rules.

[Rules for Western District of Pennsylvania and Referee's Rules in Allegheny county are taken by permission from "Campbell's Federal Rules".]

DISTRICT OF MARYLAND.

RULE I.

Forms of Pleadings, etc.

All pleadings, petitions, proofs of claims and orders filed in bankruptcy proceedings shall be typewritten, printed or legibly written without blots, interlineations or erasures, materially defacing the same, on white paper, legal cap size, approximately thirteen inches long by eight inches wide.

All papers should be properly folded and endorsed outside with: (1) Number of case; (2) title of court; (3) title of case; (4) character of paper; (5) name and address of attorney presenting the same.

Petitions for adjudication shall state the first name of the debtor in full, where he has resided, including the street and number, if any, and also where his principal place of business, if any, has been during the preceding six months, or the greater part thereof; and the schedules, as respects creditors in cities of 50,000 inhabitants or more, should state the street and number of their last known residence or place of business, if known; if not known, that fact must be stated.

Full sets of schedule blanks must be filed. Each question contained in said blanks must be answered separately. If there are no items applicable to any particular blank, such fact should be stated in said blank. Each schedule sheet must be signed by the petitioner or petitioners.

If the schedules do not comply with the above rule, they may be ordered to be corrected by the Referee to whom the case is referred, before further proceedings are allowed in the case.

All amended or additional schedules shall be filed in triplicate, duly signed and sworn to, as required for the originals.

RULE II.

Costs Which Referee May Require to Be Paid in Advance.

The Referee shall be entitled to collect, in advance of services to be rendered, costs and expenditures in accordance with the following schedule:

1. Amounts required to be paid for advertising.
2. For each set of notices (not exceeding 20)..... $3 00
For each notice above 20..... 15
3. For clerical aid in preparing advertisement, of first meeting, keeping register, files, and records including stationery, envelopes, printing, messages and all petty expenses..... 4 00
4. For certifying question to Judge for review with necessary record..... 3 00
5. For each day necessarily spent (provided it is by order of court or upon request of creditors) by Referee out of the county of his residence for first or other meeting of creditors..... 5 00
6. For copies of orders or other papers, 50 cents each; if exceeding one page 25 cents additional for each page, to be paid by the party ordering.

RULE III.

Appointment of Appraisers.

Pursuant to section 38, sub-section 4 of the Act of Congress entitled "An act to establish a Uniform System of Bankruptcy throughout the United States," approved

July 1, 1898, the court does hereby prescribe that in addition to the other duties of the Referees in Bankruptcy, of this court under said Act, they shall appoint appraisers to appraise the real and personal property belonging to bankrupt estates, as required by section 70, sub-section B of said Act, and fix their compensation.

RULE IV.

Ratification of Sales.

At least ten days' notice, by mail, shall be given by the Referee to all creditors of the bankrupt, of all proposed public sales of real estate. Upon the report of any sale, public or private, of real estate, made by any Trustee or Receiver in Bankruptcy, an order will be passed by the court, ratifying said sale, on some certain day named in the order, not less than fifteen days after the date thereof; and unless otherwise specially ordered by the court, upon cause therefor being shown, at least ten days' notice of said order nisi shall be mailed to all creditors by the Referee; and if no exceptions be filed or cause exist for setting aside the said sale, the same will, at any time after the day so named, be absolutely ratified and confirmed.

With the consent of all the parties interested therein, or in exceptional cases which appear to the court to require it, a special order may be obtained for the immediate ratification of a particular sale.

It shall be the duty of the Referee, on or before the day named in the order for finally ratifying and confirming said sale, to file in the Clerk's office, a certificate that he has given the notice to creditors of the proposed sale and of the order nisi, required by this rule.

RULE V.

Duties of Referees.

It shall be the duty of Referees to give all notices required by the Act to be given to creditors. Referees shall on all applications for discharge, certify to the court, not later than the day set for the hearing of said application, that they have given the requisite notice to creditors of said hearing, and further, that they know of no reason, if such be the case, why said discharge should not be granted. Should the Referee know of any reason why said discharge should not be granted, he should certify to the court his reasons therefor.

In all cases of sales of real or personal property, where notice to creditors is required to be given, the Referee shall on or before the date fixed for the final ratification of said sale, certify to the court that such notice has been given.

The Referee's certificate of the appointment or election of Trustee or Trustees shall be promptly forwarded to the Clerk, as well as the Trustee's bond, duly approved. All other papers, left with the Referee to be filed, except claims and powers of attorney, shall be sent to the Clerk of this court, to be filed among the papers in the case. And if the court papers are sent by the Clerk to the Referee, for any purpose they shall be returned to the Clerk, as soon as practicable.

All orders for the sale of real and personal property, the appointment of Receivers and approval of Receiver's bonds, and for the allowance of counsel fees, in bankruptcy cases, shall be signed by the Judge of this court, unless otherwise ordered.

RULE VI.

Examination of Bankrupt.

At all first meetings of creditors, bankrupts must submit to the examination provided in section 7 (par. 9) of the Bankruptcy Act, which examination may be conducted by the creditors or their counsel, or by the Referee sitting in the case; and said examination shall be sufficient in extent to enable the Referee to determine whether the bankrupt has complied with the law in all particulars.

RULE VII.

Duties of Trustees and Receivers.

It shall be the duty of every Receiver and Trustee in Bankruptcy whether acting alone or jointly with others, to qualify immediately after his appointment; they shall then use all due diligence in the search for property of every kind whatsoever which belongs to the bankrupt estate vested in them; and having found the same shall take possession thereof in such manner as may be lawful. It shall be the duty of said Receiver or Trustee to ask for the appointment of appraisers without delay, and to aid said appraisers (when appointed) in the performance of their duties by pointing out the property of the bankrupt, and by furnishing to them all proper and useful information relating to said estate, to the end that all the property of every kind belonging to said estate shall be promptly inspected, inventoried, valued and returned by said appraisers to the court.

And before any appraisement and return shall be filed with the Referee in Bankruptcy, said Receivers or Trustees shall each sign and append to every return a certificate in form following:

The foregoing is a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the estate of every kind of.....bankrupt, except (a)..... which, after due diligence, we (I) (or either of us) have been able to discover. We (I) have taken possession of all said estate except (b)..... and now hold the same; we (I) know of no concealment, nor do we (I) suspect any to exist; and should we (I) find any, we (I) will, by proper proceedings, promptly bring the same to the attention of the court.

The above certificate must be sworn to by the said Receivers or Trustees; and in case three Trustees have been appointed for one estate, by at least two of them; the affidavit to be made before some officer authorized by the practice of this court, to administer oaths, who shall certify thereto.

It is further ordered, that in the event that a proper inventory, appraisement and return of the property of any bankrupt estate shall not be filed in accordance with the provisions of the law and this rule within thirty days after the appointment of Receivers or Trustees, it shall be the duty of the Referee to whom said case has been referred (unless previously to the expiration of said thirty days the time has been extended for cause by order of court upon petition), to notify said Receivers or Trustees of their neglect; and if said return shall not be filed within ten days thereafter it shall be the duty of said Referee to prepare and lay before the Judges of this court a rule upon said Receivers or Trustees to show cause within five days thereafter why they should not be removed.

It shall be the duty of all Trustees in Bankruptcy to report to the court, in writing, the condition of estates, amounts of money in hand, and such other details as may be required by the court, as provided for by the Act. It shall also be the duty of Receivers appointed in bankruptcy to report in like manner.

And whenever any Receiver or Receivers, Trustee or Trustees of any bankrupt estate, shall neglect to file any report or statement, which it is made his or their duty to file or make by the Act, or by any general or special order in bankruptcy, within three months from the date of their appointment, and within every three months thereafter, it shall be the duty of the Referee to notify said Receivers or Trustees, as the case may be, by mail, that unless said report or statement shall be filed by them in writing and duly sworn to within ten days from the date of said notice, that a rule will be laid upon them requiring them to show cause before the Judge why they should not be removed from office.

RULE VIII.

Rule VIII rescinded by order of court passed 20th February, 1914.

RULE IX.

Recording of Papers.

The Clerk shall, in well-bound books, make up and complete a record of all bankruptcy cases where the title to real estate is involved; said record to consist of such papers as may be selected by the Clerk or designated by the attorney for the purchaser or purchasers.

The cost of such recording shall be paid out of the assets of the estate, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

RULE X.

Deposits and Withdrawals of Money by Receivers.

It shall be the duty of Receivers appointed by this court to deposit all moneys received by them in one of the designated depositories; and no money shall be drawn from the depository unless by check or warrant, signed by such Receiver or Receivers, and countersigned by the Judge of the court or by the Referee to whom the case may have been referred, or who may be designated for that purpose by the Judge, if there has been no adjudication and reference in the case, which check or warrant shall state the date, the sum and the account for which it is drawn.

RULE XI.

Premiums on Bonds.

Whenever Trustees or Receivers are required to give a bond with security and the same shall be given with a surety company as surety, and shall be approved, then the premiums paid or to be paid for such bond and for the renewals thereof, if reasonable, may be allowed by the Referee as part of the expenses of the administration of the estate, and the amount of such premium paid or to be paid shall be endorsed on the bond before approval by the Referee.

RULE XII.

It is ordered by the District Court of the United States for the District of Maryland, this second day of July, 1915, that with the petition for confirmation of a composition the debtor and his attorney shall file an affidavit or affidavits, which shall show each and every amount of money, articles or other consideration paid theretofore, or promised or agreed to be paid then or at any subsequent time, directly or indirectly to any person, as fees or otherwise in the furtherance of, or having any relation whatever to said composition, except the money or consideration specifically set forth in said composition offer to be paid to creditors. If any moneys or other consideration has been or is to be paid, directly or indirectly, in the furtherance of any composition to any Receiver, Trustee, solicitor for a Receiver or Trustee, or solicitor for the petitioning or other creditors, there shall likewise be filed by each of them, to whom such payment has been or is to be made, an affidavit or affidavits, setting forth the amount thereof, and how and when it has been or is to be made, and the purpose thereof. Brief notice of said amount, articles or other consideration, if any, shall be sent to all creditors in the notice of the return of the rule to show cause why said composition should not be confirmed.

SUPREME COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

RULE I.

Petitions.

Petitions shall state the full name of the debtor, where he has resided, including the street and number, if any, his principal place of business, if any, during the preceding six months, or the greater part thereof. Petitions by one or more of several partners should state, in case a discharge from copartnership debts is desired, whether there are firm assets, and, if there are, the petition should further state whether the firm and any other partners not joining in the petition are solvent or insolvent, and, if insolvent, the place of residence and whereabouts of such other partners, so far as known, or ascertainable, in order that they may be brought in as parties in case they refuse to join in the petition.

RULE II.

Schedules.

Schedules shall be filed with the Clerk of the court, and should be prepared upon printed forms and should state the street and number of the residence, or place of business, so far as known, of creditors. When a partnership and the individual members thereof are adjudicated bankrupt, separate schedules shall be filed of partnership and individual assets and liabilities.

RULE III.

Petitions in Forma Pauperis.

In case a petition is filed by a proposed voluntary bankrupt accompanied by an affidavit under subdivision 2 of section 51 of said Bankruptcy Act, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to file said petition without exacting the payment of the fees provided for by the Bankruptcy Act. The Clerk may request the Referee to examine into the truth of such affidavit, or the Referee may, of his own motion, make such an examination.

If upon examination the Referee finds that the bankrupt is not entitled to be relieved from payment of the filing fees, the Referee shall order him to pay such fees within a specified time. If the bankrupt fails to comply with the Referee's order such fact shall be certified by the Referee to the Judge, for dismissal of the petition, as provided in General Order XXXV (4) in Bankruptcy.

RULE IV.

Reference of Cases.

Cases shall be referred to the several Referees in rotation unless otherwise specially ordered by the Judge.

RULE V.

Protection of Property Pending Election of Trustee.

Upon an adjudication of bankruptcy the attorney for the bankrupt shall assume responsibility for the care and protection of the assets of the bankrupt until the election of a Trustee, or the appointment of a Receiver, unless otherwise ordered by the court, and any action taken by such attorney for such conservation shall be considered in determining his compensation as attorney for the bankrupt.

RULES IN SUPREME COURT DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. 811

RULE VI.

Trial.

In involuntary cases where an answer is interposed denying insolvency or acts of bankruptcy, the issues may be brought to trial on a day to be set by the Judge upon motion. A jury for such trial shall be procured as provided by law Rule 53.

RULE VII.

Motions.

Bankruptcy motions shall be placed on the motion calendar of the particular division hearing bankruptcy matters.

RULE VIII.

Publication.

Notices required to be published by the Bankruptcy Act shall be published once only, unless otherwise ordered.

RULE IX.

Newspapers.

The following newspapers are designated, in pursuance of section 28 of the Bankruptcy Act, for publication of notices:

The Evening Star.

The Washington Herald.

The Washington Post.

The Washington Times.

RULE X.

Depositories.

Banking institutions as depositories for moneys of bankrupt estates shall be designated by orders entered for that purpose, and the Clerk shall keep a list of authorized depositories open to the inspection of the public.

RULE XI.

Application for Discharge.

An application for discharge on behalf of bankrupts shall be filed with the Clerk of the court and shall be forthwith delivered to the Referee before whom the cause is pending.

Upon receiving the application the Referee shall fix a time for hearing and notify creditors and all parties in interest thereof and that if they purpose to oppose such application an appearance must be entered in the Clerk's office on or before the time fixed for such hearing.

Notice of the hearing shall be given by mail at least thirty (30) days prior to the date set therefor to each creditor and party in interest entitled to notice of proceedings, and by publication in one of the newspapers designated by these rules, not later than five (5) days prior to such fixed time.

If no appearance in opposition to the application for a discharge is filed the Referee shall return to the Clerk of the court the application with his certificate showing that due notice of the filing of such application has been sent to creditors and all parties in interest, as herein provided, and further certifying whether the bankrupt has complied with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Act so far as it is known to the Referee.

If an appearance in opposition is filed the Referee shall retain the matter until the expiration of the ten days allowed for the filing of specifications of grounds of opposition, and at the expiration of that time shall send to the Clerk the application for the discharge.

If an appearance in opposition to the discharge is filed, followed by specifications of the grounds of such opposition, the Judge may fix the time for hearing the issues thus presented, or refer the same to the Referee for hearing and report.

If no opposition to the application for a discharge is filed, or if filed no specifications in support thereof are filed, within the time allowed by law, the application will be for hearing by the Judge without further notice to the parties.

Specifications in opposition to a discharge shall be filed with the Clerk and shall be verified in the same manner as bills in equity by the party making the same. Each ground of opposition shall be numbered and contain a clear and concise statement of the facts, without repetition, relied on as grounds to defeat the discharge.

RULE XII.

Composition Before Adjudication.

All orders staying adjudication of bankruptcy for the purpose of composition shall be signed by the Judge. The order staying the adjudication shall refer the cause to a Referee to take such proceedings as are required by law.

Upon an offer of composition being duly made the Referee shall give notice to each creditor of the terms of composition and of the time when such composition will be considered and voted on, by mailing such notice at least three days prior to the time fixed for such purpose.

Upon the acceptance of the composition, as required by law, the consideration and money is necessary to consummate the composition shall be deposited, as directed by the Judge, and thereupon the Referee shall report to the Judge, showing the number of creditors of the bankrupt, the amount of unsecured indebtedness due by said bankrupt, the number of claims proven before him and the number of creditors and the amount of indebtedness represented by those voting for and those who voted against the composition and his recommendations in the matter.

Application for confirmation of the composition shall be filed with the Clerk. The Judge shall fix a time for hearing thereon, of which the Referee shall give notice as required by law.

If the terms of the composition be rejected the Referee shall report such fact to the court so that the cause may be regularly proceeded with.

RULE XIII.

Composition After Adjudication.

If the bankrupt desires to offer terms of composition after adjudication he shall file his proposal with the Referee, and thereupon the matter shall be proceeded with as hereinbefore provided.

Upon the confirmation of a composition the Referee shall have and retain jurisdiction of the cause for allowing and disallowing claims and for the making of all necessary orders for carrying out the terms of the composition.

RULE XIV.

Powers of Attorney.

Attorneys and other persons representing creditors of the bankrupt shall not be allowed to vote at meetings or to receive dividends unless they are named in a power of attorney executed by the creditors represented by them authorizing them so to do.

RULE XV.

Dismissal of Petition.

When an application for the dismissal of a voluntary or involuntary petition is filed, as contemplated by section 59 of the Bankruptcy Act, before a reference to the Referee, the Clerk shall refer such application and petition to the Referee to whom said case would have been referred for the purpose of giving notice to creditors. It shall thereupon be the duty of the Referee to require the bankrupt to file within five days a verified list of all the creditors with their respective post-office addresses, unless said list has theretofore been filed. And immediately on receipt of such list, the Referee shall, by notice in writing mailed to all the creditors, as shown by schedules or verified list of creditors on file, notify all creditors of the filing of the petition in bankruptcy and application to dismiss same, and that the same will be dismissed after ten days from that date, unless objection thereto is sooner presented to him.

The Referee shall file a certificate with the Clerk showing that such notice has been given, and the Judge will enter the proper order.

If an application to dismiss a petition, or the proceedings in bankruptcy, is made after reference of the case to the Referee, the same shall be filed with the Referee who shall give ten days' notice thereof by mail to all creditors, and upon the hearing of such application shall make such order with reference to same as shall be proper and authorized by the Bankruptcy Act.

RULE XVI.

Dismissal of Bankruptcy Cases When Not Prosecuted.

The first meeting of creditors shall be called by the Referee (to whom the proceedings in bankruptcy have been referred) within the time specified under section 55 of the Bankruptcy Act, and should the bankrupt, after notice from the Referee, as provided by General Order X in Bankruptcy fail to advance or have advanced, the costs necessary for calling such meeting within the time aforesaid, the Referee shall certify such facts to the Judge for the dismissal of the proceedings in bankruptcy for failure to prosecute.

RULE XVII.

Auctioneers.

Auctioneers desiring to be designated to make sales of the assets of bankrupt estates shall make application to the Judge, setting forth their facilities for handling business of that character. Upon the Judge's approval of such application an order will be passed placing the name of the applicant in the list from which auctioneers may be selected.

An auctioneer upon being so designated, and before acting as such, shall file with the Clerk of the court a bond to the United States, in the penal sum of $10,000, with surety or sureties to be approved by the Judge, conditioned that such auctioneer will account for and pay over to the person or persons entitled to the same all moneys coming into his hands by reason of his employment.

The fees and compensation to be paid auctioneers for their services in arranging the property for and conducting sales shall not exceed five (5) per centum of the gross amount for which such property is sold.

Any person entitled to a vote at a meeting of creditors may, where an auctioneer is to be employed, require that sealed bids be submitted by auctioneers bonded under this rule, and Referees are directed to appoint the auctioneer submitting the lowest bid.

814 RULES IN SUPREME COURT DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

RULE XVIII.

Sales of Real Estate.

All petitions for the sale of real estate shall be filed with the Referee who shall thereupon call a meeting of creditors to consider the same and the Referee shall report to the Judge the action of the creditors at said meeting. All sales shall be reported to and ratified by the Judge.

RULE XIX.

Receivers' Reports and Accounts.

Immediately upon the appointment and qualification of a Trustee the Receiver shall turn over to said Trustee all the money and property in the Receiver's possession, taking the Trustee's receipt therefor. Receivers are required to file their reports and accounts within ten (10) days after the election of the Trustee, unless such time be extended by the Judge upon proper application and showing. The Referees are directed to enforce this rule.

If no exceptions to such reports and accounts are filed within ten (10) days after the filing of said reports and accounts, such accounts shall be approved, and the receivers discharged by the Judge.

RULE XX.

Bank Deposits of Receivers and Trustees.

Receivers and Trustees shall deposit all moneys coming into their possession in one of the designated depositories as Receivers or Trustees of the particular bankrupt estate as follows:

"..... Receiver or Trustee

(Name of Receiver or Trustee.)

of Bankruptcy No."

(Name of Bankrupt)

RULE XXI.

Warrants and Checks.

The Referee before whom a case is pending is designated as the one to countersign all warrants and checks for the withdrawal of money from the depository under Rule 29 of the General Orders, unless otherwise specially ordered by the Judge.

Dividend checks and receipts shall be in the following form:

RULE XXII.

Attorneys.

Receivers and trustees shall be authorized to employ attorneys only upon an order passed by the Judge designating such attorneys, upon a petition filed setting forth the necessity for such employment.

RULE XXIII.

Trustee's Report of Debts Entitled to Priority of Payment.

Trustees shall ascertain and report to the Referee, before any dividend is ordered, all debts which it is claimed are entitled to priority of payment.

RULE XXIV.

Filing and Reference of Final Reports and Accounts of Trustees.

The final reports and accounts of trustees in all cases where there are funds on hand for distribution shall be filed with the Clerk of the court, and an order shall be passed by the Judge appointing the Referee a special master to audit the account of the Trustee and to consider all petitions for fees and allowances. No other reference shall be made to the Referee as a special master except in petitions in reclamation.

RULE XXV.

Fees and Allowances to Receivers, Trustees, and Attorneys.

Receivers, trustees, attorneys for receivers, trustees, petitioning creditors, and the bankrupt, in presenting their claims for allowances shall file with the Referee a verified itemized statement of every item of service for which they claim compensation, stating fully and particularly the character of the services, the length of time necessarily consumed, and their estimate of its value.

In the notice of the final meeting of creditors (which notice shall be mailed in each and every case) the Referee shall state the amounts of the claims for allowances and that a hearing will be had thereon at such final meeting.

At the final meeting of creditors, all petitions for fees and allowances shall be considered by the Referee as a special master, and he shall at such final meeting announce his findings and recommendations, which shall later be incorporated in his report to the Judge. The final dividend, if any, shall at such meeting be declared subject to the approval of the Judge.

The Trustee shall within five (5) days after the Referee files his report present the same to the Judge for his action, after giving at least two (2) clear days' notice of the time at which he intends to present such report to any persons objecting at such final meeting to the findings announced by the Referee.

816 RULES IN SUPREME COURT DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

The Referee shall state in his report the amount stated by the Trustee as on hand; the total amount of previous dividends, the amount of priority claims, and the amount found to be distributable as a final dividend.

Upon final action by the Judge on the report of the Referee the Referee shall prepare a dividend sheet and deliver the same to the Trustee.

RULE XXVI.

Trustees' Supplemental Reports.

All trustees shall file a supplemental report after distribution is complete, and vouchers signed by the creditors and others shall be filed therewith. Upon the filing of such report with vouchers, if found to be correct, the Referee shall pass an order discharging the Trustee.

RULE XXVII.

Referee's Record Book.

Referees shall keep minutes of all meetings of creditors and other proceedings before them and shall post in their docket all claims filed for allowance, and when such claims are allowed indicate that fact by stamping such claims "allowed." At the close of each case the Referee shall file in the Clerk's office a certificate that the case is closed and his record book, together with all papers filed with him. Such record book shall consist of a flat file record between covers substantially fastened.

When such record book shall be so filed, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to file in a similar form such other papers in the case as have been filed in his office.

RULE XXVIII.

Powers Delegated to Referees.

The referees heretofore or hereafter appointed are hereby respectively vested with the jurisdiction which, by Bankruptcy Law and the general orders of the Supreme Court of the United States, the court or Judge may delegate to or confer upon said referees; and they are respectively empowered and authorized to do all acts, take all proceedings, make all orders and decrees and perform all duties so authorized to be delegated by said act and said general orders without special authority in each case and under the general authority conferred by this order, except:

1. The appointing of receivers, of attorneys for receivers, and of attorneys for trustees.
2. The granting of injunctions.
3. Directing the sale of real estate or perishable property, or the sale of real or personal property free from lien.
4. The settlement of fees and allowances.

RULE XXIX.

Reimbursement for Expenses of Referee.

The Referee shall be entitled to charge the sum of 10 cents for each notice to creditors sent in compliance with law in each case by way of reimbursement for the expenses of office rent, clerk hire, stationery, telephone service, etc., incident to the conduct of his office.

RULE XXX.

Appointment of Appraisers.

In addition to the other duties of referees prescribed by the Bankruptcy Act, they shall appoint appraisers to appraise the real and personal property belonging to the bankrupt estate. In all appraisements, the Referee shall select one auctioneer and two persons who have had experience, or who are engaged in, the line of business relating to the assets comprising the bankrupt estate. No person connected in any way with the office of a Referee shall be appointed as an appraiser.

RULE XXXI.

Review of Referee's Rulings by Judge.

When a bankrupt, creditor, trustee or other person shall desire a review by the Judge of any order made by the Referee, he shall file with the Referee his petition therefor within ten (10) days after the date of such order, ruling or decision.

A petition for review shall set forth specifically the error complained of. The Referee shall forthwith certify to the Judge the question presented, a summary of the evidence relating thereto and the findings and order of the Referee thereon. The Referee may accompany such certificate with a statement of his reasons for the order, ruling or decision complained of.

A failure to comply with this rule shall be held a waiver of the right of review, unless on special order thereafter made by the Judge or Referee.

RULE XXII.

Fees of Referee and Trustee.

The fees deposited with the Clerk for the services of the Referee and Trustee shall be paid by the Clerk on the Referee's report that the case is closed.

RULE XXXIII.

Summons.

All summons for the attendance of witnesses shall be signed and issued by the Clerk and be served by the marshal of this court.

RULE XXXIV.

Intervening Petition.

No motion by an intervenor for the appointment of a Receiver on behalf of the intervening creditors, shall be entertained unless one clear day's written notice of the motion has been given to the attorney for the petitioning creditors.

RULE XXXV.

Premium on Bonds.

Whenever a Trustee or Receiver is required to give bond and the same shall be given with a surety company as surety and shall be approved, then the premium paid or to be paid for such bond, and for the renewal thereof, if reasonable, may be allowed by the Referee as part of the expense of administration of the estate; and the amount of such premium paid or to be paid shall be endorsed on the bond before approval by the Referee.

RULE XXXVI.

Instructions to Referees.

1. Referees are directed to exercise an active supervision over trustees to prevent delay in the settlement of estates. The provisions of section 47 of the Bankruptcy Act, requiring that trustees make reports every two months, and of section 65, requiring dividends to be paid within thirty days after the adjudication, if there is sufficient money applicable thereto to pay same, and thereafter whenever there is sufficient money to pay a dividend of 10 per cent should be strictly enforced. If any

818 RULES IN SUPREME COURT DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

Trustee, after due notice from the Referee, neglects to make such reports, or to pay such dividends, or unreasonably delays, in any respect, the prompt settlement of the estate, the Referee in charge is directed to make a certificate of the facts and upon it to issue an order, returnable before the Judge on any motion day, requiring the Trustee to show cause why he should not be removed.

2. Referees are directed to make a report to the court in the months of April and October, in each year, of all unsettled cases which have been pending before them more than fifteen months. Such reports shall contain the title and number of the case, the date when it was referred, and a concise statement showing what substantial proceedings have been had in the case, and why it has not been closed.

3. Attention is called to section 38 (5) of the Bankruptcy Act, which provides that stenographers' compensation shall not exceed ten cents per folio for reporting and transcribing the proceedings.

Creditors, receivers, trustees and attorneys should consult with referees as to the proper forms to be used and as to matters of procedure.

These rules shall be in force on and after April 26, 1915.

Amendments to the Bankruptcy Rules.

By order of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, in general term, promulgated March 15, 1916, the Bankruptcy Rules were amended as follows:

"In place of the existing fourth paragraph of Rule 12, a paragraph shall be inserted thus:

"Application for confirmation of the composition shall be filed with the Clerk. The Judge shall fix a time for a hearing thereon before the Referee as a special master, who shall report his findings and recommendations, together with any objections that may be offered to confirmation, for the consideration of the Judge.

"In place of the existing Rule 24, insert a new rule which reads as follows:

"The final reports and accounts of trustees in all cases where there are funds on hand for distribution and, in special cases of long duration, other accounts, shall be filed with the Clerk of the court, and an order shall be passed by the Judge appointing the Referee a special master to audit the account of the Trustee and to consider all petitions for fees and allowances. No other references shall be made to the Referee as a special master except in composition cases and on petitions in reclamation.

"In Rule 25, insert an additional paragraph to read as follows:

"In any special case of long duration, but not more than one time in any one year, the Trustee in such case may file a report and account with the Clerk and a reference similar to that provided for in Rule 24 may be had. The Referee shall thereupon call a meeting of creditors as set forth in paragraph one hereof, and the procedure with respect to findings, report, exceptions and confirmation shall be the same as herein provided with respect to the final report and account of the Trustee.

"By the Court:

J. HARRY COVINGTON,
Chief Justice.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO.

* RULE XIV.

Petitions.

Petitions should state where the debtor has resided, including the street and number, if any, and also where his principal place of business, if any, has been during the preceding six months, or the greater part thereof, and also the date of any assignment or insolvent proceedings under the laws of a State. The petitioner shall also aggregate the liabilities set forth in his schedule in bankruptcy.

RULE XV.

Payment of Fees.

The Clerk shall pay to the Referee the fifteen dollars deposited as the Referee's fees upon receiving his certificate that the case has been closed and his services have been rendered. The Trustee's fees of five dollars deposited with the Clerk shall be paid to the Trustee upon the certificate of the Referee that the services of the Trustee have been actually rendered and that the case has been closed. Where there are no assets the case shall be deemed closed, for the purpose of payment of said fees to the Referee and Trustee, when a discharge has been granted or refused to the bankrupt. If no application for a discharge has been made the case shall be deemed closed at the expiration of two months from the date of the filing of the report of the Referee. In cases where there are assets the case shall be deemed closed upon the confirmation of the composition or the payment of the final dividend.

RULE XVIII.

Fees in Involuntary Cases.

Fees deposited by the petitioner in an involuntary case shall be returned to him by the Trustee out of the estate of the bankrupt in all cases where property sufficient for such purpose comes into the hands of the Trustee.

RULE XIX.

In Forma Pauperis.

Petitioners who have made no deposit with the Clerk for services of officers should be examined by or under direction of the Referee, on their appearance before him, as regards their means; and if the Referee is not satisfied of the bankrupt's inability to make the deposit, a report thereof should be made to the Judge.

RULE XX.Return and Answer Day.

In involuntary cases return day shall be within fifteen days, and answer day shall be within ten days thereafter. In involuntary cases the first hearing before the Referee shall be within fifteen days of the reference, at least ten days' notice of such hearing having been given.

RULE XXI.Where no Referee or Newspaper.

In case a petition is filed by or against a bankrupt who resides in any county where there is a vacancy in the office of Referee, or where the Referee is disqualified, absent, sick or otherwise unable to act, reference is made to the Referee who is most conveniently located to the bankrupt's residence. In case a petition is filed by or against a bankrupt who resides in a county where there is no designated newspaper, or where the designated newspaper for any reason refuses to act, the notices required by law may be published in a newspaper named by the parties in interest published in the county where the bankrupt resides or the major part of his property is situated.

RULE XXII.Countersigning Checks.

The Referee before whom a case is pending is designated as the one to countersign all warrants and checks for the withdrawal of money from the depository, under General Order XXIX, unless otherwise specially ordered by Judge.

RULE XXIII.Publication.

Notices of application for discharge as provided for in section 58c of the Bankrupt Act shall be by publication in the designated newspaper in each county, three times in the counties of Clark, Franklin, Hamilton and Montgomery, and twice in each of the other counties of the district, and the first publication shall be not less than ten days before the day fixed for the hearing of such application.

RULE XXIV.Bankruptcy Districts.

Each county in this district shall constitute a separate bankruptcy district in each of which one or more referees may be appointed.

RULE XXV.Sessions of Court.

Court will sit in bankruptcy as follows:

In the Western Division at Cincinnati, on the last Monday of January, February, March, April, May, June, September, October, November and December.

In the Eastern Division, at Columbus, on the second Friday in February, April, June, October and December.

RULE XXVI.Referee to Grant Stay.

When a motion for an injunction is pending or is about to be made, the Referee may, in order to prevent injury to the property of the bankrupt, or otherwise grant a temporary restraining order staying proceedings until the hearing and decision of said motion. In case all parties in interest agree that said motion be heard by the Referee in charge, they may file with the Referee a written stipulation to that effect.

The decision of the Referee on such motion shall be filed with the Clerk, and if the Referee decide that an injunction shall issue, an order to that effect may be made by the Judge.

RULE XXVII.

Hearing on Certificates.

After a question has been certified by the Referee, pursuant to General Order No. XXVII, and as provided in Form No. 56, the papers may be filed with the Clerk, and the hearing may be brought on before the Judge upon any Bankrupt Court Day, by either party, by giving the usual notice.

RULE XXVIII.

Conditions of Discharge.

No discharge shall be granted to a bankrupt until the Referee has filed his final report, or a report showing that the bankrupt has to the date of such report complied with the provisions of the Act of Congress and the orders of the Court and the Referee.

RULE XXIX.

When no Trustee Appointed.

When the bankrupt is entitled to no exemption under the laws of the State, and the assets do not exceed the deposit required to be made by the bankrupt for the services of the officers, and the probable costs of the proceedings, no Trustee shall be appointed by the Referee, or elected by the creditors.

RULE XXX.

Repeal of Former Rules.

All rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, heretofore made or promulgated, except such as are herein contained, are hereby repealed and declared void.

RULE XXXI.

Adopted August 3, 1911.

On this day, August 3, 1911, it is ordered, which order shall be in force hereafter, as follows, to-wit:

Unless specially authorized by the court, receivers and trustees in bankruptcy shall not retain as their attorney, the attorney of the bankrupt, of the petitioning creditors, of the person applying for the appointment of a receiver, or of any creditor, and trustees shall not retain as their attorney, any attorney who has obtained proxies or voted upon the election of such trustee, or who is the attorney for persons holding such proxies.

DISTRICT OF INDIANA.

RULE I.

Adopted October 3, 1898 — Undertaking for Costs.

All petitions by or against any person or corporation in bankruptcy shall, in addition to the deposit of money required by law, be accompanied by an undertaking with sureties approved by the Clerk, for the payment of such actual and necessary expenses as may be incurred for the publication of notices, travel of the Referee and Trustee, and the blanks, stationery and record books of the Referee in each case, and all such expenses shall be taxed as costs therein.

RULE II.

Adopted October 26, 1898 — Bond of Trustees.

It is ordered that when the creditors of any bankrupt fail to select a trustee of his estate, it shall be the duty of the Referee before whom the proceedings are pending, to select a trustee and require of him to give a bond in a sum not less than the value of such estate as shown in the schedules.

All bonds taken by a Referee shall be accompanied by a justification on the part of the sureties as required by law and a certificate of his approval thereof.

RULE III.

Adopted October 29, 1898 — Amended November 12, 1906 — Depositories.

All banks organized under the laws of the United States and all banks and trust companies organized under the laws of the State of Indiana, in any Referee district, are hereby designated as depositories for the funds in bankruptcy cases pending before the Referee therein, and any one of said banks or trust companies shall be authorized to receive such funds upon filing with the Clerk of this Court a bond in the sum of $5,000, with sureties approved by said Referee.

Trustees shall report their deposits as they are made in each case to the Referee before whom the same is pending, and their checks against such deposits shall be countersigned by him; and whenever the bankruptcy deposits in any bank or trust company shall equal or approximate the amount of its bond, it shall be the duty of said Referee to require of such bank or trust company an additional bond in an amount large enough to cover any further deposits that may be made therein.

RULE IV.

Adopted March 1, 1899 — Solicitors' Fees.

Ordered by the Court that all petitions for the allowance of solicitors' fees in any bankruptcy case shall be presented to the Referee in charge thereof, and thereupon evidence shall be taken by the Referee concerning the character and value of the services of the petitioner, and such evidence shall be forthwith returned into the Clerk's office with the finding and opinion of the Referee thereon and the recommendation of the Trustee concerning the same; and all allowances by the Court shall be subject to the right of any creditor on the submission of the accounts of the Trustee at a meeting of the creditors to file exceptions thereto.

RULE V.

Adopted April 14, 1899—Referee's Record.

In all cases where it appears to the satisfaction of a Referee that there are no assets, after exemption of property to the bankrupt and payment of costs, it shall be the duty of the Referee to file his final record with the Clerk on or before the expiration of thirty days from the date of adjudication.

RULE VI.

Adopted October 30, 1900—Petitions for Review.

All petitions for the review of any order or decision by a Referee shall be filed with him within ten days after the same is made, and be accompanied by an assignment of errors and the brief of the petitioner, and the proceedings shall thereupon be certified by the Referee into the Clerk's office of this Court, as required by General Order No. 27, and Form 56, of the General Orders and Forms in Bankruptcy of the Supreme Court of the United States. And the opposing party shall have ten days after the filing thereof in the Clerk's office within which to file his brief in answer thereto; and upon the expiration of that period of time the case shall be taken as submitted.

All petitions and accompanying assignment of errors and all briefs shall be filed in duplicate, and a failure to file them within the time fixed shall be taken as a waiver of the rights of the parties respectively.

RULE VII.

Adopted February 5, 1901—Solicitors' Fees.

Every attorney in presenting his claim for legal services in any bankruptcy proceeding to the Referee shall file with him an itemized statement of every item of service for which he asks compensation, stating fully and particularly the character of the service, the length of time necessarily employed, and his estimate of its value under oath; and no claim for such services shall be received unless such itemized claim is presented to the Referee.

On receiving such claim, the Referee shall hear the evidence thereon, reporting to the Court his finding thereon as to the value of such services, and return such finding with all the evidence to the Judge of the Court with all convenient dispatch.

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS, E. D.

It is hereby ordered, that until otherwise ordered by the Court the following temporary rules be and are hereby adopted and prescribed for the regulation of proceedings in bankruptcy in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois:

Rule I.—Adopted March 29, 1899.

All notices required to be given under section 58 of said Act shall be printed on postal cards or on cards to which one cent stamps may, by postal regulations, be attached, and said cards properly stamped and addressed, together with proper blank affidavit of mailing, which shall contain a list of the names of the creditors to whom notices are to be sent and their respective addresses, as appears by the schedule filed by the bankrupt, shall be delivered by the bankrupt or his attorney to the Referee (except the notice of the petition for final discharge and affidavit of mailing thereof, which shall be delivered in like manner to the Clerk of this Court) at least one day before the same are required to be mailed under the provisions of this Act; and the same Referee or Clerk, or some person in their employ, shall mail said notices and execute the proper affidavit thereof. The Referee or Clerk shall direct the form or manner of publication and proof thereof, of the notices mailed by them respectively, and shall sign the original of each notice.

Rule II.—Adopted February 8, 1899.

Where voluntary bankrupts have heretofore omitted to subscribe the several sheets of their schedules attached to their petitions, they are hereby ordered so to do, whether their said petitions are in possession of the Clerk, Referee, or Trustee, without any further order in their respective cases.

Rule III.—Adopted March 4, 1899.

The petition for a discharge must be in the form prescribed by the Supreme Court (No. 57), and shall be filed with the Clerk, who upon the presentation of such petition to him shall enter the order which is part of Form No. 57, and shall set a day for a hearing, not less than ten days after the date of entry of such order. The Clerk shall also attend to the publication and mailing of such order, and certify to the same as provided in Form No. 57, but the Clerk may require the bankrupt or his attorney to prepare all necessary copies and notices in form as directed. The publication as aforesaid shall be made at least one week, and the copies shall be mailed to creditors at least ten days prior to the day named for the hearing on such petition.

There must also be presented to the Clerk at some time before the final discharge is granted a report or certificate of the Referee that the bankrupt has in all things conformed to the requirements of the Act and that so far as the Referee has been able to ascertain, the said bankrupt has committed none of the offenses and done none of the acts prohibited in subdivision (b) of section 14 of the Act, and that such bankrupt is in the opinion of the Referee entitled to his discharge.

If no creditor or other party in interest appears and opposes on or before the day named in the order to show cause, the discharge may be granted. Opposition to the discharge by a creditor or other party in interest shall be made in the manner prescribed in General Order XXXII. The issue thus joined may be referred to the Referee to ascertain and report the facts with his conclusions thereon. Either party may except to such report, and the exceptions may be heard by the Judge upon one of the days designated by him for such hearings.

Rule IV.—Adopted March 30, 1899.

Upon the filing of a petition for a meeting of creditors to consider a composition as per Form 60 prescribed by the Supreme Court, the matter shall be referred by the Clerk to the proper Referee, who shall give the notice therefor as prescribed by Rule I of this Court.

Upon the filing of a petition for confirmation of a composition the Referee shall fix a day within which parties in interest shall show cause in opposition thereto in the manner provided in General Rule XXXII, of the Supreme Court, and shall mail notices thereof to the creditors in accordance with Rule I of this Court, which notices shall be mailed at least ten days before the said date fixed by the Referee. If no creditor or other party in interest shall appear in opposition to the confirmation of such composition within the time so fixed, as provided in said Rule XXXII, and the bankrupt shall file the written approval of the Referee of the composition, the same may be confirmed by the Court, but if opposition is made to such confirmation, the issues shall be by the Clerk referred to the Referee to ascertain and report the facts, together with his conclusions thereon. Either party may except to such report, and the exceptions may be heard by the Judge upon one of the days designated by him for such hearings.

Rule V.—Adopted April 26, 1899.

The petitioner or petitioners in all cases in bankruptcy shall, at the time of filing their respective petitions, deposit with the Clerk the sum of five dollars ($5) to indemnify the Referee for his necessary incidental expenses, including office rent, clerical aid, stationery, etc., and out of which sum the Referee may be reimbursed for such expense. The sum so advanced by the bankrupt or other person, may be repaid him out of the assets of the estate, if any, as costs of administration.

Where expenses shall be incurred by the Referee in excess of said deposit of five dollars, in any particular case, a special order with reference to the same may be made by the Judge on application of the Referee.

The Referee shall keep an account as against said fund, showing the items of disbursements and incidental expenses incurred in each case.

Rule VI.—Adopted May 15, 1899.

In all cases in this district, wherever funds are to be distributed by the Clerk, Trustee or Referee, the same shall be by check payable to the order of the creditor in whose name the account is proved, or to the attorney in fact of such creditor or to the assignee of such account (provided the power of attorney or assignment is filed with the Referee); but such check may be delivered to the attorney of record in this Court of such creditor or assignee. And in all cases which have been referred to a Referee, all checks shall be signed by the Clerk or proper Trustee and also by the Referee to whom the cause has been referred, before they are issued; and whenever the statute or general rules provide for the deposit of funds and the checking out thereof under the direction of the Judge of this Court, it shall be proper to have same deposited in the name of the Clerk, and checks against said fund shall be signed by the Clerk and also by the proper Referee before they are issued, except on special cause shown in a particular case.

Rule VII.—Adopted October 24, 1899.

All specifications of objections to discharge of bankrupts when duly filed, will be referred by the Clerk to the proper Referee to take testimony and report the same together with his conclusions thereon to the Court.

Rule VIII.—Adopted January 5, 1900.

The referees in bankruptcy appointed by this Court are hereby designated and authorized to countersign checks drawn on funds in the depositories of this Court, in the cases assigned to them respectively, whenever such checks are required by the terms of Supreme Court Rule XXIX to be countersigned by a Judge or Referee.

Rule IX.—Adopted July 24, 1905.Receivers.

Upon every application for a receiver in bankruptcy, notice thereof shall be first given to the bankrupt unless it be made to appear to the Court, by the petition or affidavit showing the facts, that the service of such notice is impracticable.

The Receiver, upon his appointment and qualification, shall proceed without delay, to make an inventory of the property coming to his possession, and shall file the same immediately upon its completion, with the Clerk of this Court.

The Receiver shall not employ an attorney or counsel without having obtained leave of Court therefor, upon written application, setting forth the facts showing the necessity for such employment, and no attorney or counsel for such Receiver shall be allowed compensation out of the estate for services other than for such as are reasonably necessary, and of a strictly legal character.

No sale of property shall be made by a Receiver unless he present to the Court his verified petition setting forth the necessity therefor, and also make it appear to the satisfaction of the Court, that the estate will suffer loss unless such sale be made before the election of the Trustee. In no case shall a sale be made without notice to creditors as provided in section 58-a, nor shall a sale be made before adjudication without the bankrupt's consent, except as provided for in section 2 (5) and General Order in Bankruptcy XVIII.

All moneys belonging to a bankrupt estate, coming into a Receiver's hands, shall be by him immediately deposited in one of the designated depositories, and the same shall not be withdrawn except on checks signed by the Receiver and countersigned by the Clerk of this Court, upon the order of the Judge (unless otherwise provided where the Receiver is conducting the business under orders of the Court), provided checks may be drawn and signed, as aforesaid, to cover small incidental expenses in advance if the Judge so orders.

Immediately upon the appointment and qualification of a Trustee, the Receiver shall turn over to such Trustee all the money and property in the Receiver's possession, taking the Trustee's receipt therefor, and the Receiver shall file his final report and account within five days after the qualification of the Trustee unless such time be extended by order of the Judge.

Receivers shall receive for their services, payable after they are rendered, out of the first moneys coming to the hands of the Trustee, such compensation as the Court may allow, provided that the maximum allowance to the Receiver shall not exceed the maximum to be allowed trustees for their services under section 48 (a) of the Bankruptcy Act as amended February 5, 1903, for moneys disbursed by them, and provided, also, that where tangible property other than money is turned over to a Trustee by the Receiver, such Receiver's maximum compensation shall be based upon the fair value of such property in addition to the aggregate of the money actually disbursed and turned over to the Trustee, or the Receiver's fees be held in abeyance until the Trustee reduces the property to money. See opinion of Judge Lowell, In re Cambridge Lumber Co., 136 Fed. Rep. 983.

Rule X.—Adopted July 24, 1905.Petitioning Creditors.

It shall be the duty of the petitioning creditors, through their attorneys, to procure the adjudication of the bankrupt, as speedily as the law permits. The attention of petitioning creditors and their attorneys is especially directed to General Order in Bankruptcy IX.

Rule XI.—Adopted July 24, 1905.

Petition to Dismiss Proceedings.

Every application to dismiss a voluntary or involuntary petition in bankruptcy, as contemplated by section 59g of the Bankruptcy Act, must be by petition in writing, signed by such applicant or his attorney of record in the case, and if made in an involuntary case before the schedules provided for in section 7 of the Act have been filed, such application must be accompanied by a list of all the known creditors of the bankrupt, which list must either have been sworn to by the bankrupt, or by one of the petitioning creditors or his attorney in the case. Upon the filing of such petition to dismiss, an order will be entered of record in the case, fixing a day more than ten days after the filing of the application, upon which creditors and all parties in interest may show cause before the Judge, if any there be, in opposition to such petition to dismiss, which order shall also provide for notice to be given in accordance with section 58a (8) of the Bankruptcy Act. If such application to dismiss is presented before adjudication and reference, the notice aforesaid may be given by the Clerk; if filed after the adjudication and reference, the notice shall be given by the Referee to whom the case stands generally referred, and in such case, a certified copy of the order to show cause shall at once be furnished the Referee. The certificate of the Clerk or Referee, as the case may be, showing that the aforesaid notice has been duly given, shall be filed in the Clerk's office on or before the day fixed in the order to show cause.

REFEREES' RULES CONCERNING PETITIONS IN BANKRUPTCY.

The following rules governing the preparation of petitions and schedules in bankruptcy, and amendments thereto, are hereby adopted by the referees for the counties of Cook, Lake and McHenry in said district:

1. Petitions in voluntary cases and schedules in all cases must be in the printed form prescribed by the United States Supreme Court, and the information therein required must be set out in full under the appropriate headings, without erasure or interlineation. In Schedule A, the data called for by each heading must be placed in the column directly below such heading and must be confined within the vertical lines enclosing that column. The columns must be so ruled as to provide a reasonable space for inserting the appropriate matter, and in order to comply with this rule as to Schedules A and B (1) it will be necessary to use forms with the printed matter running lengthwise of the legal cap page so that the requisite space may be afforded.

2. The post office address of the bankrupt, as well as that of his lawyer, if any, shall be endorsed on the wrapper of the petition.

3. The address of each creditor must contain the street number, city, and that fact shall be stated.

4. The use of ditto marks is forbidden by Supreme Court General Order V. (In re Orne, Fed. Cas. 10582.)

5. Claims for exemption must be itemized with amount of the bankrupt's valuation against each item, and the total stated. The appropriate allegation must be made if the bankrupt claims the exemption as the head of a family.

6. Oaths to the petition and schedules must not be administered by the attorney of the affiant.

EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI.

Adopted February 1, 1913.

RULE I.

All notices and orders required by law to be published in a newspaper published in any county within the Eastern District of Missouri, outside of the City of St. Louis, shall be inserted in such newspaper published in such county as shall be designated by the Referee acting in the case wherein such publication is required.

RULE II.

Notice of the first meeting of creditors shall be published once, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or Referee, and such publication shall be made at least one week prior to the day fixed for such meeting.

RULE III.

The Referee is authorized to designate depositories for the money of bankrupt estates, fix the amount of the bond required from such depositories and approve the same, as required by section 61 of said Act.

RULE IV.

The Referee shall have authority to cause the first meeting of creditors to be held and fix the time and place for holding the same; direct the bankrupt by order to attend the first meeting of creditors, and enforce such order, as in the case of a witness subpoenaed to attend before the Referee; appoint a Trustee or Trustees for each bankrupt estate when the creditors fail to do so; fix the amount of the bond or bonds of such Trustee or Trustees, as required by law, and properly record the order of approval; appoint appraisers of the real and personal estate of the bankrupt in conformity to law; determine all controversies touching the claim of the bankrupt to exemptions; authorize the Trustee or Trustees to institute suits to recover property, debts and choses in action belonging to the estate of the bankrupt, and to continue the prosecution of suits begun by the bankrupt prior to the adjudication of bankruptcy; allow claims, disallow claims, reconsider allowed or disallowed claims, and allow them or disallow them against the estate of the bankrupt, subject to review by the Court on exceptions filed within ten days; and shall have and exercise all powers and jurisdiction vested by law in the Court in respect of the duties, acts and proceedings aforesaid.

RULE V.

When the Judge is absent from a Division of the District, and a certificate stating that fact, signed by the Clerk of the Court, shall be delivered to the Referee therein, the Referee is authorized and empowered to appoint receivers, or the Marshal, upon application of parties in interest, in case the Referee shall find it absolutely necessary for the preservation of the estate, to take charge of the property of the bankrupt after the filing of the petition and prior to its being dismissed or the Trustee being appointed, and to exercise such jurisdiction over the acts and proceedings of the Receiver or Marshal in respect to their acts and proceedings, as the Court may by law exercise.

RULE VI.

When the Judge is absent from a Division of the District and a certificate stating that fact, signed by the Clerk of the Court, shall be delivered to the Referee therein, the Referee is authorized and empowered to direct the business of the bankrupt to be conducted for a limited time by the Receiver or Marshal, and to order the Receiver or Marshal to sell at public or private sale such perishable property of the estate as cannot, without great loss or deterioration, be kept until the Trustee is appointed and qualified.

RULE VII.

Each of the counties composing the Northern Division of the Eastern Judicial District of Missouri, is hereby designated as a "Referee's District," under and pursuant to section 34 of the Act. The Referee for the District of Marion county is directed and authorized to act as Referee in all Referee Districts in the Northern Division of the Eastern Judicial District of Missouri in which the services of a Referee may be required, and in which at the time said services are required to be performed, the office of Referee for that District may be vacant. Each of the counties composing the Southeastern Division of the Eastern Judicial District of Missouri, is hereby designated as a "Referee's District." The Referee for the District of Cape Girardeau county is directed and authorized to act as Referee in all Referee Districts in the Southeastern Division of the Eastern Judicial District of Missouri in which the services of a Referee may be required, and in which at the time said services are required to be performed, the office of Referee for that District may be vacant. Each of the counties composing the Eastern Division of the Eastern Judicial District of Missouri, and not including the City of St. Louis, is hereby designated as a "Referee's District." The City of St. Louis is hereby designated as a Referee's District, to be known as the District of St. Louis. The Referee for the City of St. Louis is directed and authorized to act as Referee in all Referee Districts in the Eastern Division of the Eastern Judicial District of Missouri in which the services of a Referee may be required, and in which at the time said services are required to be performed the office of Referee for that District may be vacant.

RULE VIII.

The Referee to whom any case has been or may be hereafter referred, shall be empowered and authorized to order the examination of the bankrupt or any other designated person upon the application of any officer, bankrupt or creditor, in accordance with the provisions of sections 7, 21 and 58 of the Bankrupt Act.

RULE IX.

The money of bankrupt estates on deposit in designated depositories shall be drawn out only by check or warrant signed by the Trustee or Trustees of the estate and countersigned by the Referee acting in the case. There shall be written or printed on the face of each check so drawn a brief statement of the general purpose for which the disbursement is made and the Trustee or Trustees of each estate shall keep a record of all checks drawn by him in the manner prescribed in General Order XXIX.

RULE X.

No paper prepared for filing shall be received unless it is legibly written or printed on paper of the size commonly called "legal cap," with a margin of at least one and one-half inches on the upper end of each page and with a margin of one inch on the left of each page. No such paper shall be less than one sheet and shall be properly endorsed with the style and number of the case and the character of the paper filed.

RULE XI.

Upon the entry of an order of adjudication of bankruptcy, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the case shall be forthwith referred generally to the Referee for the district in which the bankrupt has his principal place of business, resides or has his domicile and after such reference the Referee is authorized to fix the time when, and place where, he will act upon matters arising in the case.

RULE XII.

All notices required to be given by this Act shall be served by mail, unless otherwise required by law or the order of the Court.

RULE XIII.

The Clerk shall cause to be prepared for the use of Referees, and deliver to them upon application, blank forms of process, summons and subpoenas, properly attested with the signature of the Clerk and the seal of the Court, as required by General Order III.

RULE XIV.

The Referee is authorized to permit an amendment of the petition and schedules upon the application of the bankrupt; and the Referee may, upon his own motion, require the bankrupt to amend the schedules.

RULE XV.

When a Trustee desires to procure an order for the sale of the property of the bankrupt, or any part thereof, such Trustee shall file with the Referee acting in the case a petition in accordance with the requirements of General Order XVIII, describing the property to be sold and praying that the Referee make an order directing the sale of the same in such one of the modes prescribed in said General Order XVIII as the Trustee may deem for the best interest of the estate. Upon the filing of such petition (unless it appears that the property sought to be sold is of such a perishable nature that there will be a loss if the same is not sold immediately and without notice to the creditors), the Referee shall give notice by mail to the creditors of the bankrupt by addressing such notices to them respectively at their places of abode or addresses as stated in the bankrupt's schedules, of the fact of the filing of such petition, and that the same will be acted upon on a day to be named in such notice, which day shall not be less than ten days after the day of mailing said notice. Upon the day fixed for the hearing of such application the Referee may, after due hearing, make an order directing the Trustee to sell the property described in the petition, or any part thereof, either at public or private sale as may appear to the Referee to be for the best interest of the estate; or the Referee, in his discretion, may continue such application to a later day to be fixed by him.

RULE XVI.

Trustees shall deposit all moneys and funds of the estate in the depository designated for that purpose, and the moneys so deposited shall only be withdrawn upon an order of the Court or the Referee, in accordance with the requirements of the General Orders and Rules in Bankruptcy.

RULE XVII.

When any witness shall attend before the Court or the Referee, in response to a subpoena or other process in any proceeding in bankruptcy, such witness shall make claim to his fees and mileage, if any, to the Clerk of the Court, who shall make an entry in a book to be kept for the purpose of the amount allowed such witness, and tax the same as costs accruing in the cause.

RULE XVIII.

Where the proper administration of a bankrupt estate renders it necessary for the Trustee to secure the services of an attorney, the Trustee is authorized to employ an attorney to represent the bankrupt estate, but no Trustee shall employ more than one attorney or firm of attorneys, without first securing an order from the Referee, authorizing him to do so.

RULE XIX.

When an attorney shall be entitled to the allowance of a fee for professional services rendered the bankrupt, the petitioning creditors in involuntary proceedings, or the Trustee, shall file with the Referee a petition stating the nature and character of the services performed by him and the amount to which he deems himself entitled therefor, and praying that the same may be allowed him. If any party is represented by more than one attorney they shall all join in any petition for the allowance of attorneys' fees. The petition shall not be acted upon by the Referee until it has remained on file for at least five days. The Referee shall consider such petition and the objections thereto, if any, of any party in interest, and shall allow the attorney or attorneys such sum as may be just, and the same shall be paid by the Trustee when he has funds available for that purpose.

RULE XX.

Within the first month after their appointment, and at the expiration of every period of two months thereafter, the Trustee shall file with the Referee a report in writing stating the property which has come into his hands during such period, the part thereof, if any, which has been disposed of and how disposed of; the amount of money which has been received by him and from what sources received; the amount of money paid out and on what account disbursed; the amount of money on hand; the condition of any suits or other controversies affecting the property of the estate to which the Trustee is a party or in which he is interested, together with such additional statements concerning the assets of such estate as may be necessary to a correct understanding of the true condition thereof.

RULE XXI.

Preparatory to the declaration and payment to creditors of the final dividend in any estate, the Trustee shall prepare and file with the Referee a statement showing:

1. The gross amount of money on hand.
2. The amount to be deducted therefrom on account of debts having priority over dividends and including: (a) taxes; (b) the actual and necessary cost of preserving the estate subsequent to the filing of the petition; (c) costs of administration, including Court costs, attorneys' fees, sums due officers for fees, or commissions earned, or expenses incurred; (d) wages due to workmen, clerks or servants having priority; (e) other debts, if any, entitled to priority by the laws of the State or the United States.

3. The net amount to be distributed to general creditors by way of dividend.

RULE XXII.

When an estate has been fully administered the Trustee shall file with the Referee a final report stating that such estate has been fully administered and praying to be discharged from his trust. The Trustee shall file with such final report an account, duly verified by affidavit, showing in detail the amount of money received by him as Trustee, the amount disbursed and on what account disbursed, with proper vouchers for all disbursements where it is practicable to secure such vouchers. Upon the filing of such final report and account the Referee shall call a final meeting of creditors, upon a day to be named by him, not less than fifteen days after the day on which said report and account are filed, and the Referee shall state in the notice given creditors of such final meeting that the Trustee has filed his final report and accounts, and that the same will be acted upon at said meeting. The Trustee shall attend before the Referee at the time and place fixed for such final meeting, and, if called upon to do so, shall offer any evidence or explanation required of him touching his conduct or the administration of the estate. At the time and place fixed for such final meeting the Referee shall audit said final account, and if it appears that the Trustee has fairly and honestly administered such estate, and duly accounted for all property or money coming to his hands, in accordance with law, shall approve such account and enter an order discharging the Trustee from his trust.

RULE XXIII.

If the schedule of a voluntary bankrupt discloses no assets, other than such as the bankrupt is entitled without regard to value, to hold as exempt, and if no creditor appears at the first meeting, the Referee may, by order setting out the facts, direct that no Trustee be appointed; but at any time thereafter a Trustee may be appointed if the Referee shall deem it desirable. If, in accordance with the foregoing provision, no Trustee is appointed for an estate, the Referee may order that no meeting of creditors, other than the first meeting, shall be called, and close the administration of the estate.

RULE XXIV.

Where the bankrupt has no property, other than such as is exempt, and no assets have come into the hands of the Trustee, it shall be unnecessary to call a final meeting of creditors and the Trustee shall be entitled to secure a discharge from his trust by filing a report with the Referee stating such facts and making it appear to the satisfaction of the Referee that there is no property of the bankrupt available as assets of the estate.

RULE XXV.

Referees shall be entitled to an allowance of two dollars from each estate administered before them, to cover necessary expenses incurred by them in the administration of the estate, for stationery, other than printed notices. Whenever it is necessary for any Referee to rent and maintain an office devoted exclusively to the conduct of bankruptcy business, such Referee shall be entitled to a pro rata allowance, not exceeding five dollars, from each estate administered before him on account of rent, said sum to be allowed and paid as other expenses incurred by the Referee. Referees shall be allowed the sum of five dollars in each case administered before them as a necessary expense for clerical aid.

RULE XXVI.

Where it appears from the schedule that the bankrupt has no property of value, other than such as is exempt, the Referee shall not be required to proceed with the administration of the estate or to take any action therein until the petitioner, or some other person for him, has deposited with the Referee the sum of twenty-five dollars to cover the costs of advertising, printing and other expenses incidental to the administration of the estate.

RULE XXVII.

Applications for discharge in bankruptcy shall be verified by the bankrupt and filed with the Clerk, and shall forthwith, without further order, be referred by the Clerk to the Referee in charge of the case, in which the application is made. Upon the receipt of said application the Referee shall immediately examine the same and ascertain if it be in proper form, and if not in the prescribed form, he shall return the same to the Clerk and notify the bankrupt or his attorney of record by mail of the defect therein, and upon the correction of said application, the Clerk shall forthwith return the same to the Referee. When the application is found to be in proper form, and when the administration of the estate is closed, or, in the opinion of the Referee, so far advanced as to render it proper for the Court to act upon the bankrupt's application for discharge, the Referee shall file with the Clerk a report stating whether or not the bankrupt has in all things complied with the Bankrupt Act, and that the administration of the bankrupt's estate has been closed, or, in his opinion, is so far advanced as to entitle the bankrupt to have his application acted upon. If specifications of objections to the bankrupt's discharge are filed, the Court may hear the issues thus presented, or, in its discretion, refer the matter to a special master for hearing and report as in equity cases.

RULE XXVIII.

When any person shall desire a review by the Judge of any order made by the Referee, he shall file with the Referee his petition therefor, pursuant to General Order No. XXVII within ten days of the date of making such order, and if such petition be not filed within said period of ten days, the person affected by such order shall be deemed to acquiesce therein, and to have waived all right to have the same reviewed by the Judge. For good cause shown the Referee may at any time, within ten days after the making of any order by him, extend the time within which a petition for review may be filed for a period not to exceed thirty days from the date of granting such extension of time.

RULE XXIX.

When the Court refers any matter arising in bankruptcy to a special master to take the evidence, or to report upon any specified issue, or issues of law or fact, for the information of the Court, the special master shall be entitled to a per diem compensation at the rate of ten dollars per day for each day he is necessarily engaged under said order of reference. Five hours shall constitute a day's work within the meaning of this rule, but the special master shall be entitled to a minimum fee of ten dollars for each matter so specially referred. The fees of the special master under each order of reference shall be stated in his report, and unless excepted to and disallowed by the Court, shall be paid by the Trustee when he has funds available for the purpose or by the moving party in the matter which is the subject of the reference. Exceptions to the report of a special master shall be filed within five days from the time of the filing of the report and if no exceptions are filed within that period, the report shall stand confirmed.

RULE XXX.

The Clerk shall be allowed a fee of seventy-five cents for each certified copy of the petition for discharge and order of notice thereon as expressed in Form 57 of Forms in Bankruptcy, mailed pursuant to any order of Court to the creditors of a bankrupt, the same to be taxed as costs, provided that if there be more than twenty creditors in any case, the fee for all such certified copies above twenty shall be twenty-five cents each instead of seventy-five cents, and upon the filing of any application for discharge, the Clerk is authorized to require of the bankrupt a deposit of a sum of money sufficient to pay such allowance, the same to be refunded to the bankrupt in case there be found to be sufficient assets in the estate to satisfy the same.

RULE XXXI.

In case a petition is filed by a voluntary bankrupt which is accompanied by an affidavit under subdivision 2 of section 51 of the Act, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to file said petition without the payment of the fees provided by law. If the Clerk or the Referee to whom said petition is referred, has reason to believe such affidavit is false, he may file a certificate to that effect, and cause the bankrupt to be examined. If, upon such examination, the Referee reports in writing that the statements contained in such affidavit are false, and the bankrupt has or can procure money with which to pay said fees, such report shall be sufficient proof upon which to base proceedings under subdivision 4 of General Order XXXV.

RULE XXXII.

When a bankrupt shall desire to secure the confirmation of a composition with creditors, he shall deposit the money necessary to carry such composition into effect with the designated depository to the credit of the Judge of the Court. Where any part of the consideration to be distributed under the proposed compensation shall consist of promissory notes, he shall deliver such notes, properly executed, to the Clerk.

The application for the confirmation of a composition shall be filed with the Clerk, and such application shall be accompanied by the document, or documents, evidencing the acceptance of the requisite number of creditors, whose claims represent the required amount. Upon the filing of the application for confirmation, the Court will, upon application, fix a day for hearing the same, and it shall be the duty of the Clerk, at least ten days before the day so fixed, to forward by mail to each creditor named in the bankrupt's schedules, directed to their respective addresses as stated therein, a certified copy of the order fixing the date of such hearing.

The Clerk shall, at least five days before the day fixed for the hearing on said application, transmit said application to the Referee, to whom the case has been referred, and it shall be the duty of the Referee to file with the Clerk prior to the day fixed for the hearing, a report in writing, stating:

First. Whether the bankrupt has been examined in open Court, or at a meeting of his creditors, and filed in Court the schedules required to be filed by the bankrupt.

Second. The number and aggregate amount of the claims of creditors, which have been allowed against the estate of the bankrupt, and the number and aggregate amount of the claims of those creditors who have accepted in writing the proposed composition.

Third. The aggregate amount of the claims of creditors which are entitled to priority.

Fourth. The approximate costs of the proceedings in the event that the composition is confirmed, including the expenses and fees of the Trustee, Referee and Clerk.

If, upon the hearing, the Court shall make an order confirming the proposed composition, it shall be the duty of the Referee to whom the case has been referred to forthwith file with the Clerk the record of proceedings had before him in the case. Upon the filing of the record of proceedings had before the Referee, the Clerk shall proceed to make distribution, in accordance with the terms of the composition, the amount to be distributed being computed upon the basis of the allowed claims, in case the claim has been allowed, and where the claim has not been presented for allowance, upon the amount stated in the schedule as owing to the creditor.

After making distribution in accordance with the terms of the composition, the Clerk shall file a written report, with proper vouchers, showing the amount of money, deposited to the credit of the Judge, the amount distributed to each creditor entitled to share in the distribution, and the amount paid out for costs or fees, and the amount, if any, returned to the bankrupt.

RULE XXXIII.

In all suits instituted by Trustees in Bankruptcy, process shall issue therein in the form of a subpoena directed to the defendant or defendants commanding them to appear upon a day to be named therein, not less than twenty days from the date of issuing such subpoena. The defendant shall appear and plead within five days after the return day named in the subpoena, provided he shall have been served with process at least fifteen days before that time, and if he shall not have been so served, then he shall appear and plead within twenty days after he shall have been served with process, and any counter pleading on behalf of plaintiff or complainant, shall be filed within five days thereafter. In trials in equity suits the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, except as otherwise provided by statute or the Equity Rules. In equity cases the complainant shall take any evidence he may be entitled to take within thirty days after the cause is at issue; the defendant shall take any evidence he may be entitled to take within thirty days thereafter; and complainant shall take any evidence he may be entitled to take in rebuttal within fifteen days thereafter. For good cause shown, and after notice to the adverse party, the Court may enlarge the time within which the parties are required to take such evidence. When a cause is at issue, and ready for trial, the Court, upon application, and after notice to the adverse party, will set the same down for trial upon a day to be designated by the Court.

RULE XXXIV.

On the filing of an application for trial by jury, by an alleged bankrupt, there shall be deposited with the Clerk at the time of filing such application, the sum of one hundred dollars, to cover the costs of the trial.

RULE XXXV.

No Receiver in Bankruptcy shall employ any attorney or counsel, except upon the order of the Court, or, if the Receiver is appointed by a Referee, upon the order of the Referee. Such order shall be granted only upon the petition of the Receiver, setting forth the name of the counsel whom he wishes to employ, the reasons for the selection of that person, and showing the necessity of employing any attorney or counsel.

RULE XXXVI.

(Adopted October 23, 1914.)

Petitions of Receivers in Bankruptcy for authority to employ counsel, final reports of Receivers in Bankruptcy, including applications of Receivers and their attorneys for compensation, and intervening petitions for reclamation of property in bankruptcy cases, when filed in this Court, shall stand referred and be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk to the Referee in Bankruptcy to whom the case has been referred, or, if no order of reference has been made, then to the Referee to whom the case would, in the ordinary course, be referred, and such Referee shall thereupon have full authority and jurisdiction to hear and determine all said matters, and to make such order or orders in respect thereto as may be appropriate in the premises.

DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA.

RULE I.

First Name of Bankrupt to be Set Forth in Full.

In all petitions for an adjudication of bankruptcy, whether voluntary (see general forms Nos. 1 and 2) or involuntary (see general form No. 3), the first name of the alleged bankrupt must be given in full. And no adjudication of bankruptcy will be made, or other proceedings taken, by the Referee, until, either in the original petition or in amendment thereto duly made, the first name of the alleged bankrupt is set forth in full, and not by initial only.

RULE II.

Attorney Appearing Shall Sign Each Paper Offered for Filing.

Except as to a paper filed by the bankrupt or such creditor in a proceeding in bankruptcy conducted by the bankrupt in person, or by creditor or creditors in person, every paper offered to be filed shall be signed on its face by the attorney or counselor appearing or having appeared for the party in whose behalf the paper is offered.

RULE III.

Duty of Trustee and Referee Concerning Taxes.

In all cases wherein there are assets coming under charge of the Trustee, it shall be the duty of the Trustee forthwith to ascertain from the proper sources, what taxes, if any, are claimed to be due and owing by the bankrupt to the United States, to the State of Nebraska, to the county and town or city in which the bankrupt resides, or in which any part of the estate is situated for taxing purposes, and to make a written report thereof to the Referee, specifying the taxes upon each piece of property, so far as the same are shown by the tax lists; and the Referee shall in writing, pursuant to section 64 of the Bankrupt Act, order the payment by the Trustee of all taxes found by the Referee to be legally due and owing by the bankrupt according to said report.

Notice of Hearing of Issues Concerning Taxes.

But if any question arises touching the taxes, or any part thereof, claimed or reported to be due, the Referee, after due notice given by mail (section 58, Bankrupt Act) shall hear and determine the question at issue and order payment accordingly.

RULE IV.

Duty of Trustee and Referee Concerning Assets.

In all cases where there are assets coming under charge of the Trustee, it shall be the duty of the Trustee to ascertain, and report to the Referee a schedule of all debts which are claimed to be entitled to priority of payment under the provisions of section 64 of the Bankrupt Act, together with the order of priority thereof, and the Referee shall make the proper order for payment thereof by the Trustee, according to said report.

But if any question arises with respect to payment of any one or more of such claims in accordance with said report of the Trustee, the Referee, after due notice given by mail (section 58, Bankrupt Act), shall hear and determine the question at issue, and order payment accordingly.

RULE V.

Dividend Declared — Allowances for Costs and Expenses.

In cases where a first dividend is declared within thirty days after the adjudication, under the provisions of section 65, of the Bankrupt Act, the Referee must make due and full allowance for the estimated costs and expenses that may be payable out of the estate (sections 40, 48 and 52, Bankrupt Act, and general order No. X), and for the amount necessary to pay the debts having priority (section 64, Bankrupt Act), and shall then declare a dividend at a per cent. which enables payment thereof to be made upon all claims, which up to that time have been scheduled or filed for allowance.

RULE VI.

Payment of Dividend.

When a dividend has been declared the Referee shall fix the time of payment thereof at a date enabling the giving by mail of ten days' notice thereof to the creditors; and said Referee shall thereupon prepare and deliver to the Trustee a dividend sheet (see general form No. 40) which shall contain the names of the creditors whose claims have been proved and allowed, their postoffice addresses, the amount of dividend payable to each creditor, the date when the dividend has been declared to be payable, and a statement of the person by whom the checks of the Trustee in payment of the dividend (see general order No. XXIX) are to be countersigned.

RULE VII.

Checks to Pay Dividend — When and How Delivered.

Upon receiving the dividend sheet from the Referee, the Trustee shall forthwith prepare and have properly countersigned the checks upon the depository necessary for the payment of the dividend declared as shown by the dividend sheet, and within ten days from the date of payment fixed by the Referee on the dividend sheet, shall deliver or forward to the creditors entitled thereto the check for the dividend declared.

RULE VIII.

Checks — How and by Whom Signed.

Except where otherwise directed by special order of this court, the dividend checks in each estate will be signed by the Trustee thereof, and countersigned by the Referee before whom proceedings are therein pending.

RULE IX.

Clerk's Report Concerning Concluded Case.

Upon receiving from the Referee his record of a concluded case, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to examine such record in order to ascertain whether it complies with the Bankrupt Act, the general orders thereunder and the rules of this court. If omissions are found therein, the Clerk shall notify the Referee thereof, to the end that the record filed by the Referee shall be complete.

Final Order Closing Estate.

When upon report of the Clerk it appears that a complete record has been filed, and that all things have been done necessary to properly close the estate, the District Court, or the Judge thereof, will make an order directing the final closing of the estate and the payment by the Clerk of the fees belonging to the Referee and Trustee.

RULE X.

Date Bankrupt Becomes Subject to Order of Court.

The day named in the order of reference for the attendance of the bankrupt before the Referee, shall, by said Referee, be entered in his docket as the date from which the bankrupt becomes subject to the order of the court, as provided in general order in Bankruptcy No. XII.

Duty of Referee — Notice to Bankrupt of First Meeting of Creditors.

Unless cause to the contrary exists, the Referee may continue the time so named for the personal attendance of said bankrupt, to the time and place fixed for the first meeting of creditors, giving notice thereof by mail to the bankrupt.

RULE XI.

Application for Discharge Shall Be Verified by Bankrupt and by Clerk Sent Forthwith to Referee.

Application for a discharge on behalf of a bankrupt (see general form 57) shall be verified by the bankrupt and be filed with the Clerk of the District Court, and shall by said Clerk be forthwith sent to the Referee having charge of the bankruptcy proceedings of said bankrupt.

Notice to Be Given by Referee to Creditors and Referee Concerning Application for Discharge.

Upon receipt of said application in proper form the Referee shall forthwith notify the creditors by mail of the filing of said application, and that if they propose to show cause against such application, an appearance in opposition must be entered in writing before the Referee, at the place and on or before the date fixed in said notice; and said notice shall be published once (unless the Referee for good cause shall order further publication) in the newspaper wherein was published notice of first meeting of the creditors of said bankrupt. Notice of the time and place thus fixed, and that he is required then and there to attend, shall also, by said Referee be mailed or given in person to said bankrupt, and it shall be the duty of the bankrupt to attend accordingly.

Referee's Certificate Returning Application for Discharge to Clerk's Office.

If no appearance in opposition to such application for discharge is filed with said Referee, on or before the time thus fixed, said Referee shall forthwith mail to the Clerk the application for such discharge, with his certificate showing that due notice of the filing of application for such discharge had been given to said creditors, and duly published as directed; that no appearance in opposition had been filed on behalf of anyone; the amount, if any, of costs and expenses remaining unpaid to the Referee or Trustee, and also certifying whether the bankrupt has or has not fully complied with the requirements of the Bankrupt Act so far as known to the Referee.

If an appearance in opposition to said application for discharge is filed, the Referee shall retain the matter until the expiration of the ten days allowed (see general order No. XXXII)—after date fixed in said notice—for filing specifications of the ground of opposition (see general form No. 58); and at the expiration of said ten days the Referee shall send to the Clerk the application for such discharge, with his certificate showing the action had before him, and also showing so far as applicable, the several matters by last preceding paragraph required to be certified. Thereupon the Judge will fix the time and place for hearing the issues thus presented and will prescribe the notice to be given thereof.

Time of Hearing Application for Discharge by Judge.

If no appearance in opposition to the application for a discharge is filed before the Referee, or if filed, no specifications in support thereof are filed before the Referee within the ten days allowed therefor, said application for a discharge will then be for hearing before the Judge without further notice to the parties.

DISTRICT OF COLORADO.

RULE I.

Bankruptcy Districts.

In order to appoint Referees and define the territory in which they shall have jurisdiction, pursuant to the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1898, entitled "An act to Establish a Uniform System of Bankruptcy Throughout the United States," the State of Colorado is hereby divided by counties into five bankruptcy districts, as follows, namely:

The first district shall be composed of the counties of city and county of Denver, Elbert, Jackson, Arapahoe, Adams, Yuma, Washington, Morgan, Phillips, Sedgwick, Logan, Weld, Jefferson, Park, Clear Creek, Gilpin, Boulder, Larimer, Grand, Routt and Moffat.

The second district shall be composed of the counties of El Paso, Teller, Douglas, Lincoln, Cheyenne and Kit Carson.

The third district shall be composed of the counties of Pueblo, Fremont, Chaffee, Custer, Huerfano, Otero, Bent, Prowers, Kiowa, Las Animas, Baca, Rio Grande, Mineral, Saguache, Costilla, Conejos and Crowley.

The fourth district shall be composed of the counties of San Miguel, Hinsdale, Ouray, Montrose, Gunnison and Delta.

The fifth district shall be composed of the counties of Mesa, Pitkin, Garfield, Rio Blanco, Lake, Eagle and Summit.

The sixth district shall be composed of the counties of Archuleta, La Plata, San Juan, Montezuma and Dolores.

RULE II.

Petitions — Where Filed.

1. Petitions in bankruptcy shall be filed in the District Court at Denver, when the bankrupt resides or does business in any of the counties of city and county of Denver, Douglas, Elbert, Lincoln, Cheyenne, Kit Carson, Arapahoe, Adams, Yuma, Washington, Morgan, Phillips, Sedgwick, Logan, Weld, Jefferson, Park, Clear Creek, Gilpin, Boulder, Larimer, Jackson, Grand, Routt, El Paso, Lake, Eagle, Summit, Teller or Moffat.

2. Petitions in bankruptcy shall be filed in the District Court at Pueblo, when the bankrupt resides or does business in any of the counties of Pueblo, Fremont, Chaffee, Custer, Huerfano, Otero, Bent, Prowers, Kiowa, Las Animas, Baca, Rio Grande, Mineral, Saguache, Costilla, Conejos, Archuleta, La Plata, Montezuma, San Juan or Crowley.

3. Petitions in bankruptcy shall be filed in the District Court at Montrose when the bankrupt resides or does business in any of the counties of Dolores, San Miguel, Hinsdale, Ouray, Montrose, Gunnison, Delta, Mesa, Pitkin, Garfield or Rio Blanco.

4. In all petitions for adjudication of bankruptcy, whether voluntary or involuntary, the first name of the alleged bankrupt must be given in full. And no adjudication of bankruptcy will be made, or other proceeding taken, by the Referee until, either in the original petition or in amendment thereto duly made, the first name of the alleged bankrupt is set forth in full, and not by initial only.

5. In all cases wherein there are assets coming under charge of the Trustee, it shall be the duty of the Trustee forthwith to ascertain from the proper sources what taxes, if any, there are upon any real estate owned by the bankrupt or claimed to be due and owing by the bankrupt thereon, to the United States, to the State of Colorado, to the county and town or city, and to make a written report thereof to the Referee, specifying the taxes upon each piece of property so far as the same is shown by the tax lists, together with the interest, whether legal or equitable, of the bankrupt in said estate, and the value of such interest, and whether or not, it is in his judgment, to the interest of the estate to pay such taxes in order to protect the property for the benefit of creditors and upon the receipt of such report, the Referee, if in his judgment the interest of the bankrupt in said estate justifies the payment of such taxes for the protection of the interest of the creditors, shall, in writing, pursuant to section 64 of the Bankrupt Act, order the payment by the Trustee of all such taxes found by the Referee to be legally due and owing by the bankrupt according to said report.

6. If any question arises touching the taxes, or any part thereof, claimed or reported to be due, the Referee, after due notice given by mail, shall hear and determine the question at issue and order payment accordingly.

7. In all cases where there are assets coming under charge of the Trustee, it shall be the duty of the Trustee to ascertain, and report to the Referee, a schedule of all debts which are claimed to be entitled to priority of payment, under the provisions of section 64 of the Bankrupt Act, together with the order of priority thereof, and the Referee shall make the proper order for payment thereof by the Trustee, according to the ascertainment of the Referee.

8. If any question arises with respect to payment of any one or more of such claims in accordance with said report of the Trustee, the Referee, after due notice given by mail, shall hear and determine the question at issue, and order payment accordingly.

9. If the bankrupt shall reside in one county and do business in another county, within the state, the place of his residence shall control. When several persons are charged in the same petition, the petition may be filed in the court having jurisdiction of the greater number, or where the business of such persons may be carried on.

RULE III.

Bankruptcy Courts.

A court of bankruptcy may be held at a place other than that at which the Referee resides, when the convenience of parties requires it. In that case, the Referee's expenses of travel may be charged against the estate.

RULE IV.

Poor Persons.

In case of a petition in bankruptcy, accompanied by an affidavit stating "that the petitioner is without, and can not obtain, money wherewith to pay fees," there shall be filed with the petition an affidavit of the petitioner, and of his attorney, stating that the petitioner has not paid and has not agreed to pay to his attorney any sum of money, or other thing of value, for the services of such attorney in such bankruptcy proceeding.

This rule shall not apply when the petitioner shall act for himself, without the assistance of an attorney.

RULE V.

Subpoena.

Upon petition filed in Denver under section 3 of the Act relating to involuntary bankruptcies, against a person residing in the city and county of Denver, the Clerk shall issue a writ of subpoena returnable in ten days; when the person charged with acts of bankruptcy shall reside in any other county, the writ shall be returnable in fifteen days.

Upon petition filed in Pueblo under section 3 of the Act relating to involuntary bankruptcies, the Clerk shall issue a writ of subpoena, returnable in fifteen days.

Upon petition filed in Montrose under section 3 of the Act relating to involuntary bankruptcies, the Clerk shall issue a writ of subpoena returnable in fifteen days.

RULE VI.

Discharge.

A petition for discharge shall be presented to the Referee in charge of the case; the Referee shall appoint a meeting of the creditors to consider such petition, and give notice thereof as required by law and the rules of court; after such meeting shall have been held, the Referee shall report to the court the petition, and his proceedings under the same, and any opposition made to the discharge of the bankrupt. Following such report, the court will make order as the justice of the case may demand.

RULE VII.

Costs on Discharge.

In case of opposition to a discharge in bankruptcy and issue joined, upon which testimony shall be taken before a Referee, the cost of taking testimony, together with a charge of five dollars per day to be paid to the Referee for the time occupied, not exceeding three days, shall be paid by the opposing creditors. Such costs and fee to the Referee may be charged against the estate in a proper case.

RULE VIII.

Notices.

Notice to creditors, under section 58 of the Bankrupt Act, sent by mail, shall be deposited in a postoffice not less than two weeks prior to the day fixed in the notice.

RULE IX.

Closing Cases.

Upon receiving from the Referee his record of a concluded case, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to examine such record in order to ascertain whether it complies with the Bankrupt Law, the general orders thereunder and the rules of this court. If omissions are found therein, the Clerk shall notify the Referee thereof, to the end that the record filed by the Referee shall be complete. When, upon report of the Clerk, it appears that a complete record has been filed, and that all things have been done necessary to properly close the estate, the District Court, or the Judge thereof, will make an order directing the final closing of the estate and the payment by the Clerk of the fees belonging to the Referee and Trustee.

RULE X.

Publication.

Notices required to be published by the Bankrupt Act, shall be charged for and allowed at the rate fixed by section 3934, Revised Statutes of Colorado, 1908.

RULE XI.

Oath of Bankrupt Before Discharge or Composition.

Before the granting of a discharge or the confirmation of an offer of composition, the bankrupt shall make and file an oath with the Referee, that he has not done or suffered or procured to be done or been privy to any act, matter or thing specified in the Bankruptcy Act, as a ground for withholding a final discharge, or as invalidating the same. Such oath shall be made at the time or after filing petition for discharge or application for confirmation of composition.

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS.

RULE XXIX.

Creditors and the bankrupt may be represented in any proceedings in bankruptcy by attorneys authorized to practice in the District Courts of the United States. Attorneys may verify papers required to be verified in bankruptcy proceedings, or collect dividends, when they file with the Referee letters of attorney, stating the authority to them given; the verification of papers by attorneys must set out the authority by which they act; the reason why the creditor or bankrupt does not act in person, and that they have personal knowledge of the truth of the facts alleged in the paper verified, when such personal knowledge would be required of the bankrupt or creditor.

The attorney of record for the bankrupt shall not act for any creditor or for the Trustee in bankruptcy proceedings.

RULE XXX.

All petitions, schedules and pleadings shall be written in a plain and legible hand, or typewritten, or printed on white paper of approximately legal size; all pleadings must be properly endorsed by the party filing the same, with the name of the court, the nature and character of the pleading, the title of the cause, and if the parties appear by attorneys, his name and address.

Petitions and schedules and petitions for discharge shall be signed with the full name of the bankrupt. Petitions and schedules not so signed may be filed and referred but the bankrupt shall forthwith file amendments to the petitions setting forth his full name and no further proceedings shall be had until such amendments shall have been filed.

The Clerk and Referee are charged with the duty of enforcing the observance of this rule.

RULE XXXI.

Upon the filing of an involuntary petition in bankruptcy the petitioning creditor or creditors shall at the same time file with the Clerk, in addition to the original petition a duplicate copy of the said petition for each person against whom the proceeding is instituted, such duplicate copy or copies to be served upon said proposed bankrupt or bankrupts.

RULE XXXII.

The fact that the bankrupt has no property or creditor described in a schedule shall be stated thereon in the proper place by writing the word "none" or such other explanatory memoranda as he may deem necessary and proper. Amendments to schedules may be made after they have been duly authorized and shall be filed in triplicate in the Clerk's office for the use of the Clerk, Referee and Trustee and no amendment shall be allowed except upon application, nor after a petition for discharge has been granted.

RULE XXXIII.

Upon the filing of a petition for involuntary bankruptcy if, before the return day named in the writ of subpoena issued to the bankrupt, he confesses the allegations of the petition and waives service thereunder by answer filed with the Clerk, an adjudication on said petition may be had, as provided in section 18 of the Bankrupt Act, after the expiration of five days from the filing of such answer.

RULE XXXIV.

The day named in the order of reference for the attendance of the bankrupt before the Referee shall be the fifth day after the date of such order and shall by said Referee be entered in his docket as the date from which the bankrupt becomes subject to the orders of the court, as provided in general order in Bankruptcy No. 18. Unless cause for the contrary exists the Referee may continue the time so named for the personal attendance of said bankrupt to the time and place fixed for the first meeting of creditors, or to such time and place as he may find to be for the best interest of all parties.

RULE XXXV.

Any creditor or party in interest who may wish to examine the bankrupt or any witness at any meeting of creditors shall, after he has received notice thereof, forthwith notify the Referee in writing of his desire to examine the bankrupt or such witness and deposit with the Referee a sufficient sum of money, to be fixed by the Referee, to defray the expense of said examination and the expense of a stenographer, if a stenographer is deemed necessary by the Referee. If it shall appear that said examination has resulted in benefit to the estate the amount so advanced may be refunded upon proper application and order of the Referee to the party making such deposit.

RULE XXXVI.

When there are assets belonging to an estate in bankruptcy the Trustee shall forthwith ascertain what taxes are due and owing at the time of the filing of the petition, to the United States, to the State of Texas, or any other State or municipality, without regard to whether such taxes have been assessed against or a lien on the property of the bankrupt. He shall make a written report thereof to the Referee who shall order the payment by the Trustee of all taxes found to be legally due and owing by the bankrupt or such part thereof in the order of priority above named, if there be not sufficient funds to pay the whole amount, and all costs of the court; provided, such report shall remain on file at least twenty days to enable any party in interest to file any objections or exceptions to the same.

It shall be the duty of the Trustee to render all property subject to taxation belonging to the estate wherever situated to the proper assessor or collector and pay the same as part of the costs of the administration and make report thereof in writing to the Referee.

RULE XXXVII.

It shall be the duty of the Trustee when there are assets in his control to report to the Referee all debts claimed to be entitled to priority who shall make the proper order for their payment when a proper proof of claim has been filed by each claimant and allowed, as required by the Bankrupt Act.

RULE XXXVIII.

When a dividend is declared the Referee shall fix a date on and after which payments may be made by the Trustee, due notice of which shall be given by the Referee as required by section 58, subdivision 5.

On receipt of the dividend sheets as provided by section 39 (1) the Trustee shall forthwith prepare and have countersigned by the officer designated for that purpose, warrants upon the official depository for the sums of the amount named in the dividend sheets payable to the several creditors. The Trustee shall deliver the warrants on the day fixed for the payments of the dividend, or any day thereafter, to the creditors entitled to them. After the day when payment of dividends may be made the Trustee may deliver such warrants to the creditors or to the attorney or agent of the creditor who has filed with the Referee or Trustee a letter of attorney authorizing him to receive such warrant. The Referee shall prepare the dividend sheets upon the report and recommendation of the Trustee that he has sufficient funds therefor after paying all debts and other claims entitled to priority and expenses, whether allowed or thereafter to be allowed. The Referee shall retain a copy of the dividend sheet issued by him to the Trustee, for the use of creditors and parties in interest seeking information, upon which shall be registered opposite the name of each creditor the number of the dividend warrant.

It shall not be necessary for the Referee to declare more than one dividend where the amount available for that purpose is five hundred dollars or less, but in such case he shall declare but one dividend and that after the lapse of three months from the date of adjudication.

RULE XXXIX.

All reports of the Trustees shall be filed with the Referee having jurisdiction over the case, they shall report the condition of the estate at the end of every month beginning with the date of their qualification, in which must be specifically stated the amount of cash received from all sources and the amount of their disbursements and such other matter as may be required of them by the Referee.

RULE XL.

Discharge.

The petition for discharge shall be in the form prescribed by the general orders of the Supreme Court of the United States in Bankruptcy and shall be verified by oath of the petitioner and filed in duplicate in the office of the United States District Clerk where the case is pending. Upon the filing of a petition in proper form for discharge the Clerk shall forthwith mail the duplicate thereof to the Referee to whom the case has been referred. On receipt of the petition for discharge the Referee shall fix a day on or before which the creditors or other parties in interest may show cause why the petition should not be granted. The Referee shall give at least thirty days' notice to all creditors as required by law, in which shall be stated that if the creditors or other parties in interest propose to show cause why the discharge should not be granted, they must, on or before the day fixed by him, as aforesaid to show cause, file with him their appearance, as provided in General Rule XXXII of the Supreme Court of the United States in Bankruptcy. The Referee shall also cause a like notice to be published at least once in the newspaper designated by the court, in the county of the bankrupt's residence, for that purpose, at least one week before the day on which the creditors are required to appear and show cause.

RULE XLI.

If no opposition to a petition is filed with the Referee on or before the day named in the notice to the creditors, or, if filed and no specifications in support thereof are filed before him within thirty days allowed as provided in General Order XXXII of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Referee shall, unless the Judge directs otherwise, forthwith mail to the Clerk of this court at Dallas the petition for discharge with his certificate showing that due notice of the filing thereof has been mailed to the creditors and also has been published as directed, that no opposition has been filed by any one, stating the amount of unpaid costs and expenses in said cause, if any, and also whether the bankrupt has or has not complied with the Bankrupt Act so far as to him known. The petition for discharge will then stand for hearing before the Judge without further notice to the parties.

RULE XLII.

If opposition to the petition for discharge is filed on or before the day fixed by the Referee, he shall, unless the Judge directs otherwise, proceed to hear the same and report the facts together with his findings thereon. Accompanying his report shall be the duplicate petition for discharge, all pleadings and depositions considered by the Referee, together with a statement of all costs, paid and to be paid, by any party in the proceeding. After the certificate has remained on file at least ten days the Clerk will notify the bankrupt and all contesting creditors or their attorneys of record by mail of the time and place fixed for the hearing.

RULE XLIII.

When a discharge is granted in a case pending in any other division of the district than the Dallas division the Clerk at Dallas shall transmit as soon as may be, the order of discharge together with all papers pertaining to the same to the Clerk of the division where the suit was originally instituted. The order of discharge shall be duly recorded by the Clerk thus receiving same and shall be kept among the other papers in the case.

RULE XLIV.

Before a discharge is granted if it appears that the estate is not ready to be closed the bankrupt may be required to deposit a sufficient sum of money with the Referee to meet the costs that may thereafter accrue which are properly chargeable against him, the same to be refunded to him out of the estate if sufficient funds come into the possession of the court for that purpose, by an order of the Referee; upon the receipt of any petition for discharge by the Referee to which there is opposition by creditors the Referee shall require each party to deposit with him sufficient money to defray the costs thereof.

RULE XLV.

If, after notice of final meeting of creditors to pass on the trustee's final report and account, some of the creditors appear and file exceptions to the same, the final account of the trustee shall stand as approved by the referee and the trustee be discharged by proper order of the referee.

RULE XLVI.

The filing fees of the Referee and Trustee shall be paid by the Clerk upon receiving the Referee's certificate that the case has been closed or dismissed. The commissions of the Referee shall be paid by the Trustee when the Trustee is entitled to his commissions for disbursements, as provided in section 40 as amended by the Act of 1910, and the fees for filing fees shall be due and payable when such claims have been allowed or disallowed by the Referee and when there are sufficient funds belonging to the estate available for that purpose. The Clerk shall be entitled to his filing fee immediately upon the filing of the petition in the case. Where there are no assets and no Trustee has been appointed, in accordance with general order 15, the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of payment of the filing fees of the Referee and Trustee when a discharge has been granted or refused the bankrupt or a composition has been confirmed. If no application for a discharge has been made the case will be deemed closed for the purpose of said fees at the expiration of two months from the date of adjudication.

RULE XLVII.

Offers of composition in a bankruptcy case must comply with the law and forms and upon being filed with the Clerk shall be at once referred by him to the proper Referee. The Referee shall, if he deems proper, call a special meeting of creditors and give notice thereof to each creditor and if said offer be accepted in the manner prescribed by section XII, subdivision B, the Referee shall make an estimate of the consideration to be paid by the bankrupt to his creditors, the money necessary to pay all debts entitled to priority and the costs of the proceeding and require the deposit thereof in the designated depository subject to the order and to the credit of the Judge. When the deposit has been so made the bankrupt may file in the Clerk's office his motion to confirm said composition, in duplicate, the duplicate of which shall be immediately referred to the Referee who shall immediately give statutory notice thereof, in conformity with the provisions of General Order XXXII of the Supreme Court. If there be no appearance in opposition to the confirmation of the composition the Referee shall report that fact and keeping in view the provisions of Clause D of section XXII, he shall further report his recommendations thereon to the Judge. If any creditors appear in opposition to the composition and file specifications thereof, as provided by said General Order, the Referee shall proceed to hear the same and file his report containing his conclusions and recommendation accompanied by the pleadings and the evidence submitted to him upon such hearing and his certificate that the notices, wherever required, have been given as required by the Bankrupt Act and the rules of this court.

RULE XLVIII.

All reports of Referee shall remain on file in the Clerk's office at least five days before they will be taken up and considered by the Judge.

RULE XLIX.

The order confirming a composition shall be in the form prescribed by the General Orders of the Supreme Court of the United States Form No. 103, and shall be entered of record in the office of the Clerk of the proper division and a certified copy thereof delivered to the depository will be sufficient authority for it to transfer the funds deposited to the credit of the Judge to the Trustee or other officer designated for the distribution of the consideration.

RULE L.

Distribution of Deposit.

Upon the confirmation of a composition the Clerk shall notify the Referee who shall then cause to be prepared checks or warrants to be signed by the Trustee and countersigned by the Referee in the same manner as is usual in the administration of bankruptcy estates where dividends are declared and paid.

(Note.—The foregoing rules as to compositions shall not be intended to direct or control the proceedings in cases where offers of composition are made before adjudication but such cases shall be controlled by such orders as the court may make in that behalf.)

RULE LI.

Notice of Receiver's and Trustee's Commissions.

Ten days' notice shall be given of all applications of receivers and trustees to be allowed their commissions but no notice shall be necessary in cases where the application shows that the maximum commissions of such officers will not exceed fifty dollars.

RULE LII.

Return of Filing Fees.

Fees deposited by the petitioner in involuntary cases or by others than the bankrupt himself in voluntary cases shall be returned by the trustees in all cases where sufficient funds for such purpose come into the hands of the trustee.

RULE LIII.

Whenever the office of a Referee is vacant or its occupant is absent or disqualified and the Judge is absent from the judicial district, the Referee holding an appointment under this court whose office is nearest and most convenient to the district of such absent or disqualified Referee shall temporarily fill the vacancy unless he himself is absent or disqualified, in which case any other Referee may temporarily fill the vacancy. The court will apportion the fees and expenses of the Referees in such cases upon proper application.

The foregoing rules of practice in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fifth Circuit, are hereby adopted, and all rules and orders in conflict herewith are hereby rescinded.

This December 15, 1914.

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ALABAMA.

It is hereby ordered that the following Rules of Practice in Bankruptcy be and hereby are adopted as the Rules of this Court, to become effective July 1, 1916.

It is further ordered that all existing Rules of Practice in Bankruptcy not hereby adopted be and the same will become void and of no effect on and after the 30th day of June, 1916.

It is further ordered that the Clerk will enter these Rules on the Minute Book of the Court.

W. I. GRUBB, Judge.

May 27, 1916.

RULE I.

Forms of Petitions and Schedules.

All petitions must be either printed or typewritten, and shall show the full address of the bankrupt, including street and number. The schedules attached must be in single sheets of ordinary legal cap size. Schedule "A" must show, either in legible manuscript, or typewriting, the names of the creditors alphabetically arranged, their addresses, the character and consideration of the debt, placed in separate ruled columns, the amounts of the debts being carried out in a column properly ruled, the columns of debts footed up, and the totals carried forward. For disregard of this rule allowance of compensation to the attorney for the bankrupt for preparing and filing schedules may be refused.

RULE II.

Schedules in Involuntary Cases Referred to Referees.

In involuntary cases referred by the clerk to the referee, the referee shall, if the bankrupt fails within the time prescribed by law to file his schedules, as soon as practicable, make an order and cause a copy thereof to be mailed to, or personally served upon the bankrupt, to file in the court by a day named in said order, schedules in triplicate, under oath, and in the form hereinbefore prescribed, of all his creditors, giving their names, addresses, the amount due each, the consideration of the debt, and what security, if any, is held for the same; also a full and complete schedule of all his assets, showing the character, condition and location, and estimated value of each item; and in case such bankrupt be a corporation, such notice shall be directed to, or served upon the secretary or treasurer thereof, or upon such officer, agent or employee as shall have charge, or have had charge of the books of account of the corporation.

RULE III.

Proceedings Upon Petitions in Forma Pauperis.

When the petition of a proposed voluntary bankrupt, accompanied by an affidavit averring that the petitioner is without and cannot obtain the money with which to pay the filing fees required by the Act and the Three Dollars ($3) provided for by these rules, is offered for file, the clerk may, under oath, examine the petitioner, or his attorney, or both, touching the facts set forth in said affidavit. If from such examination it appears that the petitioner has, or can obtain the money with which to pay said filing fees, the clerk shall not be required to file the said petition unless ordered to do so by the court, or upon the payment of the fees, or unless a satisfactory arrangement with the court acting through the referee is made for future payment of such fees and expenses.

RULE IV.

Reference of Cases.

In the Southern Division of the Northern District of Alabama, the clerk in making distribution between the referees of cases filed shall classify separately all involuntary cases and all voluntary cases in which the bankrupt schedules assets in excess of the amounts which he could claim as exempt under the laws of Alabama, on the one hand, and all voluntary cases in which the assets scheduled by the bankrupt are equal to or less than the amount of his exemptions, on the other hand. The cases so filed of the first class shall be referred to each of the referees alternately, and the cases so filed of the second class shall be separately referred alternately to each of the referees by the clerk, upon filing.

RULE V.

Jurisdiction of Referee on Referred Cases.

Whenever a case shall be referred to a referee, either by special order of the Judge, or by the certificate of the clerk, the same shall be considered and treated as before and within the jurisdiction of the referee for all purposes, proceedings and orders that may be necessary or required in the case, including the appointment of receivers, and the granting of restraining orders, but excepting orders confirming compositions and granting discharges, as to which the jurisdiction of the Judge is exclusive.

RULE VI.

Notice to Creditors.

The referee shall cause notice of the first meeting of creditors to be published at least once, and mailed to each creditor as scheduled, at the place of residence as given in the schedule; and of all subsequent proceedings and hearings in the cause, as to which notice is required by the Act, or the rules of practice of this court, he shall cause notice to be mailed to each of the creditors as provided by law, or to their attorneys of record. When the length of time of notice is not prescribed by the Act or by any rule, the referee shall in his order fix such time as in his judgment shall seem best. The certificate of the referee filed with his record shall, in all cases and for all purposes, be evidence that notice has been published and mailed as required by the Act, the rules, or the order of the court.

RULE VII.

Place of Meetings.

When from an inspection of the schedules filed, or otherwise, it is made to appear to the referee that it will be most convenient for the parties in interest, the referee shall appoint the meetings of creditors to be held at the office of the referee, or at such other convenient place as he may select.

RULE VIII.

Setting Off Exemptions.

It shall be the duty of the referee, as soon as practicable after the adjudication, to set off and allow as exempt to the bankrupt the property claimed by him, if the same is exempt as prescribed by the Act, whenever no trustee has been appointed, or when it appears from the condition and character of the estate that there will be no other duty for a trustee to perform other than the collection and receipt of the property claimed as exempt, and the setting apart of the same to the bankrupt.

The claim of the bankrupt for such exemptions shall be contained in his schedules as prescribed by subdivision 8 of section 7 of the Act; and, if not so contained, the bankrupt shall not claim exemptions as matter of right.

RULE IX.Rule Nisi Touching Assets in Possession of Third Person.

Whenever it shall be made to appear to the referee that any property belonging to the estate of an adjudged bankrupt is in the possession or under the control of any person other than the bankrupt, it shall be his duty to issue an order directed to such person or persons commanding them to appear before him on a day to be named and show cause, if any there be, why such property should not be surrendered to the bankrupt court, or to its receiver or trustee, in case a receiver or trustee has been appointed; and in the event it shall appear that the property in question is property belonging to the estate of the bankrupt, and which the court has jurisdiction to administer, he shall order such person to surrender the same, and he may also order a writ of seizure to issue by the clerk under the seal of the court in the usual form directed to the marshal of the district in which the property is situate commanding him to take possession of such property, and hold the same subject to the orders of the court, or he may order the receiver or trustee as the case may be to take possession.

RULE X.Enforcement of Orders.

(a) Where a final order of court made by the Judge or a referee is a fixed liability to pay a certain sum or sums of money, or to do a certain defined act or acts, satisfaction or enforcement may also be compelled by the ordinary process of execution, writ of assistance and of sequestration and other court process.

(b) No payment by way of dividend, allowance, or other distributive share of an estate in bankruptcy, or delivery to a bankrupt of his exemptions, shall be made, if the person or party to whom payment or delivery otherwise should be made is in default with, or liable to, the estate in bankruptcy, until such default or liability is discharged. Such dividend, allowance or distributive share shall be applied by the court to, or towards, discharging such liability, and only the excess over be paid to such person or party.

(c) Property allowed to a bankrupt as exempt shall bear the necessary expense of its protection and preservation, and, if such expenses are not paid by the bankrupt, so much thereof may be sold under order of court as shall be sufficient to pay such expense and the expense of selling.

RULE XI.Service of Notices and Orders Issued by Referee.

The referee may designate any person to serve any order or notice issued by him, and the return of service by the person so designated, properly verified, shall be deemed and treated as sufficient service to support any subsequent action or orders predicated thereon.

RULE XII.Proceedings on Review From Referee.

In all cases in which a review is allowed by the Bankrupt Act to the District Judge from any decision or ruling of the referee, the party seeking the appeal must within five days after the ruling or decision, file in writing with the referee his petition for review, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the referee, if in his opinion a review is authorized by the Act, to certify the review to the Judge as provided by the Act and General Orders; but if the referee shall be of the opinion that no review is authorized by the Act, he shall so endorse upon the petition therefor, and the party to the petition may apply to the Judge in Chambers within ten days for a writ or order in the nature of a certiorari to the referee. A review shall not operate as supersedeas unless so ordered by the referee or the Judge, and bond may be required if supersedeas is ordered.

RULE XIII.

Bonds of Receivers and Trustees.

All bonds of receivers and trustees shall be kept on file in the office of the clerk of the court. When such bonds are approved by referees, they shall be transmitted forthwith to the clerk of the court who shall file the same and enter a record thereof in the bankruptcy dockets.

RULE XIV.

Depositors.

Banking institutions as depositors for moneys of bankruptcy estates shall be designated by orders entered for that purpose, and the clerk shall keep a list of authorized depositories open to the inspection of the public and shall furnish a copy thereof to each referee in the district.

RULE XV.

Deposits of Receivers and Trustees.

Referees, receivers and trustees shall deposit all moneys coming into their possession in designated depositories to their credit as follows:

"..... Referee, Receiver or Trustee
(Name of Referee, Receiver or Trustee) of Bankruptcy No. "
(Name of Bankrupt)

Receivers and trustees, upon the selection of a depository, shall in each case advise the referee in charge thereof of the name of such depository and shall also state in each report the name of the depository or depositories in which balances in their possession are on deposit.

RULE XVI.

Checks.

The referee before whom a case is pending is designated as the one to countersign all warrants and checks for the withdrawal of money from the depository under rule XXIX of the General Orders, unless otherwise specifically ordered by the Judge. The referee shall, except as to checks issued in conducting the business of the bankrupt, verify the correctness of all checks as to names and amounts before countersigning the same, and shall mail all checks countersigned direct to payees or attorneys authorized to receive the same. Before dividend checks are mailed, the referee shall enter, or cause to be entered, the amounts and dates of payment thereof in the proper columns of the claim docket.

RULE XVII.

Payment of Filing Fees by Trustee.

The trustee, in any case where he has money belonging to the bankruptcy estate, sufficient to pay the whole or part of the filing fees and other costs taxed in the clerk's office, may be ordered forthwith to deposit such money with the clerk of the court, to be by him applied to the payment of such fees and costs in the case.

RULE XVIII.

Payment of Referees' Fees.

The fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) provided by Section 40 of the Act of Congress relating to bankruptcies shall not be payable to the referee unless there is a general reference, or some question relating to the estate, or composition, or discharge is referred to the referee. The fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) for the referee prescribed in said Section 40 shall be payable within ten (10) days after each case has been closed; and for such purpose a case shall be considered as closed when an order is made that no trustee be appointed, as prescribed by General Orders in bankruptcy XV of the Supreme Court of the United States, and in cases of composition when the composition is confirmed and the case dismissed according to Section 12e of said Act.

RULE XIX.

Deposit for Publishing Notices and for Other Expenses.

Upon the filing of a petition in bankruptcy, the bankrupt shall deposit $3.00 with the clerk or the referee, as indemnity for the cost of publishing notices, clerical hire, stationery and other expenses necessarily incurred by the referee, and the receipt of such deposit shall be accounted for by the referee in the manner set forth in rule XX.

RULE XX.

Accounts of Referees.

Every referee shall keep in a well-bound book suitable for the purpose an itemized account showing all expenses necessarily incurred, by him for clerk hire, in publishing or mailing notices, in traveling, in perpetuating testimony, or other expense necessarily incurred in the performance of his duties. Such account shall also show all amounts received by the referee by way of reimbursement for such expenses, including the deposit of $3.00 in each case provided for in rule XIX.

On the first Tuesday in each month every referee shall submit to the Judge an itemized statement under oath of all amounts received for expenses and all disbursements made on account thereof during the preceding month.

RULE XXI.

Costs in Hearings Before Referees.

On hearings before the referees, unless otherwise ordered, the unsuccessful party litigant must pay the costs and expenses of such proceedings, and execution may issue for such costs.

On hearings before referees the unsuccessful party must pay the costs and expenses of the proceedings taxed against him, and deposit with the referee not less than the sum of Seven and 50/100 Dollars, before the referee is required to file or allow a petition for review. In the event the cost and expenses of the proceedings and the making of the certificate shall exceed the sum of Seven and 50/100 Dollars, then the petitioner for review must deposit a sufficient sum with the referee to cover the costs and expenses and the estimated cost of the review.

RULE XXII.

Commissions of Referees and Trustees.

The commission of referees shall be based on the amount of moneys disbursed to creditors, and the maximum allowance to trustees for commission shall be based on all moneys disbursed or turned over to any person, including lien holders, as is provided by the Bankruptcy Act. Such commissions of the referee and trustee shall not be payable in full until the order of final distribution has been made by the referee. Partial payments, however, may be made on such commissions during the course of administration, but in no instance shall such payments exceed the amount of commission that has accrued on the total amount of moneys actually disbursed or payments actually made.

RULE XXIII.

Receivers' Reports and Accounts.

Immediately upon the appointment and qualification of a trustee, the receiver shall turn over to said trustee all the money and property in the receiver's possession, taking the trustee's receipt therefor. The receiver shall file his report and account within ten days after the election of the trustee, unless such time be extended by the Judge or referee upon proper application and showing.

RULE XXIV.

Reports and Accounts of Trustees.

Every trustee shall file with his final report an account duly verified showing in detail the amount of money received by him as trustee, the amount disbursed and on what account disbursed, and the amount of funds remaining in his possession. Upon the filing of such final report and account, the referee shall call a final meeting of creditors upon a day to be named by him not less than ten days after the day on which said report and account are filed. At such final meeting of creditors the referee shall audit the account of the trustee, and shall enter an order approving the same, if it is found to be correct. At said final meeting the referee shall also pass upon all petitions for fees and allowances and shall order the final distribution of all funds in the hands of the trustee. Such funds shall be disbursed in open court at such final meeting or forthwith thereafter.

After all funds have been disbursed by the trustee in accordance with the orders of the referee, the trustee, unless final distribution was made in open court as above provided, shall file a supplemental report, and if it appears that the trustee has fairly and honestly administered said estate and duly accounted for all property or money coming to his hands in accordance with law, the referee shall enter an order discharging the trustee from his trust.

RULE XXV.

Referees' Dockets and Record Books.

Every referee shall keep a docket with a suitable index, in which shall be entered by cases the names of creditors and their attorneys, amounts scheduled, amounts claimed, dates on which claims are filed, amounts allowed, and amounts of dividends declared and dates of payment thereof.

Every referee shall also keep a docket, separate and distinct from that above mentioned, in which shall be entered the dates and character of all papers filed, all orders made, the dates and purposes of all meetings of creditors, and a record of all other proceedings before the referee. At the close of each case the referee shall prepare a transcript of the entries in this docket to which shall be attached all orders and the papers relating thereto and dividend sheets, arranged in chronological order and followed by a certificate that the case is closed, and the same shall be securely fastened between suitable covers. Such papers shall constitute the record book of the referee provided for in Section 42-a of the Bankruptcy Act, and the same shall be forthwith filed with the clerk of the court together with all papers on file in the referee's office.

RULE XXVI.

Files of the Clerk's Office.

No order signed by the Judge shall be delivered or transmitted to a referee, attorney, or other person, until the same has been filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the court. However, if the Judge deems it advisable, an order may be made in duplicate and the duplicate delivered or mailed to the referee having charge of the case, pending the filing and recording of the original order.

No attorney or other person shall take or carry away from the clerk's office files in any case or any order or paper belonging to the same without having obtained permission of the Judge, or the clerk by his direction, and when the files in any case or any order or other paper belonging thereto are taken under such permission, a card shall be placed in the file box by the clerk of the court showing the date on which the files or portions thereof were removed and the name of the person to whom the same were delivered.

RULE XXVII.

Attorneys and Fees of Receivers and Trustees.

(a) No receiver or trustee shall employ an attorney without having obtained authority by written order from the Judge or referee upon written application setting forth the necessity for such employment. Petitions for the allowance of attorneys' fees shall show in detail the amount and character of all services performed, and no attorney for a receiver or trustee shall be allowed compensation out of the assets of the estate for services other than for such as are reasonably necessary and of a strictly legal character.

(b) But one attorney's fee shall be allowed for representing the petitioning creditors; but one attorney's fee shall be allowed for representing the receiver or receivers; but one attorney's fee shall be allowed for representing the trustee or trustees, and but one attorney's fee shall be allowed for representing the bankrupt, and in each case such attorney's fees shall be for all services rendered by attorneys throughout the proceedings; and if any dispute arises between attorneys as to the distribution among themselves as to such fees, the matter shall be heard by the referee or the Judge and the apportionment as between themselves determined, provided temporary allowances may be made from time to time not to exceed the total fee which may be finally allowed.

(c) No allowance of any such fees for or on account of attorneys' services, or to a receiver or trustee, in a sum greater than one hundred dollars for his entire services shall be made or paid, except upon written approval of the Judge.

RULE XXVIII.

Notice to Bankrupt Regarding Applications for Discharge.

In each case in which an application for discharge has not been filed, the clerk of the court shall notify the bankrupt of that fact 30 days before the expiration of twelve months subsequent to the date of adjudication and shall advise him that such application can not be filed after the expiration of said period without permission from the Judge. The bankrupt shall also be advised in such notice of the amount of any fees or costs due and unpaid in the case.

RULE XXIX.

Proceedings Upon Petition for Discharge.

Upon the filing of a petition for discharge, the referee, in case the costs and expenses which have accrued in the cause have been paid, or otherwise to his satisfaction provided for, shall fix a time for the hearing of the same before the Judge in Chambers, as also a time within which parties in interest may enter appearance in opposition, and if no appearance in opposition shall be entered within the time limited, the referee shall so immediately certify to the Judge, and the order of discharge will issue as of course; but if appearance in opposition be entered within the time limited, and the specifications are filed as required by General Order XXXII, the referee will proceed thereafter to give notice to the bankrupt and to all creditors as prescribed by law, that he will proceed to take testimony touching the specification filed, which notice shall fix a date when the taking of the testimony shall be begun. Upon the completion of the testimony the referee shall certify the same and his conclusions of fact and law to the Judge for further action. For the purposes of taking such testimony and making such report all amendable defects or omissions in the specifications shall be considered as amended; and the pleadings, to meet the testimony, shall thereafter be settled by the Judge upon the hearing. Provided, however, that the referee shall not be required to hold such reference, and take such testimony without first having the costs for taking the same, including the expense of a stenographer and typewriter, advanced and deposited with him. For good cause shown the referee may extend the time within which the taking of the testimony shall be concluded.

As soon as any certificate or report provided for in this rule is filed by a referee, the same shall be laid before the Judge by the clerk of the court.

RULE XXX.

Proceedings Upon Proposed Compositions.

(a) A bankrupt desiring to offer terms of composition to his creditors shall express such desire in writing and file it with the clerk with the schedule of his property and the list of creditors required to be filed by bankrupts, if such schedule and list shall then not already have been filed. Thereupon the clerk will refer the case to the referee for preliminary hearing and report, who shall give ten days (10) notice thereof to creditors (1) for examination of the bankrupt, (2) for filing claims, (3) receiving and filing his offer of composition, with acceptances of creditors, (4) for filing and allowing claims not already allowed, (5) for hearing evidence upon the subject of whether or not the offer should be confirmed, and (6) reporting the same with his opinion thereon to the Judge concerning the offer and whether or not, in his opinion, it should be confirmed, and the estimated amount of consideration necessary to effect the composition, if confirmed. The bankrupt may file an amended offer of a greater consideration at such hearing or before or at the hearing for confirmation before the Judge. The opinion of the referee shall be advisory only, but it shall be his duty ex mero motu to investigate with care and report all matter, whether developed by strict legal testimony or not, which might influence or assist the Judge upon finally hearing the offer, and especially inquire into and report upon the points of whether or not there is reason to believe the bankrupt has made any fraudulent transfer or is concealing any assets. Additional testimony may be offered, by any person in interest, upon the final hearing before the Judge. On the day the report of the referee is filed with the clerk, the bankrupt shall file with the clerk his application for a confirmation, which day is the day when creditors are required to show cause as provided by General Order XXXII, of his offer as originally made or as amended. Thereupon the referee shall give ten days' (10) notice that such application will be heard by the Judge on a named day and hour. Though no creditors file specifications of opposition or make any objection to confirmation at or before the hearing, the confirmation of the offer shall not be made as of course; but the Judge shall fully inquire into the matter and refuse to confirm unless it is affirmatively shown to him that a decree of confirmation should be entered according to the provisions of section 12 of the Act.

(b) If the offer be confirmed the referee shall receive and distribute the consideration, and the case shall be thereafter considered as re-referred to him for such purpose and for filing and finally allowing claims, all of his orders being subject to review as in ordinary cases. If the consideration paid in is not sufficient to satisfy the offer as confirmed, the referee shall, from time to time, make, subject to review, orders to the bankrupt to pay in additional sums, and if such orders are not promptly obeyed, the referee, subject to review, may order a warrant to issue to the marshal to retake the estate and such substitutes thereof as may be found and hold the same for disposition under orders of the court. If any excess remains after the composition as confirmed is settled, it shall be returned to the bankrupt.

(c) Although a creditor be not shown on the schedule or list or named in the proceedings, he may nevertheless file his claim for allowance and participation, but if he fails to do so, his rights, whatever they be, shall be such as if this subdivision of this rule did not exist.

(d) Notwithstanding the confirmation of a composition and delivery of the estate in bankruptcy to the bankrupt, jurisdiction of the court over the bankrupt and of the estate and substitutes thereof and of parts thereof is retained to perfect and complete the composition as confirmed, and any and all the process and writs issuable out of a district court of the United States may issue to make completely effective the composition as finally confirmed.

(e) All orders of the court acting through the referee shall be final unless annulled or modified on review taken within five days as in other cases.

(f) When the consideration is completely distributed and settlement made according to the confirmation, the referee shall make report containing itemized statement of receipts and disbursements and file the same as in the office of the clerk of the court.

RULE XXXI.

Instructions to Referees.

(a) Referees are directed to exercise an active supervision over trustees to prevent delay in the settlement of estates. The provisions of section 47 of the Bankruptcy Act, requiring that trustees make reports every two months, and of section 65, requiring dividends to be paid thirty days after the adjudication, if there is sufficient money applicable thereto to pay same, and thereafter whenever there is sufficient money to pay a dividend of 10 per cent., should be strictly enforced. If any trustee, after due notice from the referee, neglects to make such reports, or to pay such dividends, or unreasonably delays, in any respect, the prompt settlement of the estate, the referee in charge is directed to make certificate of the facts and upon it to issue an order, returnable before the Judge on any motion day, requiring the trustee to show cause why he should not be removed.

(b) Referees are directed to make a report to the court at the close of each fiscal year of all asset cases which have not been closed and which have been pending before them more than fifteen months. Such reports shall contain the title and number of the case, the date when it was referred, and a concise statement showing what substantial proceedings have been had in the case, and why it has not been closed.

EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA.

It Is Ordered that the following rules be, and the same are hereby, prescribed and adopted as the rules governing the practice of this Court in bankruptcy proceedings:

I.

FIRST NAME OF BANKRUPT TO BE GIVEN IN FULL.

In petitions for adjudication of bankruptcy, whether voluntary or involuntary, the name of the bankrupt must be given in full. No adjudication of bankruptcy will be made, nor other proceedings be taken by the Referee, until either in the original petition or in amendment thereto duly made, the first name of the alleged bankrupt is set forth in full, and not by initial only.

II.

SCHEDULES.

The schedules of the bankrupt, and any amendment, shall state the names and addresses of the creditors and also the debtors of the bankrupt, in full, giving street number as well as post-office address.

III.

POWERS DELEGATED TO REFEREES.

(a) Referees heretofore, or hereafter, appointed for the Eastern District of Louisiana, are hereby vested with all the jurisdiction and powers which, by the said Bankruptcy Act and the General Orders of the Supreme Court, promulgated at the October term, 1898, the Court or Judge may delegate to such Referees.

This general order shall operate in lieu of a special order in each case.

(b) Referees may make rules for the guidance of proceedings before them within their respective territorial jurisdiction, and may from time to time alter and amend the same; provided, that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of said Bankruptcy Act or the General Orders of the Supreme Court, or the orders or rules of this Court.

IV.

REFEREES TO REGULATE EVIDENCE.

Referees shall pass and rule upon all questions pertaining to the admission or rejection of evidence in all proceedings before them, and, if desired, shall note on the record all objections made to the rulings thereon; where testimony is excluded, they shall, if requested, note a brief statement, by the party offering the same, of the facts he expects to prove thereby.

Referees shall limit the enquiry before them to relevant and material matter; and, in cases where an examination is unnecessarily prolonged, the Referee may in his discretion, limit the time of such examination, or he may impose costs, including the fees of the stenographer and other expenses, upon the party or parties responsible for the improper prolongation, and may require provision to be made for the payment of said costs, fees and expenses.

V.

ALLOWING AMENDMENTS BY REFEREES.

Referees are authorized to permit amendments to the petition and schedules upon the application of the bankrupt; and Referees may, of their own motion, require the bankrupt to amend his petition and schedules.

All amendments shall be made by petition addressed to the Judge or the Referee, who shall enter thereon an order allowing said amendments.

The amendments desired shall be set forth in triplicate schedules duly signed and sworn to by the bankrupt, and shall be filed, together with the petition and order, in the Clerk's Office. Two of the amended schedules shall be mailed by the Clerk to the Referee in charge of the proceedings.

VI.

AUTHORITY OF REFEREES IN ABSENCE OF JUDGE.

Whenever the Judge is absent from the district, but not otherwise, the Referee may take such steps for the preservation of the bankrupt's estate as may be necessary, including the appointment of Receivers, the disposal at public or private sale of perishable property, and the issuing of restraining orders.

VII.

ATTORNEYS.

Trustees may employ attorneys when authorized by the creditors at any called meeting; but no attorney who has represented the bankrupt or any creditor in the proceedings shall be employed by the trustee, except for good cause shown.

No fees shall be paid attorneys until proof of debt for same is filed, the amount approved by the trustee, and the creditors given at least ten days' notice.

The employment of attorneys and the amount of their fees shall be in all cases subject to the approval of the Court.

Receivers shall not employ counsel except upon the authorization of the Court.

VIII.

DECREES OF REFEREES—WHEN SIGNED.

All decrees rendered by Referees shall be signed not sooner than three (3) clear days after rendition, and shall become final ten (10) clear days thereafter, unless appealed from.

IX.

ACCOUNTS OF RECEIVERS.

After adjudication and reference every Receiver's account shall be sworn to and filed with the Referee not later than ten days after the trustee shall have qualified, unless the time for filing said account is extended by the Referee. After ten days' notice to the creditors, the said account shall be heard by the Referee. Oppositions to the same shall be in writing, and shall be filed previous to the day fixed for said hearing, and, if no oppositions be presented to the Referee, he may approve the account and discharge the Receiver.

X.

REVIEW OF REFEREE'S RULING BY THE JUDGE.

When a review by the Judge of any order, ruling or decision of a Referee is desired, an objection shall be made and noted on the record at the time of the ruling or the order objected to, and an assignment of errors shall be presented to the Referee for his signature within the time allowed for an appeal, which assignment of errors, when signed by the Referee, may be filed with the Clerk by any party in interest.

A failure to comply with this rule shall be held a waiver of the right to review, unless on special order thereafter made by the Referee or Judge. The opinion and decision of the Judge shall be returned by the Clerk to the Referee.

Whenever practicable, the Referee shall annex to the assignment of errors his reasons for the order, ruling or decision complained of.

XI.

PETITIONS IN FORMA PAUPERIS.

In case a petition is filed by a proposed voluntary bankrupt accompanied by an affidavit under subdivision 2 Section 51 of said Bankruptcy Act, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to file said petition without exacting the payment of the fees provided for by said Bankruptcy Act (Section 51, A.). The Clerk may request the Referee to examine into the truth of such affidavit, and the Referee may, of his motion, make such an examination.

If upon examination the Referee should find that the bankrupt is not entitled to relief from payment of the filing fees, as provided in the aforementioned section of the Bankruptcy Act, and that at the time of said examination the bankrupt has or can obtain the money with which to pay said fees, the Referee shall order him to pay said fees within a time specified by said Referee, and if the bankrupt fails to comply with said order, such facts shall be certified by the Referee to the Judge, for dismissal of the petition as provided in General Order XXXV (4) in Bankruptcy, adopted by the Supreme Court of the United States.

XII.INDEMNITY EXPENSES FOR REFEREES.

Pursuant to Section 30 of the Bankruptcy Act of July 1st, 1898, and of Rules X and XXXV (2) of General Orders in Bankruptcy.

Until further orders, the Referees shall be allowed as indemnity for expenses incurred by them, the following rates:

1. Cash paid for advertisements.
2. For all clerical aid in preparing advertisements and notices to creditors of first meeting, mailing the same, and making proof thereof, keeping register, files and records, and preparing typewritten memoranda of proceedings, prior to the first meeting of creditors, including stationery, envelopes, printing, letters, messages and all petty expenses, five ($5.00) Dollars.
3. For similar clerical aid, etc., in calling and holding meetings of creditors to consider offer of composition, Five ($5.00) Dollars.
4. For similar clerical aid, etc., in calling and holding each and every other lawfully called meeting of creditors, Five ($5.00) Dollars.
5. For use of office and for clerical aid and for taking and keeping notes and records of proceedings at each called meeting and each postponed meeting and at each hearing on interlocutory orders, or for other proceedings ($3.00).
6. For any of the meetings as hereinabove provided for, the referee shall charge ten cents (10 cts.) for each notice in excess of twenty (20), the number of creditors in each case to be stated in the referee's final report to the court.
7. For all necessary clerical aid in the care of creditors' proofs of claims after filing, including endorsing, recording, arranging and preserving them, and exhibiting and furnishing information concerning the same as required by law, twenty-five cents (25 cts.) for each claim, to be paid out of the estate of the bankrupt.
8. For certifying each copy of orders or other papers twenty-five cents, (25 cts.).
9. Whenever the petition and schedules in a bankruptcy case shall be referred to the Referee, he shall give notice to the bankrupt or his attorney, of the amount of costs necessary to be advanced for the calling of the first meeting of creditors or any other necessary expenses incident to the administration of the estate, as provided under this rule; and the bankrupt, his attorney, or any other party who may advance these costs shall have the same refunded to him out of the assets of the estate, as provided in General Order X adopted by the Supreme Court of the United States.

XIII.FINAL ACCOUNTS OF TRUSTEES.

The final account of the Trustee, in all cases, shall be sworn to and filed with the Referee, who shall send notices, by mail, to the creditors of the time when and the place where said account will be examined and passed upon.

Trustees shall in their final accounts, marshal and rank all claims against the bankrupt in accordance with Section 64 of said Bankruptcy Act. The final account shall also state the gross amount of money on hand, and the several sources from which same has been obtained.

If taxes have been paid by the Trustee prior to the filing of the final account, or if taxes are due, the final account shall state what taxes have been paid or are due.

All objections to the final account shall be in writing, and shall be filed before the Referee previous to the time fixed for the examination of the account.

Where the bankrupt has no property, other than such as is exempt, and no assets have come to the hands of the Trustee, it shall be unnecessary to call a final meeting of creditors, and the Trustee shall be entitled to secure a discharge from his trust by filing a report duly sworn to, with the Referee, stating such fact and making it appear to the satisfaction of the Referee that there is no property of the bankrupt available as assets of the estate.

XIV.

SALES.

1. The Referee may order the sale of real or personal property at public or private sale, after due appraisalment in accordance with section 70 b of said Bankruptcy Act. The appraisers shall be appointed by the Referee.

2. Real estate may be sold either for cash or partly on credit and partly for cash, the credit portion of the price to be secured by usual vendor's privilege, mortgage and other security clauses. All sales of real estate shall be made at the court house door in country parishes, at the Real Estate Exchange in the city of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, or upon the premises, if the Referee so directs, after advertisement in the paper designated in the parish in which said property is situated, once a week for four weeks, unless for good cause shown, the sale or advertisement is otherwise directed by vote of the creditors or by order of the Referee.

3. All sales of personal property shall be made at such place and after such advertisement as the creditors may direct or the Referee order.

4. Upon vote or upon petition of a majority of the creditors, in number and amount, whose claims have been filed and allowed, the Referee may upon good cause shown, authorize the Trustee to employ a duly licensed auctioneer to sell the real estate or personal property, said auctioneer's compensation for the sale of real estate not to exceed two (2%) per cent on the first Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars realized and one (1%) per cent on amounts in excess of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars. Upon sales of movables said compensation shall not exceed five (5%) per cent of the amount realized.

5. When property is burdened with liens or mortgages, same may be made clear of said liens and mortgages before being sold, by rule to cancel said encumbrances, to be heard before the Referee after notice to the lienors or mortgagors.

6. Lienors or mortgagors may bid upon such property when sold and upon special order of the Referee may use their valid lien indebtedness or part thereof by way of settlement of the purchase price.

7. The Referee may make or order sales of perishable property, at public auction, through an auctioneer duly appointed by him, or through the marshal, at such place and in such manner as the Referee may determine, but such sales must bring at least seventy-five (75%) per cent of the appraised value of said property, as provided by Section 70 b of the Bankruptcy Act.

8. All orders for the sale of real estate, together with a description of the property shall be recorded in the office of the Clerk of Court at New Orleans in the Sales Book kept by him.

XV.

COMPOSITIONS.

Bankrupts offering composition shall apply to the referee to call a meeting of creditors to consider same. After composition has been accepted by a majority of the creditors, according to law, the consideration to be paid to creditors, and the money necessary to pay all debts which have priority and the costs of the proceedings, shall be deposited in one of the designated depositories.

Application for confirmation of composition (form No. 61) shall be filed with the Clerk, accompanied by certificate of the Referee that Section 12 b has been complied with. The Clerk shall thereupon, notify all creditors by mail, to show cause within ten days why said composition should not be confirmed. If no objection is made within the time specified, the composition shall be confirmed as of course. The Clerk shall be entitled to 10 cts. for each notice sent to the creditors.

In case of opposition the matter shall be set for a hearing before the Judge, and all parties notified by mail, and he may either determine the matter or refer same to the referee as special master for hearing and report.

XVI.

NOTICES: HOW SERVED.

Notice of petitions or motions filed with the Referee for interlocutory or other orders in any Bankruptcy case shall be given as directed by the Referee.

Th person giving the notice shall make his return to the Referee in the form of an affidavit, with the copy of the notice annexed, showing the method of service.

XVII.

DEPOSITORIES AND CHECKS.

All funds coming into the possession of trustees and receivers shall be forthwith deposited in one of the designated depositories.

No money shall be withdrawn from the depositories except upon the check of the Trustee, countersigned by the Referee, and bearing the name of the person to whom payable, and the title of the cause.

In composition proceedings the funds necessary to pay all debts which have priority and the costs of the proceedings shall be deposited in the proper bank as herein provided, in the name and number of the bankruptcy case and to the order of the Judge, who shall direct by special order in each case, the party or parties by whom such funds shall be withdrawn. A certified copy of said order, sent by the Clerk to the Bank where said funds are deposited, shall be authority for the withdrawal of said funds.

The Clerk shall furnish depositories with a copy of this rule.

XVIII.

PROCEDURE ON APPLICATIONS FOR DISCHARGE.

Petitions for discharge shall be filed with the Clerk who shall at once notify the trustee and all known creditors of the bankrupt, by mailing them copies of the petition and order, to show cause within thirty days why said discharge should not be granted, and shall publish said order once according to law. If no opposition be filed within the time specified, the discharge shall be granted as of course.

In case of opposition the matter shall be set for a hearing before the Judge, and all parties notified by mail, and he may either determine the matter or refer same to the Referee as special Master, for hearing and report.

The clerk shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for each copy of said petition and order.

XIX.

BANKRUPT'S COSTS ON DISCHARGE.

The bankrupt shall be entitled to receive out of his estate the costs necessary for his discharge, provided there are sufficient assets to first pay all other costs, and provided further, the trustee is requested in writing to set aside the same, before distribution of the assets, and application for discharge is made not later than sixty days after adjudication.

XX.

FEES OF CLERK, REFEREE AND TRUSTEE—WHEN PAID.

The Trustee's fee of Five Dollars, deposited with the Clerk, shall be paid to the Trustee upon the certificate of the Referee that the services of the Trustee have been actually rendered and that the case has been closed. He shall be paid such commission as may be allowed by the Referee, under Section 48 of the Bankruptcy Act, upon order of the Referee, as soon as same accrues and is earned. The Referee shall be paid his commission at the same time.

In every case, except where a petition in forma pauperis is filed, the Clerk shall be entitled, when the petition is filed, to receive the filing fee of ten dollars. The Clerk shall pay to the Referee the Fifteen Dollars deposited as fees of the Referee upon receiving the latter's certificate that the case has been closed and that his services have been rendered. Where there are no assets the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of the payment of fees to the Referee and Trustee after the first meeting of creditors has been held.

XXI.

DISMISSAL OF BANKRUPTCY CASES WHEN NOT PROSECUTED.

The first meeting of creditors shall be called by the Referee to whom the proceedings in bankruptcy are referred, within the time specified under Section 55 of the Bankruptcy Act, and should the Bankrupt, after notice from the Referee, as provided by Rule XII, 9, of this Court, fail to advance, or have advanced the costs necessary for the calling of said meeting, within the time specified by the aforesaid Section 55 of the Act, the Referee shall certify such facts to the Judge, for the dismissal of the proceedings in bankruptcy, for failure to prosecute.

XXII.

AS TO WITHDRAWAL OF RECORDS.

The Clerk shall not permit the record in any cause to be taken out of his office.

The foregoing rules shall supersede all rules now in force and shall become operative on the 1st day of February 1910.

(Signed) RUFUS E. FOSTER, Judge.

WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON, N. D.

RULE I.

Records.

Referees shall keep minutes of all meetings of creditors and examinations of parties and witnesses and of all other proceedings conducted before them, and make lists of claims proved, and furnish typewritten transcripts of the minutes and lists of proved claims, in each case to be part of the record. The record in each case shall consist of the original petition, each paper filed including proofs of debt and depositions, all orders, whether made by the court, Judge, Clerk, or Referee, and the Referee's minutes. Each record shall be certified by the Clerk to be the complete record in the case.

RULE II.

Records to be Bound.

The record in each case shall be bound in one or more volumes, not more than 800 sheets to be included in one volume. The volume shall be made by stitching or fastening the papers through the top margin so that the hinge will be at the top. If the complete record contains 100 sheets or less, heavy paper of good quality may be used for covers, volumes of more than 100 sheets must be substantially bound in leather or other material equal to leather in durability, and must be indexed.

RULE III.

Size and Quality of Paper.

That records may be made conformably to Rules 1 and 2, all papers intended to be filed and all orders and transcripts must be printed or legibly written or typewritten without interlineations or erasures except slight corrections which must be attested by the Clerk or Referee, with his initials in the margin before filing. The paper used must be of good quality and not larger than half flat cap size, that is to say, eight and one-half inches wide and fourteen inches from the top edge to the lower edge, nor less than eight inches by twelve and one-half inches. Only one side of the sheet must be written upon, except that indorsements may be upon the reverse side. There must be a blank margin of at least one and one-half inches at the top and at least one inch wide on the left hand edge of each page. All papers must be plainly indorsed with the title and number of the case and the name or nature of the paper before filing. The Clerk and Referees shall refuse to file papers which do not conform to the requirements of this rule.

RULE IV.

Expense of Making Up and Binding Records.

The actual expense of making transcripts of the Referee's minutes, and binding the record, must be paid by the bankrupt, or out of his estate, before a discharge will be granted. In involuntary cases where the decision is adverse to the petitioners, the expenses of completing and binding records will be taxed as costs against them.

RULE V.

Letters of Attorney and Appearances of Attorneys for Creditors.

Attorneys admitted to practice in this court or in the United States Circuit Court for this district, who represent any petitioner or creditor, must file a notice of appearance in writing and duly signed; other agents or attorneys in fact must file a general or special letter of attorney executed by their principals.

RULE VI.

Address of Creditors.

Schedules containing lists of creditors must state the residence of each, with particularity as to city or town, street and number, or the post-office address, if known.

RULE VII.

Office Expenses of Referee.

Referees shall be entitled to charge in addition to actual expenses incurred by them in each case, a reasonable amount to meet their expenses for office rent and furniture necessary for transacting their official duties and keeping safely the papers and records belonging to bankrupt estates, provided that the charge for office rent and furniture shall not exceed five dollars in a contested case of involuntary bankruptcy, nor three dollars in any other case.

RULE VIII.

Custody of Papers.

The original papers filed in the office of the Clerk shall not be taken from the Clerk's custody except by the Referee for use during the pendency of a reference, and while in the custody of the Referee they may be examined at his office, but shall not be taken from the custody of the Referee by any person on any pretext whatever, until the Referee himself shall return them to the Clerk's office.

RULE IX.

Proof of Publication.

Proof of publication of all notices required to be published shall be made by the affidavit of the publisher or business manager of the newspaper and must be accompanied by and refer to a printed copy of the notice published, and must state the name of the paper and place of publication and the date or dates of each appearance of the notice in the paper.

RULE X.

Indemnity for Expenses.

In each case referred the Referee may require as indemnity for his expenses a deposit of ten dollars in money from the petitioner or petitioners, which amount shall be accounted for, and any surplus remaining shall be repaid. If further proceedings are necessary after the amount of the deposit has been exhausted, the Referee may require a further advance from the moving party of an amount sufficient to cover whatever expenses may be necessary.

RULE XI.

Expense Fee for Filing Claims.

To cover the expenses of the Referee's office for clerical assistance in filing and listing claims, Referees will collect from creditors a fee of fifteen cents for each claim presented.

RULE XII.

Time for Filing Claims Not Scheduled.

Claims against a bankrupt estate, not scheduled by the bankrupt, must be presented to the Referee on or before the thirtieth day after the first meeting of creditors. Referees will send by mail to each creditor who shall have presented proof of his claim, a copy of each proof of debt not scheduled by the bankrupt; and to cover the expense for stationery and clerical assistance required in mailing such copy, they will collect from the person, firm or company presenting such unscheduled claim twenty cents for each copy to be sent.

RULE XIII.

Opposition to Allowances of Claims and Preferences.

Creditors and other interested parties having objection to the allowance of any claim against a bankrupt estate, or who wish to contest the validity or justness of any lien or priority of any debt of a bankrupt, must specify the grounds of their opposition in writing, and present the same to the Referee on or before the fifth day after the first meeting of creditors, as to all debts, liens and preferences scheduled by the bankrupt; and as to all claims not scheduled, the opposition must be presented to the Referee on or before the twentieth day after the mailing to creditors of copies of such additional claims, as required by the twelfth rule.

RULE XIV.

Proceedings in Forma Pauperis.

When the petition of a voluntary bankrupt is presented, accompanied by the prescribed affidavit, the Clerk will file the petition and docket the case. As the case progresses, the petitioner must pay the necessary expenses, and, before a final discharge will be granted, he must also pay the amount of compensation allowed to the Clerk, Referee, and Trustee, or else make a showing to the satisfaction of the Court that, by reason of ill health or circumstances of peculiar misfortune, he is a worthy subject of charity.

RULE XV.

Referees—Their General Powers.

There shall be and hereby is conferred upon each and all of the Referees in bankruptcy of the above named Court, authority and power to do and perform each and every act which courts of bankruptcy can do or perform (except as to questions arising out of the application of bankrupts for composition discharge) in every matter which may be hereafter referred generally at any state of the proceedings therein, unless in the order referring said matter the power and authority of the Referee shall be expressly restricted. And upon such general reference, the Referee to whom the matter shall have been referred shall have power and authority and it shall be his duty to proceed in the matter as the Judge of said Court might do or have done if the matter had not been so referred.

[While there is no written rule to that effect, it is the practice of the Court in this division of this district to require the bankrupt to file an affidavit known as the "Final Affidavit of Bankrupt," in which all those things which would be a bar to his discharge, as set out in section 14, subdivision B of the Act, are negatived, before an order of discharge will be signed.]

DISTRICT OF OREGON.

RULE I.

Review of Referee's Decisions.

When any question is certified here for review of the decision of a Referee, the record so transmitted shall be filed by the Clerk, who shall forthwith notify the parties or their counsel; and unless the parties within ten days thereafter appear to request a hearing in this Court before the Court or Judge on the question so certified, the same shall be disposed of by the Court or Judge on the record, without further hearing unless ordered by the Court or Judge.

RULE II.

Practice on Objections to Discharge of Bankrupt.

A. When specifications in objection to the discharge of a bankrupt are made a copy of such specifications shall, before the same are filed, be served upon the bankrupt or his attorney and proof of such service made upon the original, and the bankrupt may, within ten days from the date of such service, demur, answer or otherwise plead to such specifications, but not otherwise.

B. At the expiration of ten days from the filing of the specifications, the record so made up on such objections shall thereupon be forthwith, by an order filed by the Clerk, referred to the Referee having jurisdiction of the cause, as special master, to take the testimony for and against the specifications, and report the same back to this Court, together with his findings of fact and law.

RULE III.

Idem.

Upon the coming in of the Referee's report, the procedure prescribed in Rule I shall apply in all contested applications for discharge as to a hearing upon the merits in this Court.

RULE IV.

Orders Made by the Clerk of Course.

In all voluntary cases, when the Judge is in the district, and no objections are on file, the Clerk shall, upon filing the petition for adjudication, as of course, enter of record and file the order of adjudication and order referring the cause to the proper Referee; and in pauper cases and in cases where the costs incident to the bankrupt's petition for discharge are payable out of the estate, and in such other cases as moneys are, or may be, payable out of the estate for the purpose of administration, the Clerk shall enter the order for the payment of all such fees and costs; and when no objections are on file to the discharge of a bankrupt the Clerk shall also enter the order of discharge as of course.

RULE V.

Transmission of Trustee's Bonds and Lists of Claims.

Referees are required to promptly transmit to the Clerk of this Court complete lists of all claims filed against estates before them for administration, and are likewise required to forward to the Clerk the bonds of Trustees in all cases.

RULE VI.

Expenses of Referee — Indemnity for.

In order to facilitate the prompt closing of "no asset" cases, the Referee may exact from the bankrupt an amount sufficient to cover the expense of mailing and publishing notices, as provided in General Order No. X, but no more, and upon failure of the bankrupt to pay such amount that fact may be certified to the Court for the proper action.

RULE VII.

Additional Fees of Referee and Trustee.

No compensation or fees in addition to those provided by law will be allowed to Referees or Trustees under the guise of "office expenses," "clerk hire," etc., and Referees are required to transmit to the Clerk a detailed account of expenses claimed by the Referee or Trustee incident to the administration of any estate for approval or disapproval, before such estate is finally closed and the record certified up.

Now, at this day, it is ordered that from and after this date the cost to be collected by the Clerk in bankruptcy proceedings for process and notices to creditors upon petition for discharge shall be the sum of twenty cents per notice for each notice sent — July 3, 1914.

Review of Order of Referee — Time to File Petition and Record.

In all cases in which a review by this Court of the action or decision of the Referee in bankruptcy is sought, the petition for review must be filed with the Referee within twenty days from the date of the order or action sought to be reviewed. And thereupon, the Referee, whose action or decision to be reviewed is sought, shall, within ten days from the date the petition for review is filed with him, file in this Court all the records and papers, or certified copies thereof, necessary to a hearing in this Court.

(Amendment adopted December 2, 1914.)

Receivers in Bankruptcy Cases — Showing Required — Not to Incur Expense.

Receivers shall not be appointed in bankruptcy cases in any event unless it is first made to appear by affidavit that such appointment is necessary in order to preserve the estate, pending the election of a trustee, and no Receiver when appointed shall incur any expense (except as shall be necessary to preserve the estate), either in making inventory, employing assistants or counsel or otherwise without first making application to the Court or Referee showing the necessity therefor, and obtaining authority to do so.

(Amendment adopted September 28, 1914.)

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA.

RULE I.

The referee will not be allowed expenses on account of clerk hire, or for traveling or other expenses, to which he may be entitled under General Order XXXV, unless the claim therefor, accompanied by proper vouchers, when vouchers can be procured, is presented to and approved by the Judge.

RULE II.

The clerk shall immediately upon receipt thereof deposit with a depository of public moneys of the United States, in trust, and to the credit of said clerk in his official capacity, all moneys collected by him for the payment of fees of referees and trustees, under the Bankruptcy Act, and shall on the first day of each regular term, present to the Court a statement, showing all moneys received by him during the preceding term, and also the balance in such trust fund; said statement to show in detail cases in which such moneys have been received, and in what cases disbursements have been made, and said statement and vouchers accompanying the same, shall be filed in Court.

RULE III.

The petition by or against a person in bankruptcy, shall be presented and heard only in open Court; and all motions or applications for orders in any bankruptcy proceeding, except such as are addressed to the referee in bankruptcy, will be heard only at the beginning of the morning session of the Court.

RULE IV.

When a petition for voluntary adjudication in bankruptcy is accompanied by an affidavit stating that the petitioner is without and cannot obtain the money with which to pay the fees allowed by law to the clerk, referee and trustee, the matter of the ability of the petitioner to pay such fees shall under this rule, and without further order, stand referred to the referee to whom the case in bankruptcy is referred, to take and report the testimony of the petitioner in relation to his ability to pay such fees.

RULE V.

Checks or warrants drawn pursuant to No. XXIX of the General Orders in Bankruptcy, adopted and established by the Supreme Court of the United States, November 29, 1898, shall be countersigned by the referee having jurisdiction of the case to which the moneys so drawn against belong.

Copies of this rule and of said general order shall be furnished by the clerk of this Court to each depository within this district.

RULE VI.

When there are no assets and no trustee has been appointed, and no application for a trustee is pending, after a meeting of creditors duly called, the case shall be deemed closed for the purpose of the payment by the clerk to the referee of the deposit for his services when a discharge has been granted or refused to the bankrupt, or when three months have elapsed after the first meeting of creditors without an application by the bankrupt for his discharge.

Where a trustee has been appointed, the case shall be deemed closed, and the deposit for his services paid to him on the confirmation of a composition, or an approval of the trustee's final account and payment of the final dividend, or upon the trustee's verified report that no assets have come into his hands or were discoverable. When the case is closed, if no trustee has been appointed, the deposit for trustee's services shall be paid by the clerk to the bankrupt, or to his attorney for the use of said bankrupt.

RULE VII.

Questions certified by the referee to the Judge of this Court for his opinion, shall be placed on the calendar for argument, and heard, and submitted to the Court for decision, at the opening of the Court on the first Saturday after the filing of the certificate with the clerk, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

RULE VIII.

Discharge and Composition.

Application for the discharge of the bankrupt, or for confirmation of a composition, duly verified, should be filed in the first instance with the referee in charge, who will thereupon fix a day for the hearing before the Judge, which may be upon any Saturday at 10 a. m., and give the requisite notices thereof to all creditors or other persons interested, and thereafter transmit to the clerk of the Court two days prior to the return day, due proof of the service of such notices, together with the petition for discharge or composition. On the return day, the default of all creditors not appearing in opposition to the discharge or composition shall be entered. Upon due filing of written specifications of the grounds of opposition to the discharge or composition, the same shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, be referred to the referee in charge to take the proofs and testimony offered by the parties, and to ascertain and report the facts. The hearing thereon before the referee may be brought on by either party on four days' notice to the other.

RULE IX.

A petition for a review by the Judge of an order made by the referee, as provided in General Order No. XXVII of the General Orders in Bankruptcy, must be filed with the referee within ten days from the date of notice of such order, unless, for good cause shown, such time is extended.

RULE X.

A person entitled to file a petition for review, or a petition for the re-examination of any claim filed against the bankrupt's estate, shall at the time of filing, deposit with the referee, such sum as the referee may designate as required to cover the cost of such proceeding.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA.

RULE I.

Checks or warrants drawn pursuant to No. XXIX of the General Orders in Bankruptcy, adopted and established by the Supreme Court of the United States, November 29, 1898, shall be countersigned by the Referee having jurisdiction of the case to which the moneys so drawn against belong. Copies of this rule and of said general order shall be furnished by the Clerk of this Court to each depository within the district.

 RULE IX.

It is ordered, that the Referees in Bankruptcy in said Court be, and are hereby vested with jurisdiction in all bankruptcy cases within the limits of their respective counties, to perform all the duties conferred on Courts of Bankruptcy, which Referees may be required or authorized to perform; except as otherwise provided by General Order in Bankruptcy, No. XII.

RULE XI.

The Clerk shall deliver to the Referee a copy of the order of reference, or transmit the same by mail to the Referees having their offices outside of the city of Los Angeles, and thereafter all proceedings, except such as are required by the Bankruptcy Act, to be had before the Judge, shall be had before the Referee, who shall fix the time when and the place where he will act upon the matters arising in the case.

RULE XII.

The petition for a discharge, or for a confirmation of a composition, must be filed with the Clerk of the Court. No discharge will be granted in any case until there has been filed with the Clerk a report or certificate of the Referee, to whom said case shall have been referred, that the bankrupt has in all things conformed to the requirements of the Act, and that he has committed none of the offenses and done none of the things prohibited in subdivision b of section 14 of the Act, and that he is in the opinion of the Referee, entitled to his discharge.

Adopted November 27, 1914.

RULE XIII.

The order to show cause why a discharge should not be granted may be entered by the Clerk, or his deputy, and notice, stating the time and place of the hearing, must be given, as provided in section 58 of the Act, as amended June 25, 1910, to all known creditors and other persons in interest, by mail, and publication once, at least thirty (30) days prior to said hearing. If no creditor or other party in interest appears and opposes, the discharge shall be granted. In case a creditor or other party in interest desires to oppose the granting of the discharge, he shall appear on the return day, and thereafter file a verified specification of the ground of his opposition, as provided in General Order XXXII.

RULE XIV.

All moneys deposited with the Clerk for the fees of the Referee and Trustee and the expenses of bankruptcy proceedings shall be deposited by the Clerk in a designated depository of the United States, in an account to be known as the "Bankruptcy Account" of the Clerk of this Court; said moneys to be subject to checks signed by the Clerk.

(Promulgated January 25, 1915.)

* No intervening rules in bankruptcy.

RULE XV.

Both in voluntary and involuntary cases the fees and commissions of Referees and Trustees shall be paid immediately after such fees and commissions accrue and are earned.

RULE XVI.

In each case referred to the Referee, the Referee may require as indemnity for his expenses, and be entitled to collect in advance of services to be rendered, and shall be allowed, costs and expenditures in accordance with the following schedule:

1. Amounts required to be paid for advertising.
2. For all clerical aid in preparing advertisements and notices to creditors of first meeting, mailing the same, and proof thereof, keeping register, files and records, and preparing typewritten memoranda of proceedings prior to the first meeting of creditors, including stationery, envelopes, printing, letters, messages and all petty expenses..... $5 00
(In the final account this item may be called "clerical aid, etc., prior to first meeting").
3. For similar clerical aid for each of the matters mentioned in section 58, subdivision a, to be paid by the person or persons at whose instance and request said meeting is held..... 5 00
4. If notices to creditors exceed 25 in number, in addition to the above for each notice in excess of 25 (the number of creditors to be stated)..... 10
5. For clerical aid in taking and keeping notes and records of proceedings at first meeting of creditors up to choice or appointment and qualification of Trustee 2 50
6. For every other meeting of creditors, including any and every adjourned meeting 1 50
7. For clerical aid in taking and perpetuating testimony on the examination of the bankrupt or other persons before the Referee, the actual expenses of the stenographer, not exceeding $10 a day, and when the same is transcribed then an additional rate shall be allowed of ten cents per folio for taking and transcribing.
8. For certifying question to the Judge for review, with necessary record.. 3 00 and for making copies of orders or other papers, each..... 50 if exceeding one page..... 25
Additional for each page, to be paid by the party ordering it.
- For certifying to any order..... 50
- For certificate of Referee on application for discharge..... 2 00

RULE XVII.

No Receiver or Trustee in bankruptcy heretofore or hereafter appointed or elected in any bankruptcy proceeding, in this district, shall hereafter employ an attorney at the expense of the bankrupt estate, except on the order of the Court or Referee, based on a petition showing the reasons and necessity for the employment, and the name of the attorney it is proposed shall be employed. Attorneys employed in violation of this rule shall receive no compensation.

Adopted November 19, 1915.

RULE XVIII.

Upon the filing of a petition for discharge in a bankruptcy matter, the bankrupt shall be required to pay to the Clerk the sum of two dollars to cover the cost of mailing notices to creditors.

RULE XIX.

No order to show cause why a discharge should not be granted in a bankruptcy matter shall be placed upon the calendar for hearing until the Referee's certificate of compliance and the affidavit of publication shall have been on file in the Clerk's office for five days prior to the date for hearing.
